Calvert County fugitive arrested here

The Felton Police with the assistance of the Harrington Police Department captured an escapee wanted on fugitive warrants issued in 1979 in Calvert County, Maryland. Earl K. Breeden who was sought in connection with two burglaries and thefts in Calvert County Maryland turned out, upon investigation to be the person wanted by the Calvert County Sheriff's office. Breeden had been serving time there on a felony conviction.

Breeden, along with Harry L. Roberts, Jr., Robin L. Roberts and Thomas N. Cahall, all of Harrington, was arrested on Hanley Street here. The four were picked up and charged in connection with thefts which reportedly occurred in November 1981 at the old feed mill on Walnut and High Street in Felton. The incidents, however, were not discovered until early January when they were reported by the mill's owner Harold C. Hill. The mill is no longer in operation, but some items are stored there.

Taken on two separate occasions were an antique cash register, subsequently sold at Spence's Sale and some brass fittings and other items which turned up at Milford Salvage Company.

When the Felton police first approached Breeden, it was not known that he was an escapee. But he was described as "acting uneasy". A check with the National Crime Information Center turned up the Calvert County warrants. The sheriff's office there asked the local police to hold Breeden.

He was also charged by the Harrington Police Department with carrying a concealed deadly weapon, an 8 1/2 inch folding knife. Bond on the deadly weapon charge was set at $2,500. There was no bail set on the fugitive charges. Breeden is now being held at Delaware Correctional Center until he can be returned to Calvert County to face charges as an escaped convict there.

Also in DCC is Harry Roberts, Jr. who was charged with theft, burglary, conspiracy and receiving stolen goods. Released under $3,000 unsecured bond, was Robin Roberts who was charged with burglary, theft and conspiracy. Freed on $1,500 bond on charges of theft and burglary was Thomas Cahall.

The arrests were made by Felton Police Chief Mike Olliver and PFC Ronald Fortin, assisted by Harrington Patrolman Jeffrey Cook. Sergeant William Jopp of the Harrington force was instrumental in tracking down information. The Harrington Police Department said this was the second arrest of a criminal fugitive here in two months.

In Felton, Chief Mike Olliver reported a string of ten or more fire wood thefts were apparently solved with the arrest of two Felton area men William C. Finkbinder and John James Hickman. The two were observed in the act of taking firewood by Frances W. Morris of Felton. They were charged with attempted theft.

A CHANGING OF THE GUARD - At Peck Brothers Farm Supply Company, which has been in continuous business here since it was started in 1937 by Charles L. Peck, Sr. Known than as Charles L. Peck and Son, it was located on the railroad side of Hanley Street opposite the site now occupied by the telephone company office. In 1946 after Charles Peck, Jr. and Thomas Peck had completed World War II military service, Thomas Peck bought the business from his father and the partnership, which became Peck Brothers Farm Supply Company was relocated to Harrington Avenue. A third generation of the Peck family is doing well, but has not chosen to continue with the business which had the first Southern States franchise in Harrington. Charles W. Peck, son of Charles Jr. (left) a graduate of the University of Delaware is employed by the state in Family Court in New Castle County. Kevin Peck, a graduate of the University of Delaware, is in the first year of law school of Villanova University, and Candace Peck Haughton, also a University of Delaware graduate, teaches English at Dover High School. They are the son and daughter of Thomas Peck (right). Taking over the business is Roger Hudson, who brings with him many years of experience in Southern States dealerships all over the peninsula as well as with the regional office in Seaford. He and his wife Ruth resides in Seaford and have three children.

Landlord arrested

A Harrington area landlord was in Delaware Correctional Center, Smyrna this week after he allegedly pulled a gun on two of his former tenants.

Thomas Steerman was taken into custody after he pulled a car over on Commerce Street in the block between Dorman and Mispillion Street and cocked and aimed a 22 caliber pistol at its occupants. In the car were Robert Warren, Jr. and his wife who were former Grant St. tenants of Steerman. Also in the car was Robert Warren, Sr. of Milford.

The apparent issue was a civil dispute involving the Grant St. house formerly rented by the Warrens. Steerman reportedly was under court order to allow the Warrens to retrieve their personal property from the house. He had earlier locked up the residence and refused to allow them to take anything from it.

After the incident last week, Steerman was arrested and charged with reckless endangering and two counts of criminal solicitation. After being arraigned in Court 6, Harrington, he was confined to DCC in default of a total of $45,000 bond pending a preliminary hearing at the Court of Common Pleas on February 4.

Pole stops argument

A quarrel between two Delaware residents ended with a bang early Sunday morning as the car in which they were riding slammed against an electric pole on the Harrington-Fredonia Road (County Route 35) 2.3 miles north east of Harrington. Both the driver of the vehicle, a 1973 Ford Pinto, Juanita Scott of Harrington and a passenger, Reginald D. Potts were slightly injured in the incident which occurred about 3:30 a.m.

According to a state police report, Ms. Scott was heading west on Rt. 35 when she and Potts became involved in an argument. Potts grabbed the steering wheel and jerked it to the right. In attempting to pull the wheel back to the left, Ms. Scott lost control of the car which traveled 50 feet before slamming into the utility pole belonging to Delaware Electric Cooperative.

A nearby resident, Wayne Brown, Jr., was awakened by the impact which "shook the windows" of his home and by the continuous of the family's dog. When the dog's barking persisted, he investigated and subsequently an emergency phone call brought the Delaware State Police and the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company to the scene.

Ms. Scott and Potts were taken by the Harrington Fire Company to Milford Memorial Hospital where she was treated for bruises and he for a laceration of the forehead. Both were released. Potts was arrested and charged with interfering with the operation of the vehicle, pending an arraignment in Court 6, Harrington.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,
It seems we're all entitled to our opinions. After hearing some, I sometimes wonder why. To make a long story short, being an active parent of four active children, I've seen a lot of things go on. It seems we take a lot for granted. Our children are active in church, CYC, AFS, cheerleading, 4-H, Girl Scouts, Little League and Band. I know we do a lot of running, getting them to meetings, practices, parades, games and matches, and I know sometimes it wears thin, but I also know the leaders of these organizations, the directors, advisors and helpers work hard all year long for "our kids"! I know we watch with pride as our children grow and succeed, we help, but so do all these other people. Sometimes, we say thanks, other times we think (not out loud), so no one knows but us, a job well done, and other times we listen.

Last week some disgruntled band parents presented a letter of complaints to the school board. I wonder if they knew that the advisors don't get paid a salary or hourly wage. They do get $200.00 a year for expenses. If they live in Harrington, that means they drive approximately 7 to 8 miles to school and then back home again 5 days a week for 7th period, from September to Christmas. They drive up on Wednesday and Friday evenings, and they too start their practice in August, so they give up part of their vacation. After Christmas they get ready for Spring. Add up the hours and the mileage, I think you'll see it costs the advisor to give of her time. I wonder how many of these parents would stop whatever they're doing every day at 2:00 o'clock, jump in their car, drive to the High School, work for nothing (except complaints) go back home, give up their Wednesday and Friday

The Spartan boys' varsity basketball team moved into first place in the Southern Henlopen Conference with a 70-60 win over Sussex Central Friday night. The win finished a week in which the Spartans were downed by Milford but rebounded to defeat Delmar and S.C. Spartans Dale Benson (above, left) and towering forward Kevin Moehlenkamp (right) have figured in those victories. The boys are now in the conference. By present contrast, Pat Dyal's girls varsity, once in first place, last week dropped to third with a downer to Milford and two heartbreaking losses, to Delmar by one point and to Sussex Central [59-56]. They are currently 4-4 in the Southern division.

P.S. At the time I wrote this letter, I had no idea that Dale Burkhard had also been attacked, burned at the stake, as it was put to me. For that I am very sorry. I'm sorry Dale had to be put through this. I think he's a fine Band Director. I don't know of another who would take a Saturday and ride 25 miles in a bik-a-thon for "our kids". My husband and I both think he should be commended for a job well done. We are very pleased with what he has done for our Band, and we're proud that our daughter has had the opportunity to be exposed to what a really fine teacher he is and the opportunity to work and learn from such a fine man.

Dear Editor:

A young women's leadership training organization is being officially recognized during the week of February 7-13. The organization, the United States Jayceettes, is currently the fastest growing women's organization in America.

The Harrington Jayceettes are members of the U.S. Jayceettes and have been active in the community of Harrington with various projects to aid the Library Fund, Historical Society Building Fund and the Senior Center. In addition, the Harrington Jayceettes have held free CPR for the community, provided Needy Food Baskets for area residents, participated in Heritage Day, and assisted the Jaycees on several community projects such as Muscular Dystrophy and the Christmas Parade.

On behalf of the Harrington Jayceettes, I would like to thank the citizens and merchants of Harrington for their continued support and help during the past year.

At the January meeting of the Delaware Zipper Club, we were delighted to have as our speaker, Mr. Gary R. Bickford of the DuPont Co. He has been involved in sales of DuPont's Automated Clinical Analyzer and presently is in the promotion of a new product which speeds up the diagnosis of Subacute Bacterial Endocarditis.
Speaking at our meeting on February 1 was Mr. Richard Jorgensen, director of the American Heart Association of Delaware. Our next meeting will be on Monday, March 1, 1982. For further information on the Delaware Zipper Club, call Toby at 335-5487. Share a ride!

Carnations will last longer if you add a bit of boric acid to the water in the vase.

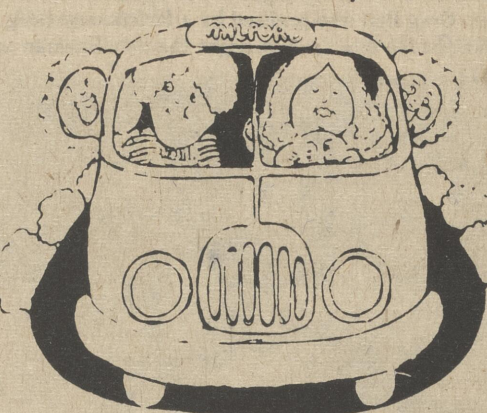

Why do so many women come to Milford, Delaware on Saturday Morning?

They come in car pools and sometimes even rented buses to save 40 to 75 percent on the finest bedspreads, made to measure draperies and linens. Open the first and third Saturdays of each month 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

CITY OF HARRINGTON REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING 8 FEBRUARY 1982 7:30 P.M. CITY HALL

ATTENTION Young Women Between The ages of 18 & 35!!! INTERESTED IN... COMMUNITY SERVICE? LEADERSHIP TRAINING? ISSUES FACING TODAY'S WOMEN? AND A WHOLE LOT OF FUN?

The Harrington Jayceettes welcome you to visit us at our regular monthly meetings held the 2nd Wednesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. The First National Bank of Harrington. For further information, call Janet Rettig, Treasurer, at 398-8476.

Health Tip OF THE WEEK

CITRUS FRUITS Citrus fruits are well known as great sources of Vitamin C, but when eating them, don't eat the skins. Oranges, lemons, grapefruit, etc. are sprayed with pesticides and chemicals on the trees. It is difficult to remove these chemicals even with thorough washing. So, enjoy the fruit and juice, but avoid the peels. Health is precious... let us help protect yours
