

Powell indicted, will plead "not guilty"

Lake Forest Superintendent Dr. Edward M. Powell was expected to plead "not guilty" this week to charges of extortion and income tax evasion. Powell was indicted by a federal grand jury on Tuesday, November 16, on charges brought against him after a year long FBI investigation centering on his relationship with Training Services, Inc., a Wilmington based firm that supplied audio-visual equipment to the Capital School District. The charges stem from 1978-1979 when Powell was at the helm of the Dover schools. He was to answer those charges in Federal District Court in Wilmington on Wednesday, November 24.

The indictment alleges that Powell demanded and received a total of $32,800 from Training Services, Incorporated between January 1978 and November 1979. Allegedly the payments were in return for Powell's assurance that the school district would continue to do business with the firm. Reportedly Capital School District's was the company's largest customer.

According to U.S. Attorney William C. Carpenter, Jr., Training Services, Inc. owned by Albert E. Siegfried, is being considered the victim of extortion. The investigation began when a routine (IRS) audit of Training Service turned up irregularities in the form of expenditures which could not be accounted for, no charges have been brought against the company or its owner.

The indictment against Powell also alleges he failed to report the money from Training Services, Inc. - $23,300 in 1978 and $9,500 in 1979 - on his federal income tax return for those two years. Thus, in addition to the charge of extortion, he faces two charges of income tax evasion.

Conviction on the extortion charge could bring a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Five years in prison and $10,000 fine are the maximum penalties on each of the two counts of tax evasion.

Powell's attorney, Harold Schmittinger of Dover, said the 45 year old school chief would plead not guilty. Otherwise, neither he nor his client had any comment.

Meanwhile, members of the Lake Forest School Board were taking a "wait and see" attitude toward the situation. They say Powell has done an excellent job since July 1981 when he was hired to head Lake Forest Schools. The board will apparently wait for the verdict.

Collision course with foreign markets

Robert B. Delano addresses state members

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

FELTON FIRE HALL, Friday, November 19th - The Delaware State Farm Bureau held its annual meeting at the Felton Fire Hall, and the food served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Felton Fire Company is the kind worthy for royalty. Not only was the food...consisting of their famed fried oysters prepared as no other organization in the world can prepare them...extremely good and hot, so was the speech delivered by the President of the National Farm Bureau, Robert B. Delano of Warsaw, Va.

Warsaw, Virginia is a small town of less than a thousand people located on the western shores of the Chesapeake Bay about 100 miles northeast of Richmond, but even though Warsaw is small in size, Mr. Delano is not. He is a big man with a soft approach to matters at hand. From his speech, one got the impression that at the Tariff and Trade meeting, which he will attend this week in Geneva, Switzerland, as the next highest ranking official of the American delegation behind Secretary of Agriculture Brock, he will be pushing to end government subsidies of foreign governments to their farmers.

"In some parts of Europe and Japan, the governments there are subsidizing their farmers to the point where they are able to throw their products on the open market at a very low price. For instance, they might be able to sell wheat at $2.36 a bushel which they did during this last crop...yet get paid by their government at the rate of between six and seven dollars a bushel. So...you see there is a tremendous incentive for these farmers to participate...but the competitiveness is lost. The American farmer has not been able to compete with these figures. At this time we have mounting surpluses," said Mr. Delano.

This in effect amounts to stealing markets which Mr. Delano claims have been ours for over 20 years. "When these people bring this situation into world trade...then it becomes a world problem," added Mr. Delano. "Japan, on the other hand, has erected barriers...through tariffs...to keep us out. In one sense, it means that we have been going through a wave of protectionism."

He said that if this style of doing business continues with these foreign countries "...then we must meet the force head on, and there are a lot of things we can do if our threats are not adhered to."

In addition to the unfair competition brought on by foreign subsidies to their farmers, "...we are also experiencing a surplus of commodities," he said. This, he explained, is due in part to grain embargos by the U.S. against the Soviet Union and recently against Poland. "This is senseless...for one day nations will realize how silly wars are and just how costly they are so that someday there will be no more wars...hopefully. The embargos allowed the Soviet Union to go out and make long term contracts with Canada and Argentina. The Soviets demand for wheat in '82 were in excess of twenty five billion tons. This would have reduced our surplus considerably," he argued. In the last two years farmers have continued to produce in record quantities unaware that there would be few markets for their grains.

"There are two other problems that have existed which have brought about a surplus and that is the decline of the purchasing power of some nations and the devaluation of the American dollar," he continued. Mr. Delano then pointed out that he felt there was a great opportunity for the American farmer to find outlets for his grain in underprivileged nations.

Another program Mr. Delano feels will help agriculture at this time is a program which will likely go into effect some time in '83. That is what he calls "payment in kind". "This means if the farmer has a base in wheat, he would be paid in wheat. He could convert this to cash...which acts as a bonus...or he could feed it to his stock," said Mr. Delano. This, he pointed out, is another incentive for the farmer to grow crops and seek this form of subsidy. It is an incentive "...and a good one...one which would allow us to compete for the foreign markets which are so essential."

Delano said he is a believer in cycles. "The cycle of trade where first nationalism sets in, then barriers to trade are established...a form of protectionism...then the people argue with each other...then they stop communicating...then they argue and fight, and then start the whole cycle all over again. Where are we today you would ask? I think we are at the stage of calling each other names," he said.

Mr. Delano began his address with "...a theme of thanksgiving" and ended his speech on the same note. "This is a great nation...and we have a lot to be thankful for. Even though we are in a recession...as is agriculture, we have so many benefits." He pointed out in his opening remarks that farmers have experienced great successes in the past. Even though farmers have experienced a very bad year, "...but not as bad as some have stated, for there are some vital signs in other areas of agriculture that indicate that times are good...especially with hogs and beef cattle....We have been through tougher times before and come out...and I feel sure we will this time."

In concluding his address, he gave the Delaware farmers a boost of encouragement when he noted that they have a wonderful record and have achieved great gains.

Minner, Quillen speak to Harrington Chamber

"We're strangling small businesses to death. We've got to do something about it," state Senator-elect Ruth Ann Minner told the Greater Harrington Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night. Minner and Representative-elect Bobby Quillen were guest of the local Chamber at its regular November dinner meeting held in the Fairgrounds Restaurant. Both spoke briefly before responding during a question and answer session.

Minner, who has served in the House of Representatives in the State Legislature, pointed to state achievements at the financial level. A balanced budget with a small surplus this year, she said, was the accomplishment of both Democrats and Republicans.

But Minner said there had been less progress in some areas...Legislation to help small businesses, especially in getting financial aid and in surviving the paperwork jungle were two she mentioned. She said there never seems to be enough money to be effective in helping the small businessman and the small farmer.

Quillen, a former member of the legislature and a current member of the Harrington City Council, will be returning to Dover in January to represent the 30th District. He defeated Democrat Ronald Darling for the seat in elections earlier this month.

Quillen said he would wait to get more fully involved before making extensive comments. However, he did mention making sure the downstate area gets its fair share of highway funds as one concern.

Among other things, the two were questioned about simplifying the permit process so that construction or new business can get started more easily. Minner said a bill to create a one-stop permit application process has been proposed but neglected.

The fate of a once suggested golf course for Killen's Pond State Park was also questioned. Minner did not know, but said she would find out.

Darling will take over Board of Elections Post

Democrat Ronald L. Darling, defeated in a bid for re-election to the state legislature from the 30th Representative District, will take over as administrative director of the Kent County Board of Elections.

Darling was selected last Tuesday at a Board meeting. He will fill the post left vacant by Edna M. Gruwell, who had indicated her plans to retire after the November election.

State law dictates that the board's administrator be from the same political party as the commissioner of elections. The latter post is held by Democrat Lewis C. Wrightson. The Board of Elections itself is composed of three Democrats and three Republicans, all appointed by the governor.

The three Democrats and one Republican voted for Darling's appointment. The remaining two Republicans abstained from voting on the matter.

Also to be replaced is deputy administrative director Rose C. Williams, a Republican. By law, the

Harrington Council to hear proposal for motel

HARRINGTON - The Harrington Journal went to press early this week (on Monday) due to the holidays. The Council was due to meet on Monday night to discuss plans with a group calling themselves Colony Inn who plan to erect a motel on the parcel of land lying on the west side of U.S. 13 between Gordon Street and Liberty Street. The plan is to construct the motel closer to Gordon Street.

According to City Hall the zoning is proper "...what remains now is for the group to obtain a building permit." In order for the City to issue a permit, the site and building plans must be approved together with a decision on the sewer and water. If all is in order the City would be required to furnish sewer and water to the construction site. The closest water line (4 in.) and sewer line would be at Liberty and Dixon. These matters were to be discussed at Monday night's meeting.

The blue prints call for at least 32 units with the motel structure believed to be two story according to Francis Silicato of Milford who heads the investment group. "We would build the motel so that other units could be added as needed." Silicato also noted that the same group will build another motel at the present site of the Bay Fisherman just north of Milford on Route 113. The combined construction costs of both places will be approximately three million dollars. "The one in Harrington will cost roughly 1 million. However in both places we will feature a restaurant, cocktail lounge and banquet room. At the Bay Fisherman, which we have already purchased we will construct 60 units. The restaurant, cocktail lounge and banquet room in Harrington will be free standing...separate and apart from the motel," he added.

He said the money to construct the facilities comes through the Economic Development Department of the State of Delaware and more particularly the Industrial Finance Department. "I understand the 1st National Bank of Harrington is interested in purchasing the bonds for the Harrington operation. These are tax free bonds, and I believe the interest rate will be around 9 1/2 percent". The partners in the investment group are Francis Silicato, Dennis Silicato, Roger Moore of Harrington, Frank Paquette, Mike Guida, Maro Pettie, Harold Weinberg, John Koutoufaras of Dover and Constantine Kouroufaras. All of these people are from Milford unless indicated otherwise.

Lisa Wilson is a double first place winner. Her fire prevention essay took first place in the 5th and 6th grade contest sponsored by the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company and its Ladies Auxiliary at Lake Forest South Elementary in Harrington. Then it went on to capture first place in Kent County competition, giving Lisa the honor of representing the county in the state contest. Lisa received her awards from Bob Taylor of the Harrington Volunteer Fire Company as her homeroom teacher, Mrs. Green, looks on. Lisa is in the sixth grade. [For more pictures see page two.]

FLASH! - It was learned as The Harrington Journal went to press that Lisa Wilson won first place in the state competition. Her essay will be published in next week's paper.

FIFTH GRADERS ARE POETS

SUNLIGHT WINTERLIGHT

The sun comes,
The sun goes,
And it hardly even snows.

Winter comes,
Winter goes,
And the sun hardly even shows

When winter comes,
And the wind blows,
My cheeks turn red as a rose.

But when the sun comes up,
I turn toasty brown,
Just like toast that's really brown.

The sun shines, Over the sea.
The sun shines, On me.
The sun shines, High above me.
But I can still see, The sun likes me.

THE SEAS

Once I could see, A tiny little bee,
Flew right past me. And he would always go to sea.
Then one day, He, I could not see
Because, He never ever flew to sea, Again.

'Journals' encourage kindergartners to write

The children in Mrs. Eileen Brittain's kindergarten classes at Lake Forest North and South Elementary Schools will probably begin writing this year. If they do, the process will bear little resemblance to a group of third or fourth graders practicing cursive (the curse of) writing - feet on the floor, back straight, paper slanted just so...and....a page full of red marks wherever an unwary pencil went astray.

First of all, the scene will be different. As Mrs. Brittain, in a recent article in the newsletter Trade Secrets, published by the College of Education of the University of Delaware, describes it:

"As you enter the kindergarten classroom, you see twenty youngsters spread throughout the room. Some of the children are flopped on their stomachs on a rug; some are perched on top of a wooden climber; some are nestled inside of the climber; others are seated at a table and chair. You see that they are busily 'writing' with different instruments; standard kindergarten 'fat' pencils, 'grown-up' #2 pencils, and even some felt tip markers are being used. Someone has even found a 'teacher's' pen and is alternating between red and blue ink....You hear a low hum of voices,.....(and)....periodically,....an animated conversation between two or three children....They are, in fact, really writing! And from the looks and sounds, they seem to be enjoying it!"

In the second place, there will be no red marks to mar the work the children produce. The comments they get from their teacher will be positive, reinforcing the basic idea that the marks they put down can communicate something they have in mind to someone else or can help them recall for themselves what they had in mind as they read their words and stories later.

What they are not trying to do is produce a page of perfect a's or b's. Their teacher knows that the kindergartners' immature coordination is not ready for handwriting skills. But through regular encouragement to write in their 'Journals' (old fashioned black composition books) she is helping them achieve the fun and satisfaction of putting something with meaning on paper.

Frederica

Many thanks to all that made Trinity Church Supper a great success. Everyone that ate those clam fritters said "oh, so delicious". At least John and Jeanne Rogers, Bill and Marie Sapp and Lucille Person came back as usual, as did many other true blue clam lovers. We could serve most anything here in Frederica and it would be great. But you know I have heard that story in every state we have ever eaten in. Wonderful feeling, isn't it?

I must also express my appreciation and that of the V.F.W. Auxiliary, Dept. of Delaware for the gifts so many of our friends donated to the September Birthday party of the Delaware Home and Hospital for the Chronically Ill at Smyrna and to the Levi and Lace Square dancers and caller for the entertainment provided for our Sunday evening program there.

Many thanks to all the folks that have crocheted slippers and lap robes for our Christmas parties to be December 4th at 2 p.m. and Blue Hen 648 VFW Auxiliary Bingo Xmas Party. Cars will be leaving 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 22nd. Mark your calendars and come along. We have more yarn. The lap robes are 30 by 36 inches. Or if you have enough odd bits of yard, make me one please. Give me a call 335-5487 and I will pick it up or you can drop by and spin a yarn with Mother and I. God will bless you for that, too.

Everything has been top speed for the Adult Center Christmas Bazaar Friday, November 19th. Christmas Cooking and Crafts will be the great attractions after Thanksgiving to fill those stockings for Santa.

Thanksgiving dinner will be served at the Adult Center Wednesday, the 24th at noon. If you plan to attend, give Lynne or Anne a call at 335-4555. There are a couple of birthdays just about that time. However, the covered dish birthday luncheon will be Tuesday, Nov. 30th at noon. Bring your favorite dish and join the fellowship.

Trinity Church will be serving Thanksgiving Dinner to the Frederica Branch of I.L.C. Tuesday, November 23rd. There will be 3 servings. Please contact Rae Matlack, Virginia Tatman or Dorothy Robbins if you can help Monday and Tuesday. Thank you.

The M.Y.A.F. dinner meeting will be Wednesday, December 1st, 1982 at 7 p.m. at Trinity Church - Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Kent County Volunteer Fire Companies, Ladies Auxiliary Meeting will be held at Felton Fire Hall, Tuesday evening, November 30th.

Friends and families will be joining together for Thanksgiving Day - to those that can't be with their families, May God Bless you and our sincere best wishes for the Thanksgiving Day 1982 and the holidays.

Thanksgiving Greetings to ALL! So once in every year we thron up on a day apart, to praise the Lord with feast and song in thankfulness of heart. Arthur Guiterman.

Reverend Beyer of Trinity Church was the leader of Bible Study Monday morning at the Center. Sylvia was at the organ, and Virginia at the piano. She opened with a prayer. The folks present made a thank-you inspirational chain. They are to add a link for every blessing they get. Reverend Beyer read a poem that all enjoyed. Her topic of discussion was Psalm 19, verse 7 to 10 and 24, Proverbs, chapter 1, verse 1-7, John, chapter 14, verse 11-17. Those present and all through the Center rallied to the favorite hymns.

Maurice Adams, president of "Members Meeting" called it to order November 15, 1982 at 1:10 p.m. Pledge of Allegiance then a prayer by Sylvia Meredith. Minutes were read by Merle Roth, financial secretary in the absence of Andy Andersen, rec. sec. She then gave financial report, both approved as read. Gene gave a report on what the Official Board had voted to do. 1) Buy new furniture; 2) Have pool table covered; 3) Get new sewing machine and carpet for pool room, and a new movie screen. Christmas was discussed, the ill remembered and meeting adjourned.

Truly suggest you make a visit to the Christmas Shop at the Center. You will be glad and so will all who receive the handmade crafts.

Jolly Timers with Sylvia at the piano were swinging and swaying Tuesday morning at the Center. Nineteen others were busy keeping the Center happy and contented. All songs were great. Present at rehearsal were Virginia Smith, Cecil Meredith, Mildred Vincent, Andy Anderson, John McCready, Ella Golt, Tony Perrone, Elina Thorpe, Bertha Dean, Elwood Morris, Florence Minner, Jo Burke, Ola Tildon, Lilie McBride, Mamie Adams, Roxanne and Marion Brown and Gladys Hill.

Senior Sounds occupy a good part of Wednesday morning at the Center. You may join in and help sing or just listen. This week there was thirteen besides Virginia at the piano and Sylvia directing. There was Marion, Andy, Mary, Frances, Gladys, Mamie, Clara, Etzel, Julia, Tony and Mildred and Cecil.

Thank you Mildred for your reporting! Birthday Party was a wing ding. Lovely folks all around, a lovely sight to see. It does make you happy to see your friends and enjoy the singing, cards, gifts, ice cream and cake to boot. Dave presented a film on Britain and Ireland. As always, Dave gave a grand presentation.

Bowling at Milford Lanes, bingo, local shopping and Thanksgiving celebration along with crafts, ceramics, pool, sewing and all the other goodies that go to make up the week here at the Center. Another goody, Bea Russell became a great grandmother. The little miss was named Jessica Virginia. Aren't they the sweetest?

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving and let's all remember what has gone before us. Without history, there could be no future.

Best wishes to all. Thank all volunteers! Be kind to each other. Love ya. My daughter Gracie from Texas said for me to say a fond remembrance to you from her. A special greeting to all who are out of state at this most important time of the year. R.S.V.P. gave awards to numerous at the Center Thursday afternoon. Several had gone bowling, other shopping and home. Still there was a good group present. Faith.

The Greenwood Methodist Charge reports that "Clothing is being Hickory Ridge Congregational Methodist Church announces once again that Thanksgiving Day dinner will be served at 1:30 at the church. Anyone desiring to come is welcome to share dinner with us, regardless of church affiliation.....especially the elderly or those who would be alone. It will be a covered dish type dinner, with turkey and dressing being provided. You may bring vegetable, salad or dessert, and your place settings.

Our sympathy goes out to the families of Ruby Bragg, Jacob Vanniola, Paul Green and Warren McGee. Special prayer is asked for George Johnson who has had a setback, also for Bill Harris at Nanticoke and Mrs. Rita Seeley at Milford.

December 3-5 we will have Rev. Linwood "Sonny" Benton with us for a weekend revival.

Anne's Kitchen

Surprise your family this Thanksgiving with a delicious sauce for your vegetables. This creamy smooth tasty sauce will add another dimension to cauliflower, broccoli, peas, asparagus and most any vegetable. It is easy to prepare and no special shopping is required. I like to use grated Romano cheese, but Swiss or white cheddar is very good also.

CHEESE SAUCE

- 1 stick butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- Pepper and salt to taste
- 1 cup shredded Swiss or cheddar cheese OR
- 1/2 cup grated Romano cheese

1. Use a 2 quart saucepan. Put butter and flour in at the same time and stir over low heat until butter is melted and blended with flour.
2. Add cheese and continue to stir until cheese is melted.
3. Add milk, salt and pepper and stir until sauce thickens. If you prefer a thinner sauce, add more milk.
4. Pour over vegetables and pass extra around in a gravy boat. Leftovers can be reheated over low heat. You may have to add a few drops of milk.

ENJOY!

Prepare holiday turkey safely

The traditional holiday turkey is an easy dish to prepare, requiring little attention while it is roasting.

The cook should take care to thaw the bird correctly, however, so microorganisms that cause food-borne illness do not have a chance to grow.

University of Delaware extension nutrition specialist Marguerite Krackhardt suggests two ways to thaw a frozen turkey safely. You may place it on a tray in the refrigerator in its original plastic bag. Allow 24 hours thawing time for each five pounds. That means a 15-pound turkey will take three days to thaw.

If the family refrigerator doesn't have room to hold a turkey for three days, there is a faster method. Leave the turkey in its bag and place it in a container of cold water, changing the water frequently. This method takes about half an hour per pound of turkey, or about eight hours for a 15-pound bird.

Refrigerate or cook the turkey as soon as it is thawed, the specialist says.

Before stuffing a turkey, rinse the internal cavity. Roast the bird immediately after it is stuffed. Do not stuff it ahead of time, to be cooked several hours later or the next day. This can allow dangerous microorganisms to grow.

If a meat thermometer is used, insert it into the thickest part of the thigh, but not touching bone.

Place the turkey in an oven set at 325° to 350° F for the recommended time based on the weight of the bird, or until the internal temperature reaches 185° F. A 15-pound turkey will cook in 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours. An unstuffed turkey may take less time. Maintain this oven temperature for the entire cooking time because bacteria can grow at lower temperatures, Krackhardt says.

Stuffing or dressing does not have to be cooked inside the turkey. It can be baked in a regular baking dish at the same time the turkey is roasting.

HEALTH TIP OF THE WEEK

DISMEMBERMENT

When fingers, toes, even hands or feet are accidentally severed by machinery:

- 1) Stop the bleeding by tying something tightly around the limb as near to its end as possible.
- 2) Pack the cut-off part in ice and take to the hospital with the patient. Even arms severed near the shoulder have been successfully replaced, reports Jr. of Pediatric Surgery. Functional recovery varies, but for a good result the severed part must be kept cold.

Prospect U.M. Women

The November meeting of the Prospect U.M. Women was called to order at 1 p.m. on the 18th with 16 members present.

Mrs. Gertrude Hopkins centered her devotions around Veteran's Day and Thanksgiving, two events which happen in November.

Veterans' Day is observed to honor all servicemen of past wars and means "sacrifices for the best of the world - freedom for all people." The armistice was signed on Nov. 11, 1918 to end World War I. Gertrude as well as others in our group remembered the day very well and told us of the bells ringing and horns blowing and the joy of family members coming home soon.

Mrs. Catherine Donovan said she heard the bells and horns in Harrington even though she lived in the country. Mrs. Edna Hopkins told us her mother was house cleaning that day and of course the furniture was pushed around. The repairman came to fix the telephone and her mother apologized for the furniture being in the way but the repairman said he could jump over it because he was so happy the war was over. Ellen Shultie told of being in Verdun, France and seeing the battlefield when they were stationed there. Gertrude related that when she came home from school she remembered seeing the newspaper with a peace angel on the front that nearly covered the whole page. The big parade in Harrington had a made-up "Kaiser Bill" on a log wagon and he was burned at the school. Gertrude also pointed out that Mr. Russell Brown served in WW I and his wife, Beulah, daughter, Anna Webb, granddaughter Vivian Dill and cousin, herself are all members of the Prospect U.M.W.

Thanksgiving is a day for pausing from the helter skelter pressures and counting of our blessings from throughout the year. Gertrude read a short story, "A Thankful Heart" and a Thanksgiving prayer.

Roll call was answered by each one reading a Bible verse with thanks or thanksgiving in them which Gertrude passed out to each one.

Some of our activities which were reported on include a thank you note from the Crossnore School in North Carolina where we send our cents-off coupons (both outdated and good ones) for their use. Etzel McCreedy and Mary Lou Wright reported on our very good day at Neighborhood House on Nov. 12th. The folks there are very hospitable. After hearing about and seeing the many community services and projects offered, it is felt this is a very important aspect of the United Methodist Church missions. We have a new shipment of Happy Home vanilla flavoring which is $1.25 for an 8 oz. bottle. The Minolta EP 310 copier has been purchased and demonstrated and used since our news last month. It is truly a very welcomed addition to our church.

Julia Camper and Phoebe Anthony reported a very enjoyable visit at Haven Hill Rest Home on the 16th. The Dec. 21st visit will be made by Anna Webb and Mary Lou Wright and in January Thelma Rae Melvin and Mable Jean Donovan will visit Haven Hill.

Some events of note are: November 21st we will attend the U.M. Women's service at the Metropolitan Church in Harrington; Dec. 9th is the U.M.W. covered dish Christmas party and program; Dec. 5th is a Hymn Sing at Prospect which will include trimming the Christmas tree with our traditional Chrismosms; and the Prospect Christmas Program will be Sunday evening, Dec. 19th.

The meeting adjourned at 2:30 and refreshments were served by Mrs. Catherine Donovan.

Raceway's '82 attendance up

HARRINGTON, DE - Unaudited figures released by Harrington Raceway show the downstate Delaware oval ended their 49-day season with an approximate 3% increase in attendance as well as an increase in betting by that same amount when compared to 1981 figures.

Track general manager, George C. Simpson cited a variety of reasons for the upturn. "Generally speaking, we had god weather throughout our season. We had a little better quality of horses and also a number of promotions throughout the Meet. Although we faced competition on Sundays this year from Freestate Raceway, they closed earlier in the Fall than they did last year. This had to help."

Although it had little effect on betting, Simpson called the cooperation between horsemen, track management and racing officials, "some of the best I've seen in the last 10 years. We named Marilyn Abbott Racing Secretary during the Meet and I was very pleased with her performance and the efficiency and cooperation she generated from that post." Abbott was only the third woman named to that prestigious office in the history of the sport in the United States.

Leading drivers for the Meet were Brian Manges and John Childress. Despite losing out on the last week of racing at Harrington because of a broken arm, Manges managed to hold on in the "Most Wins" category to take the Dash crown. He ended the season with 30 winners. Following Manges in number of wins were Children and Hal Belote each with 27.

Veteran driver, John Childress ended the season as the percentage champion. Childress ended the season with a .387 percentage, followed closely by Belote with a .368 mark and Mark Daniels with a .366 showing. It was a closely fought battle right up to the end. Belote scored 2 wins and pulled within a percentage point of Childress on closing night, but then Childress put on a show, taking 3 straight wins to pull away from Belote for good.

With the close of racing on November 13th, the facilities at Harrington will now be used for the purpose of Winter training approximately 500 harness horses.

Ball carrier Ralph Taylor #25 gets hauled to his knees. Taylor's performance Friday night got a lot of help from the Spartan offensive line including Stanton Spencer #88, Keith Church #76 and Leroy Polk #70.

Spartans ring bell for 2nd straight year

Jim Fleming's Lake Forest Spartan football team, after limping a bit with mid season injuries, came back with a bell ringer Friday night to complete a winning 6-4 season. The win, a 40-19 triumph over Milford in the traditional "Battle of the Bell" keeps the bell on Spartan territory for the second straight year. It also capped three end-of-the-season victories.

Lake Forest scored twice in each of the first three quarters to roll up a commanding 40-12 lead over the Bucs. In the final quarter, the Spartan second team offense went in for some valuable experience, and Milford scored a third touchdown.

Junior halfback Ralph Taylor had his most impressive night of the season as he ran for 240 yards and three touchdowns of 48, 88, and 4 yards. Taylor carried the ball ten times.

Playing in his final game along with the other senior members of the varsity squad, quarterback Brian Gladden accounted for two touchdowns and four extra points. Gladden also threw a touchdown pass of 7 yards to Brian Hudson early in the third quarter.

Winning the toss, the Spartans elected to receive the opening kickoff and proceeded to travel 68 yards to score as Gladden pushed the ball the final six inches behind center Sheldon Powell who opened the way into the end zone. Gladden's successful conversion started the scoring at 7-0. A 26 yard Gladden-Hudson pass completion spurred the initial effort.

Milford fullback Lester Whidbee opened with a first down as the Bucs took possession, but the Spartan defense quickly clamped down, forcing the them to punt. On the first play after the kick, Taylor took off around the left end for a 48 yard TD. Gladden's successful kick brought the score to 13-0.

Powered by Whidbee with a 21 yard run and four pass completions by quarterback Pat Caldwell, Milford retaliated with a 63 yard drive that culminated in an 18 yard TD pass to Scott Saxon. Caldwell was creamed by the Spartans before he could get across the goal line for the conversion, but Milford got on the boards for 6 points as the score went to 14-6.

Soon after the kickoff, the Spartans dropped the ball, and Milford, moving again on Whidbee-power, drove for 63 yards to the Spartan 7. But that was to be as close as the Bucs ever got to an even score. At the seven, Jerome Harris pounced on a Whidbee fumble to regain possession for Lake Forest.

Back in action, the offensive unit turned the ball over to Ralph Taylor for two carries. On the first, Taylor moved the ball out five yards to the 12; on the second, he escaped for 88 yards to widen the margin to 20-6. Gladden's conversion kick on this one went wide.

After the Spartans forced a turnover as Milford's fake punt on a fourth down failed, Lake Forest covered another 66 yards to put Gladden across for the final three. The conversion was on target as the score climbed to 27-6 for the half. On this scoring drive, a Gladden-Tony Scott 23 yard pass combination helped the Spartan cause.

After halftime, Milford received the kickoff, but quickly fumbled the ball, giving Lake Forest possession with good field position. The Spartans capitalized on the situation and soon had the ball airborne over the goal line from Gladden to Hudson. Gladden's fourth successful conversion made the total 34-6.

Milford posted its second score with a third quarter TD pass from Caldwell to Carmean to make it 34-12. The 2 point conversion failed.

After Lake Forest took over, a 4 yard Taylor TD added 6 points for the final score of the evening. In the fourth, the Spartans were scoreless, but the Bucs came across on a 25 yarder by Whidbee and a successful kick to make it 40-19. Two fifteen yard penalties against Lake Forest aided Milford's final scoring drive.

The loss left Milford in the cellar with an 0-5 record in the northern Henlopen Division. Overall the Bucs were 3-6-1.

For the Spartans, the winning 6-4 season proved the team capable of playing in the Northern Henlopen Conference. Although it finished in fourth place, Lake Forest had an overall record identical to those posted by Cape Henlopen and Dover. Both the Senators and the Vikings had a 4-1 division finish. But Cape took the crown by virtue of defeating Dover earlier in the season.

CR, stunned by the Spartans' upset victory two weeks ago, slumped through the end of the season and was ousted from division contention by a 28-0 loss to Dover Friday night. A win would have given the Riders the title. CR finished 3-2 in the division and 5-5 overall.

Lake Forest shared a 2-3 division record with Sussex Central which, ironically, had the best overall record of any team in the North. The Golden Knights were 7-3 for the season. However, like the Spartans, they counted the majority of their victories in non-division games.

RALPH Taylor, with 200 plus yards and 3 TD's, had a super night for the Spartans.

Chipman falls to Seaford Puts 6-1 season in the record book

The W.T. Chipman Junior Spartan football team suffered its only disappointment of an outstanding 6-1 season with a loss to Seaford's Bluejays on Thursday. Final score in the game was 13-6.

Chipman coach Steve VanSant said, "Only one foot stood between us and fulfillment of our last goal, an unbeaten season."

Seaford started the scoring with a 62 yard TD on the third play of the game, but Chipman blocked the extra point. After several exchanges with neither team moving the ball, the Seaford middle linebacker appeared to be offside when he grabbed Ricky Brown from behind forcing a bobbled option pass. A Seaford end picked up the fumble and ran 36 yards untouched for the Bluejays second score.

At this point, Chipman went to work. They drove the ball to the 10 yard line before being stopped. The Jr. Spartans scored the next time they got the ball, but missed the extra point on a mixup in the play.

The attempt at an onside kick failed, and Seaford mounted a short drive as they got their only first down of the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th periods. Chipman finally got the ball back on the 10-yard line with just about 2 minutes remaining. Then, Ricky Brown went to work after missing his first 5 passes, he completed his last 5 with 3 or 4 coming in a 90 yard drive.

Assisted by pass interference called against Seaford in the end zone, Chipman got the ball with first and goal at the 6 yard line. On the first play James Bell drove 5 yards to the one yard line; On the second down Ricky Brown pushed it to the one foot line, on the third down another quarterback sneak was stopped. On the fourth, with James Bell ready to take the last shot at a TD, time ran out as Seaford held onto the victory.

Though Chipman ended the season one foot short, they closed strides ahead in school record book.

Letter to State Election Commissioner

Attention: Mr. Lewis Wrightson
State Election Commissioner

Dear Commissioner Wrightson:
Since the office of the State Election Commissioner as well as that of the Kent County Board of Elections supposedly received no reports of election day problem with erroneous ballots and malfunctioning voting machines, evidently, no one was "reamed". However, it depends upon whether one is the "reamer" or the "reamee" as to his registering of a complaint regarding improprieties.

In my particular case, which was one of many from all indications, although I was a winner, I still feel that despite reports to the contrary that discrepancies did exist. In my efforts to seek an explanation I felt very much like "The Little Red Hen" of nursery rhyme fame who asked for help and assistance from the other barnyard animals. In response to her requests she was told:

"Not I", said the duck.
"Not I", said the cat.
"Not I", said the turkey with the big black hat.

"Turkeys" and "black hats" seemed to be the order of the day amongst those of responsibility delegated to conduct this election in portions of Kent County.

In Sussex County there is a new Democrat Administrative Director as well as a new Republican Deputy Administrative Director neither of whom were employed prior to March of this year; nevertheless, procedures there came off without a hitch. For this reason, I can see no excuse for such happenings to have occurred in Kent County.

Who knows? Maybe, if my name had appeared on all of the ballots for the entire day, perhaps my opponent may have won when the voter realized his or her true, actual choice. As I asked, "who knows?" Were we both subjected to the same handicap then?

Therefore, in the interest of good government - and I assume that you are interested in good government, right? this series of incidents should be investigated, judged, and corrected so that future elections will not be subjected to similar questions of fraud, incompetence, or whatever.

Yours truly,
B. Bradford Barnes,
Representative 35th

Hastings murder

The Bridgeville liquor store on the evening of November 3, 1980. Police had previously arrested David Wayne Dodson, 30, who was serving a life plus 30 year sentence in the Patuxent Correctional Institute, in Jessup, MD, for two murders he previously committed. Dodson was charged with his part in the Hastings murder on October 27, 1981 and returned to Delaware on Wednesday, November 10, 1982. Dodson was arraigned at J.P. Court 3 in Georgetown on charges of first degree murder and possession of a deadly weapon during the commission of a felony. He was incarcerated at Sussex Correctional Institute with no bond set.

John Wainwright, AKA: Percy Ewell Wainwright was arrested by Maryland authorities on Thursday, November 11, at his home in Baltimore. Wainwright appeared in Circuit Court in Glen Burnie, Maryland on Friday, November 12, and voluntarily deputy must be of the party opposite to the one in which the commissioner is a member. So far no replacement for the deputy has been named.

The selection of Darling to be administrative director drew sharp criticism from Kent County Republican Chairman H. Parker Fifer.

consented to return to Delaware to answer to the charge of murder 1st involving the William S. Hastings shooting death at Lord's Liquor Store located in Bridgeville.

Wainwright was brought back to Delaware by Delaware State Police on Tuesday, November 16 and was taken to J.P. Court #3 in Georgetown. The charge was first degree murder. No bond was set. He has been incarcerated in Sussex Correctional Institute pending a preliminary hearing at a later date.

United Way Campaign

United Way of Delaware announced last week that contributions and pledges now total $10.67 million or 97% of the goal. The campaign was extended until December 10 to allow for additional contributions to be received.

The campaign, with a hefty $11 million goal, was originally scheduled to end November. General campaign chairman Nicholas Pappas said the extra time was needed because some campaigns were still underway and some contributors had not yet been reached.

So far the campaign has raised $654,000 above last year's total.

Joann Wyatt Honored

Joann Wyatt has received an award from the Delaware State Parent Advisory Council (D.S.P.A.C.) for outstanding service to Chapter I parents. The award was accepted by Carol Lamphier, Lake Forest Supervisor of Federal Programs, during ceremonies of the D.S.P.A.C.'s annual conference in Wilmington on November 13.

D.S.P.A.C. is a state organization of parents whose task is to advise the Department of Public Instruction on spending federal monies for education. A similar group of parents performs the same service for the Lake Forest School District. Mrs. Wyatt and her husband, Fred, live in Harrington and have been active on the Lake Forest Parent Advisory Council for the last seven years. Most recently, Mrs. Wyatt prepared the quarterly newsletter, "The Pied Piper," which gives information about district programs and ideas for helping students learn at home. "The Pied Piper" is distributed to parents of children who are receiving educational services provided with federal funds.
