

Gagne offers annexation as option

by David F. Coady

"I am opposed to any idea of extending the city water and sewer system past the city limits. I feel that if people living on the fringes of the city limits want city benefits, let them annex into the city and pay their fair share," said Councilman Ray Gagne at a special workshop session of the Harrington City Council on Monday night. The meeting was called to discuss proposed Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Harrington Water Works and Water Customers and for proposed tap-in fees and installation charges for sewer and water services.

Mayor Al Mann stated that he agreed 100% with the views of Gagne. Mayor Mann related the problems that the City of Dover experienced because they did not have a firm policy on extending the water and sewer system past the city limits. The Mayor stated that there has been a court ruling that if a city's water and sewer line runs past a person's property, that the city must allow them to hook up to it. The mayor asked the city council to establish a firm policy now.

Councilman Daniel R. Coleman stated that he knew people outside the city limits who would like very much to annex into the city. The only problem being that residents living between them and the city are opposed to the idea. It was decided at the workshops session that the 1965 Water and Sewer Regulations definitely needed updating.

Council held an earlier Public Meeting to discuss the rezoning of property at 208 Harrington Avenue from R-1 (residential) to C-1 (commercial). The request was made by Donna Breeding in order to establish a beauty shop on the property. As the request had the approval of the Planning and Zoning Committee and no one showed up to express opposition to the proposal, council expects that approval will be granted at the next regularly scheduled City Council Meeting.

In other business Council was showed, by Councilman Ray Gagne, clothes that had been damaged by either mud or rust coming from the city water line. Council was told by Mayor Mann that the only permanent solution is to loop all the dead end lines in the city water system. It was decided to flush the water lines in the area where the problem exists. Because flushing the water lines for 15 or 20 minutes had not worked in the past, it was decided to flush the water lines for about two hours.

Era ends - J.C. Penney acquires First National Bank of Harrington

by David F. Coady

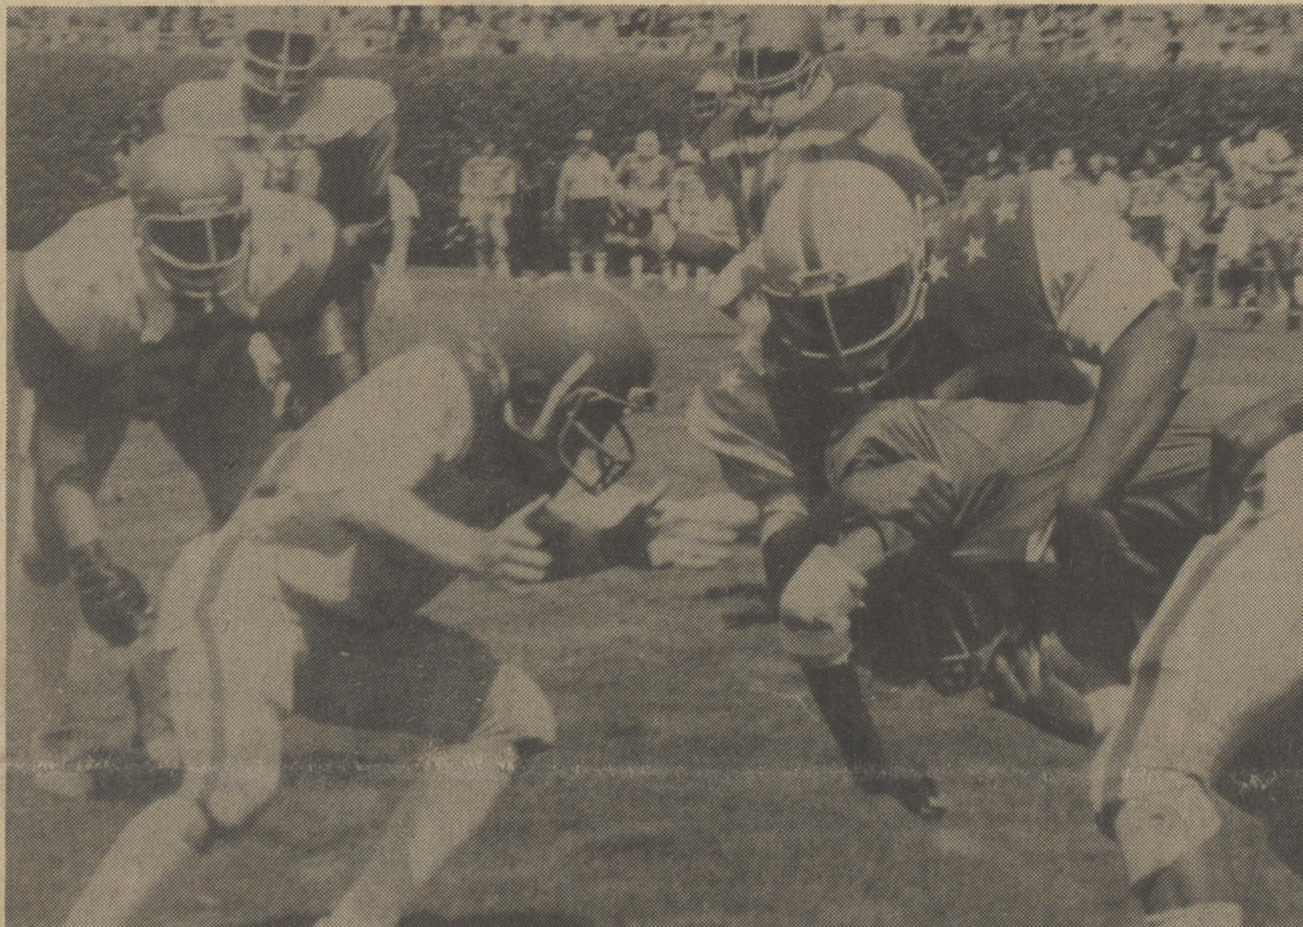

An era ended this past Monday as J.C. Penney Co., Inc. was successful in its bid to acquire The First National Bank of Harrington. Earlier in the year Penney offered the holders of 21,000 outstanding shares of First National Bank stock $350 per share. The stock had last changed hands at approximately $101 per share.

The First National Bank of Harrington was founded some 95 years ago to serve the needs of the community. Prior to that time, the residents of Harrington used the First National Bank of Milford. The merchants and residents of Harrington met on October 29, 1887 to form their own bank. A committee was formed at that meeting to solicit subscriptions of stock for the new bank.

On December 10, 1887 "Harrington Enterprise" met and a stock holders meeting was called for December 24, 1887. At that meeting, on a motion by W.T. Sharp, this association became known as The First National Bank of Harrington. A committee, consisting of Dr. B.L. Lewis, William Tharp, Edward Sapp, W.T. Sharp and L.L. Sapp, was selected to make the necessary arrangements for the organization of the new bank and to apply for a charter. The bank has been locally owned and controlled ever since.

The reason that Penney was interested in the local bank is Delaware's pro-banking laws and the fact that The First National Bank of Harrington holds a national and not a state charter. J.C. Penney Co., Inc. had stated that for its offer of purchase to be finalized, that it would have to acquire a minimum of 80% of the outstanding stock. The announcement of the successful acquisition was made on Monday.

Frederica Apartments?

Frederica officials are eyeing the town's water system with a question as to whether it could handle the addition of a 40 unit apartment complex on St. Agnes Street. In a special meeting held in recent weeks the Frederica Town Council gave its tentative approval to building such a complex. But the approval was contingent upon the capacity of the water system to handle the extra load.

Frederica Mayor Helen Powers said Monday that town officials were still investigating the matter and would contact an engineering firm. The town's new, 10 inch water main does run down to St. Agnes Street past the property.

Powers said it was her impression that no definite plans had been drawn up for the suggested apartments. They might be all of the "garden" type or a combination of garden and townhouse. She also said that one, two and three bedroom apartments had been discussed, with the emphasis on the three bedroom units.

Rod Johnston of Burchenal Oil Company, who, along with Emma Catherine Sharp, is owner of the St. Agnes street property on which an option has been taken by an unidentified firm, said he understood a "maximum" of 40 units would be built. The 4 to 5 acres of property, he said, is located at 20-22 St. Agnes Street. He said the prospective buyers have taken an option on the site until November.

The interested firm is apparently based in Delaware. Although Johnston spoke of the company as "Frederica, Ltd.," Mayor Powers said the name was the PATT Corporation. She believed its offices are in Philadelphia or Baltimore.

Mrs. Lulu Wilkins of Wilkins Realty Company, the real estate firm that is reportedly handling the proposed transaction said it is far too early to reveal any information. She would neither disclose the name of the company holding the option or make any other comment.

On Tuesday, June 28, the City of Harrington's proposed new city charter was passed in the House of Representatives. Last week it had passed in the State Senate. It now only needs the signature of Governor duPont to come into effect.

Representative Barnes wants new approach to General Assistance Program

DOVER - House Resolution 101 has been introduced by Representative B. Bradford Barnes (R-Bridgeville) in light of a recent federal court decision to extend general assistance benefits to people between the ages of 18 and 54.

Representative Barnes stated "The State of Pennsylvania is already facing an empty welfare pot as a result of this ruling. I feel that HR101 would allow the House Health and Social Services Committee to review the Delaware General Assistance Program and study a proposal used in Sacramento County, California. This concept provides food and shelter rather than cash distribution to people being served by the program."

Representatives Barnes stated "The general assistance program in Delaware is being urged to provide help to all indigents 18 years of age or whose needs are not otherwise met and who have not been found eligible for any other assistance program. Residents in this category are either unemployable or actively seeking employment. A successful in-kind program was started in Sacramento County, California with a population of 780,000, by the Sacramento County Department of Social Welfare.

Representative Barnes added: The program provides food and shelter under the supervision of the Volunteers of America once an applicant is found eligible for general assistance. The food and shelter are made available in place of the distribution of cash or checks as used in many assistance programs. All employable general assistance recipients are required in the Sacramento program to attend the work project assignments, and to work on projects as a condition of receiving assistance.

This program has received favorable national publicity when aired by CBS's "60 Minutes" in that it is designed to provide short-term financial assistance and social services that will enable a recipient either to find employment or actually receive support from a source other than the state."

Last Friday, William E. "Bill" Brown retired from the Harrington Post Office with 25 years service. He joined the postal service June 28, 1958. With him in the picture is fellow postal worker Frank Collins.

Woodbridge School District - Year in Review

by David F. Coady

The 1982-1983 school year was one of ups and downs for the Woodbridge School District. Ron Keiser, Woodbridge High School's football coach, resigned his coaching position citing a more profitable outside job as the reason. Then came the RIF'ing (Reduction in Force). This almost wiped out the coaching staff at Woodbridge Junior/Senior High School. Of the sixteen teachers RIF'ed, two have since been rehired.

Woodbridge had a very hard fought school board election between the incumbent Board President, Joann Conaway and business woman, June Durig. Much of the campaign focused on the operation of Woodbridge Basics School. Durig won the election.

But on the whole, Woodbridge had a very good year. The Woodbridge Basics School Parents Teachers Association was selected the best in the State of Delaware. The Basics School's PTA was invited to send a representative to the National PTA meeting in Albuquerque, New Mexico to receive an award.

Karla Robertson, 4th grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson was selected as a statewide winner of the Mighty Buckle Bee coloring contest. The contest was designed to encourage the use of seat belts in cars. Robertson and her parents met with Governor duPont and Lt. Governor Castle on June 2 to receive a $50 savings bond and be presented with the Governor's Proclamation.

Seven students of Woodbridge Junior/Senior High School were in Washington, D.C. from May 15 through the 21st as participants in the "Close-Up" program. The program is designed to allow students to get a first-hand view of the operations of the federal government. The students were under the supervision and sponsorship of Rick Heyd. Those participating were: Alisa Chasanov, Luella Penseaga, Lynn Cannon, Amy Messick, Elizabeth Saunders, Dawn Beauchamp and Lydia Kantor.

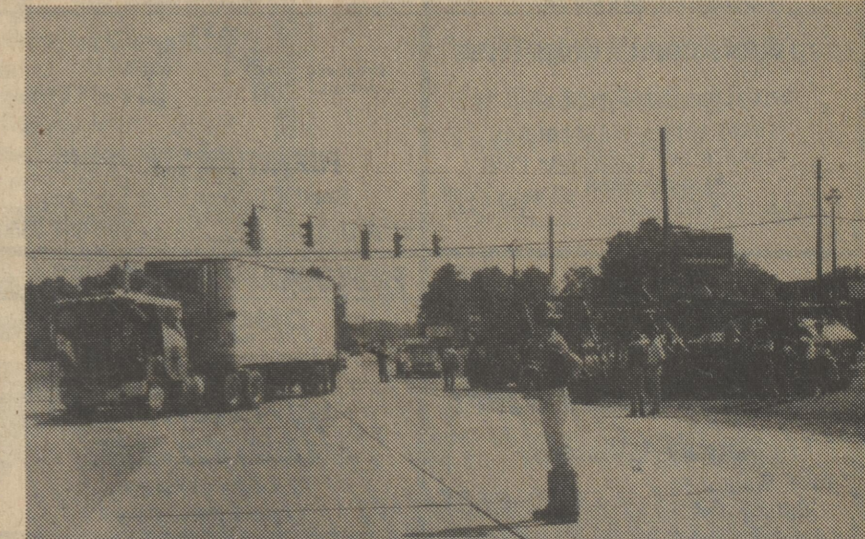

Woodbridge Junior/Senior High School was very successful in the 7th Annual AIASA (Industrial Arts) Conference held April 20 at the State Fire School and the Maple Dale Country Club in Dover. Woodbridge had 50 students and two advisors at the conference. Besides doing very well at the conference, the Woodbridge Chapter has five of the six state officers. They are: James Baker, President; Peggy Creeden, Secretary; Lessa Mereider, Treasurer; Ted Durig, Reporter and Keith Pettit, Sgt. at Arms.

James Baker and Peggy Cameron along with their advisor, Mr. Coffman, attended the National AISA Conference in Houston, Texas on June 15.

"PUBLISHER'S NOTICE"
Due to the July 4th holiday, The Harrington Journal will be on the newsstands on Wednesday evening and will arrive in the mail locally Thursday morning.
The correspondents are requested to have their columns at The Harrington Journal by noon Tuesday, July 5th.

Newark, Delaware met Newark, Arkansas in a rough way last Wednesday when a truck driven by Jerry Lee Bainbridge of Arkansas turned into the path of another one driven by Robert A. Gregg of Delaware. The accident occurred at the intersection of U.S. 13 and Delaware 14 in Harrington, after Bainbridge had stopped for a red light. When the light turned green, Bainbridge decided to make a left hand turn into Hardee's. He made the turn from the right hand lane pulling into the path of the other vehicle which plowed into his cab on the driver's side. Bainbridge who was given first aid by a nurse at the scene was taken to Milford Memorial Hospital by the Harrington Ambulance. He suffered a cracked rib, cuts and bruises. He was later charged by Harrington Police with making an improper left hand turn.

Delaware State Police Warns Against Fireworks

With the Independence Day celebration close at hand, the Delaware State Police are warning parents to pay particular attention to the activities of their children regarding the use of fireworks. Many severe injuries, such as blindings, loss of limbs and burns have resulted from the careless use of fireworks. In 1982, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission estimates that as many as 6,000 fireworks-related injuries were treated in hospital emergency rooms throughout the country during the peak usage period, June 23 to July 20. Property loss involving fireworks was also significant, as it has been during previous years.

Furthermore, if the safety factors surrounding the illegal use of fireworks is not sufficient incentive to discourage their possession and discharge, then the state police encourage parents to review the parameters of the law. Delaware Code, Title 16, §8901, prohibits the selling or possession of fireworks within the State of Delaware. It reads in part, "no person shall store, sell, offer or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell or to use, discharge or cause to be discharged, ignited, fired or otherwise set in action within this state, any fireworks, firecrackers, rockets, sparklers, torpedoes, Roman candles, fire balloons or other fireworks substances of any combination whatsoever designed or intended for pyrotechnic display...."

The law does provide for organized public displays after the sponsoring agencies receive a permit from the Department of Public Safety and it provides for the use of fireworks for certain agricultural purposes. The penalty for the illegal use of fireworks includes a fine of not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00.

The Delaware State Police ask for citizens support in helping them make this fourth of July a safe and happy holiday celebration.

Commenting on Karp's appointment, Joan Kramer, Wye Mills artistic and managing director, said: "We are extremely pleased to have a director of Richard Karp's caliber and experience with us this season. The 1983 season promises to be our most challenging to date and only someone of Mr. Karp's History was made June 18 at Bethany Beach, Delaware. Carole Mitchell became the first woman soldier to be promoted to colonel in the history of the Delaware Army National Guard.

Her promotion was part of the Annual Governor's Day Celebration honoring Governor Pierre S. duPont, IV, Commander-In-Chief of the Delaware National Guard. Colonel Mitchell began her career with the Guard in January, 1967. She was recruited by Major General William Duncan, Commander of the 261st Signal Command and Vice President of Medical Affairs of the St. Francis Hospital. Mitchell has served as ward nurse, head nurse and chief nurse with the 116th Combat Support Hospital at the Greater Wilmington Airport. Since October, 1982, she is currently serving as chief nurse in the state surgeon's office of the state area

Colonel Mitchell is employed by the Wilmington Medical Center. She currently is a supervisor for emergency services. On hand for the ceremony were members of her family, including her husband, Albert.

Reflecting on her association with the Guard, Colonel Mitchell stated that, "It is a beautiful place for opportunities for women, especially for a nurse. The Guard has given me opportunities that I would not have had otherwise, especially for schooling and travel. I enjoy meeting and serving the people, they are such a cross section of

THE BLUE BANANA

A monthly selection from the Lake Forest Elementary Schools

"Read all about it!"

The following poem was written by Leigh Ann Winger, Lake Forest North Elementary

We start each day with a ride on the bus. Just one driver and forty of us. In the hall we chat awhile. Then we walk in the classroom with nothing but style. The school bell rings and quiet's a must.

The teacher smiles at all of us. Pencils, paper, books and toys. They're educating us girls and boys. It's recess time; we worked all day. Then we go home; it's time to play.

The bus ride now is not all bad. Because I'll soon be home with mom and dad. Leigh Ann Winger, Age 9, Grade 3-C Lake Forest North Elementary School Teacher: Mrs. Delema Carter Greenwood United Methodist Church welcomed their new pastor, the Rev. Mrs. Michael Russell on Sunday, June 19. Her first sermon, entitled "Born to Dance" was enjoyed by all.

Plans are being made for Daily Vacation Bible School. More later. Father's Day was observed in Greenwood Church by presenting the oldest father, the youngest father and the father with the most children. They were presented with small gifts.

Father's Day was also observed at Hickory Ridge Congregational Methodist Church with special recognition for the oldest and youngest fathers.

The week of 11-15 has been set for the Bible School at Hickory Ridge.

The Greenwood Volunteer Fire Company sponsored a Father's Day breakfast held in the school cafeteria. We do not have a report of the details at this moment, but it was a great success. All benefits were for the Lori Cannon Fund.

We apologize for an error made in a person's name in our last week's news. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Davis from Maryland should have been spelled "Mrs. Genavieve Kent".

Mrs. Alvan Willey has returned home after spending a week with her son, Gerald Lapp in Durham, North Carolina. Gerald is at present attending college in North Carolina, studying Criminal Justice.

Gab Fest

by Pat Hatfield

These are the days when it pays to get up early in the morning. As I have told you before, when I come down, the first thing I do is open the kitchen door, put my head out and sniff the air. I saw my grandfather do this every morning as I grew up. I am not the weather prophet that he was, but I do it for sheer enjoyment. It is astonishing how many different smells that are in the early morning. In the winter, the air is sharp as a knife and then sometimes on the foggy, misty winter mornings there is the smell of tree bark and leaf mold. But this delightful June morning held the sweetness of summer and new-mown hay and freshly-cut lawns and the stirring of the soft, gentle breeze was like a touch of velvet.

I have been waiting for a cool morning to bake some bread. I like to make bread better than any other type of cooking. Bread is certainly well-named the "Staff of Life". Even the Rock groups acknowledge its importance when they speak of cash or money, calling it "bread". Dad's mother, "Miz Anne" Hatfield had a great reverence for bread and would never let one tiny bit be thrown away. Waste was not in her nature, not in mine, but I do confess to feeding some of mine to the birds. I feel that when it nourishes God's small creatures, it is not wasted. Glancing through an old cookbook in the shop I found these two lovely poems about bread. In the first one, the author is unknown, but he calls his poem, "The Staff of Life".

Be careful when you touch bread.
Let it not lie uncared for - unwanted.
So often bread is taken for granted.
There is so much beauty in bread;
Beauty of sun and soil,
Beauty of patient toil.
Winds and rains have caressed it,
Christ often blessed it.
Be gentle when you touch bread.

The other poem is written by Patti Linn, and she calls it "I Am Many Women".

When sky and street merge in sullen grayness,
And black trees stir in sleep;

Local shopping with Clint (Our DAST driver), he is so very kind and considerate.

Bowling at Milford Lanes.

We have had some beautiful flowers brought in from private gardens. Roses, snapdragons, baby breath, sweet peas, daisies (all colors) and lots of others.

Mrs. Nellie Tyler called and asked me to tell everyone that sent her a card or gave her any act of kindness a very special thank you! Thank You!

Mrs. Jo Burke had a family reunion at Killen's Pond Saturday, June 18, 1983. There were 98 present. All of Jo's children were there with the exception of one, Robert. The other children, Thomas, Irene, Reita, Lawrence, Daniel, Rose Marie, Elizabeth, Mary Lou and Kathleen were all there with their spouses and children. A great time was had by all! Food was varied and delicious. Kisses, hugs and lots of news!

My stove becomes a hearth.
I am many women who have looked at rain

Through a flap of hide, from a hand-hewn door,
And felt secure against a threatening world,
Blessed between warm walls and sheltering roof,
Hands deep in flour,
Powdered grain from a million fields
Garnered in sweating sunlight,
I am many women who have kneaded resilient dough

With strong hands...
Brown, red, yellow and white hands.
Folding and stretching, shaping
Smoothly contoured loaves
Rich with the smell of yeast.
(Bread is like nothing so much as bread Sacred in its own identity).

The sky trades snow for night,
And the scent of baking loaves
Is calm benediction for my home.
I am many women who have taken bread from an oven.
And breaking it....Felt consecrated.

BEE STINGS

There is no truth to the notion that once stung by a bee you are ever after more prone to have serious or life-threatening reactions to bee stings, reports a Harvard allergist in Jrn. of AMA. Taking a series of expensive desensitization shots against bees rarely does any good and wastes time and money, he suggests. People who have had severe bee sting reactions should obtain from their doctor a kit of chewable antihistamine and a syringe of adrenaline, plus instructions for use.

Mid week Bible Study is conducted on Wednesday evenings at 7:00. Pastor Miller is leading a study based on 1st Thessalonians. Study guides are provided.

The Sunday School convenes at 9:30 a.m. with the worship hour following at 10:40. On Sunday evening, July 3 at 7:00 a film will be presented entitled, "It's Friday But Sunday's Comin'" featuring Dr. Anthony Campolo. Dr. Campolo is Chairman of the Department of Sociology at Eastern College, St. Davids, Pa.

The message of the film is powerful and has motivated Christian congregations around the country to seek a deeper, more costly commitment to Christ. Dr. Campolo mixes honest humor with persuasive arguments to challenge Christians to achieve a new appreciation of their faith. This is an excellent film and the public is invited to share in its message. A free will offering will be taken.

The following children from our CYC organization are planning to attend the District CYC Camp from July 4 - 8 in Denton, Md.; Amy Holloway, Stephanie Brown, Joshua Tarburton, Rachel Tarburton, Jessica Perdue, Michelle Van Ness, and Michael Van Ness.

Hunting and Fishing on Delmarva

by David F. Coady

FINFISH LAW: This is the final week of the current session of the General Assembly. There seems to be no chance of passage of a new Finfish Bill. Senator Jacob Zimmerman must be cursing the day he decided to put together a compromise. Commercial waterman and most sporting organizations were willing to sit down and work out a compromise. But the Delaware Saltwater Sport Fishing Association (DSSA) is flexing new political muscle and will hear nothing of compromise.

Milford's Senator Ruth Ann Minner, has done a sterling job of trying to reach a compromise. Most downstate recreational fishermen will agree that commercial watermen have a right to earn a living. The States of Delaware and New Jersey have a pact with both states agreeing that their perspective finfish laws will be compatible. Delaware's out-of-date finfish law will more than likely be ruled unconstitutional in any court appeal. Let us hope that another session of the General Assembly goes by without a new Finfish Law.

FISHING TOURNAMENT: The 10th annual $25,000 White Marlin Open will be held August 22 through 26 in Ocean

City, Md. In addition to the $25,000 awarded for catches of white and blue marlin, wahoo, tuna, dolphin and shark, there is a new added bonus. An angler catching both a white marlin (75 lb. minimum) and a blue marlin (250 lb. minimum) during the tournament will receive an extra $10,000.

The new award is sponsored and will be presented by the DAIWA Corporation, one of the world's largest manufacturers of rods and reels. DAIWA is a co-sponsor of the tournament and its Sealine Reels and I.G.F.A. Trolling Rods are the official tackle of the tournament.

While Ocean City is known as "The White Marlin Capital of the World," many huge blue marlin roam the waters offshore. In the 1977 tournament Harry Hales landed a 590 lb. blue good enough for a state record.

In the event that more than one angler is eligible the winner will be determined by the total weight of his two fish. The tournament will be held August 22-26 and headquartered at the Harbor Island Marina, Ocean City, Md. For more information write: P.O. Box 737, Ocean City, Md. 21842 or call 301-289-9229.

28th Annual Blue-Gold All-Star Football Game

Lake Forest's Rodney Abrams, above, welcomes his All Star Buddy Sam Hollis in an emotional moment on the field before the start of Saturday's 28th annual Blue-Gold game. The annual affair, which has raised over 1.5 million dollars for Delaware's mentally retarded children, also revolves around personal friendship built between Blue-Gold participants and their buddies from among the game's beneficiaries. Robin Kemp, left, brought Lake Forest enthusiasm to the Gold cheerleading squad on Saturday.

Harrington League Results

LITTLE: On June 20 Dale Spence struck out nine players in leading Taylor's Hardware to a 6-2 victory over Harrington Lions.

On June 22 Taylor's Hardware had no trouble in defeating American Legion 18-2.

MINOR: On June 23 it was a slug-fest between Hi-Grade and Jarrell Fuel. Hi-Grade won the game 24-15.

SENIOR: I.G. Burton (8-6) extended its winning streak to 3 games by ending league leading Peoples Bank (13/2) 13 game winning streak June 21, 1983. John Kirby pitched a near perfect game (no runs, no hits, no walks, 14 strikeouts and one error) on his way to a 2-0 victory. Both of Peoples Bank's losses have come at the hands of I.G. Burton.

Elvin Spence lead off the top of the 7th with a walk and reached third on a single by Mike Gygyrynk. Gygyrynk stole second and Jim Kossman knocked in winning run with a sacrifice fly to left field. Gygyrynk advanced to third on a fielder's choice. Robert Masten then walked and stole second base. With Marty Hill at bat, Gygyrynk scored the final run by stealing home on a passed ball.

Milford man wins $20 in Sports Quiz

by William T. Ficks

Jerry Minner of Milford won the June 15 sports quiz. Since there were no winners in the three previous quizzes, Minner's winning entry was worth $20.

Actually, Minner's answer to the fourth question (Only two fighters who held the heavyweight championship retired undefeated. Who are they?) wasn't exactly the answer we had in mind. We wanted the two fighters who retired undefeated, and remained in retirement. But we didn't word it that way, so Minner's answer (Rocky Marciano and Joe Louis) was indeed correct.

The two fighters who retired undefeated and remained in retirement were Gene Tunney and Rocky Marciano. Louis retired undefeated but made an unsuccessful comeback attempt.

With such keen sports fans as Minner out there, we'll have to be more careful with the questions.

Congratulations, Jerry. Have a round on us. And keep sending those entries.

Move to June doesn't change Gold luck

"Movin' to June" was the theme of the 1983 Blue-Gold All Star Game held in the University of Delaware stadium on Saturday. This year the game, played in August since 1955, was moved to a June date for the first time in its 28-year history. Promoters of the game had hoped to boost sagging attendance by catching the football crowd before summer vacations took over. However, attendance at this year's classic was around 7,200. In previous years it has peaked at eight or nine thousand.

For those who hoped the move to June might change the Gold team's luck, the day was also a disappointment. The Blue team handed the Gold a 41-14 trouncing. It was the second worst defeat in the 28 years of the game. The worst was handed down by Gold when it blanked Blue 44-0 in 1969. The 1983 results add to the margin of victories posted by Blue which now leads 17-9 in the series. There have been two ties in 1960 (6-6) and in 1981 (8-8). Gold's last victory was in 1977 when it commanded a convincing 39-16 margin.

The Gold team won the opening toss but proceeded to waste the opportunity as Caesar Rodney's Vincent Williams bobbled the kickoff and fumbled on the first play. A Blue recovery on the Gold 8 yard line set up the first touchdown with less than two minutes of game time elapsed. Blue proceeded to dominate the first quarter, scoring a second touchdown on a 55 yard drive.

The Gold team made it to the game with two scoring efforts in the second quarter. Middletown's Darnell Archie got it rolling with a 16 yard run. Several plays later, Matt Janeczek of St. Marks completed the effort with a dive over the goal line.

The second Gold TD came when St. Marks' Brendan McCall snagged an improbable pass from Newark's John Lane. The pass looked as though it would either be deflected out of bounds or intercepted by two hefty Blue defenders. But McCall nabbed it in the corner and turned to score.

Gold's remaining two points were scored by Smyrna's Macky Traubaud who kicked both successful PAT's.

Although Blue scored again in the second quarter, the halftime margin was a respectable 21-14 which could have moved either way in the final two periods. However Blue resumed total control, piling on 23 additional points and keeping Gold scoreless for the remainder of the game. Rushing statistics showed the northern team outgaining the southern by 274 yards to 93.

Lake Forest senior quarterback Brian Gladden saw action on the Gold defensive unit for much of the game. He was one of a number of talented quarterbacks on the Gold team. Sussex Central's John Young and Newark's John Lane piloted the Gold offense for most of the way. Also on hand was Smyrna's Macky Traubaud who played at cornerback, kicked the extra points, and was in at quarterback for one series of plays.

Guard Rodney Abrams of Lake Forest did double duty on the punt team and on the defensive unit.

In action for the Gold squad was Nolan Worthy, senior halfback from Woodbridge.

The game's top individual award, The Michael K. Webb Outstanding Player Award presented by the Notre Dame Club of Delaware went to Alonzo Dunn of McKean. Dunn was also the Blue recipient of the Jim Williams Memorial Award. This award, presented in memory of the games co-founder by the Delaware Interscholastic Football Coaches Association, went to Indian River's Anthony Williams on the Gold team.

Pre-game highlights of the day included jazz bands, gymnastics and clowns in the parking lot and the presentation of the Blue and Gold Queens (Debbie Turnball of A.I. duPont and Amy Prettyman of Seaford) and their courts along with the Blue and Gold cheerleading squads. Accompanied by Miss Delaware 1983, the two queens arrived by helicopter.

At halftime, the 75 member Blue-Gold All Star Band put on a field show under the direction of Paul Parets of A.I. duPont and Larry Walker of St. Andrews. Following the field show, the Delaware Special Olympics champions were presented to the crowd.

Delaware Governor Pierre S. duPont used the occasion to dramatize the signing of due process legislation for Delaware retarded and handicapped citizens.

Paddock Notes

Doug Ackerman, who in recent years has developed such outstanding trotters as Self Confident, Noble Hustle, and Noble Traveler, gave his comments after the Historic Cup at The Meadowslands.

"After that race, I think that you'd have to put Dancer's Crown right at the top. Then there are a few that rank in the second tier behind him, and then come the rest of the colts. I think right now there are only a few really at the top."

DANCER'S CROWN - "I watched him race in the Historic Cup and was I impressed! He trotted in 1:57 3/5, and it was his first start of the year. I don't think any other trotter has done that in history."

"He was strong on the front end, and strong on the back end, and you can't beat that, can you? And I think that he can do just as well on any size track."

"I think that the only way he can lose now is if some horse just out-trots him. And I don't see that happening right now."

SHERWOOD LOBELL - "I saw him race a couple of times at The Meadows, and in the Yonkers Trot. He's a good horse, but I don't think he's quite as good as Dancer's Crown."

"He can race in front, but I think he might be a little stronger coming from behind."

JOIE DE VIE - "I guess that I knew about him before almost everybody else, because I was out in California when he was getting started last year. "He's improving from start to start, and he ranks right up there. (Trainer) Ned Bower isn't going to hurt him, and neither will John Campbell (the colt's new regular driver, according to Ackerman)."

FLORIDA SUN - "He's another one who really is coming on this year. Last year he seemed just a couple of steps short against the best ones, but he's greatly improved this year."

BONEBREAKER - "I'm not sure what he's eligible to, but he sure can trot. He just won in 1:57 at The Meadowslands. He's really hot now, and I think he might be the dark horse, the one coming on."

RACEWEEK

Johnny Parsons to drive Joe Conroy's Dirt Champ Car at Nazareth

NAZARETH, PA - Indianapolis star Johnny Parsons has been named as the driver of Joe Conroy's Dirt Champ Car for the upcoming Eastern tour which concludes on July 3rd at Nazareth National.

Parsons, who ran his first championship race at Sacramento in 1969, is the son of 1950 Indy 500 winner John Parsons. Johnny himself has started nine May classics, including this year's edition.

However, Parsons is no stranger to the dirt tracks. For many years he held the one-lap dirt car standard at the Indiana State Fairgrounds. The 38-year-old father of two, moved through the USAC Midget and Sprint ranks the way previous stars have. The native Californian made his USAC debut in 1966 in a midget, moved into a ageless sprint 1968 and won his first USAC race in a midget the year following his championship debut.

Since that time, "JP" has tallied nearly 30 midget and sprint wins on tracks ranging from a quarter-mile dirt to the half-mile asphalt bowls of Indiana. Johnny has never won a championship event on a mile speedway though. He's finished 2nd on occasion, and came within a whisker of snatching the 1976 Dirt Car Crown, but remains winless nonetheless. With the powerful Grant King built, Conroy racer, Parsons may have his best chance yet.

He will be in competition with the multi-talented field at the Racer's Dominion, for USAC's final appearance of the year at the Big Track.

Middleford takes the Pepsi Challenge

by Jay Cleveland

MIDDLEFORD - It was Pepsi Challenge night at Middleford Go Kart Track on Thursday night with probably some of the most exciting and competitive racing so far this year on the super dirt track. It was also fun for the fans and the spectators as well for they finally had the chance to take the challenge as they see it on TV. Which soft drink did they like the best. Ask some of the people who took the test and see what they say.

In the first event of the night, Vincent Stanley took the feature win in the Rookie Stock feature over second place finisher Larry Reed. Dale Reed finished in the third place spot. Stanley took home a first place trophy for his efforts. All trophies were sponsored by Pepsi Cola bottling Company of Salisbury, Md.

Then Shawn Pepper took home the first place trophy for his efforts by winning the Boys and Girls Box Stock class feature event over second place finisher Chris Walls. After Walls had gotten through the field, he then tried to chase down the kart of Pepper but time was running out. In what was a half a lap lead by the halfway mark, closed down to a quarter of a lap gap between the first place and the second place karts at the finish. Gary Giles, Jr. was back for the evening's festivities taking the third place spot with Tommy Lynch taking the fourth place spot.

Then Jim Pride took the first place trophy home for his efforts by taking the win in the Jr. Sportsman feature event over second place finisher Kevin Darling. Norman Short took the third spot. The race was in the early stages when the battle for first place developed between Robert Brittingham and Jim Pride. Brittingham lead for the half of the race until coming out of turn four, his motor blew up coming down the front stretch. Brittingham had the motor turning, thus bringing out the caution flag to make sure he was all right. The field re-grouped and then the challenge was between Pride and Darling, but when the checkered flag fell that was the finishing order. Pride the winner was followed by Darling in second and Short in third.

Bobby Comstock took the win in the Jr. Box Stock class feature event over Greg Darling. As the two battled for first place, Charlie Lutes was making his way through the field and hoping soon to be challenging the front two runners. After Lutes finally got around the third place kart, time was running out for him to make a challenge for the lead and thus had to settle for third. Laura Wyatt finished fourth with Rodney Peterman fifth.

Bruce Reed outlasted Punky Chism for the win in the Limited Modified class feature event with something happening to the Chism kart. This slowed the pace for a couple of laps, just enough time for Reed to take the first place away from Chism. Two karts in a 20 lap dash for the first place trophy from Pepsi Cola.

Dale Bounds took the win in the Sr. Sportsman race over second place finisher Steve Bunting. Bounds took the lead from Gary Giles, Sr. after the two had battled for several laps. The break came and Bounds was able to go underneath of Giles with Bunting in hot pursuit. Giles had to settle for the third spot after trying everything he knew to get back to the front but openings just were not there.

Brian Murphy took first in the Sr. Box Stock feature event over second place finisher Mel Miller, Jr. Jeff Melvin took third with Snooky Vent finishing in the fourth and Michael Reed fifth.

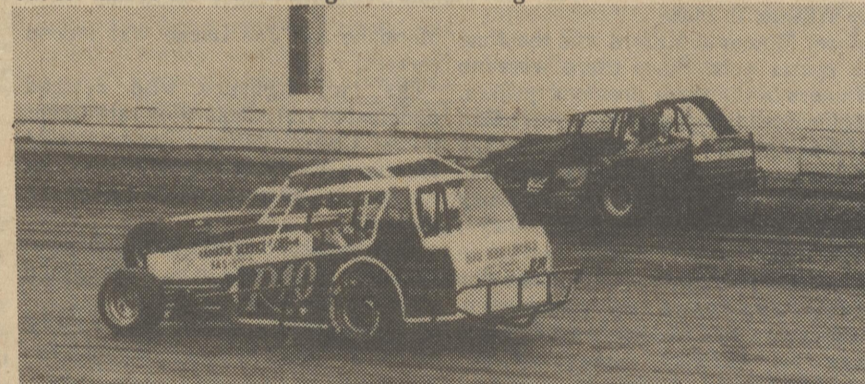

Steve Brock took the Unlimited Modified feature event over second place finisher Bob Sapp with Kenny Marvel in the third place and Roy Rogers in the fourth place spots respectively. Brock took the lead on the start and held it to the finish with Sapp having all he can do to hold back Marvel and Rogers.

Cliff Foskey again held off the challenge of Eddie Cain. Foskey took the lead early and just was unbeatable. This win gave Foskey a total of ten wins in the Heavy Stock class. There has only been two more winners in this class with each of them with one win each. They are David Wingate and Jim Boone. Hayward Bennett finished with David Taylor and Marshall Lewis rounding out the top five.

Mark Givens gave everybody a surprise by taking the win in the Open 2-Cycle Kenny Brown, Jr. Rick Morris finished third.

Greg Mitchell beat Bob Sapp after the two had battled for the whole feature event. Sapp had the early lead until Mitchell caught him. After six or seven laps, Mitchell then took the lead coming out of the fourth turn, and held it for the win with Sapp second, Paul Lathbury third, and Larry Bunting fourth and Jack Rogers fifth.

Snooky Vent got the win in the medium Box Stock and the first place trophy holding off the challenges of Jay Darling and Ricky Elliott. C.D. Hudson the third place kart, time was running out for him to make a challenge for the ROCKY MOUNT, VA - Tommy Bare of Bransburg, Va., couldn't have received a better Father's Day gift from his son, "Booper" than the one he got Friday night, June 18th. Sixteen year old "Booper" Bare, who started his racing career a year ago at Log Cabin Raceway, took the checkered flag in the 25-lap Limited Sportsman feature to record his first win ever in the Buck Shot Hills Farm Trans Am. And to show his pleasure, Father Tommy turned right around and won the 35-lap Late Model Sportsman event to complete a father-son sweep. "I'm happier about his win," said a beaming "Poppa" Bare. Dear Harry:

I was sad, but not totally surprised, to read your statement in last week's Raceweek.
I know that this was probably one of the hardest decisions you ever had to make because you loved racing and your involvement in it.
Hopefully your health will improve steadily now with this added pressure gone, and some day Raceweek will be back.
I have totally enjoyed my association with the paper and hope that you will not hesitate to call on me if you ever need any race coverage for the Journal.
Best wishes to you and the staff, and be sure to keep in touch.
Sincerely,
Phyllis A. Donovan

Area farmers get help with fight against Johnsongrass

The Delaware Department of Agriculture has purchased two wick bars to assist farmers in their annual fight against Johnsongrass. The wick bars are 10 feet in length and are available free of charge by contacting the Department of Agriculture's Noxious Weed Specialist. Terry Van Horn says the expense of the herbicide is left up to the landowners, and he reminds them that Johnsongrass is illegal in Delaware. "The fines for having Johnsongrass on your property can reach up to $300," says Van Horn. "But we'd rather help a farmer get rid of the problem in his field than fine him for it. By offering these wick bars, farmers can treat their fields for just the cost of the herbicide." A wick bar is a pipe that can be mounted on just about any farm vehicle. A herbicide is put inside the pipe, and a wick applies the chemical to the weed. Van Horn says Johnsongrass should be treated when it reaches the boot stage, or when it's 36 inches or higher. For more information on borrowing the wick bar, contact Van Horn at the Delaware Department of Agriculture at 302-736-4811 or 800-282-9685.

Larvadex 0.3% has received approval from EPA

Delaware poultry farmers have been granted an exemption allowing the use of an insecticide for control of flies in poultry layer houses. Grier Stayton, Pesticide Supervisor for the Delaware Department of Agriculture, says Larvadex 0.3% manufactured by Ciba-Geigy, has received approval from the Environmental Protection Agency. The insecticide, which is premixed with feed, is only to be used for laying hens producing eggs for the consumer market. Larvadex-treated feed cannot be used for broilers, or poultry that is producing eggs for hatching purposes. "We applied for the exemption on behalf of Delaware farmers because of the insecticides' effectiveness", said Stayton. "Any farmer who might be planning to use Larvadex, and has questions, should call our pesticide section. There are several restrictions and conditions ordered by the E.P.A." The exemption is effective immediately. It expires December 31, 1983.

Workman newest member of Board

A 34-year-old Georgetown farmer, Mark Workman, has become the newest member of the Delaware Soybean Board. Workman collected the most votes in Sussex County winning a 3-year term on the board. In New Castle County, William Cross was re-elected, and in Kent County Olin Gooden was returned for another term.

Delaware Grain Stocks

DELAWARE Grain Stocks - Corn and Soybean stocks were both up substantially from June 1, 1982. Corn held in all positions totaled 5.0 million bushels, 38 percent above last year. Soybeans held on farms more than doubled from the previous year, with farmers reporting 778,000 bushels in storage. Wheat stocks also increased from a year earlier, up 37 percent to 41,000 bushels, while Barley stocks decreased 33% to 78,000 bushels.

CRIME OF THE WEEK

June 27, 1983

To work, Crime Stoppers needs support from police, media, businesses and community. It is a non-profit corporation that publicizes a Crime of the Week, usually a serious felony. Callers providing anonymous tips on that crime, or any other felony, are given a code number. If the information proves valuable, the Board of Directors of the corporation pays up to $1,000 cash.

The first Crime of the Week began April 4. Each Monday, a new crime will be publicized throughout Delaware.

Former Governor Elbert N. Carvel and former Senator J. Caleb Boggs, are honorary co-chairmen for Crime Stoppers. Mr. Norman Powell was by David F. Coady Most people refer to it as the Fourth of July or simply the Fourth, but the proper name is Independence Day. The day is set aside by all states and territories of the United States to celebrate the day of national deliverance, a holiday solemnized by pomp and parade and featured by patriotic oratory.

Independence Day, 1983. A large graphic with a starburst and the date 'JULY 1983'.

Even though thirty-nine changes were made by Congress, the document is still essentially the work of Jefferson. Congress approved the historic Declaration of Independence on July 4; the New York delegation delayed action but finally added its approval on July 9.

The Lee Resolution was brought up for debate on July 1 was adopted the next day; New York being the only state to withhold its approval.

Astro-Analysis
 By Sonia McGinnis
 HOROSCOPE FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 3, 1983

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - Your knack for conceiving successful real estate ideas could be beneficial. Family members should be consulted and included before plans are launched. However, it's imperative that those close to you are informed of your aims.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - A profound interest in creating endeavors that are lucrative and fulfilling gives the incentive to follow through. A good working relationship with close friends and neighbors lends more support now needed for ventures.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - You can achieve prosperity and carve a more successful niche for career and personal goals. Key now is sticking to one interest, don't become involved with too many projects, allowing a good plan to receive only half interest.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - A high energy trend promises never a dull moment with your share of opportunities and challenges to choose from. Keep abreast of new offers that could lend new direction and provide a refreshing change of pace.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - Only close confidants should be included with your personal and intimate plans as there's a tendency now for gossip and misunderstandings. Make a special effort to improve personal appearance.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Friends are a definite plus factor now and the forming of new associations could also prove to your advantage. A week when horizons can be broadened; keep optimism up, aspirations high.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - Your rapid advancement could lead to unaccustomed responsibilities so be prepared for added obligations. The ability to lend your own ideas, shed new light on work related matters is now required.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - A program that is intellectually stimulating, helping to establish and enrich your present outlook is what you're now more suited for. Welcome the chance to become involved with a new course of study.

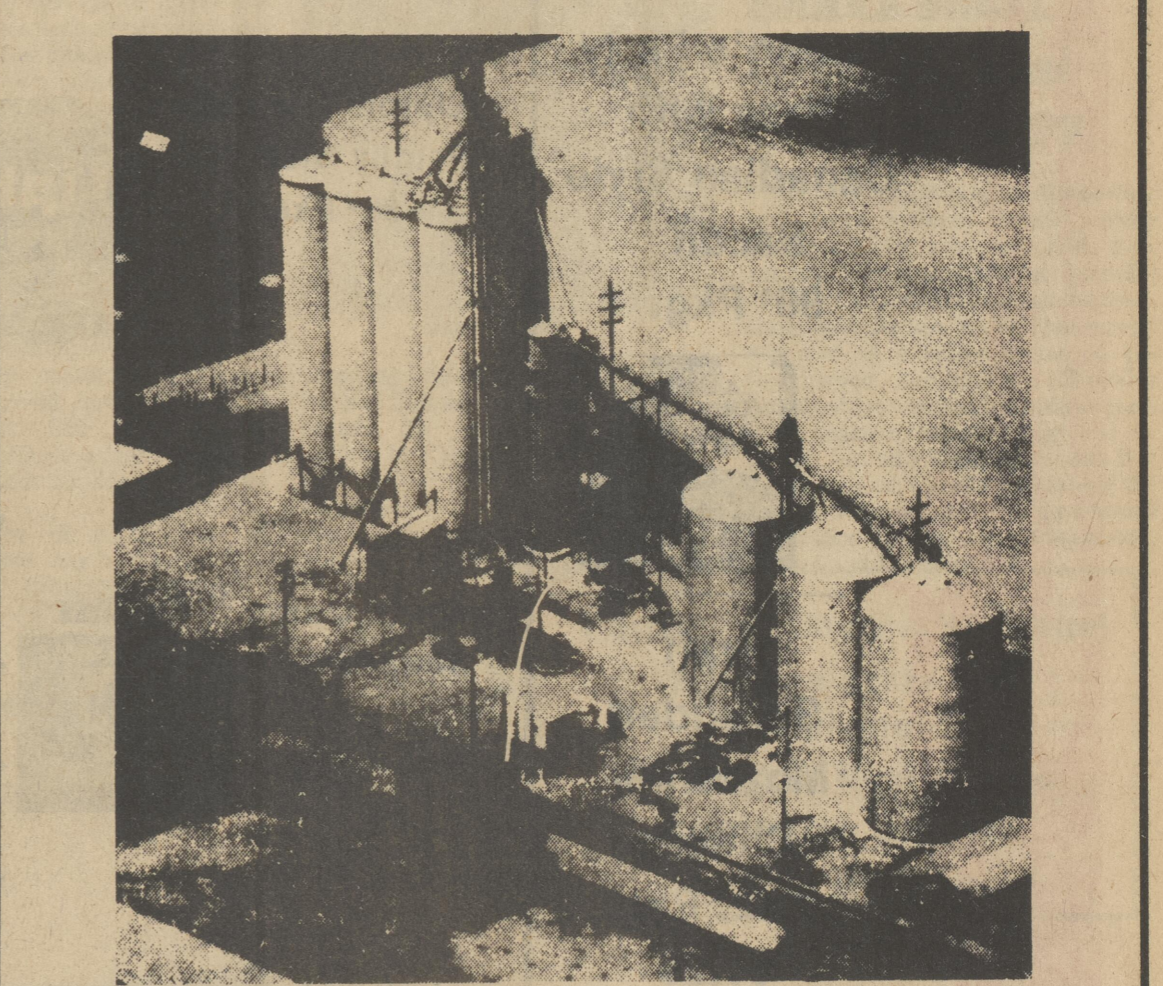

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Your adeptness in resolving problems, answering questions could be viewed as an investment. Examine insurance papers, mutual investments carefully, make necessary adjustments.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - An interesting week with some challenges evident. If others oppose your efforts be willing to pursue matters independently.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Your quest for perfection helps to meet deadlines and do work more efficiently. Pay close attention to the details now, be prompt for appointments.
