Connie Gerardi/Kelly Brown named Miss & Little Miss Harrington

Connie Gerardi added another accomplishment to her growing list as she accepted the Miss Harrington 1982 crown in a tearful finale to the annual Harrington Lions CLub pageant staged at Lake Forest High School Saturday night. The honor caps a busy year for the LF junior, daughter of Wanda and Eugene Gerardi of Harrington. So far in 1981-82 Connie has won numerous FFA honors including being voted chapter Sweetheart and being selected first runner up in the state FFA Sweetheart contest held at the annual convention last month. Just recently she represented Lake Forest in the Presidential Classroom held in Washton, D.C. Later this year she will be a participant in Girls State.

In the Little Miss competition, it was Kelly Brown, daughter of Howard and Bonnie Brown, who won the hearts of the judges to come out ahead in a field of nine candidates seeking the 1982 title.

In addition to numerous prizes, Miss and Little Miss Harrington won the right to represent the community in the Delmarva Polutry Princess Page ant planned for Easton, Md., in early June.

First runner up in the Miss Harrington contest was Debbie Simpson, daughter of James and Mary Simpson. Stephani Draper, daughter of Alan and Anna Mae Draper, was named "Miss Congeniality" by the girls who participated in the 1982 pageant. Two runners up were chosen in the Little Miss division. They were Tamara Welch, daughter of Edward and Cheryl Welch, and Tammy McHugh, daughter of Donald and Diane Mc-Hugh. All Miss Harrington contestants were interviewed on stage by emcee Charlie Brown during the casual dress competition which preceded the talent and evening gown presentations. During the evening gown phase, each had to come up with an answer to an indiviual "surprise" question. Connie Gerardi sang Barbara Streisand's "Evergreen" as her talent contribution. Later, in answer to the special question, she told Charlie Brown that increased technology makes a college education even more important than ever in today's world. Debbie Simpson offered the vocal solo, "Jesus is the Son of God" in the talent competition. Answereing her surprise question she said 22 is probably the best age for a girl to marry. That way, she would have time to finish college. Stephani Draper did a baton routine to an Olivia Newton John number. In answer to the question, "What would you like to change about yourself?", decided there wasn't really anything she wanted to change. Vonda Hilderbrand offered a pantomime to "Harper Valley PTA". Asked what she would do with $1,000 if she won it, Vonda said the money would be salted away in a bank account for college and the future. Cathy Johnson was asked where she would take an AFS student visiting Delaware. Miss Johnson would start with historic highlights, but also include some neat places like Rehoboth. Cathy performed an aerobic dance routine in the talent competition.

Shauna LynnVogl, song, "How Much is that Doggy in the Window?" and Tamara Welch, recitation, "I Have a Pair of New Shoes"

Escorts for the five Miss Harrington contestants were Richie Sapp and Charles Jones. Jason Dean and Bobby Bishop escorted the Little Miss contestants.

Miss Harrington 1981, Jill Oakley, and Little Miss Harrington 1981, Heather Beauchamp, entertained the audience before crowning their successors.

Intermission entertainment came from the comedy trio of Norman Kates and Rex and Bill Mears who are annual show stoppers at the Seaford Lions Club Variety Show.

Co-chairmen for this year's Miss Harrington pageant were Bill Outten and Ralph Butler. Coordinators for the Miss and Little Miss contestants were Sandra Butler and Irene Outten. This was Mrs. Outten's fourteenth year of service in organizing the little girls. After welcoming the pageant audience, Harrington Lions President Jim Olson provided music during contest intervals and also served as accompanist for several of the contestants.

Area man jailed in murder plot

Former Harrington resident and businessman Kenneth G. Aiken, 56, was jailed recently after he reportedly made a $2,500 down payment on his son-in-law's murder.

Aiken was arrested in a Winchester, Virginia motel room on March 26 after state police there heard a taped transaction during which Aiken delivered the $2,500 to an unidentified private citizen who had tipped them off: The money was allegedly the initial payment on a $10,000 fee to be paid for the murder of Joseph B Chopek, of Vienna Virginia. Chopek is the estranged husband of Aiken's daughter Debbie.

The meeting during which the $2,500 payment was made was secretly taped. It resulted in Aiken's arrest on a charge of soliciting a felony (murder). Grimes, who said the matter is still under investigation, declined to speculate on a possible motive for the murder plot which was never carried out.

Aiken was held in Fredferick County jail, but later freed on $20,000 bond. Arraignment is set for April 14.

Currently a resident of Springfield, Virginia, Aiken once made his home on Weiner Avenue in Harrington where he operated Aiken Oil Company at the present site of Ocean Fresh Seafood on U.S. 13. At one time he was also

That appointment is likely to be made at the May 6 regular meeting. The regular meeting night of the Houston Council will continue to be on the first Thursday of the month.

Leaf Burning a Problem

It was brought to the attention of the Council last Thursday that the practice of raking leaves into the streets to burn them damages the road surface. The heat from the burning leaves causes the surface to become soft and spongy. Eventually a pothole develops in the place and what looked like a good idea turns out to have been a costly practice in terms of car and road repairs. The Council via the town newsletter will ask residents not to burn leaves in the road surface. In other business, the Council voted to ask for bids for trash removal and snow removal. The contracts will be awarded for the fiscal year from July 1 to June 30.

The 1982 Little Miss, Kelly Brown, recited "After My Bath" and then sang "Playmate" for the benefit of judges and audience. Performances by the eight other little

Gab Fest by Pat Hatfield

Today, when I awoke Ihad to hunt real hard to find something to be glad about. Do you all have mornings like this? Of course I am always thankful for another day stretching ahead of me with all its potential, and I look forward eagerly to the hours that will come. First of all, I realized that I had a very sore throat and just a year ago I was very ill. "Oh, no, not again!" I prayed. Last year I missed all of the springtime which is my favorite of all the seasons. When all the buds were bursting and the birds were singing I was battling desperately in the hospital with pneumonia. By the time I was able to enjoy the out of doors again, the strawberries were ripe and the early peas were ready to be shelled. This was a fine time, too, but Ihad missed all of the resurrection of the life forces in nature.

But in spite of the sore throat, this morning brought me to the gentle rain and the robin song. Robins always seem to sing more joyously in the rain. "B.B.", the little bush bunnie sleeps cozily in his small nest and the gulls are back. How do they know, thirty or forty miles, away over at the seashore, when the farmers start plowing?They follow the tractors in flocks with squeals of joy for the fat grubs and other goodies turned over by the plow. They seem to return home to the shore at sundown.

The plows will not run many days before we will hear the happy call of the killdeer as she flies over, searching for a suitable earth cavity in which to make her crude nest. It is only a few stones and sticks pulled together, but of course her babies start running as soon as they creep out of the shell and dry off. I suppose she feels it is not much use to spend time making an elaborate home.

This morning also brought me a call from my dear friend, Karen, over at lincoln, and it always an inspiration to tal with her and a blessing to renew our faith together. This is true, also, of my friend Tess, who always seems to have morning she suggested that I gargle with warm salt water and vinegar for the sore throat and then "paint" it with a bit of Vick's salve. This I have done and it is some easier.

When the days come to a close I am always concerned to know if I have [Continued on page 5]

Happy Birthday April Folks! Thank YOU! Everyone for everything for the Bazaar!

It is rewarding indeed to see so many smiling faces at such a happy affair as the Bazaar!

The volunteers in the kitchen, phone, dining room, ceramics, crafts, meal delivery, money counting need to be given a special thank you! This too is a good time for us to let Barbara Evans know we appreciate her kind ways in crafts and blood pressure taking. She is fun, too! Thank all of you for any donations you gave, it went to help make the Bazaar a success. Thank you all that came and bought or just visited and looked, everyone of you helped make the day happier.

Bible Study with Mrs. Judy and Mrs. Meredith Monday morning at the Center. Know it was well attended and enjoyed. The singing was good, too. Questions and answers discussed and a prayer ended the hour.

The Jolly Timers had Band practice Tuesday morning. Sylvia made the piano talk. There were not too many present as several were preparing for the Bazaar - so they were excused. Present were Cecil Meredith, Mildred Vincent, Ola Tilden, Tony Perrone, John McCready, Laurence Kates, Nanabel Morrow, Florence Minner, Essie Redden, Elsie Neal and Jo Burke.

Several old time favorites caught hold of my ear as we worked in the craft room. It is so nice to hear the songs drifting through the Center. I just love Tuesday mornings!

Report from Greenwood United Methodist Charge: The Greenwood Charge will celebrate Maundy Thursday on April 8 with Holy Communion at 7 p.m. in the Greenwood Church.

On April 12 there will be a Skating Party at Laurel 7 to 9:30 p.m.

On the evenings of April 18 and 25 at 7 p.m. the pastor will conduct a Marriage and Famiy Life Seminar. Everyone welcome.

Mrs. Lester Huey gives us the report from Trinity Evangelistic Church. There will be services at 10 a.m. onSunday. The church is located on Woodenhawk Rd. #571. On April 4, services by the Rev. Robert Burdette, April 11, Dr. Kanell Broyles; April 18 Ed Shalee. Everyone welcome

Mrs. Ellen Bollinger of Bridgeville and Mrs. Dennard Quillen of Rehoboth were Tuesday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hatfield.

Wednesday practice was Anna Mae Short, John McCready, Tony Perrone, Mamie Adams, Florence Minner, Ola Tilden, Laurence Kates. Frances Wright, Mildred Vincent, Cecil Meredith and of course Sylvia Meredith. Keep up the good work, folks. It truly sounds so-o-o-o good!

Wednesday was card day for me and gracious me, a fine time was had by all present at Kathryn Smith's. Her home was beautifully decorated for Easter. Bunnies, eggs, baskets all in such good taste and referring to taste, boy! You should have tasted dessert, blueberry crisp. Golly, but it was really good. Hazel Langrell was high scorer. Also playing were Ethel Rapp, Alta Harrington, Mildred Wagner, Virginia Willey and Ruth Powell and of course, I was there and enjoyed every minute. Kathryn makes good coffee, too.

Thursday was getting ready for Bazaar.

Friday was Bazaar, glowing faces, pleasant smells of baked goodies and kitchen aromas. Busy hands and lively feet all making a Bazaar Day at Harrington Center a day to remember. must give a special mention to Charlotte who has seen so many bazaars and has been so kind and now we add a new one, Gene, this is third, I believe. Anyway, our directors are so kind and we are fortunate. Come and see us for yourselves! Best wishes to Gladys as she retires. She will be missed. Hope she will be making visits here even though she won't be working. Just to make us feel at home! Kind thoughts to all who are sick and troubled or in sorrow. Be kind to each others.

See you at the Center! Faith.

Bishops Easter Message 1982

Dearly Beloved in Christ w

Having sounded the depths of her Master's sorrows in Holy Week, the Church is aglow on Easter with the triumphant joy of his resurrection. Having followed the way of the cross by our lenten observances and associated ourselves more closely with the redemptive work of our Saviour, we rightly rejoice today in the joyous culmination of the Paschal Myster. Cleansed, refreshed, redeemed in the blood of the Lamb of God, we celebrate the new Passover of God's People with prayerful hymns. "We are an Easter people", St. Augustine said, "and alleluia is our song.'

We are a free people, too, because our Divine Lord broke forever the chains which make humankind captive to the

Asbury United Methodist Church

On Maundy Thursday, April 8 at 8 p.m. our Cathedral Choir will sing the The Easter Sund Tenebrae Service. This dramatic presentation of words and music will surely be meaningful to all of us during Holy Week. Also, communion will be served. The Community Good Friday Service will be held April 9 at St. Paul's A.M.E. Church at 7 p.m. The Rev. Markley will be the speaker and Harrington ministers will participate. On Saturday, April 10 the Annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held from 10, world, the flesh and Satan. If there is any cause for mourning at Easter, it is for those whose unbelief, selfishness and lack of love have kept them imprisoned in the tomb of sin and prevented their rising with Christ to the new life of personal holiness and Christian commitment to God, the Church and the world.

We live in a period of change, unrest and violence. Secular modes of thought and neo-pagan patterns of living dominate society. Our affluence and self-indulgence tend to weaken the moral fiber of conscience and make us unresponsive to the promptings of the Spirit and the needs of our fellow men and women. False notions of liberty foster singularity of opinion and action,

The Easter Sunday Sunrise Service will be at Blair's Pond at 7 a.m. There will be hymn singing, the sermon, special music and a brass ensemble. Easter Sunday Worship will be at 9:45 a.m. for the Church School and the worship service will follow at 11 a.m. Jesus bore our sins on the cross. He died in the place of all sinners. But God shows us the path of life on Easter morning. "And He saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: He is risen...." (Mark 16:6). All are welcome to join with us in the celebration of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

discus, totalling 16 points between them.

Tony Scott upset Cape state champ, Vince Glover to win the triple jump with 44 feet, 7<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> inches, just missing the Spartan school record. Kevin Smith was a strong third (43 feet, 10 inches)

Tony Scott was only a tenth-of-a-second off the winner in the intermediate hurdles and was second to Jerome Scott, in the high hurdles.

Fred Goodman won the high jump again while Jim Shuman and Dave Decker went 2-3 in the pole vault. At Milford, the Spartans did not perform well, as a team, but had too much strength for the Bucs. Gerald Perry took the sprints, setting a new Spartan record of 22.4 for 200 meters. Rob Prutzman spun the discus 137 feet, 9 inches setting another team standard. The old mark was set, also at Miford, by Matt Burgess in 1975. Prutzman, a 6-2, 205 pound sopho- the long jump.

Pae Pulley went 1-2 in the shot and more, has the size and strength to put the discus mark, out-of-reach, with almost three, full seasons remaining. Prutzman also won the shot with 44-10. Page Pulley was second in both weight events.

> Jerome Scott (15.8) and Tony Scott (15.9) were 1-2, in the high hurdles, with Tony capturing the intermediates in 43.3.

Kevin Smith (41-2 1/2) Tony Scott and Fred Goodman swept the triple jump. Goodman twisted a leg and finished second, in the high jump, his first loss ever, in Henlopen competition.

Nelson Mosley rallied to win they 400 meters, in a strong win, in 54.7. Jim Shaman and Dave Decker were 1-3, in the pole vault.

James Browne, Ralph Young, Ray DeShields and Peanut Perry took the 400 meter relay.

Terry Caskey and Tom silkworth were second and third in the 3200 meter run. Kevin Smith was second in

Track girls win at Cape Henlopen

by Keith S. Burgess

Lake Forest's girls' track team opened the 1982 campaign with a 69-63 win, at Cape Henlopen.

The Spartans are a young, talented team. They are tough now and should be a force to be reckoned with for the next two or three seasons, at least. Joanne Smith, a freshman, was 2nd in the 100 meters in 12.8, school record time, then annexed the long jump with 16 ft., 5 <sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> inches, one inch off another and freshmen Carolyn Browne and Patti Drew, to win the 400 meter relay

(53.9). then was first at 200 meters with a school record 34 feet, 3 inches. Clarke meters. was second to Smith, in the long jump Tara Gladden captured the 3200 with 16-1. Karen Gibbs and newcomer meter grind in 13.48 with Justine Christine Nichols had five leaps of Caskey third.

A request was made by the Calvary United Church in Milford to the Ladies. Auxiliary of VFW Post #648 for an American flag to replace the tattered one they were flying. March 12, 1982 a new one was presented to them by Auxilliary president Nell Montgomery and Americanism Chairman Ruth Sizemore. The presentation was made to Mrs. DAWN Ellingsworth, church secretary.

THe poet Joyce Kilmer says, Only GOd can make a tree." There is no rebuke to that, but we, too, can help the cause. Even little girls can help, so the Junior Girl Unit of the Milford VFW Post 6483 planted a tree at the Ingram's Nursing Home this winter. On a very cold windy day, five of them and their leader, Ann Wiltsey, who donated aliving Christmas tree, and VFW Auxiliary President Nell Montgomery turned out to do the planting.

Bill Burton of Hoffman Seed, Bill Hopkins od FMC, Jack Hendricks of Hendricks ans Son, Inc., Austin Goldman of Ciba Geigg and At Malinoski of Delaware Produce Growers. Outstanding Service:

Dave Woodward, Frank Webb and Ed Kee of the University of Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Special Awards:

These awards went to Bobby Fischer of Milford Fertilizer and his sales representative Harvey Kenton. In In making the presentation, FFA President John Wilkins noted, "These men believe in the future of agriculture and know how important it is to recognize young men and women for their achievments so that they will continue to strive for higher goals. THe awards and the banquet that everyone has seen tonight have cost our chapter over $3,000. We would not have this money to spend if it were not for the donations of fertilizer...It also helps us to defra some of the $8,000 it costs us each year to travel to Kansas City.'

Fischer and Kenton each received a gold wall plate in recognition of five years of continuous support and a personnal thank you gift of a pair of cowboy boots made by Tony Lama. The Lake Forest Ag faculty was also recognized with a special presentation in appreciation of its leadership and support.
