

Biden To Address Lake Forest Commencement

United States Senator Joseph Biden will address approximately 207 Lake Forest High School seniors as they receive their diplomas in commencement exercises set for the football stadium this Sunday, June 7, at 5 p.m. In the event of rain, the ceremonies will be moved to the auditorium. In that case, attendance would be limited to the four ticket holders for each graduate. But if fair weather prevails, there will be additional seating in the grandstands and bleachers flanking the field. During the ceremonies, four Lake Forest graduates who have earned top honors will speak to their classmates and the guests assembled. Valetictorian for the Class of 1981 is Patrik David Williams; the Salutatorian is Brenda Lee Dixon. Third and fourth honor addresses will be delivered by Theima Jean Tucker and Lisa Lynn Wyatt, respectively.

A further highlight of the commencement program will be the presentation of the Lake Forest Board of Education Awards for Excellence in Scholarship to the top 5 percent of the graduating class and the announcement of the High School Department Awards. These presentations will be made by Lake Forest High School Principal, Dr. Margaret Phelps. A number of seniors have been honored as recipients of a variety of awards and scholarships. Some of these have already been announced; others will come at a special awards assembly to be held this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. All of these will be included in the printed commencement program. The climax to the commencement ceremonies and to four years of work and study will come as Lake Forest Superintendent William E. Cline presents the graduating class of 1981 to Lake Board of Education President Cliff Chambers who will award the diplomas. The Reverend Conrad F. Riley, Jr., Pastor of Plymouth A.M.E. Church near Felton, will deliver the invocation on Sunday; the Reverend William Miller, Pastor of Calvary Wesleyan Church, Harrington, will give the benediction. Music will be provided by the Lake Forest High School Band under the direction of Dale Burkhard.

Congratulations, Seniors!

Harrington Remembers . . .

Address given at rededication ceremonies, May 30, 1981

It is a day to remember loves ones who are no longer with us--It is a day to remember, especially, the sacrifices of those who died protecting the freedoms and institutions we enjoy as American Citizens--And most important, it is a day to remember that the living owe a debt to the dead. The living must ensure that the ideals for which so many died--the traditions under which so many lived--will not pass from the face of this nation.

An order by General John Logan, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic 1868 "Let no ravages of time testify to coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic." That warning, for those who have experienced war--becomes almost a sacred mission on this day. It is the continuing responsibility of earlier generations to pass onto the next generation--the meaning of sacrifices made by the men and women who have fought America's battles. Only by living up to General Logan's order--and shouldering this responsibility--can the real significance of this memorial be maintained.

As we recall the sacrifices that have been made to keep America free--we readily acknowledge that this observance will not heal the feeling of loss--or ease the heartache--of those who mourn lost loved ones. But it can give all of us a renewed faith, and a new sense of awareness that a life so sadly given was a gift of love and a gift of life to a new generation.

And as we recall the sacrifices--this memorial becomes a reminder to the rest of the world that the American people have not forgotten. We will not allow the sacrifices to be forgotten, nor will we let you lose sight of the price paid to insure your rights and privileges. Remembering these things as we do--makes it far less likely we will repeat the mistakes of the past. Even as we observe this day, the world will take note that America remembers--The enemies of freedom will take these solemn ceremonies as a clear signal--they must not underestimate the will of our free people to remain free--whatever the cost.

America has paid the price--the price of fond remembrance for the mother whose son died for his country--as she sheds one more tear for that son, locked in eternal youth.

Perhaps your families will pause for a moment to remember the sacrifices made by millions of your fellow Americans--or simply to remember one who has died. I can assure you--across this land today, other Americans will be visiting cemeteries, marching in parades and bowing their heads in prayerful thanksgiving for their freedoms, bought at so great a price. All across this country today bright new American flags will again mark the final resting places of those who served. In every corner of this country--and wherever fallen Americans are buried around the world--the living will pay tribute to the dead with patriotic salutes, floral tributes and expressions of loving remembrance.

In that way, Americans renew their resolve to live up to the order given so long ago by Gen. Logan. In that way, we all keep faith with the spirit of his order, never to allow "the ravages of time to testify that we have forgotten, as a people, the cost of a free republic." Thank you.

"Let no ravages of time testify to coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic."

The echoes of another time, another century drifted across the patch of green as a group of scouts paused after raising the flag; a junior high school band waited to play a final number, and a few townspeople gathered to listen.

The words, those of General John Logan, Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, 1868, were from the past. But as quoted by Ken Draper, Commander of District 3, Department of Delaware, The American Legion, they carried a message for the present, serving to refresh this community's collective memory as Harrington rededicated its World War II Memorial Honor Roll on Saturday, May 30.

The memorial it seemed, had indeed been destined to fall victim to the "ravages of time" since it was removed from its former place of prominence on the post office corner and left to lean a little wearily against the side of the building at the local American Legion Post. However, it was not forgotten. Through the efforts of Harrington's Boy Scout Troop 76 along with those of American Legion CKRT Post 7 as well as the care and generosity of several citizens, the memorial has been refurbished and given a new place of honor.

Traditional Memorial Day ceremonies marking the rededication of the Honor Roll were brief and simple. As citizens gathered for the program, the W. T. Chipman Band, directed by Alex Becton entertained with a selection of music. Then at 11 a.m. as the band played the national anthem, an honor guard of Scouts from Troop 76 raised the flag slowly to the top of the new

Wild West Coming

Merchants from the Quillen Shopping Center in Harrington led by Ed Robb at Kustom Kaps told the Greater Harrington Chamber of Commerce of their intent to hold "Wild West Days in Harrington" from June 11th through June 13th. Giant prizes and sale bargains will be the order of the day.

"As a highlight of this affair, we will import the world famous mechanical bull so that potential cow polks can try their hand at taming the bull," said Robb. The theme will again be a town wide affair with merchants throughout the community expected to join in the great Wild West Round-up.

The Harrington merchants have since the beginning of the year conducted an Easter coloring contest, a mother's day contest, and now a western theme program. A good turnout is expected for this affair.

TOMORROW EVENING

The Greater Harrington Historical Society will meet tomorrow evening, June 4, at 7:30 p.m., at the Harrington Senior Center.

MONDAY EVENING

The regular meeting of the City Council of Harrington, will be at 7:30 p.m., Monday, June 8, 1981 in the Council chamber at City Hall. Agenda for said meeting is posted in City Hall.

School Board vs. Brownlees & Vice Versa

The Lake Forest School Board, which recently filed suit against Traves and Faye Brownlee for not enrolling their children in either public or certified private schools became the target last Friday of a countersuit by the Frederica couple. The Brownlees, feeling that their prerogatives as parents and their rights under the constitutions (both state and federal) are being usurped by the state regulation and the Board's action, decided to respond to the suit against them by taking the offense. On Friday, May 29, they filed suit in Delaware Superior Court naming all five of the Lake Forest Board's present members and asking costs and punitive damages in the amount of

Surprised by the Brownlees' response, Lake Forest Board members were not yet ready to comment upon the countersuit.

President Cliff Chambers said the Board's action in filing suit against the couple was taken because it was required by the state. He said its purpose was to bring the family into compliance with the state law and that no financial claims were in question. Chambers had no comment on the countersuit.

Another board member, James Gusset expressed the opinion that it would be premature to comment on the Brownlees action. His thoughts were echoed by Rick Feutz who said he did not, to date, have any information other than what he had read in the newspapers. He also thought that any comment would be premature.

Two board members, although they

Frederica Plans A "Fair Day"

The whole town of Frederica is planning a "fair day" on Saturday. And while that does not necessarily mean they've become weather prophets, they're certainly hoping that it doesn't rain on their parade...or their Street Fair either.

This Saturday, June 6, has been set aside for the Street Fair, an annual event that brings our most of the community for fun (for everyone) and profit (mostly to benefit Trinity United Methodist Church). This year's fair will be preceded by a new highlight, a parade that may very well be added to the continuing traditions celebrated by the community. It will also be the first year for naming Frederica's Top Young Lady in competition sponsored by Journal columnist "Toby Johnston." Mrs. Johnston reported this week that the selection had already been made, but that the identity of the winner would remain a secret until the day of the Fair.

The parade, which is aimed at giving a number of organizations, especially those involving young people, a chance to participate and be recognized, is the brainchild of two Frederica residents, the Thomas Wilmires, who have found it's a lot easier to dream up than to organize. Schedule conflicts with the Delmarva Chicken Festival in Princess Anne as well as other events set for

Dogs (or cats?) Cause Problem

Wandering dogs (or could it be cats?) or both? that dig into bags of trash and leave it scattered here and there caused some Felton residents to complain and spurred the Town Council to take action. The Council decided at Monday night's regular meeting to post notices announcing enforcement of ordinance against animals running loose. Owners who turn their dogs (or cats) loose could be subject to fines - $10 for the violation of a town ordinance, $5 for a state offense.

Residents bothered by the four-footed trash marauders are urged to keep their eyes open so that animals and owners can be identified. It was also thought that some of the problem could be caused by strays belonging to no one.

Sewer Construction Progress

Frederica Mayor William Myers reported that work on the new sewer system is progressing. Construction along Delaware Route 12 east of Felton (leading to the county treatment plant near Frederica) and along U. S. 13 should be complete sometime within the next two weeks. The work should then move in town going across the school property to a point on High Street near the Little League Park. The line will then follow High Street to Church Street where it will branch out in two directions.

Crash Injures Two

Delaware State Police investigated a serious personal injury accident Wednesday afternoon, May 27th, that has left two Kent County girls seriously injured in Delaware Division. A car owned and believed to have been driven by Debra J. Griffith, 19, of R.D. 3, Felton, was northbound on County Rt. 35, seven-tenths of a mile south of Frederica. The car was travelling through the curves near the International Latex plant at 4:59 p.m. when it ran off the right side of the road. The driver over-corrected when trying to get back on the roadway, and while travelling 234 feet, crossed the road and ran off the left side of the road. The car struck a mailbox post with the right side, nosed down into a

McCormick Appointed To Commission

Ed McCormick, a member of the Harrington Fire Company, was recently appointed by Governor duPont to a six-year term on the Delaware State Fire Prevention Commission. He will serve until April 13, 1987.

The commission which meets at least on a monthly basis, has the designated responsibility of promulgating, amending and appealing regulations for safeguarding life and property from the hazards of fire and explosion. It is also charged with overseeing the operations of the State Fire Marshal's office and the State Fire School as well as with setting guidelines for ambulances.

McCormick who had the full backing of the local firemen for his appointment as Commissioner, is a veteran of sixteen years of service with the United States Air Force. Before his retirement as a disabled veteran, he served in VietNam where he received the VietNam Service Ribbon with three Battle Stars, the Air Force

The map of Magnolia recorded 11 February 1890 shows no identification for the second house, within its limits, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places. This house, built by John B. Lindale soon after his marriage in 1886, is one of the better preserved examples of high Victorian architecture in the State. It is a two story framed house with attic, almost square in plan, with a stair hall, parlor, living room, dining room and kitchen on the first floor; and bedroom and a bathroom (original) on the second.

The living room and dining room are located at the end of the stairhall and behind the parlor, there being no access to the dining room except through the parlor or the living room. The rooms are unusual in that they all contain bay windows. The mouldings are all fairly simple and rather large in scale, those around the doors being most interesting, with bullseye corner blocks. The doors themselves are ornate, with pine cones carved in a decorative pattern. As was the fashion, either large sliding doors or heavy curtains separate room from room within the house, and many of the windows, especially those in the parlor have louvered shutters both inside and outside the house.

Queries concerning sources for historical and genealogical research will be published and answered as you request.

During the years 1751 and 1752 steps were taken toward the better maintenance of the bridges and highways in the different Counties. All King's roads were ordered to be forty feet wide, of which thirty feet were kept grubbed and cleared. Bridges over creeks or gulleys were twelve feet wide with railings three feet high. To keep the roads in repair every man paying taxes amounting to thirty pounds or less gave a day's work performed either by himself or a substitute. Those paying from thirty to sixty pounds were obliged to furnish two men, and all paying more than sixty pounds three men.

21 Jan. 1829 married Nathan Williams to Ann Shiles.

11 June 1829 married Robert Hickman to Nancy Vaughan.

16 June 1829 married Charles Welch to Polley James.

1 Oct. 1829 married Charles Deshield to Nancy Martin.

7 Jan. 1830 married Cannon Wingate to Eliz Coulboam.

24 Mar. 1831 married Benjamin Stockley to Eliza Fisher.

[Dr. William Morgan was a lay preacher with the Methodist Episcopal Church on the Seaford Circuit. He was also a physician, treating body as well as soul. He performed many marriages in Sussex and lower Kent Counties].

Ross Mansion

Gretchen Banks had some of her outstanding sketches on display and for sale at the Seaford Country Fair, May 24th. The 11 inch by 14 inch historical sketches, in pen and ink, of Hearn's Pond and the Ross Mansion attracted much attention. The Ross Mansion was the home of Former Governor Ross of Delaware. The fair, a yearly event, is under the auspices of the Seaford Historical Society. Some of the proceeds of the event will go toward restoration of the Ross Mansion.

He received an award as the alumnus of the oldest class and another for coming the longest distance.

A 66-year-old Harrington widower burned to death at his home Saturday after he fell asleep and dropped a cigarette into his chair, police reported. Olen Thomas Perry, of 300 Second Ave., Harrington was pronounced dead by Dr. H. W. Smith, a local physician. Dr. Smith said death was due to asphyxiation and burns.

The death Tuesday afternoon of a Staytonville woman led to the arrest of a nearby resident on a charge of operating a still. State police detectives at Bridgeville, accompanied by the Liquor Commission Inspector, raided the home of John Washington Boone, 39 of near Harrington. In a second floor bedroom of the frame house State Police said they found an operating still and a gallon of "white mule".

did not make any direct statements regarding the countersuit, are of the opinion that the board has been placed in a difficult position in having to enforce a law mandated by the state. Both Albert Price and Donald Garey feel that the state's attorney general should have that responsibility. Garey, who will leave his school board seat at the end of June, said it is "unfortunate" that the board has been placed in that position. But he and Price agree that under the law as it now stands, the Board does bear the responsibility for enforcement.

For the Brownlees, it is not quite so clear that the suit filed by the Lake Forest Board will not involve money. Traves Brownlee said the suit asks that they be held in contempt of court if they continue in their refusal to comply with the state attendance law. They figure that being held "in contempt of court" may have monetary results somewhere along the way. Brownlee did say that the state fines for keeping children out of school range from $5 to $25. But he does not feel that the thrust of the suit is aimed at collecting a fine.

Traves and Fay Brownlee charge that the Lake Forest Board's efforts to get them to comply with the attendance law have resulted in the "...disruption of family routine and privacy, mental anguish, laceration of feelings, shame and degradation." They consider themselves in compliance with the state law as its intent is expressed in Delaware's constitution and consider the charges placed against them to be essentially "false" and disruptive to both their school and their family.

School for the Brownlee Christian Academy, aged 8 to 16, is the Heritage Christian Academy i.e. their own home where they are under the instruction of their mother.

The state insists that school must be either a public school or a private institution certified by the state. The Brownlees maintain that although Mrs. Brownlee is not a certified teacher, their children are being given instruction under a planned curriculum much like the PACE method used in some private Christian Academies. They feel this satisfies any legitimate state requirement.

Traves Brownlee points to a supplement to the state attendance ruling which gives parents the right to keep their children out of school if their "health or welfare" is endangered. But even this he feels, is not the crux of the matter. He claims the state attendance law is itself out of step with the state constitution which he quotes as saying that "All children ought to be taught in a public school unless (they are being taught) otherwise..." It is his contention that the definition of that "otherwise" gives parents the right to select for their children the education they feel is appropriate.

Both Brownlees are disenchanted with the state of public education and pessimistic about the chances for improving it. Brownlee cites reports which have maintained that some high school graduates are unable to read beyond the fourth grade level, increasing discipline problems and severe drug problems in the schools as specific failures of public education. He also feels the state has gotten its priorities mixed up in shifting the emphasis from academics to other activities and programs which he says the state should not pay for. He mentions the huge athletic complex with its expensive swimming pool at Lake Forest as one example.

The Brownlees do not feel that much is likely to be accomplished by trying to change the system of public education from within. Therefore they have elected to keep their children out of school rather than disrupt the system.

Describing himself as a "strict constructionist" of the United States Constitution, Traves Brownlee feels that it further justifies his stand in opposition to Delaware's school attendance law. He holds that the local board's efforts to get his family to comply with that law constitute a violation of their personal rights and privacy as guaranteed under amendments 4, 5, 6, 9 and 10 in what has been traditionally regarded as the Bill of Rights to the Constitution. He is willing to carry the matter to the Supreme Court if necessary.

Actually the Brownlees' revolt against what they regard as the continuing encroachment of government upon their rights as private citizens did not begin with the current school situation. Since at least 1976 they have been involved in tax protests, have refused to get required building permits from the community and from Kent County in making renovations to the older homes they have purchased in Frederica, and have failed to answer most of the questions on the U. S. Census.

At the head of the year-old A. C. T. (Americans for Constitutional Taxation), Brownlee is engaged in supplying individuals with advice on how to avoid paying taxes (The Brownlees have refused to pay federal income tax or file a tax return since 1976) and dispensing legal services to its members. He says A.C.T., which plans to form its own political party since the two major parties are too much influenced by special interest groups, will be ready to field five candidates for state representative in Delaware by the 1982-election and plans also to have a candidate for attorney general and very possibly a gubernatorial candidate by 1984. He is not opposed to all taxes, but thinks the personal income tax should be abolished. He feels very strongly that the federal government has no business in most of the things which it is now involved.

The information requested on forms for building permits the Brownlees regard as an invasion of their privacy amounting to a verbal search without a warrant. Much the same is true of the questions on the census. They feel the government is entitled to a head count, no more.

Brownlee says that a number of Delaware families are already interested in following the example he and his wife have set. He expects other Heritage Christian Academies to spring up around the state, either with parents teaching their children in their own homes or groups of families banding together for the same purpose. This, he says, is public education without state and federal control.

Tax Rate Unchanged

Felton tax rates will remain unchanged for the coming year. The current rate is .80 on each $100 of the assessed value of real estate plus a $3 capitation tax. Tax assessments will be hung in the Felton Post Office from June 10th through June 15th. Monday, June 15th, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the town hall has been set as appeals night for tax purposes.

Saying he feels unqualified for the job, new Felton Council Member, Dave Billings (appointed this year to fill the seat left vacant by Bob DeLong's resignation) asked to be relieved of the duties of town treasurer. But Billings agreed to remain in the job until the Council can make a decision.

GREENWOOD STUDENTS TAKE PART IN REFLECTIONS

The Greenwood Elementary/Woodbridge Jr. High PTA participated this year in the National PTA Cultural Arts Project - REFLECTIONS - "What A Family Means to Me". The purpose of this project is to encourage creative expression among children and youth in the form of visual arts, literature and music.

There were 21 students who participated from Greenwood Elementary School. Our local Greenwood Elementary/Woodbridge Jr. High PTA selected 5 top entries to send to the State PTA. Those were: Jackie Gillespie and April Anthony (grade 4), Leigh Durig and Tyler Davis (grade 5) and Vance Calloway (grade 6).

Jackie Gillespie was the PTA State winner. The Greenwood PTA chose Vance Calloway (first place winner), Leigh Durig (second place winner), and Tyler Davis (third place winner), all of which received special awards at a recent PTA meeting. The remainder of the students all received certificates for participation.

The State Theatre of Pennsylvania, the historic Bucks County Playhouse, will present "Man of La Mancha" at the Grand Opera House in Wilmington for 10 performances, May 28 - June 7.

With three runs on Broadway and numerous national and international tours to its credit, "Man of La Mancha" has established itself as a classic.

The originators of the show have been presenting the show somewhere in the world almost continuously for the past 17 years, and hundreds of production companies throughout the country have shared the vision of Don Quixote de la Mancha with millions.

Theater favorite Bob Bolsover is featured as Don Quixote and Alonzo Quijana. Geraldine Tallone recreates her role of Aldonza, the wench, who becomes a true lady in light of Quixote's illusions about her. Ralph Miller returns to La Mancha to play Sancho direct from an extended run as Jesus Christ in "Jesus Christ Superstar".

"Man of La Mancha" opened at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, May 28th. It will run through Sunday, June 7th, with matinees on Saturdays and Sundays.

Tickets range from $8.50 - $14.50 and are available at the Grand Opera House box-office and via phone reservations and credit card charges at (302)-652-5577.

The 19th annual Scottish Games, an authentic Highland gathering, are scheduled for June 6, 1981 at Fairhill, Maryland. An all-day event from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., the many and varied activities assure continuous spectator entertainment. Activities include individual bagpipes and bagpipe bands, tossing the caber, the International Sheep Dog Trials, the sheep to shawl contest and the scottish fiddling competition.

Parking is free, adult admission $5.00, children 6-12 $2.00 and under 6 free. Fair Hill is four miles west of Newark, Delaware on Route 273.

The Dickinson Theatre Organ Society will present Dennis James in concert on the Kimball Theatre Organ, Saturday, June 6th at 8:15 p.m. The easy listening program will be held at the Dickinson High School Auditorium, 1801 Milltown Road, Wilmington.

This will be the fifth appearance at DTOS for Dennis James. His home base is Ohio. He is equally good presenting theatre organ or accompanying a silent film. In fact, we expect a short silent film will be included in the concert.

For further information and tickets ($5.00 - advance, $5.75 - at the door; - call Paul Pringle - 764-5260. Group rates available.

Summer Recreation

The Kent County Levy Court, through the Parks and Recreation Department, has an exciting schedule of programs this summer. The summer activities include special events, trips, summer playground, tot, youth and adult programs plus sport camps. Many of our popular programs are returning and some new programs have been added.

Besides the ever-popular Baseball Camp, Hershey National Track and Field Youth Program, Aerobic Dance Classes, Pre-School programs and the summer playground, the Recreation Department is also offering a Softball Camp, Summer Dance for Tots, Ken-L-Ration's Kids Dog Show and a trip to Colonial Williamsburg.

For the tots, the Recreation Department offers: Kiddie Kreations, Creative Dramatics, Summer Dance, and Mini-Gym. Kiddie Kreations is a new twist to the old program, Tot Fun. This 3 week program is offered twice during the summer. Each session meets Monday thru Friday for 2 hours and 45 minutes. Kiddie Kreations is offered at 4 locations throughout the County.

Participants in the youth programs and summer camps can learn new skills, develop old ones and have an enjoyable experience. Roller Skating, Baseball, Softball, Tennis and Cheerleading Camps are offered at various times throughout the summer. The artistic youth can register for Summer Dance and Acting classes.

Youth can also enjoy the daily summer playground program offered at 5 locations throughout Kent County. This six week program will include: field trips, swimming, free lunches daily and on going recreation activities. Playgrounds have supervised activities from 8:30 to 3:00 p.m. daily. Playgrounds are closed on days of field trips. A registration fee is required for swimming and field trips. Registration is unlimited. Hershey National Track & Field Program and a Kids Dog Show, two popular special events for youth, will be held again this summer.

The entire family will enjoy several of our special events and trips offered this summer. Register the family for the Baltimore Orioles-Kansas City Royals game, August 12 and watch Dover's Renie Martin in action; or take the family on an exciting vacation to Colonial Williamsburg this summer. Transportation, admission tickets and hotel accommodations are included in the fee. For the family that likes to stay

Cline Is Honored

William E. Cline, former Superintendent of Schools in the Lake Forest School District, was named "School Administrator of the Year" by the Delaware School Library Media Association. He was presented with a plaque at the annual meeting of the Delaware Library Association, held at Brandywine College on April 24.

The award is presented to a Delaware school administrator who has demonstrated outstanding support for school library media centers. Mr. Cline was nominated by the Lake Forest librarians and library aides who praised his concern for library space and materials "in every school where he'd served as principal," and his emphasis on financial support as superintendent.

Memorial Day Program

flagpole and then lowered it gently to half mast.

There followed the invocation by the Reverend William Miller, Pastor of Calvary Wesleyan Church; a welcome address by Walter LeKites, Jr., Commander of American Legion CKRT Post 7; the presentation of the memorial wreath of veterans' poppies by Mrs. Charles Rapp, Chaplain of the Legion Auxiliary; the rededication address by Mr. Draper and recessional music by the band.

Yet that simple ceremony and others like it across this nation, served, Draper said, to put the world on notice that "America remembers." It also served as a means of carrying out the responsibility of passing on "...to the next generation the meaning of the sacrifices made by the men and women who have fought America's battles."

There were a number of people to be thanked for Saturday. First of all there was Harry Quillen, father of five sons, all of whom have served in this nation's armed forces. Mr. Quillen made available the new location which the Scouts, the Legion and others hope will become a permanent home for the Honor Roll and a point of pride for the community.

Several individuals donated time, talent or materials towards re-establishing the memorial. Clyde Perry and Danny Porter refinished the frame and installed new plexiglass panels. Bob Donovan will do the masonry work. Joseph Richardson donated the new flag pole at the base of which is imbedded the American Legion insignia and a bronze star that was a memorial grave marker from the Grand Army of the Republic. Carl Santos of Nanticoke Nurseries gave the shrubbery and did the landscaping. Buck Hopkins and Walter Messick have offered to buy the brick to finish the memorial.

Spearheading the efforts at restoration along with the American Legion was Wayne Melvin, Leader of Boy Scout Troop 76, and the scouts themselves. Eight members of the troop were on hand Saturday to conduct the flag raising as the Honor Roll was rededicated. They were Randy Wroten, Mike Smith, Donald Draper, Walter LeKites IV, Billy Carey, Alvin Hudson, James Ewell, Tony Johnson and Tracy Johnson.

Arts Calendar

WILMINGTON-Tickets are now on sale for the Grand Opera House's Summer Film Festival. The 8-part film series will air on Wednesdays from June 10 through July 29, with performances at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. The series will include both full length feature films as well as short subjects. Features include: "A Star is Born", "Creature from the Black Lagoon", "My Fair Lady", "Blonde Venus", "The Goodbye Girl", "Time After Time", "My Man Godfrey", and "Touch of Evil".

For additional information, contact the Grand Opera House Box Office, (652-5577), 818 Market St. Mall, Wilmington, DE. 19801.

A Do-It-Yourself Framing Clinic will be offered at Muriel's Gallery by Greg Shrader, professional framer. The clinic will consist of two sessions, including an introduction to framing, conservation of art work and the selection of materials.

The second session will consist of each student framing their own art work under the instructor's supervision.

Classes will begin as soon as a minimum of 10 people sign up. Call now to reserve your spot. Call (302) 674-4700, Muriel's Gallery, 9 W. Lookerman St., Downtown Dover. COST: $5.00 plus supplies.

Starting June 19, Muriel's Gallery will be hosting an Art Show for area children 12 and under. All entries must be framed but there will be some framing available at a nominal charge for the length of the exhibit.

Call now for more details, (302) 674-4700, 9 W. Lookerman Street, Downtown Dover.

THE DELAWARE SCENE TO BE FEATURED IN 1981 CALENDAR

Delaware's landscape is the subject of a 1982 calendar to be published by the State Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs and the Division of Economic Development.

Amateur and professional photographers alike are invited to submit 35mm slides which depict Delaware's people, landmarks and pageants. Twelve entries will be chosen to illustrate a state calendar which will credit the photographers and be available for sale throughout Delaware.

Additional photographs will be selected for an exhibit entitled, "Delaware, The First State: A Celebration," which will open to commemorate Delaware Day on December 7, 1981.

Slides may be submitted until July 30, 1981. Selection of the winners will be based upon appropriateness of subject and season.

Additional contest rules are available from the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, Hall of Records, Dover, Delaware 19901, phone number 736-5314. All photographic entries may be directed to the same address.

ditch as it struck the base of a tree, recoiled backwards while going airborne to strike another tree 8 feet off the ground. Since they were not wearing seatbelts, the two occupants apparently fell from the right side of the car while it was in this position, and the car then fell to the ground and came to rest on its wheels.

Griffith was transported by Frederica ambulance, and the passenger, Holly Johnson, 22, of R.D. 3, Frederica, was airlifted by the Delaware State Police Helicopter. By 5:31 they had both arrived at Milford Memorial with head injuries. Griffith also had internal injuries, so she was taken by State Police Helicopter to Delaware Division, while Johnson went by ambulance.

Felton-Sandtown

By Lola O'Day 284-9175

A dinner and baby shower for Mrs. Paul (Dominique) C. Western was given at the home of Judge and Mrs. Ann Horsey of Dover, De. on May 25. Mrs. Lola O'Day attended. The dinner was delicious and the gifts were many in number for the precious little darling soon to arrive. There were about 35 friends to attend the shower.

The U.M.C. of Felton, sponsored by the Willing Workers held their Strawberry Festival Saturday, the 30th and it was a huge success.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Furlong and sons, Scott & Kurt from Manasses, Va., were guests over the weekend of Mr. & Mrs. Thomas L. Kates. Mrs. Eberwein is also visiting her daughter, Margaret Kates for a few days. A barbecue was held Fri., 25th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sipple for their son's 13th birthday, Steve. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sipple, Wilson and Pauline Frazier, Bill & Joyce Sipple, his cousins Jim & Kathy Sipple, sister Karen & brother, Kevin. The Knit Wit Craft Club will meet this Thursday at Betty LaCross, 7:30 p.m. Strawberries can be kept firm for several days if you store them in a colander in the refrigerator, which allows the cold air to circulate around them.

To all that are ill wherever they might be. Our prayers and best wishes, May God Bless.

Gabfest

By Pat Hatfield 349-4255

Only a few more days left of May as I write this. I think of May as The Flower Month which I believe the Indians called it. But I have my own name for it, too. I call it The Pink Month. Pink, white or yellow, but I think the color pink predominates a bit. This has been a good year for flowers and growing things. My neighbor's orange blossom bush is simply a mass of white blossoms. Our own iris beds are beautiful with their huge blooms of purple, lavender, beige, maroon, powder blue and white, also yellow. Of course I lean to anything yellow, but those beige ones are nice.

In a few more days June will be "bustin' out all over", as the poet says. The poets had a great deal to say about June. Lowell, I believe, said, "What is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days..." It is strawberry time also. Years ago when my arthritic limbs allowed me to pick them, I remember one early June morning that was so perfect with the sun and warm breeze and the smell of strawberries, that I just sat down in the patch and took some time to let it all soak into me. And, as always, Mother Nature had a treat for me. I suddenly realized that I was looking right into the eyes of a wee mother killdeer who was getting off her crude nest of sticks and stones and dragging herself away from me, pretending to have a broken wing to get me to follow her. They will do that. I did not want to cause her too much anxiety, so I inserted a small stick near the nest so I could locate it again. I visited her every day and was rewarded to see the tiniest babies imaginable scooting from the nest on their fragile legs. These, too, were moments to remember, and hold in your hand.

I am recovering my strength from my recent illness to be able to start my housecleaning in a small way, starting with the cupboards. Housecleaning, today, is far different than in my grandmother's day. The old, home made lye soap did not really do as good a job as the modern detergents. With the rug shampoos now on the market, most rugs may be cleaned well right on the floor. In those days, we had to inch along the floors and pull out the carpet tacks. Then the rag rugs or Brussels carpeting were put upon the clothesline and beaten with a carpet beater, which was found in every home. Now they sell well in the antique shop because people collect them. In many homes a summer carpeting called "matting" was laid, sort of a straw-woven type. This, too, had to be secured with carpet tacks, but it was light and airy and made a refreshing change.

Most of the families did not have window screens, as such, in the country homes, but mosquito netting was purchased by the yard and nailed across the windows from the outside. This had to be renewed each season, but it was adequate in protecting us from flies and what grandmother called, "stinging varmints".

No, I wouldn't want to go back, because I enjoy these modern luxuries as much as anyone. But there still is something to be said for the fact that we had more freedom from worry. We didn't worry about the air conditioner malfunctioning or whether the refrigerator had blown a gasket!

Greenwood

By Pat Hatfield 349-4255

Mark Dennis of Solebury, Pa., was a recent visitor in Greenwood, calling on many friends and relatives in the area.

Dana Dennis and Eva of Seaford were recent dinner guests of Mr. & Mrs. Allison Davis.

Callers at the Davis home were Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Davis of Federalsburg and Mr. & Mrs. Gary Davis and children.

Mr. Arthur Laughery and Mr. Richard Denn are both home from the hospital and both reported doing very well.

Miss Garith Bollinger enjoyed an overnight visit with Donna, Denise, Regina and Chuckie Denn.

The Chicken Barbecue sponsored by the Greenwood Lions Club is now in full swing, starting two weeks early this year. A fine idea for a ready-cooked meal on these hot days!

The second grade class of Greenwood Social enjoyed a trip to the postoffice on Wednesday.

Mr. & Mrs. Ronald Case of Newark were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Jacob Hatfields and the Arthur Laugherys.

Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Baker and Kathy enjoyed a camping trip at Rehoboth during the recent holiday.

GREENWOOD CHEER CENTER

In this week of the 7th Anniversary celebration of Greenwood Cheer Center, our membership would like to recognize Belle Allen as our first news reporter. She served us faithfully until June of 1980 when she resigned because of poor health. She wrote for our monthly newsletter and kept Pat Hatfield supplied with the Cheer Activities for the weekly newspapers. Thank you both for a job well done.

Our hand-made quilt is on display at the Greenwood Bank! Donations are 50 cents each or three for $1.00; $2.00 per book. We still have a large number of donation books for the quilt that will be awarded on Greenwood Day, July 18th.

We have an ample supply of quilts for our flea market due to the efforts of Eliza Foreman, and her co-workers, Verlee Kane, Margaret Baker, Anna Elliott, Myrtle Calhoun, and Hattie Bragg. Margaret Fountain, Marion Carter and Lola Williamson keep their needles busy making Needle Point items.

Don't forget the date of June 5 for the Flea Market and Bake Sale. All donations will be appreciated. June 12 will be the Greenwood Cheer Anniversary Recognition of Active Charter Members. June 24, Birthday party.

June birthdays are: June 3, Emma Everline; June 5, Ethel Dawson; June 10, Gladys Kalinevitch; June 12, Willis Lofland; June 14, Evelyn Doughten; June 15, Myrtle Calhoun; June 15, Charlotte Smith.

Those on our Get Well list are: Belle Allen, Rosalee Hamilton, Gladys Lofland, Nora Marv and Kathleen Willey. Welcome back to Harriett Tilghman.

Coming Events to watch out for: July 16 - Three Little Bakers Ice Show; July 18 - Greenwood Day, Quilt Drawing; Sept. 11 - Beach Day at Rehoboth; Sept. 14 to 17 - New Hampshire Trip; Sept. 17 - Trap Pond Picnic.

Welcome to our new members: Lois Duguid, Hazel West and Huey West.

More June trips: June 9 - Health Fitness Day, Milford High School; June 11th - Picnic Day, Salisbury Zoo; June 30th - Zwaanendael Museum, Lewes Cheer for lunch.

The New Hampshire Trip is in need of more interest if we are to be able to hold our reservation. Please talk it up or we will have to cancel.

Congratulations to Margaret Fountain, Ethel Dawson and Rev. and Mrs. Doughten on the recent births of their first great grandchildren.

The Center enjoyed a recent bus trip to Camden, New Jersey with a visit to the Campbell Museum and also to the Cherry Hill Mall.

Activities: Wed. ## Senior Center

By Dorothy Graham 398-3780

Happy-Happy Birthday June Folks. Now don't forget the Birthday Party when it rolls around. That is also the day they find out who takes home the lovely umbrella stand made by Velma Whitey.

Monday the Center was closed, it being Memorial Day observance; picnics, cookouts, family visits or just relaxing in their very own special way.

Ina Hughes gave an introduction of music Tuesday morning and called the Jolly Timers into practice.

Sounded so good when they played "Home On The Range" and "God Be With You Til We Meet Again". Won't be hearing them for a month unless Gracie and I drop by for a Tuesday morning visit and a cup of Gladys' good coffee. Present at the practice were Mildred Vincent, Roxanne and Marion Brown, Essie Redden, Sylvia and Cecil Meredith, Jo Burke, John McCready, Mammie Adams, Pearl Hickman, Lili McBride, Ola Tilden, Florence Minner and Gladys Hill.

Bingo was played and enjoyed by many Wednesday. Anna Mae Short called.

Thursday 46 went to Seaford Center on a picnic and due to the weather it had to be held in doors. Florence Minner won a nice photo-scrapbook on the clothes line game. After dinner everyone got on the bus and went to the Firehouse where the games were held and the speaker, Senator Biden, spoke on social security and assured the folks they had nothing to worry about. Other entertainment was a mandolin player. Everyone was most elated with their day. Charlotte went along also.

Back at the Center ceramics were being done. The pool table was busy as a bee hive and just as interesting! Problems of the world were solved and dismissed. Games were called and how. Just a fine lot of men, all of them. John challenges with the checker board; not really, but he will play you a good game if you like.

Trips are filling up. Better check! Donna Webb, of the Modern Maturity Center, was here on Exercise Friday Afternoon. The folks seemed to like Donna's talk and leaflets she gave out. She is a very likeable person.

Best Wishes to all homebounds. Hope those who are ill, either at home or in the hospital, are feeling better. Those in sorrow have our sympathy.

Thanks to our volunteers, one and all! Love you. I will be writing to you in a month. You don't have to be a farmer to be outstanding in your field! Faith.

Anne's Kitchen

ITALIAN FRIED CHICKEN

Americans are not the only nationality who are famous for their friend chicken. Italians just take a little longer with preparation and add a bit more seasoning. I think you will enjoy the difference for a change of pace.

- 3 tablespoons olive oil.
- 4 tablespoons lemon juice (fresh is best)
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons pepper
- 2 teaspoons chopped parsley
- 3 1/2 pound frying chicken, cut in small pieces.

- 2 cups flour.
- 1 egg, lightly beaten
- 1 1/2 cups cooking oil, or enough for deep frying.

1. Make a marinade of oil, lemon juice, salt, pepper and parsley.
  2. Pour over chicken in a casserole and let stand about 2 hours, turning occasionally.
  3. Remove chicken from marinade, dip into egg and coat with flour.
  4. Deep fry for about 15 minutes.
- ENJOY!

New Pastor At Milford & Harrington

The Rev. Charles L. Brown, III.

Clergy assignments in the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington will see a new pastor assigned to St. John's in Milford, and St. Bernadette in Harrington. He is the Rev. Charles L. Brown, III, who will assume his new duties on June 10.

Leaving after 12 years in this area is the Rev. John F. Cremin who has been assigned temporary associate pastor at St. John's in Middletown, Delaware. He will continue with his work as chaplain of the Delaware State Police.

A native of Wilmington, Fr. Cremin, has served for many of his 28 years in lower Delaware. He has also served in Salisbury, Maryland and the Wilmington area.

He was named pastor of the Milford parish in 1969 and has been associated with the Delaware State Knights of Columbus, as well as the state police.

Fr. Brown who is 39, is a native of Philadelphia. He studied at local schools and attended St. Mary's College in Kentucky and the Catholic University of America. Ordained in 1967, Fr. Brown was assigned as associate at St. Matthew's parish, Woodcrest, Immaculate Heart of Mary and will be coming to the area from Holy Rosary, Claymont. All parishes are in the New Castle County area of Delaware.

A member of the Pastoral Commission for many years, Fr. Brown is a former CYO Deanery director and notary and procurator advocate of the Tribunal. He is a member of the Liturgical Commission, serves as moderator of the Annual Catholic Appeal and has done chaplaincy work at the Women's Correctional Institution in Claymont.

Methodists Gather For Annual Conference

DOVER, De.--Some 750 United Methodist clergy and lay members of Peninsula Conference will gather in Salisbury June 9-11 for their 42nd Annual Conference.

Most of the activities will take place in Asbury United Methodist Church, with conference members using the facilities of Salisbury State College for meals and overnight lodging.

Bishop D. Frederick Wertz, bishop of the Washington Area United Methodist Church, will preach at the opening Communion-Memorial Service at 10 a.m., Tuesday.

A departure from previous conferences, the reading of appointments of ministers to their new posts will take place at the opening session. (Until this year, appointments were kept secret until the end of the conference.)

Featured speaker at the laity banquet on Wednesday night and again at Thursday's plenary session will be the Rev. Dr. Joe Lowery, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta, Ga.

The conference will have as its theme, "Strengthening the Local Church for its Evangelistic Mission in the World." Leonard Miller, associate general secretary of the General Council on Ministries will speak on this topic at Tuesday evening's plenary session.

Issues to be addressed by conference members will include a new pension plan for ministers and a new conference office building in Dover. Program goals and objectives for the 1981-84 quadrennium of all the boards and agencies of the conference, as submitted by local churches, will be considered by the entire body.

The conference will end Thursday evening with the ordination of five deacons and six elders. Candidates are Lawrence D. Jameson, Susan J. Kester, Darlene Y. Lantz, Laura A. Martin and Charles O. Walter, deacons; and Eleanor Kendall Dasch, Ebenezer Ben Mudede, Charlotte A. Nichols, Colleen M. O'Sullivan, Robert Riddleberger and Michael S. Russell, elders. The Rev. William Markley, presently serving Trinity United Methodist Church in Harrington, will have his orders in another denomination recognized and will be received into full connection.

Independent Bible Fellowship

This past Sunday morning, Pastor Newman brought to the congregation a message titled, "Followers." In I Corinthians 4:16, Paul said, "Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me." We as Christians should be followers of Paul in doctrine, separation (as a local assembly of believers and in our individual lives), and dedication. In the Sunday evening service, Pastor Newman continued the study of the Epistle of Jude, "a small book of the Bible, but a tremendous book for teaching separation and contending for the Faith.

Our prayers, best wishes, and congratulations to our 1981 Kindergarten graduates--Miss Abby Dana Brown, Master Dirk Kevin Moore and Carin Janelle Newman. May the Lord richly bless you as you live for Him!

Welcome home to Chris Andrews. Chris has been studying at the Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music in Michigan this past year. It was good to have him in our service again.

We have designated next Sunday, June 7, as Youth Sunday. Our young people will take charge of the 11:00 morning worship service. We will also have a baptismal service at 3:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Seaford.

Join with us in our prayer service on Wednesday evening, and be challenged by the Mike Boehm Family, missionaries to Nepal.

Thought for the month of June: Educate a man without God and the Bible, and you make a clever devil.

Whitsunday Service At Old Christ Church

This year, the Annual Whitsunday Service at Old Christ Church, Broad Creek, near Laurel, Delaware, will be at four o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, June 7, 1981. The Reverend Albert F. Peters, Rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Bridgeville, Delaware, will officiate. Special music has been prepared by Mr. Richard Givens III who will direct the choirs of St.

Alban's Church in Salisbury, Maryland and St. Philip's Church in Laurel, Delaware. It is most fitting that this well known Salisbury choir will be a part of this service since when this church was built in 1771-2, this area was a part of the state of Maryland. All persons are cordially invited to attend this service.

Calvary Wesleyan Church News

The mid-week service this week will feature the Missionary emphasis on Wednesday evening at 7:00. Lois Carpenter is WMS president.

On Sunday morning, June 7, our graduates will be honored and the installation of officers for the church year.

Birthdays this week are Joshua

Tarburton, David Welch, John Mervine, Jason Hill, Missy Mervine, Kristina Draper, Aaron Hoskins, Matthew Dula, Lisa Wise and Chastity Emory.

The Men's softball team is scheduled to play Christian Tabernacle of Lincoln on Monday evening, June 8, at 6:00 on W. T. Chipman field.

Abbott's Mill To Be Dedicated

"Historically, there were 130 millponds in Delaware but only 60 remain today. The others have been abandoned and their water control structures have crumbled into the stream valleys. Twenty-five of the 60 remaining ponds have been restored and maintained over the last two decades for public use by the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control. The mills are gone, but the ponds still thrive, providing recreation for Delaware's 20,000 freshwater anglers." From DELAWARE'S PUBLIC PONDS published by the Division of Fish & Wildlife, Dover, Delaware.

Of the 60 millponds remaining in the state 7 are located in or near Milford on the Mispillion and its tributaries. The names of these millponds bring back happy memories of fishing, boating, swimming, ice skating, and other pleasurable activities afforded by their waters. The seven are: Silver Lake, Haven Lake, Griffith Lake, Blairs Pond, Tub Mill Pond, Marshalls Pond, and Abbotts Pond.

Although today these ponds are thought of as places of scenic beauty and recreation, their origins were for purposes completely different. As the name millpond implies, the pond was created for the operation of a mill. In the 18th and 19th centuries, power for saw mills and grist mills was obtained from running water. Anyone wishing to build and operate a mill bought land on a river or stream strong enough to power a water wheel and dammed that stream at his location to control the water power. Flooding of the land from such a dam created a pond.

According to Mr. Dallas Hitchens, the first of these mills with its millpond was the mill on Herring Branch built by Joseph Booth between 1895 and 1701. ("The Milford, Delaware Area Before 1776", p. 124.) This pond is now named Marshalls Pond for a later mill owner.

The origin of a pond is the background story of a mill. Of the seven millponds there is only one where the mill building is still in existence. This is Abbotts Pond which deserves recognition for two reasons; first, because not only the mill building is still standing, but also the machinery for its operation is still in place practically ready to be started; second, because it is the last of the mills to operate, having been shut down as late as 1960. Until that time Abbotts Mill had produced a high grade of flour, buckwheat, and corn meal.

Abbotts Mill is located on Road 620 about two miles southwest of Milford on Johnson's Branch, one of the main tributaries of the Mispillion. The present mill building is thought to be built on the foundation of a gristmill erected in 1808. In 1795 Nathaniel Willey bought the tract of land from Nathaniel Paynter, built the dam and a sawmill. It was he who built the gristmill in 1808, thus providing the means of obtaining two of the three essentials for the survival of man - shelter and food. Willey operated both mills until 1836 when he sold the property to Charles and Ann Johnson. Upon the death of Charles Johnson the mill property was left to his wife, who, having no one to operate it, sold it to William Johnson. After having a miller operate the mill for two years, William Johnson sold it back to Ann Johnson in 1838. She kept it until 1844 when she sold the mill to Nathaniel Johnson who in 1868 sold it to his two sons Richard M. Johnson and William T. Johnson. They sold it to Dr. Julio Ray who sold it to a Mr. Kibler who, in 1898, sold to W. W. Hendricks. In 1905 Hendricks repaired the mill, built a new house, and moved away the old one story brick mill house. On May 15, 1919, Ainsworth Abbott bought the gristmill, dam, land with the pond and ten acres of ground north of the dam which made 113 acres altogether.

The mill is a 2 1/2 story frame structure with several wings of undetermined age, although minimal architectural detail indicates a construction date of later 19th century. "On the interior, the mill has four levels which hold equipment for the mill's operation. A series of wooden and cloth chutes carry the grain from one level to the other, connecting the processes. Most of the chutes are made from beaded boards and have small glass inserts to watch the flow of the grain. The latter are covered by tear-drop shaped, swinging wooden covers with moulded edges. Among the equipment in the mill are: Wolfe Company hopper machines; a Wolfe Company speed indicator; two pair of buhr stones and one crane; one Wolfe Turbine and gear train, line shaft and pulleys; one Massey-Ferguson sheller; two McCormick-Deering feed grinders; a Eureka wheat scourer with outlet ducts; a Fairbanks, Morse and Company, 20 horsepower, 350 rpm, style H engine; drive train, line shaft and Wolfe Company conveyor machinery; several types of graders; grain and meal bins; one rocker-type bolting machine; one Philadelphia Inter Elevator Flour Dresser by Grisson and Company and McFuley; two wooden screw conveyors; and a Sprout, Waldron and Company Monarch cracked corn separator. Originally powered by a wooden water wheel, a water turbine replaced it in the late nineteenth century. The last miller, Ainsworth Abbott, made many improvements probably adding most of the above equipment. He installed the diesel engine in order that he might continue to run the mill when the water level of the pond was low. He also constructed a drive shaft from this engine through the west wall of the building (away from the race). This provided power for sawing lumber.

The drive shaft is also still in place." (National Register of Historic Places - Nomination of Abbotts Mill Amendment prepared by Joan N. Larrivee for the Division of Historical & Cultural Affairs of the State of Delaware.)

Mr. Abbott kept a careful watch over the flow of water through the gates of the dam, regulating them to control the high water caused by heavy rains or the low water caused by drought. His watchful care prevented a wash-out of the dam and a resulting torrent coursing to the Mispillion. In August, 1935, days of heavy rain and strong winds caused severe flooding and breaking of dams to such an extent that communications and transportation on Delmarva were disrupted. In Milford the dam at the railroad bridge on Silver Lake was sandbagged to strengthen it. So great was the danger that, at the height of this flood, officials of the City of Milford checked with Mr. Abbott every 30 minutes to ascertain whether or not his dam was holding. Had the flood waters broken that dam, the torrent of water down the Mispillion would have wrought havoc in Milford.

Mr. Abbott's skill as a millwright was called into use by the Eleutherian Mills-Hagley Foundation when that institution was setting up its water wheel grinding operation on the Brandywine. It was he who had the proper tools and "picked" the old mill stones to renew their grinding surfaces. Mr. Abbott was truly one of the last of his kind, along with his mill.

This sketch of Abbott's Mill by Gretchen Banks will be officially dedicated on Sunday. The Harrington Historical Society will be an invited guest for the affair. Mrs. Banks recently displayed her sketches of the Seaford area at the Seaford Fair held at the Ross Mansion. The Fair is conducted by the Seaford Historical Society. Her sketches of Abbott's Mill will be available for sale on dedication day.

Abbott's Mill, A New Nature Center

From 1812 to 1960 Abbotts Pond has been the site of various milling activities. Today it has become the locus of a downstate nature center, operated by the Delaware Nature Education Society.

Abbotts Mill, with its rural flavor and its established relationship with the environment, was an ideal setting. So, in 1979, following a unique collaboration between the United States Department of the Interior, the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, the Division of Highways and the Division of Fish and Wildlife, redevelopment of the historic mill complex began.

Left as in the last days of its operation, the mill itself had been the object of great interest with all its rock maple equipment in place and in remarkable condition. Stabilization of the mill was accomplished by considerable exterior work. In addition, the miller's house was renovated; the shed was turned into an exhibit area with rest rooms; and the stable was remodeled for use as an activity room with audio-visual facilities.

Now known as the Abbotts Mill Nature Center, it has been leased to the Delaware Nature Education Society which also operates the Ashland Nature Center in Hockessin. Kent and Sussex Countians may look forward to its programs regularly and its official dedication in May. Further information of DNES activities at Abbotts Mill may be obtained by calling Susan Palmer at 422-0847.

Major Greenhaugh is in the Judge Advocate General's Corps. He is a member of the North Carolina Bar. Major Greenhaugh departs for his new assignment on June 10 flying out of Washington National Airport. He is completing an eight year term in the service. He will be Chief of Military Tactics, Criminal Area, for the V Corps. This is comparable to being a U. S. Attorney. He is coming from a 10 month course at the Judge Advocate General's School at Charlottesville, Va., which was a post graduate course.

-Enjoys Beach-

She did a lot of walking, got a little sunburn, and had a "wonderful" weekend. Harrington's Mother of the Year, Clara Hinzman, grand prize winner in the promotion recently sponsored by area merchants and the Greater Harrington Chamber of Commerce, spent the weekend enjoying her grand prize, a trip to Ocean City, Md. where she and her husband William Hinzman were booked at the Atlantic Sands. Mrs. Hinzman reported Monday that their room at the Sands was on the second floor and "right on the Boardwalk". They took advantage of the ocean air and the balmy weather as they "walked...and walked...and walked" on the boardwalk and on the beach. They did not try the water, however. And Mrs. Hinzman said although she got a little sunburn, she was mindful of getting too much exposure. She had to report for jury duty Monday morning. The food also got a good review. The Hinzmans left on Friday and returned on Sunday, "in time for church."

McCormick

Commendation Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation and a number of other ribbons.

In Harrington, he served as secretary for the fire company from 1976 until 1979. He is also past secretary of the Kent County Firemen's Association.

Over the years he has held a number of offices and served as member of various committees at both county and state levels.

He was responsible for reactivating the Kent County Emergency Medical Service Council and forming the Kent County Ambulance Association. He also assisted with the formation of a similar association for Sussex County and with the development of a standard ambulance report form. Along with his other training and service he has completed 170 hours of training at the Delaware State Fire School.

Chicken Festival Opens Friday

The small, historic town of Princess Anne, MD is ready to roll out the red carpet for an estimated 20,000 visitors expected to attend the 34th annual Delmarva Chicken Festival. Hosted by the Princess Anne Business Association and sponsored by Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., the Festival is scheduled for June 5 and 6, on the University of Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) campus.

Grounds will officially open at 12 noon on Friday, June 5, during ceremonies hosted by Tony Bruce, general chairman. At the same hour, an arts and crafts show will open in Somerset Gymnasium and a large industry exhibit entitled, "Progress In Broiler Production", will open to the public in Tawes Gymnasium.

Friday evening activities include a carnival operating between 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. and the Delmarva Poultry Princess Pageant scheduled for 7 p.m. in the Ella Fitzgerald Center for the Performing Arts.

Saturday events get underway at 9 a.m. with a horseshoe tournament on the college athletic field. At 10 a.m. in the Student Development Center, 30 aspiring champions will don their aprons and set to work preparing their prize-winning entries in the Delmarva Chicken Cooking Contest. While the cooks are at work, a frisbee show, softball tournament, crafts show and auction will provide added pleasure for festival guests.

The Chicken Festival Parade will step off at 12 noon and proceed through Princess Anne to the college campus. Units representing all branches of the United States military service will join high school bands, commercial and non-commercial floats, clowns, horses, fire companies, antique autos and more for the two-hour march.

At 2 p.m. on Saturday, Chicken Capers, a series of fun-filled games, will be ready to go. There will be a chicken scratch, sack race, spoon race and chicken plucking competition. Other afternoon entertainment includes performances by Cantwell & Quillen and the Juggernaut Stringband; square dancing with the Guys and Dolls; and an aerobic dance exhibition; karate exhibition; children's theatre; and a synchronized swim show.

At 4 p.m. band show and concert will feature performances by the Parkside High Band in Salisbury, Maryland; the 19th U. S. Army Band from Ft. Dix, New Jersey; the U. S. Marine Corp Band from Quantico, Virginia; and the U. S. Navy Ceremonial Drill Team from Washington, D. C. The show will climax with a helicopter demonstration and spectacular exhibition by the Minute Men, the Maryland Army National Guard parachute jump team.

A fireworks display, scheduled for 8:30 p.m., will offer a colorful finale for an action-packed day.

Post-Festival events rounding out the weekend on Sunday, June 7, include a foot race beginning at 9 a.m., a tractor pull scheduled for 1:30 p.m. at the Princess Anne Civic Center, and the continuation of the softball tournament and crafts show.

Congratulations graduates!

The path to success is a two way street. Aim for the best and give it your best! Your graduation has opened the book of life to a fresh new page, the beginning of a new chapter and, each of you of the class of '81 shall determine what will be recorded there!

Local Rider Ready

HARRINGTON, Del.—With the Pabst AMA Classic Winston Pro Series motorcycle race at Harrington just around the corner, Randy Spence of Claymont, Delaware, is getting more and more excited.

Spence, a 17-year-old Dickinson High School student, can't wait for the racing to begin at the Delaware State Fairgrounds' half-mile dirt oval in Harrington. And he won't have long. The big day is Saturday, June 6, just a few days away.

Spence will be part of more than six hours of racing excitement. He's one of 29 riders invited to compete in the special Junior Invitational race that will be part of the activities at Harrington. There's a separate $1,000 purse for the junior race and riders will also compete for points that will enable them to move up to the expert class.

Spence has already accumulated 55 1/2 of the 80 points he needs to reach the expert division. In seven races this season, he's finished first once, second twice and third twice. He's won every heat race he's been in.

Last year, Spence was the No. 1 novice rider in the American Motorcyclist Association's Eastern Region. He won nine of 25 races and was a consistent top-five finisher. It was quite a performance for Spence, who at the time was in his first year of professional competition after four years as an amateur racer.

"I want to try to make a living out of motorcycle racing," says Spence, who works at the family's auto body shop in Claymont. "I don't know if I can, but I guess I'll find out next year, if things go the way I plan."

"I really like racing. It's exciting and it gives you an opportunity to meet a lot of interesting people. It's also something that I enjoy doing. If you can make money doing something you enjoy, what else can you ask for?"

Randy isn't the only racing Spence. His brother, Rick, also races in the AMA's junior ranks. Rick, 19, was also invited to the Harrington race, but he won't make it because he recently broke his arm during a race and will be in a cast for at least two months.

"Knock on wood, I've never had an injury in racing," says Randy. "Really, I don't think about them. At least I try not to. They don't worry me. If something happens, it happens. That's how I look at it."

Spence is more concerned with winning than he is with avoiding injuries. And he feels Harrington would be the perfect place to come up with a victory.

"I've always looked forward to being able to race there," he says. "You can get a lot of publicity out of that race. You're running in the same program as the top riders in the nation. All the top-notch riders and sponsors are there and there's lots of media attention. All of the national numbers are there and there's always a big crowd."

"It's a great opportunity." It will also be a pleasant trip to Harrington for Spence. The track is only about 1 1/2 hours from his home.

"This is about the only close race we'll run," he says. "Every weekend almost I have to go to Ohio to run in the regional races. I think being close and being fresh for the race ought to help some."

The way Spence has been racing the last couple of years, it's his competition at Harrington which will probably need all the help it can get.

Tickets are still available for the Pabst AMA Classic, which is sponsored by the Wilson Beverage Company of Delaware and the Pabst Brewing Company.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling the Fair office at (302) 398-3269.

Robert Biddle, left, and Peggy Mills bowled Memorial Day weekend in the Bowl-Your-Way-To-Europe Tournament in Washington, D.C. They represented Milford Lanes in Milford. There were some 450 bowlers in the nation's capital from over 250 Brunswick Recreation Centers across North America. They won out in local competitions from some 450,000 league bowlers nationwide.

Charles Peck of Raughley Hill Road was injured in a golfing mishap. A golf cart turned over with him two weeks ago at the Green Hill Course in Salisbury. Charles is moving about with some bruises.

The Harrington Journal Publisher caught his left hand in the car door a week ago this past Saturday. "The doors are long on the car. I have caught my chest a few times on the corner of the door. When I got out of the car this time...I had my arms full. I kicked the door to close it...and just forgot to pull my hand out. I knew I was supposed to do something else when I kicked the door. A couple of seconds later...I was reminded".

Spartans End Season

By Keith S. Burgess

The top eight entrants in each event from both divisions in last week's state meet returned to Dover High for the season ending Delaware High School Track Championships.

Gerald "Peanut" Perry was third in the 100 meter dash in 11.1 and finished ahead of Barnhill of Howard the Division II State Champion.

In the girls' meet, Sharon Burton, Lake Forest's fine freshman discus performer again exceeded 100 feet to place fifth. She holds the Spartan record at 104 and has three years left to put that mark out of reach for awhile.

In three other events, although no high finishes were recorded, Lake Forest's school records were set in what has been a record smashing year for the girls.

Carol Payne lowered her mark in the 200 hurdles, to 31.2 from 31.4. Payne then united with Carolyn Winder, Donna Pardee and Annette Baynard for new mark of 4.13.4, in the 1600 meter relay.

Finally, the 800 meter mark of 1.48.5 was dropped to 1.48.3 by Michelle Mango, Sheri Durant, Pandora Scott and Nancy Badman.

Hershey Meet Scheduled

Kent County Levy Court, through its Parks and Recreation Department, will sponsor the Hershey National Track and Field program. Boys and girls between 9 and 14 years of age can compete in the event which will take place June 13 from 9:00 - 12 noon at the Lake Forest High School track. Rain date is June 14.

Winners in the County meet will advance to the State meet to be held at Lake Forest High School July 11 from 9:00 - 12 noon. State meet winners are eligible for selection to the regional team which will travel to Charleston, West Virginia in August to compete in the National Finals.

Events conducted include the 50-meter dash, 100-meter dash, 200-meter dash, 400-meter relay, 800-meter run, 1500-meter run, standing long jump and the softball throw.

The Hershey program involves more than 2.5 million youngsters from all 50 states and the district of Columbia. It is conducted by the National Recreation and Park Association in cooperation with the National Track & Field Hall of Fame, the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports and Hershey Food Corporation.

Registration forms can be obtained at your local school office or the Kent County Recreation Office. Deadline for registration is June 8. For more information, call the Recreation Office at 736-2090.

Students Scale Heights In "Olympics of the Mind"

Ten students in Miss Kathy Harrington's 5th and 6th grade G.R.O.W. classes at Woodbridge recently teamed up to scale state heights in "Olympics of the Mind". The team placed first in the bucketball Division II of the statewide competition and will represent their school as well as Delaware in the national finals to be held this week at Glassboro State College in New Jersey.

The "Olympics of the Mind", originated at Glassboro as a competition challenging creativity, imagination and intellectual ability.

In the bucketball division teams were asked to devise methods of moving a tennis ball from one bucket to another ten feet away, without using their hands.

The Woodbridge winning designs included a lobster like claw which cradled the ball lacrosse stick fashion, a Martian with two antennae which picked up the ball, a basket-like girl, a paper mache bird built around corn tongs and a pair of stuffed gloves, paper mached and operated on a wooden dowel.

The ten team members are Heather Nennsthiel, Dawn Denton, Heath Chasanov, Eric Willey, Joyce Penn, Chris Maddox, Nathan Jones, David Kramer, J. J. Carter and Melissa Sylvia.

All ten are students from the gifted and talented Project G.R.O.W. a class which, according to Miss Harrington "focuses on creative and thought-provoking activities."

Sussex County 4-H

Calendar of coming events: June 15-20 - 1st week Delaware State 4-H Camp, Camp Barnes; June 22-27 - 2nd week Delaware State 4-H Camp, Camp Barnes

The Sussex County 4-H Link Spring Fair, held recently at the University of Delaware Substation, was a tremendous success. Over 100 4-H'ers exhibited projects and participated in special events during the day long fair.

The activities were highlighted by a food preservation workshop presented by Jacalyn Taylor a member of the Seaford Blue Jays and an archery demonstration by Ray Vincent from the Sycamore 4-H Club.

Congratulations to all 4-H'ers who participated and received ribbons at the fair. The following is a partial list of the first place winners of the special events:

Bike Rodeo: Tim Lank, Broadkill Kool Kats; Archery: Ray Vincent, Sycamore; Frisbee Contest: Ronnie Culver & Dwight Bragdon, Sycamore; Small Engine Driving: Todd Marvel, Lord Baltimore; Dog Show: Short Hair Grooming - Karena Thek, Lucky Clover; Long Hair Grooming - Paula Eakin, Dublin Hill; Obedience - Jeff Allen, Bridgeville Wild Cats; Original Costume - Kelly O'Bier, Greenwood Hi-Flyers; Musical Chairs - Karena Thek, Lucky Clover; Pet Show: Best Groomed - Pam Hitchens, Sycamore; Most Unusual - Amy Elliott, Greenwood Hi-Flyers; Best Dressed - Karen Stanton, Sycamore.

The Spring Fair is sponsored each year by the Sussex 4-H Links Association to help members prepare for the Delaware State Fair.

They Had a Field Day!

The faculty-sixth grade softball game was dampened out, but for the most part it was fun in the sun for both students and faculty as Lake Forest North Elementary held a field day on Friday, May 29.

Face painting - a popular activity kept some, like teachers Robin Dean (above left) and students Jay DeGood (above right) busy most of the day. For those interested in strenuous competition there were relay races for which some like Thomas Brand received ribbons from gym teacher Peggy Cagle (left). For those who preferred stretching the mind there was Barbara Trent's Math Station (below left) where Ernest Masten came within three peanuts of perfect in guessing the total number. His prize was in the bag. And anyone who just wanted to puzzle it all out could report to teachers Sharon Smith and Rae Ann Redman (below right) who were in charge of the Giant Jigsaw created by students in the Art Club.

Other activities included a Graffiti Mural, a Scavenger Hunt and Bobbing for Apples. Co-Chairmen who planned the day were Peggy Coyle, Robin Dean and Jeanne Callaway. But they had the cooperation of the whole school, including the cafeteria staff who prepared picnic bag lunches.

Lobsters live about eight years.

They are fully equipped to repair and install any two-way radio or CB. The men here are fully trained and schooled in their work and to assist you in servicing and maintaining your system regardless of its size.

These are services that require an expert with training and experience to assure you of prompt, professional service.

The people of this concern are experts, which is the reason for their continued success. They do only quality work at reasonable prices. Remember that this is not a job for the amateur, if you need a local, base to mobile or long range mobile to mobile communications, see these professionals first. The price is right and the service is the best.

The writers of this "Do You Know Your Business Community?" are proud to present CONK'S COMMUNICATIONS SERVICE to our readers. We endorse their fair and ethical service to our community.

QUILLEN'S MARKET

"The Colonel Invites You To Shop"

There are quite a few grocery stores throughout our area, so there has to be a reason why people drive for miles to shop at QUILLEN'S MARKET, located at 208 Dorman St., in Harrington.

Actually, there are three reasons: quality meats, well-stocked shelves and courteous personnel who strive to serve you in any way they can.

This fine grocer always keeps a good supply of fine meats - all the way from hamburger to New York strip steak - fresh produce, plenty of all types of canned goods and the area's freshest dairy products. Their meat department can handle all of your needs, including quarters or sides of beef for your freezer.

QUILLEN'S MARKET always has a good supply of those "incidental" items, too, such as cigarettes, pop, beer and snacks, that you may find yourself all of a sudden out of.

So stop in the next time you need groceries. Whether you stop by to prepare for a visit from 10 dinner guests or merely to pick up a pack of cigarettes or a six-pack of Coke or beer, you'll always be greeted by a friendly, courteous employee who wants to see you coming back again and again.

The days of the 15-cent loaf of bread and the nickel bottle of pop are gone. So also, unfortunately, is something many old-time grocers insisted upon: friendly service. QUILLEN'S MARKET doesn't have bread for 15 cents or pop for a nickel, but the friendliness, gone at many grocers, remains at this fine store.

PARADEE GAS CO.

ARDON WASTE OIL SERVICE

America's newspapers, newscasts and magazines are filled with reports of water pollution, air pollution and the energy crisis. No one, layman or expert, would deny that we definitely have these problems, but there are few businesses or individuals who are striving to do anything positive to help correct the present situation.

One locally owned and operated firm in Wyoming, ARDON WASTE OIL SERVICE, call 492-8454, is doing something! ARDON WASTE OIL SERVICE specializes in the removal of waste oils for businesses and industrial concerns in this area.

The people at ARDON WASTE OIL

SERVICE are not content, however, with merely disposing of these products. In some cases these oils can be recycled, which aids us not only in preventing pollution, but also in helping to ease our present energy crunch. They are fully knowledgeable in all the latest methods of disposal and recycling.

So as editors of this "Do You Know Your Business Community?" we are pleased to commend ARDON WASTE OIL SERVICE - its management and employees - on a job well done. For expert waste oil removal and disposal, call this energy and ecology-minded firm at 492-8454.

CAPITAL AMBULATORY TRANSPORT SERVICE, INC.

Phone 734-3800, CAPITAL AMBULATORY TRANSPORT SERVICE, INC., for local or long distance emergency ambulance and transport service.

Safety, comfort and efficiency epitomizes the service that this civic minded ambulance company renders the people of this area. Everyone connected with this organization has but one goal in mind - the unanimous determination to meet every emergency and every call with individualized attention and the maximum of safety, promptness and comfort. The men in this business organization are trained technicians and use only the most modern techniques in their air conditioned, oxygen equipped ambulances.

People are prone to take for granted the services of the ambulance concern, little realizing the untiring efforts the men operating such a business must constantly put forth so that they are ready for any and all calls. Remember to phone 734-3800 for prompt, round-the-clock service.

CAPITAL AMBULATORY TRANSPORT SERVICE, INC. features radio dispatched service seven days a week. Their certified emergency medical technicians are always on call for your medical emergencies. They cooperate with Medicare, Medicaid, Blue Cross, Blue Shield and other insurance companies.

We, the writers, commend this ambulance service in this "Do You Know Your Business Community?" for their fine efforts in behalf of the residents of this area.

BINDER'S FINE CARPET

As many interior decorators will tell you, the first step in any successful decorator scheme is tasteful, stylish carpeting. When it comes to quality and value, many area homeowners have in increasing numbers been turning to BINDER'S FINE CARPET, where quality in fine carpeting has become a standard other dealers are measured against.

Carpeting for every room of your home or business, in every conceivable color or style, awaits you at BINDER'S FINE CARPET in Dover at 462 N. du Pont Hwy., phone 674-5885.

Their experienced carpeting consultants have a wide variety of suggestions to accommodate most any decorator scheme. The people at this low-key store don't believe high pressure sales has any place in good customer relations. They want to sell you the carpeting of your choice and thus highlight your home at a price within your budget.

So if you've been too long putting off recarpeting your home or office, may we suggest a visit to this fine store. Whether you want to recarpet your entire 10-room home or merely one small bedroom, you'll get the same courteous attention.

The editors of this "Do You Know Your Business Community?" give this fine carpet retailer our total recommendation. Buying from BINDER'S FINE CARPET is like buying direct from America's oldest, top-quality mills.

DOVER RENT-ALL

If you enjoy do-it-yourself projects around your home, you know it would take a building three times the size of your garage to hold every tool or piece of equipment you'll ever need. Furthermore, it doesn't make much sense to shell out anywhere from $5 to several hundred dollars on an item you may use only once a year or worse, never again.

Save your cash by renting that instantly needed item from DOVER RENT-ALL at 54 Roosevelt Ave. in Dover, phone 674-1177.

No, they don't stock everything, but if you can't find it at DOVER RENT-ALL, we'd be surprised. They stock everything from trenchers, pressure washers, steam cleaners, and blasters and floor sanders to banquet supplies, campaign fountains to rugged chain saws to cut up that limb which fell off your oak tree, rototillers to get your vegetable garden ready for planting, all sizes and many brands of pumps, hand tools, automotive supplies and carpet cleaning equipment.

The rates are competitive and all the items are in top condition. They will rent items to you by the hour or day. Don't go out and pay $50 for a tool you'll use once in a blue moon. Save money by renting it from DOVER RENT-ALL, the region's number one rental headquarters. Call 674-1177 now to locate the tools or equipment you need.

WATKINS TRUCK INC.

This progressive truck dealer, WATKINS TRUCKS INC., on Route 13 in Harrington, phone 398-4723, is considered by many to be the most outstanding dealer in Delmarva Peninsula. This is your authorized dealer and service headquarters for White Trucks and Mercedes-Benz Diesel trucks. In their New Castle location, WATKINS TRUCKS also features authorized GMC sales and service.

People who make their living behind the wheels of trucks can be tough to please. They know what they want and take service into consideration as much as the price of the truck or its model or make.

With this in mind, the people at WATKINS TRUCKS have built a business based on service. Not only can you get the unit suited exactly for your needs at WATKINS TRUCKS, but service after the sale, as well. They want to be certain that their customers come back!

In this day and age with so many firms offering trucks for sale, the wisest thing you can do is to get with a winner, one with experience, who will deal fairly and honestly.

We suggest to our readers who are thinking of buying a new or used truck, that they see the friendly people at WATKINS TRUCKS INC. for a better buy on a better truck from people you can trust.

KEEN COMPRESSED GAS CO., INC.

Frederica Fair

this weekend have proved to be the major stumbling block. However, with the cooperation of a number of individuals and groups in the community, Saturday will indeed begin with a parade.

Parade participants will include Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies, the Frederica Town Council, a fire truck, representation from the Senior Citizens and the Hubert A.M.E. Church. At least one horse and two clowns (otherwise known as Mrs. Walls and Mrs. Gussett). The last two will also appear at the fair to offer all those interested the chance to "Be a clown." The magic of make-up will be their medium.

The parade line-up is set to begin at 10 a.m. on the bridge on South Market Street. From there, the half mile route will take participants north on Market to St. Agnes where they will turn left. From St. Agnes Street the parade will turn right onto Jackson Street and proceed to Route 12. The last leg of the journey will lead up David Street past a reviewing stand to be located on the grassy plot behind Trinity Church and across from the bank. After crossing Market Street, the parade will disband at the Fire Hall, site of many fair activities.

From then on it will be fun and games and good things to eat for the remainder of the day. A variety of booths and games are planned, and refreshments will abound. Heading the list are chicken and ham platters (to be served at Trinity Church) and lots of homemade ice cream.

J & J CERAMICS

If you're among the many looking for an exciting and creative new hobby, let the friendly people at J & J CERAMICS in Dover at 666 South DuPont Hwy., phone 678-2845, show you their full stock of quality ceramic supplies and equipment available for sale on both a wholesale and retail basis.

Together with their fine line of high quality merchandise and realistic prices, they can show you how to inexpensively begin now on any one of a number of new projects, and if you wish, they can arrange instructions on any of them.

Not only are hobbies of this kind very enjoyable, but they are a good way to relax through creating many practical articles for use in your home, as decorating accents and to give as gifts.

The line featured here includes national brand name merchandise. One newer facet of their business is the reproduction of antique porcelain dolls. In fact, they are the only authorized distributor in the State of Delaware for Scele's Porcelain, a brand considered by some major doll manufacturers to be one of the best on the market today.

We suggest to the people of this area who are looking for a constructive and fun way to enjoy their spare hours that they visit J & J CERAMICS soon or call 678-2845.

MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN

There's nothing fancy about MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN, so it's got to be the great food which keeps bringing people back again and again. If you enjoy dining out with your family and not paying a fortune demanded at the so-called "exclusive restaurants," don't you owe it to yourself and your family to visit MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN.

Located at Main and State in Ellendale, phone 422-7974, this quality restaurant specializes in steak, chicken and seafood to satisfy most anyone. If you're tired of paying a fortune just to sit in the midst of a restaurant's luxurious decor, MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN is your type of restaurant.

The owner at MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN feels that by holding the prices down, she'll attract more customers who come to get a good meal, not stare at fancy furniture or lighting fixtures.

The editors of this "Do You Know Your Business Community?" urge folks in the area who want a good meal at a good price to visit MILDRED'S COUNTRY KITCHEN often.

Biden Meets Senior Citizens

Editor's Note: The Harrington Journal was the only newspaper in the state in attendance at this very important meeting.

Last Thursday Senator Joseph Biden (D-Del.) met with a packed house at the Modern Maturity Center in Dover to talk mainly about social security benefits as well as speak out on other topics. These were some of his comments.

ON SOCIAL SECURITY

"The President has called for tremendous cuts in social security benefits in order to help the fiscal situation of the government. There are three places to cut...and he says we must cut in one area. They are 1) social programs 2) military....where he has instead proposed a $160 billion increase in spending or 3) social security...where he has allocated the cuts. He has also proposed to delay the July 3rd increase of 11.2% until sometime in October which would be a savings of $2 billion. On early retirement...i.e. at 62, the program calls for a reduction in benefits of approximately 1/5...but in the Reagan plan it would be reduced by 50%, and over a 5 year program would be a savings of over $45 billion.

At this point Senator Biden pointed out that he led a small minority of Senators against these proposed cuts and recently on the floor of the Senate in Washington the vote on Pres. Reagan's cuts were voted down by Republican and Democrats alike by 97-0. "Normally my father does not call me on matters of government...or how to vote on issues, but when he heard the President had proposed cuts, I got a note from my secretary that my dad had called. I thought maybe something was wrong with Mom or my sister. So I called and he told me in no uncertain terms "...that if you vote along with the President on this...as you have on some other issues recently...then don't bother to come to dinner anymore." Then he pointed to the audience and said you must do the same thing. You must tell your elected representatives that you are against cuts too."

RATIO OF PEOPLE ON THE WORK FORCE AND THOSE WORKING

At first when social security came in, one person received benefits for every 4 people working. "Then when I went to Washington 9 years ago, it was two receiving benefits for every 2 working, and now it is more like one to one." The reasons are that people are taking early retirement and they are living longer. "Of course I am against double dipping (where you retire from, say, military but get a civilian job. He opposed that in the past.)

IS SOCIAL SECURITY BANKRUPT

"Many feel the social security trust fund is bankrupt. The answer is no...and there is no danger it will be in the near future. We have surpluses in Medicare of $13 billion...the general fund...and other trusts which could be moved around and balanced out. But...if some measures are not taken now...there will be a problem in 10 years from now." He allocated a program which would be a planned one rather than starting a program right now which would conflict with what people have planned.

ON PROPOSED TAX CUTS

The Senator feels the graduated income tax schedule is not fair "because instead of it being one where you are taxed more in what you make...the system worked against those in low to middle income." He proposes reform in the tax system. "The oil depletion allowance should be done away with completely....they don't need it and it would save billions of dollars. We need tax breaks for businesses for housing so that young people can afford to buy homes again. He added he agrees with his colleague Sen. Robert Dole (R-Kansas), head of the finance committee who favors a 25% cut plus carried over a 4-year program, and he favors tax reforms for low income persons. Biden favors the windfall profits tax "...only I want the percent of the tax put back to where he originally designated it. We had a deal...and now the President is in favor of reducing that figure by 30%. That figure would make up the deficits in social security that we face in the social security program in the future.

ON DELMARVA POWER

A question from the audience about why we must pay high electrical rates and high fuel adjustment charges, "I have said for years that they are not managed very well...and they don't like me for it. As a utility company, they feel they should have a guaranteed 8 1/2% profit. They say they must have a good portfolio to borrow money to built plants. I have also said that they are building too many plants...or that the plants they are building are too large. You and I have to pay for this expansion. And I say this is wrong because in most cases, the plants are not working up to capacity. They have to make enough money by charging you and me enough to 1) pay the mortgage, 2) pay the employees, 3) pay for the fuel to run the plant, and 4) to get their guaranteed 8 1/2% profit. So far so good, but in Delaware, I contend they have been overbuilding. So in '79 I said they had built 50% more than they needed. They say conserve energy. So what do we do...we start turning off the lights, use the hot water heater less...but what happens? Our electric bill goes higher and higher. Why? Because we are paying for the building program. We are paying for the mistakes made. Why...the fuel adjustment so much here in Delaware. I don't know but I will find out. I do know this, they are within their rights to pass that charge off to the consumer. That's just good business.

WILL ENERGY COSTS RISE

Yes...energy costs will continue to rise. Natural gas prices will more than double in the near future due to the deregulation of prices there. We have a glut of oil on the market now....Remember a few years ago when we had long lines waiting at the gas pump. There wasn't a shortage of gas and oil. There were tankers in the Delaware Bay, loaded, waiting to get into port...but they held them out there. It was just a way to get the price up there.

WHAT IS THE PRIME RATE

This is a misnomer. The prime rate used to be a rate charged to big preferential customers which was the bank's rate. Now the prime rate is the rate charged to the average person in the street and big business customers get a low lower rate than prime rate. It is not what many major newspapers in this country have reported as being the lowest possible rate. It is not.

CLOSING REMARK

Senator Biden said he favors tax reform and a gradual tax cut over the next several years, housing money at low rates for low income people, more benefits to senior citizens and not cuts in the social security program, doing away with oil depletion allowance, and putting back the original amount to be taxed on the windfall profits tax.
