He has served there as assistant administrator since June 1982. His most recent pastorate was at Aldersgate United Methodist

Smith charges Harrington Council with reneging on property purchase

by David F. Coady

At the April 11th Harrington City Council meeting, Gayle Smith accused the Mayor and City Council of reneging on an agreement to purchase property on Commerce Street for a new City Hall. Smith stated that an agreement in principle to purchase the property was reached at an Executive Session of the City Council on or around December 14, 1982.

At that meeting an agreement was signed between the City and McReynolds Real Estate, representing Gayle Smith. At that time the Council issued a check for $200 as a deposit on the property. Mayor Mann countered with a charge that the contract had been altered from the original $50,000 to $56,000 making the contract null and void.

Smith stated "This was agreed to in the Executive Session, and the change was initiated by Mrs. Norma Short, the City Manager. The Mayor said, 'Only I have the authority to sign any contracts for the City, and anything signed by Mrs. Short is erroneous.'"

Smith said he felt that the City Council had promised to hold a referendum on January 11th to authorize the purchase. After the referendum was not held, Mr. Horace Johnson of McReynolds Real Estate obtained a 90 day extension of the agreement from Norma Short. The Mayor said this was also erroneous as the City Manager does not have the authority to sign such agreements.

Smith said after the Council Meeting that the Council first approached him and asked him to sell the property. When the question of parking was brought up he offered to sell the city the adjacent property which runs back to Hanley Street near the Railroad. This would have given the Council parking in the rear of the building for at least 50 cars.

Smith stated "I cannot believe that the citizens of Harrington would want a city hall and police station in a residential neighborhood. A city hall and especially a police station should be in the business district. I showed the Council the rental value of the property, and it was agreed by all that it was a good buy," Smith said.

Smith asked the council if the voters would have a choice on where a new City Hall would be located. He was informed that no final decision had been made.

City Solicitor William Walls stated that he did not feel the agreement was binding on the city in any way.

New Harrington charter up for council approval April 25

by David F. Coady

At the April 11th Harrington City Council meeting, it was agreed to hear at a later meeting the final reading of the proposed new city charter. After acceptance at this meeting the charter will be introduced in the State Legislature by Representative G. Robert Quillen in the lower House and Senator Ruth Ann Minner in the Senate.

One item in the proposed charter is one that would change the Annual Electors (or citizens) Meeting to a "State of the City" message by the Mayor. The new annual meeting would be chaired by the Mayor or his appointee. The final reading of the charter will be at a special council meeting at 7:30 p.m. on April 25.

In other business, the Council agreed to hold a workshop meeting on April 14 to discuss alterations necessary before purchasing property on Center Street for a new city hall.

Councilman Ray Gagne introduced a motion to order the owner of the vacant house at 108 Wolcott to demolish his building within thirty days. After the motion carried, City Solicitor William Walls informed the Council that they must first hold a public hearing. Gagne then asked that the owner of the property in question be informed that a hearing will be held on April 25, and that the question of demolishing his building would be discussed.

The Council accepted a bid of $100 by Robert Hassett for the sale of the City's 1977 Dodge Police Car.

Mayor Mann proclaimed April 22 as Girl Scout Leader Day. The Mayor noted the many contributions that Girl Scout Leaders make towards the community and the girls they instruct.

Frederica to enforce delinquent bills Cline seeks truck parking ordinance

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

FREDERICA, DE - Last Wednesday night an old business item was brought up for final enforcement by Councilman Tom Wilmore, which was the payment of delinquent taxes, water and trash bills. Frederica recently raised their water rates. "We doubled them...yes, that's right...from $5.00 per quarter to $10 per quarter," said Wilmore. "Still, that's not very much compared to other towns," added the councilman. The purpose of raising the water rent was to take care of needed maintenance to water lines in the very near future. "We had rather raise the water rent because this is the area which will be charged...rather than raise taxes," said Wilmore (to cover the upcoming expense.) "We feel that each department should pay its own way. No one really wants to raise taxes even though we all know that taxes here are really too low," he said.

There were 4 or 5 citizens who were paying $11 a quarter for water rates.

"These tax payers will get a break because their rate will be lowered to $10.00," he added. The delinquencies have reached an inappropriate amount. It is estimated that the amount of delinquencies has reached approximately $10,000. "That's a pretty good amount. There is one person whose bill has reached approximately $235...at $5 a quarter that's almost an indication that he isn't going to pay it. We plan to send them a letter requesting payment...and then if none is received we will have the attorney proceed with suit to collect the delinquency," said Wilmore.

Mrs. Rosalie Cline asked for enactment of an ordinance which would preclude truck parking on David and Front Streets. "There are some truckers who park their rigs outside of Town...and I think this is quite thoughtful of them. We shouldn't have to put up with having these big 18

by Barbara C. Brown

Christi Wise twirled her way through a snappy routine to "Waitin' for the Robert E. Lee" and all the way to the top of the judges' score cards in Saturday night's Miss Harrington pageant sponsored by the local Lions Club. Christi was crowned Miss Harrington 1983.

Deanna Aptt was selected runner-up while Jennifer McCormick, winning the affection of her fellow contestants, was named "Miss Congeniality".

Christi's counterpart, who will reign as Little Miss Harrington, is Amy Hrupsa, who captivated the audience with a song, "Give Me a Little Kiss, Will Ya, Huh?" and captured the crown. Amy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hrupsa.

First runner-up in the "Little Miss" contest was Shelley Winkler; Carrie Farrall was second runner-up.

All the Miss Harrington contestants were judged in casual wear as they were ushered through interviews by emcee Dennis Hazzard of WAFL. The interviews were followed by talent and evening gown competition. During the final phase of the contest, the girls were tested by having to answer an impromptu question.

The new Miss Harrington, a seventeen year old Lake Forest junior and the daughter of William and Rosalie Wise of Harrington, was asked what could be done to make teens more aware of the hazards of alcohol and drugs. Christi said the subject should be stressed more in school.

Runner-up Deanna Aptt, 17, daughter of Louise and Jack Aptt was a lithe clown who capered her way through "Put On a Happy Face" in the talent competition. Later in the evening she lost her clown's wig to Dennis Hazzard who used it as he entertained the audience while the judges deliberated. When the time for the serious question came, Deanna was asked what would be done to make the atmosphere of the community better. Having a national park would be good, she thought. And people could be nicer to each other.

Allyson Coppock, daughter of Frederick and Joyce Coppock danced through a pantomime routine to the title song from Mame. The baffler thrown at Allyson on the spot was "If you win the contest, what could the Lions Club do to help you better represent your community?"

Katrina Draper, daughter of Margaret and Paul Govani of Harrington did a pantomime to Barbara Streisand's "So Long, Dearie" from Hello, Dolly. To her question, "What advantages will the new motel and restaurant bring to Harrington, Katrina replied that the new development would be good for business and would bring people to the community.

Jennifer McCormick, daughter of Carolyn and Ed McCormick of Harrington, chose a clarinet solo "Stars and Stripes Forever" for her talent performance. Asked what country or state she would visit if she had the choice, Jennifer answered, Washington, D.C....to learn more about how our nation is ruled.

Escorts for the Miss Harrington contest were Mike Lamphier and Bruce Betts.

Little Miss Harrington contestants were gently interviewed by Dennis Hazzard before their individual talent performance.

First runner-up, Michele Renee "Shelly" Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Winkler and Jerri Winkler, sang "The B-I-B-L-E".

Second runner-up, Carrie Dawn Farrall, sang "Daddy". She is the Bridgeville public hearing draws large numbers

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

BRIDGEVILLE, DE - A public hearing to determine where a new sewer disposal plant would be located resulted not in a decision to locate one but in a decision to look further at one of the three remaining sites on a map showing the Town of Bridgeville and surrounding areas.

The map had four areas colored in yellow which was presented to the packed chambers of Town Hall. One area to the northwest of Bridgeville labelled #3 was called "The Handy" site has been ruled out. The remaining three sites which remain under consideration are as follows: a 212 acre site labelled #1 belonging to W.J. O'Bier; a 213 acre site labelled #4 located southeast of Bridgeville near Fisher's Mill Bridge and Coverdale Crossroads and belonging to Robert F. Rider, and a 350 acre property southeast of Bridgeville and north of Delaware 404 belonging to a group composed of Darryl Chaffinch, Roy Passwaters and Walton Smith. This one is labelled #2 on the map.

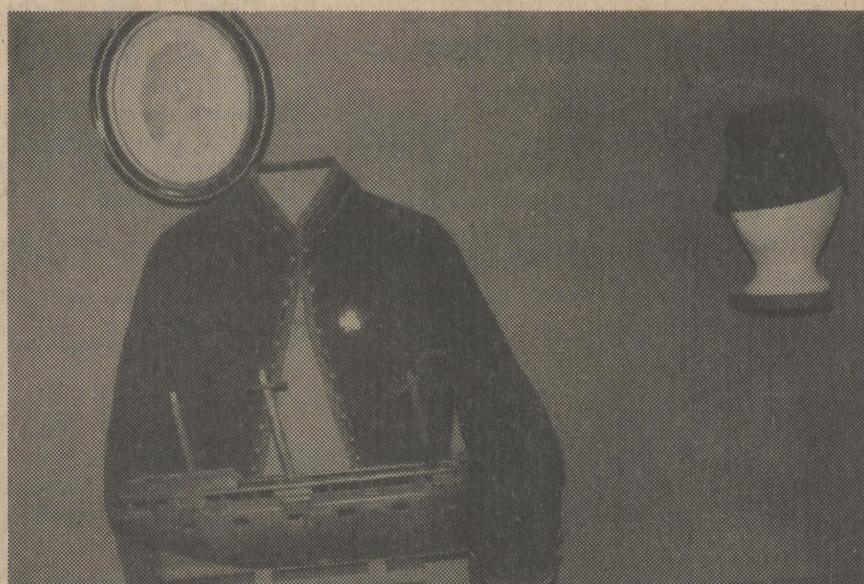

The purpose for the decision to erect a new sewer plant is simply that the present plant in Bridgeville is inadequate and outdated. It will have to be upgraded or replaced. Some from the audience called for less usage by present commercial establishments in Bridgeville, but industrialist and President of O.A. Newton & Son, Robert Rider, quickly soothed the wrath of the crowd present by informing them that without the usage by other commercial companies, it would not spell relief for the present plant. It would still be inadequate. He pointed out that the use by commercial enterprises in Bridgeville tends to help the situation because it dilutes the pollutants and raises revenue through the volume usage.

It is estimated to upgrade the present plant would cost $1.3 million or $2.7 million to build a new one on EPA standards.

In other matters, the Board elected to seek an extra full time police officer. If an inexperienced officer is hired, he would be sent directly to a 40 hour

Civil War display at Delaware Museum in Dover

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

DOVER, DE - Tomorrow, Thursday, April 14th, a Civil War display will open at the Delaware Museum on Governors Avenue in Dover. The exhibit is something new to the area and one which exemplifies a tremendous amount of hard work and extensive research by the museum staff such as Dee Dee Armistead and others as well as Dean Nelson, who heads up the museum team there.

There is a great deal of memorabilia and expensive keepsakes related to Delaware history that all citizens of Delaware should take time to visit the exhibit at the museum. The display features actual uniforms, portraits, weapons and documents of great interest to all especially students of history. There is a snare drum used for marching in cadence. It is hand painted around the waist of the drum and it fetures one of the earliest known seals of Delaware. The drum is inscribed by James F. Engle, Co. F. 3rd Delaware Volunteers. There is also a hospital list

Stacey Ann Marvel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Marvel, chose another familiar nursery rhyme "Humpty Dumpty".

"I'm a Little Teapot" sang Candice Lynn Rapp, daughter of Mrs. Linda A. Rapp and Ronald Rapp.

Tammy Roberts, who is the granddaughter of Mr. & Mrs. Burton Hopkins, recited a poem, "Little Deer (Dear)".

Miranda Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, picked out another poem, "Everybody says..."

Kip McIlroy and Jason Dean escorted the "Little Misses."

On hand to transfer their crowns were

Miss Harrington 1982, Connie Gerardi and Little Miss Harrington 1983, Kelly Brown.

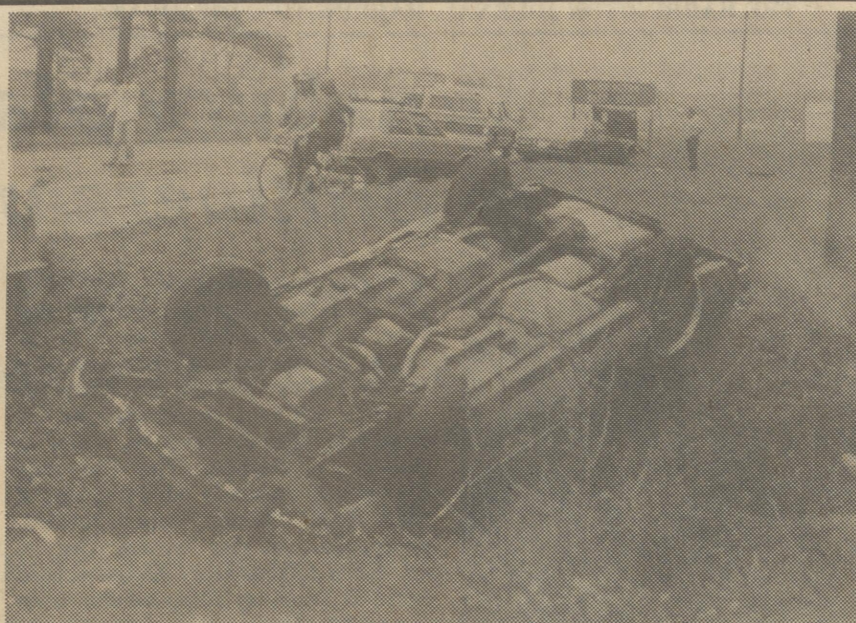

Entertainment during the judging intervals was provided by the Asbury Quartet (Dale Jarrell, Jim Olson, Keith Burgess and Matt Burgess) of Harrington and by Al ("the new singing mailman") and Vanessa Foskey of Dover.

Jim Olson was organist; Samuel Mackert was the photographer, Kenneth Walls, President of the Harrington Lions Club, welcomed the guests to the pageant.

Miss Harrington and Little Miss Harrington will go on to represent this community in the Delmarva Poultry Princess Pageant during the Chicken Festival in Milford in June.

[Editor's Note - One of readers questioned us last week on the number of years the pageant has been held.

This was the 20th year for the Harrington Lions Club as sponsor. However, there have been "Miss Harrington" pageants for a much longer time. The Rotary Club was a sponsor for a long time.]

Aaron Lyles of Milford flipped, literally, when a 1979 Honda Civic driven by Jerry Lewis King of Dry Fork, Virginia, crossed the center line on U.S. 13 northbound south of Harrington traffic light and sideswiped his car. Lyles went over a guard rail and ended upside down in a branch of Brown's Branch. He was taken to Milford Memorial Hospital by the Harrington Fire Department and admitted there with possible head and back injuries. He was released Monday. Harrington police said King apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car. They charged him with inattentive driving. King's car sustained an estimated $1,000 in damage, but Lyles' 1978 Ford was totaled. The mishap occurred on Friday afternoon.

Field Trip Report

Students from Seaford Christian Academy recently discovered that not all things "big" are in Texas, but some of them are right here in Delaware at Dover Air Force Base. Thirty-nine students were amazed at the size of the C-5A wheel being taken on a tour of the base March 15 by Mrs. Margie Hester, base public relations coordinator.

The students were special guests for half a day while they were given a tour of the plane itself and then shown around the base fire station where they also saw the "world's largest" fire truck. After all, if an air force base has a "world's largest" plane, the C-5A, it's bound to have a fire truck to match it. Right?

The tour was topped off with a visit to see "Shoo-Shoo Baby", a vintage World War II B-17, being restored by men on a voluntary basis to ready it for display in the air museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves and are looking for a return visit in the future.

He is a graduate of Bob Jones University with a B.S. degree in education, majoring in history with a minor in English. Mr. Calhoun teaches Bible, history and one English class at the junior high level.

Mr. Calhoun was born and raised in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. After graduating from Griffith High School, he enlisted in the Marine Corps, where he was in charge of feeding 1200 men daily. After his Marine experiences, he worked in the grocery store business until he felt the Lord's direction to prepare himself for teaching in Christian schools. The Calhouns [Doris works as a teacher aide at S.C.A.] and their two daughters live in Laurel.

DACS MUSIC COMPETITION - On Friday, March 18, over 300 students representing several schools of the Delaware Association of Christian Schools gathered for a day of music competition in many different categories. Winners for the Seaford Christian Academy were: Keri Horne, first place, vocal solo; Paul Eakin, first place, piano solo; Darryl and Rayna Salomon, second place, piano duet; Kim Calhoun, second place, flute solo; Shane Todd and Natalie Spear, second place, vocal duet; Danny Trivits and Michelle Labor, third place, vocal duet. The Academy band won the first place plaque in the junior high division and the Academy choir [junior high division] won the second place plaque.

Second graders visit nursing home

On March 25th the second grade class of Seaford Christian Academy visited a nearby nursing home. The students had prepared for their visit by drawing pictures and practicing some hymns to sing. The class was well received by the older residents. As the singing was progressing, some joined in. Each child enjoyed singing and putting up the pictures they had drawn. Each student introduced themselves and shook hands with the residents. Mrs. McDaniels, who is in charge of Fairhome, was impressed with the group. The second grade class has been invited back for another day in April. It was an hour well spent for all.

PSYCHOLOGY
We all know wearing safety belts is the smart and safe thing to do. It's a fact that if you are involved in an accident, safety belts more than double your chances of not being hurt. Yet, some people don't ask their passengers to put on their safety belts in the car because they worry that most people would be offended by the request. However, experts agree that it's easier than you think to get people to wear safety belts. Polls show that the overwhelming majority of passengers would willingly put on their belts if only the driver would ask them.

What's the best way to get children to wear safety belts? Children, like adults, psychologists say, often resist using a safety belt or safety seat when they are first introduced to it. Youngsters, however, very quickly come to develop a feeling of comfort and security in a child safety seat. To achieve this, the seat must be used every time the child rides in the car. An explanation of what the safety seat does and how it works often helps. According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, after a week or so of resistance most children happily accept their restricted mobility and enjoy having their own special place to sit and ride safely.

JUST A LITTLE MIXED UP
Just a line to say I'm living,
That I'm not among the dead.
Though I'm getting more forgetful
And more "mixed up" in the head.

For sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at the foot of the stairs,
If I must go up for something
Or I've just come down from there.

And before the "fridge" so often
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I just put food away or Have I come to take it out.

And there's time when it is dark out
With my nightcap on my head,
I don't know if I'm retiring
Or just getting out of bed.

So if it's my turn to write you
There's no need getting sore.
I may think that I have written
And don't want to be a bore.

So remember I DO LOVE YOU,
And I wish that you were here.
But now it's nearly mail time
And I must say "goodbye dear".

There I stood beside the mailbox
With a face so very red.
Instead of mailing my my letter
I had opened it instead.

Smile! We are such stuff as dreams are made of. And our little life is rounded with a sleep - From Hamlet.

Reverend Watson of Baptist Church,
Harrington was leader of Bible Study Monday morning. After hymns and a prayer, Reverend Watson had as his subject, 1st Corinthians, Chapter 13, Verse 5 and Ephesians, Chapter 1, verse 26. It was a most enjoyable hour and was closed with the hymn "Beyond The Sunset" by all and a prayer by Reverend Watson. Mrs. Watson was at the keyboard. Present were Virginia
Smith, Irene Larrimore, Gladys Hill,
Anna Mae Short, Ethel Holden, Amy
Poynter, Clara Judy, Mary and Earl
Nelson, Tony Perrone, Bertha Dean, Lilli McBride, elwood Morris, Mary Sapp, Frances Wright, Thelma Legates, Catherine Donovan, Mildred
Vincent, Cecil and Sylvia Meredith.

The Jolly Timers really did sound super Tuesday morning. Sylvia was at the organ. Ella Golt, Bertha Dean, Mildred Vincent, Mammie Adams, Lillie
McBride, Roxanne and Marion Brown,
Tony Perrone, Andy Anderson, Cecil
Meredith, John McCreedy, Virginia
Smith, Annabel Morrow, and Louis

Gerardi all participated in the joyous

the news of the Bible Study and Band.
Ruth Nasser had her Nostalgia program Tuesday afternoon on The old and new Newark, Delaware. Privied to be an enlightening as well as joyous subject.

Anna Mae Short is home from Florida. Good to have her back and she promptly started a rug! Ruth Bradley, Gladys Hill, Mammie Adams, Catherine
Donovan, Thelma Legtes and Lilli
McBride are helping with the project.
It promises to be a beauty!!

Virginia Smith was at the piano.
Sylvia directed the "Senior Sounds", Wednesday morning. Some good old time songs were practiced.

Nell Bausell had as her topic of discussions for the Humanities Program, "Inside Story of Homes".
Each house told its own story. In some a Bible was always visible; in others, guns were showing to remind us that they hunted. Each house had its own story. It is above all a most interesting program. Come on in and see and hear!

Clint, our DAST driver took thirteen

Thank all volunteers for all the many things they do during the month.
Thank you so much!

Best Wishes to all homebonds, those who are sick in the hospital or at home and a prayer for all. Remembering those in sorrow, too!

Love you. Come on in, visit with the folks at Harrington Senior Center.

Wednesday was card day for me at Ethel Rapp's - her home was delightfully decorated for Spring.
Refreshments, peach dessert, delicious and different. Scores, well, let's not talk about them. Kathryn Smith was high - her cards ran well. Others present were Hazel Langrell, Mildred Wagner, Virginia Willey, Mary
Nelson, Ruth Powell and me, Dorothy Graham. There was lots of fun, hot coffee, nuts and jelly beans.

In your chain of friendship, consider me a link. (K.S.) Faith!

Gab Fest

by Pat Hatfield

April is here! And it is spring! To quote a favorite passage, "the winter is past, the rain is over, and gone. The flowers are springing up and the time of the singing of birds has come - and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land."

The Almanac calls April the Pink Month. I always associate Pink with the month of May. To me, April is yellow, with its bright yellow sunshine golden forsythia, daffodils and tulips.
We must share again, as in every spring, a stanza from one of John Masefield's poems. He is a favorite of mine and his poems sing with beauty and color.

"It's a warm wind, the West wind, full of bird's cries;
I never hear the West wind but tears
are in my eyes.

For it comes from the West lands, the old brown hills,
And April's in the West wind, and daffodils!"

I read on down the column and found another old saying: "Don't marry for money; you can borrow it cheaper." My little Scotch grandmother used to say to me with a twinkle in her eye: "Don't marry for money, Honey, but do try to love where money is!"

I kept looking through my collection of Almanacs and the one for 1981 has a little poem that appeals to me. The author is A.F. Houseman. "Loveliest of trees, the cherry now, Is hung with blooms along the bough; And stands about the woodland ride, Wearing white for Eastertide."

This sentence caught my eye, also. "If it thunders on All Fool's Day, It brings good crops of oats and hay." Well, we had two thunderstorms on that day this year, so we shall see. Of course I do not personally have any oats or hay, but I wish my neighbors well.

The next Almanac I looked into was 1971. And their little poem for April was evidently written by someone who detested Spring. It goes like this:
"Whoever, I wonder, ever called this month decent, Cold, then hot, Rain, snow, break every precedent. Rubbers and raincoat, or shirt sleeves - thanks
a lot, I'll take summer, winter or fall, not this wretched pot." No wonder he did not sign his name. Probably ashamed of himself!

For some days we have seen the turkey buzzards strolling on the lawn of the house next door, so we went over to investigate. Sure enough, he was eating a baby rabbit that was either injured on the highway or killed by the stray dogs that roam and bark at night. I do hope it was not my little Bush Bunny.

Patients with an swing their arms like the success of skiers in warming up cold hands by whirling their arms, he has his patients swing the affected arm briskly at

The church is a living organism. When it is scattered by persecution or disreputations, it simply takes root in different cities and states to bear witness to God.

St. Bernadette's Catholic Church

Members of St. Bernadette Church in Harrington and their pastor, the Rev. Charles L. Brown, III, will host one of three regional "kick-off" meetings for the 1983 Annual Catholic Appeal on April 18. support for 20 human service, educational, and pastoral programs sponsored by the diocese.

Now in its eighth year, the Appeal provides funding for a number of programs of the diocese that would not be available through normal income sources. Several of these services are open to all members of the community regardless of religious affiliation.

Serving as moderator of the Appeal as the Bishop's representative is the local pastor, Father Brown. He assists in the overall coordination of the program to be held in all 56 parishes of the diocese on the weekend of April 30 - May 1.

Civil War display

for a Philadelphia hospital which had two names from Harrington among their patients. They were Samuel Hammond and William Bucks. Hammond suffered from pleurisy while Bucks was suffering from some undetermined problem.

Delaware had at the height of its involvement in the war approximately 10 regiments or 10,000 men serving. At first there were volunteers only, because they believed the war would be over soon. When the casualties started coming in they had to begin the draft in 1863. The Civil War produced the highest number of casualties in the history of all of our wars...600,000 died in battle, 200,000 in combat related deaths, and 400,000 due to camp diseases. At Fort Delaware...and there is a huge picture of a scene at the Fort, 2400 died. The youngest there was a boy 14 years old who was an aid to General Thompson, the highest ranking confederate at the Fort.

There were other northern camps, such as Elmira, N.Y. and Sandusky, Ohio, which produced many deaths of confederates. Of course, Andersonville in Georgia was also a big killer. Deaths in the camps were largely attributed to starvation and poor food.

Eleven Delawareans received the Medal of Honor. One such story is that Major S. Rodman Smith of Middletown, who has descendants there today, of the 4th Delaware Infantry late in the War swam across a partly frozen Rowanty River, which is south west of Petersburg, under fire to help establish a proper place for a crossing. He received the Medal 30 years after the war.

One of the more interesting tales is that of Wilmingtonian, Pvt. Edward Fulton, who was a machinist in one of the shipyards of Pusey & Jones in Philadelphia prior to the War. When war was declared he enlisted in Col. Baxter's Zouave Regiment. They had colorful uniforms made on the order of the French colonials in North Africa. These uniforms are on display at the museum. At the Battle of Antietam (Sharpsburg, MD in the northwestern part of Maryland), Pvt. Fulton was wounded four times. He was hit twice

Spartans do well in Burgess Invitational

The fourth annual running of the Keith S. Burgess Track and Field Invitational saw the host Spartans do a good job, (the boys), and an excellent job (the girls).

The boys competed in a 13 school field and finished exactly in the middle, in seventh place.

Nelson Mosley, a point scorer, in the 400 meter run, set a new Spartan mark, with a 52.1 clocking, in a trial heat. Danny Donovan clocked 4.56 in a trial heat of the 1600 meter run, a personal best for him. Both Spartans could have done much better, if the weather had been better.

Rob Prutzman was top Lake Forest point scorer, with seconds in the shot and discus. His 50 feet, 3 inch put was his best effort this spring.

Jerome Harris and Tony Scott were third and fourth in the 110 meter high hurdles. Jerry Mosley, Nelson Mosley, Sheldon Powell and Daryl Tolson finished third in the 3200 meter relay. Other individual event point scorers were Andy Lasalle and James Browne. Of the six schools to finish ahead of Lake Forest only Woodbridge did not have a larger enrollment.

Trackmen of the week, last week, were Andy Lasalle, Jerome Harris and Rob Prutzman. Garnering the same honor this week was Daryl Tolson, a talented, gutsy newcomer.

Trackwomen of the week, last week, were Caritha Clarke and Joanne Smith. This week the same honors go to Clarke and Ann Irby.

At the Invitational, Jim Blades' girls scored 100 points and placed second to Padua Academy of Wilmington, in a field of nine teams.

The powerful Pandas, a Division I school, have a deep and talented squad and are a big threat to be state champs, next month.

The Spartan girls have depth also, scoring in 15 of 17 events, winning twice and on five occasions, placing two scorers in events.

The Spartans 400 meter relay quartet won easily in 52.7, behind the flying feet of Joanne Smith, Anita Sherwood, Patti Drew and Carolyn Browne.

Carolyn Browne was second in the 200 meter dash, after tying her school mark of 26.4 in a prelim.

Caritha Clarke leaped 32 feet, 5 inches to win the triple jump with Christine Nichols, in third.

Joanne Smith and Clarke went 2-3 in the long jump.

Kelly Pelton, a tall, freshman novice is an excellent prospect. She ran 12.57.5 to finish third and in so doing, qualified for the state meet. She's only 7 1/2 seconds away from a Spartan mark, in the 3200 and only 8 seconds away from the Lake Forest 1600 standard. She's only been running a month. What a pity she didn't run at Chipman in grades 7 and 8!

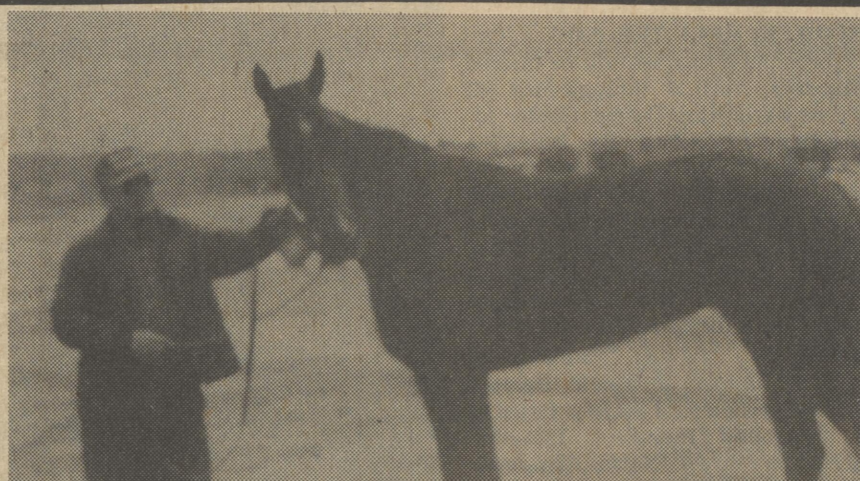

Ann Irby and Caritha Clarke were third and fifth respectively in the 300 meter hurdles.

Irby set a new school mark (52.4) in a trial heat.

Sharon Burton tossed the shot 31 feet, 11 inches, her best throw this year for second place. Angie Akins was fourth. Burton was also third, in the discus.

Debbie Jester, Patti Drew were others to score in individual events.

After the Dover meet we reported that Lake Forest's girls had never beaten the Senator girls in track before this season. That was incorrect. In 1976, led by Coach Dave Buck, the distaff Spartans trounced the Capitol City girls on two occasions.

Perfect Beauty 11 out of 11

by David F. Coady

Delbert Cain's Perfect Beauty is racing just as the name implies, beautiful and with a perfect record. She has eleven wins out of the last eleven starts. Cain plans to race Perfect Beauty at Brandywine, Liberty Bell, Meadowlands and on to Greenwood in Canada. The stake at Meadowlands on July 29 is for $190,000 and the August 15 fixture at Greenwood, Canada is for $300,000.

Last Friday's win at Brandywine was one of perfection. Starting from the fifth hole, the mare moved to the front never to be seriously challenged. The time for the mile was 2:02.2 (:59 through the last half-mile and :29.4 for the last quarter).

Beauty has a 2 year old full sister, Wapa Tula, who is being readied for mid-summer.

Hunting and Fishing on Delmarva

by David F. Coady

FINFISH ENFORCEMENT: Watermen are back in court again. Chancellor Grover C. Brown has again ordered the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control (DNREC) to enforce the fishing laws of the state. Delaware's finfish law goes back to 1915 and forbids the use of staked nets.

Commercial fishermen claim that enforcement of the law will deprive them of a livelihood. Sports fishermen, on the other hand, claim that commercial fishermen are robbing the bay.

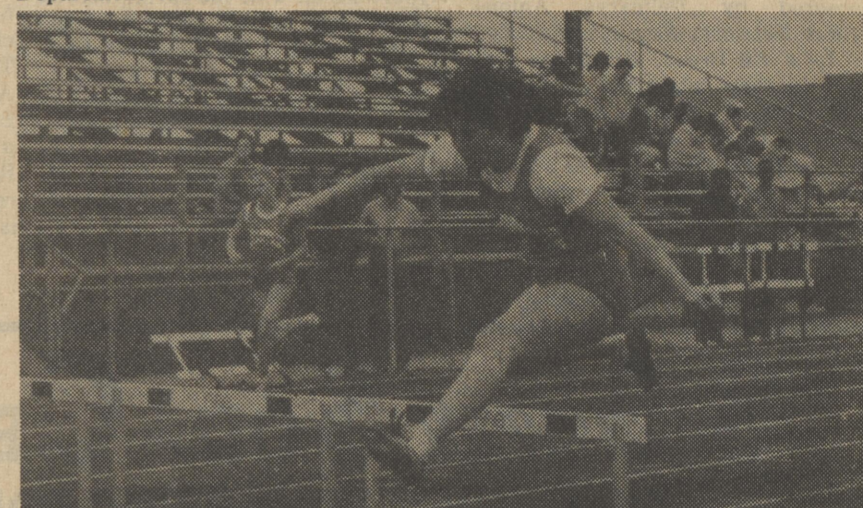

S.B. 107, sponsored by Senator Jacob Zimmerman, was supposed to be a compromise bill to settle the dispute between the commercial and sports fishermen. So far it has failed to do so, and Senator Zimmerman has threatened to withdraw the bill.

CRAB-DIVING BAN: Maryland is having its own problems with commercial fishermen. Maryland's Department of Natural Resources has adopted a three week emergency ban on diving for crabs. Delegate John Arnick, D-Baltimore County, says, "Unless someone can convince us otherwise during the next three weeks, the ban will become permanent."

BOAT SAFETY: If you are going out on the water, remember all safety measures. Carry life preservers, tell someone when and where you are going out and what time you will be back. An added measure of safety is to carry a two-way radio. Volunteers are monitoring channel 9 on CB radios, and the U.S. Coast Guard monitors channel 16 on VHF radios. The added precautions could pay big dividends.

DECOY FESTIVAL: If anyone happens to be in the Havre de Grace, Maryland area in May, there is the Second Annual Decoy Festival. The festival will run May 13, 14 and 15 at Lewis Lane Auditorium of Havre de Grace Middle School.

The Spartans' Ann Irby [foreground] strides over the hurdles in Saturday's Keith S. Burgess Invitational Track Meet in the Lake Forest Stadium. Teammate Debbie Jester approaches on the far side of the track.

Houston Board members at odds with a town citizen

by Harry G. Farrow

HOUSTON, DE - Approximately 3 years ago a stop sign located at the corner of Mill Street and Richardson Street in Houston was knocked over by a passing truck. Theodore Yerkes who lives in Houston and owns the property which he contends the sign was located on. He called it trespassing. According to the present Mayor, Richard Rollison, who at the time of the incident was a member of the Town Board, "We (the Town Board) received a call from him (Mr. Yerkes) asking us when we were going to come and get the sign off his property." Rollison allegedly went to the property, retrieved the sign and placed it directly across Richardson Street, where Mill meets Richardson, against a utility pole with the face of the sign facing Mill St. Today the sign rests in Mayor Rollison's back yard.

Recently the Town Board decided to re-establish the sign in the spot where it had been broken off by the truck. Rollison and his delegation was met by Mr. Yerkes and according to discussions at the Town meeting on Thursday night "each time we tried to sit the sign upright in the hole he (Mr.

Yerkes) would push it down." A police officer had been summoned prior to the visitation by Mayor Rollison and his delegation and he advised all present to get a legal opinion from the Town attorney as to the legality of the matter.

According to Mayor Rollison, "we believe the street (Mill St.) to be 30 feet wide. The black top is 27 feet wide and that leaves us with a 3 foot right-a-way. That means there is a foot and a half on each side of the black top. What we are talking about here is 18 inches or less. We have turned it over to the Town Solicitor for an opinion, for should there be an accident there now someone could be liable."

Mr. Yerkes said following the meeting that he did say at one time that the Town could install the sign if they purchased the "spot" in question or rent it from him. Since the meeting, he said that now he has turned it over to his attorney for further disposition. Council person Mrs. Dorothy Silbereisen said "...the sign was there long before Mr. Yerkes bought his property."

Houston to enforce ordinance against stray dogs and trash bills

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

HOUSTON, DE - Last Thursday the Houston Town Commissioners met to discuss a growing problem concerning "...dogs running loose in the Town." Mrs. Dorothy Silbereisen, who serves on the Council, said "...the problem is getting out of hand...I think. There are just entirely too many dogs running loose in the Town. There are two down in my garden all the time. They just roam the streets all the time." Sandy Anderson, Secretary to the Board, said she rides her bicycle every night with her infant daughter. "We are chased every night by one black dog. I usually kick at it...but I am afraid it is going to bite my daughter who rides on the back of the bike." It was suggested that she take a different route in the Town, and Mayor Richard Rollison said, "...there are just a few streets in the Town. After all we are a very small place. We only have six or seven streets in the Town."

The Town has an ordinance against dogs running loose, "...unless it is on a leash or accompanied by its owner. To do the contrary is a misdemeanor with a fine of $5 to $15 or 3 days imprisonment."

The annual Town election was not held because no one filed against Mrs. Virginia Twilley, who has been reelected. John C. Eisenbrey, III was the only other person filing for the

The Board sees it differently saying there is someone living there from time to time. The Board intends to collect the delinquent trash bill at the residence.

Moments later, as he lay on the ground, a cannonball came in near him and part of the ball hit him on the foot. A short while later he was hit in the mouth by a rifle shot. Pvt. Fulton laid on the battlefield for 4 days before he was found. He was evacuated to a field hospital and then to a hospital in Philadelphia where he remained for a year. He believed several times that he would lose at least one leg, but he did not....and he recovered.

During his recuperation in the Philadelphia hospital he carved a replica of "Old Ironsides". It is on display at the Museum as well as a tinted picture of him. Students and citizens alike of Delaware will find this display of great interest. Research is being done to finalize a list of those Delawareans who served in the War. Don't miss it. In a month it will move to Wilmington to the Delaware Museum there. A picture from a scene at the museum will appear in this newspaper each week over the next month while the display is at the museum.

Asbury United Methodist Church History

Church History

The exact time of the first Methodist Episcopal services held in Harrington is not known. However, it is certain that they predate the incorporation of the town in 1869. There was no church building in the community when the Methodist movement started. Prior to 1863, through the courtesy of the Pennsylvania Railroad, services were held in an old engine house across from the present church site. An old map (circa 1859) and an 1868 Pomeroy and Beers atlas show a parsonage facing the railroad at what is now the southwest corner of Fleming and Liberty Streets. It is guessed that the occupants of the parsonage both conducted local meetings and officiated at a number of rural churches in the area.

From 1863 until 1870, services were conducted and Sunday School held in the "old school house" on Felton Road (Dorman Street). The school house was located at what is now the corner of Dorman and Mechanic Streets. At least some of the meetings there were held by Dr. J.F. Owens.

Asbury Church takes its anniversary for the purpose of establishing the Harrington Methodist Episcopal Church. The land was given by Albert Butler, Winthrop E. Faulkner, Francis Tuttle and their wives. The three were Massachusetts lumbermen who had purchased the property when it was covered with timber from Nimrod and Ann Elizabeth Harrington. In fact, it was Mrs. Harrington who might be credited with the fact that a church now stands at the corner of Weiner Avenue and Liberty Street. She was apparently not all that much in favor of selling the property to the lumbermen. She refused to sign the deed until the prospective new owners agreed that after the timber was cut, a portion of the land be given for the building of a church.

Mrs. Harrington's insistence bore fruit in 1858 when the land, 28,300 square feet, was deeded for the use of a Methodist Episcopal Church "forever". The deed was received by nine trustees: William H. Powell, James J. Wood, William A. Willis, Thomas B. Coursey, Samuel Minner, John Satterfield, Isaac Bets, Peter Calloway and Benjamin Needles.

The original church building (the chapel and office in the present structure) was built in 1870 and dedicated on October 23 of that year. Its construction came as a result of what has been described as a "great religious awakening" during the pastorate of the Reverend A.D. Davis. Cost of the building was $2800.

In 1890 there was extensive renovation during which the present sanctuary was added.

In 1929, during the pastorate of the Reverend E.H. Collins, the Edward H. Collins Education Building was erected at a cost of $16,000.

In 1938, a portion of the original structure was renovated and refurbished as Christ Chapel. It was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Addie

The bell in Asbury's steeple will herald a 125th Anniversary this Sunday.

V. Satterfield who founded the Ever Ready Sunday School Class in 1923. This was during the pastorate of the Reverend Robert Green.

In March 1958, preparatory to the observance of the 100th anniversary of the church, the sanctuary was renovated.

In 1952-53 while the Reverend Robert E. VanCleaf was pastor, another wing increasing the capacity of the church school and enlarging the kitchen was added to the Collins Building. Cost of the wing was $37,234.49. In 1973, that wing was renamed in memory and in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Sharp. The renaming was announced on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the Ever Ready Sunday School Class. Mrs. Sharp was the teacher of the class for those 50 years.

An unofficial list of pastors who have served Asbury includes 44 names. These begin with five who served before 1865 and extend to the present pastor, the Reverend C. Jackson Robinson.

For 46 years or more, the music of the choirs has been an important element of worship at Asbury. The first choir was organized in 1937 when the Reverend J.E. Parker was pastor. The name "Chancel Choir" was selected by the members, who were high school students. The present choir by the same name is composed of junior high and high school students. A children's choir, formed in 1942, is now the Crusader Choir and is made up of children in fourth through sixth grades. The Cathedral Choir (adults) began in 1947, and the Cherub Choir (children in kindergarten through third grade) started in 1958. All four groups remain active in the program of the church.

With the passing of years, the name of the church has changed several times. It was originally the Harrington Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1939, three large branches of the Methodist Church - the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Methodist Protestant Church - united in Kansas City, Missouri. The name selected by the local church at that time was Asbury Methodist Church of Harrington. It reflected the influence of Francis Asbury, the circuit rider who became the first bishop of the Methodist Church in America.

In 1968, in Dallas, Texas, the Methodist Church merged with the United Evangelical Brethren. After that Asbury Methodist Church became Asbury United Methodist Church.

[Editor's Note: The historical information in this article was obtained and largely quoted from "A Brief History of Asbury United Methodist Church" prepared for the March-April edition of The Asbury Visitor by Delores Collins, Gail Vogelien and Irene Welch, and from a history of the church contained in the March 19, 1970 special historical edition of The Harrington Journal. According to the latter article, much of the data on Asbury Church was obtained from Mrs. W.W. Sharp.]
