

Mystery animal appears in Harrington

What is it? His nap disturbed, the "mystery animal" walks off like "king of the jungle." The animal was seen about 8 p.m. on June 19 in the small wooded area between Liberty and Clark streets in Harrington. If you have seen or know anything about this creature, please contact The Harrington Journal. [See story on this page] Photo by Carol Ann Porter

The track, center of photo, is of the "mysterious animal".

William T. Ficks

The mystery animal seen on the evening of June 19 in the small wooded area between Liberty and Clark streets in Harrington is just that — a mystery.

Harold Ellwanger, who lives on E. Liberty Street, thought it was a honey bear.

Ellwanger's wife, Gertrude, rushed over to her neighbor, Billy Porter, who was mowing his lawn.

"Daddy just saw a honey bear," said Ellwanger.

The incredulous Porter looked at her a moment and then said, "There are no honey bears in Delaware."

By this time, Porter's wife Carol Ann had joined her husband and Ellwanger. "That lady was scared to death," said Carol.

The Porters and Ellwangers walked to the small wooded area where the "honey bear" had been seen.

Lying there was a black creature of undetermined species.

"I still don't know what it was. It looked like a panther. It was pure black," said Carol. "I've never seen a house cat that big."

The mystery animal was between two and three feet high and over four feet long, (including the tail, which was about two feet long) and was wearing a collar, according to Carol.

"I couldn't believe the tail. It stood out straight. It looked real muscular. But the collar makes me think it was someone's pet," Carol said.

"We threw rocks at it, and it just walked off like it was king of the jungle. It had a round face, and its ears stuck up like horns," Carol added.

Carol, who had brought a camera, snapped a few shots (see photo) with a telescopic lens.

Paynter Lynch, game warden at the Fish and Wildlife Division, said that with the exception of the height, the description of the animal fits that of an otter.

Otters are about 35 inches long with tails that are about 25 inches in length, but they stand only 10 inches high, according to Lynch.

Lynch said there are no bears of any kind in Delaware.

"In the past, people have tried to make pets of otters, but they're hard to handle and control," Lynch said.

"And the shape of its head and neck would make it hard to put a collar on and keep it there," Lynch added.

Carol's original color photos definitely rule out the possibility of the animal being an otter.

Those who have seen the pictures think the animal resembles a panther or mountain lion.

"It was almost three feet high. It was taller than my three-year-old granddaughter," said Gertrude Ellwanger.

"The kids have built a tree house in

Barnes seeks re-election

State Representative B. Bradford Barnes (R-Bridgeville) of the Kent-Sussex 35th District has announced his intention to seek re-election to the Delaware House of Representatives for a third term. As the Sales Manager of O.A. Newton & Son Company, an agri-business and construction firm in Bridgeville, the Lay Leader and Certified Lay Speaker of the Union United Methodist Church, a veteran and member of the American Legion, an active member of Lions International, as well as a long standing participant in area and community affairs, Representative Barnes has a full understanding of the needs of the people of the district. Primarily, this bi-county district consists of rural communities, farming, agri-businesses, small businesses, several school districts, active Christian churches, and conservative voters, all of which are compatible with the personal and political records of Representative Barnes.

recovery applications. Further efforts on his part during his second term have been directed toward the revisions for septic tank regulations by initiating action to engage an outside consultant from the Professional Resources Committee to modify pending regulations to be practical, more economical, and yet environmentally sound. This was considered and put into study on May 31, 1984 by DNREC, and the results will be evaluated during this summer in hopes that it will be adopted in favor of the homeowners as well as environmentalists.

Representative Barnes has had a diversified assignment to the various house committees: Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Sunset, Small Business, Agriculture, Judiciary and Corrections. This well-rounded experience has enabled him to be educated in dealing with problems and improvements throughout the 35th District. As an active speaker and humorist he has been invited to address these subjects to a variety of audiences to include Prison Reform Forum, AARP, Ruritan, Rotary, POD classes, Jobs for Delaware Graduates, Fire Companies, American Legion, public hearings, and church groups.

A prime interest of Representative Barnes is the maintaining of the Christian family and the youth of the area. He prime sponsored anti-drug legislation to suppress drug usage and dealing in conjunction with "Crime-stoppers" which is a state-wide organization set up to gather tips and convict the guilty by combining efforts with the Lions International program. His

Frizzell & West: A family tradition

When David Frizzell and Shelly West were first named "Vocal Duo of the Year" by the Country Music Association in 1981, it signaled the launching of a successful partnership as well as the continuation of another country music family tradition. The popular duo are scheduled to make a two-show appearance at this year's Delaware State Fair in Harrington on Saturday, July 21st.

The families of the two singers are becoming so intertwined that it's almost going to take a genealogist to figure it all out. Contrary to popular belief, David and Shelly are not husband and wife. Shelly is married to Allen Frizzell, David's younger brother.

Both performers have been part of country music since they were youngsters. Shelly is the daughter of entertainer Dottie West and steel guitarist Bill West. David is the younger brother of the late country music stylist, Lefty Frizzell. Ironically, Lefty's last scheduled appearance before his untimely death was to have been at the Delaware State Fair back in 1975.

Despite the constant exposure to music, Shelly says her parents never tried to force her into a musical career. "It seemed like a fascinating business," she says. "We were always around people in the music business because of Mom and Dad. But Mom never actually sat down with me to teach me how to sing. In fact, she was totally shocked when I told her I wanted to go on the road with her and sing harmony.

It was during those years on the road with her Mother that she met and fell in love with her future husband, Allen Frizzell was the front man and rhythm guitarist in Dottie's band. Her relationship with Allen was a turning point for Shelly. The couple decided to move to California to work the club circuit there. "I learned a great deal from working with Mom, Shelly says, but I think I had taken it as far as I could. I needed to further myself as a solo singer."

Meanwhile, out in California, David Frizzell had bought a nightclub. Although he had landed a recording contract with Columbia before his eighteenth birthday, only moderate success had followed him and after 20 years in the business, Frizzell had decided to phase himself out of the industry. He intended to manage the club, pursue his writing and play his music on his own stage.

But fate had other plans for the talented brother of one of the greatest country musicians ever to live. "Just as soon as I was getting through with music, it wasn't through with me. It came and got me and brought me to where I am now."

Shelly and Allen played in David's houseband for three years. In addition to operating the club, David was also opening a song publishing company. "David was going to make a demonstration tape of some songs, Shelly says.

One of the songs, Lovin' on Borrowed Time, he thought would make a good duet. Since I was the girl in the group, he asked me to sing it with him."

The "demo" session turned out so well that it attracted the attention of producer Snuff Garrett. He was intrigued with the idea of a Frizzell-West duet project. One of the songs Garrett recorded on the pair was You're The Reason God Made Oklahoma, which would prove to be the reason Frizzell and West signed a recording contract with Warner Brothers Records.

Oklahoma was the first record Shelly ever made - but what a way to start! It climbed to the top of the charts and was voted "Song of the Year" by the Academy of Country Music. Since then Frizzell and West have won numerous awards together. They were named by the Academy as the "Duo of the Year" and as top duet by the Country Music Association and by the music industry's major trade publications, Billboard, Cashbox and Record World.

Other familiar songs made famous by the pair include Texas State of Mind, Husbands and Wives, Another Honky Tonk Night On Broadway, I Just Came Here to Dance and Please Surrender among others. In addition to duo success, both David and Shelly have embarked on successful solo careers.

The combination of David's warm and rich baritone with Shelly's pure, sweet harmony produces a sound which is sure to please most any audience. Times for their shows on the 21st are at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m., with a fireworks display to follow the second show. Tickets are available by calling the fairgrounds ticket office.

Biden gets police endorsement

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

U.S. Senator Joseph Biden, D-Del., received the endorsement of the Fraternal Order of Police officially on Friday at a press conference held at Jonathan's Restaurant.

It was only fitting for Delaware's Junior Senator to receive this endorsement. Not since the day of the Senate anti-racketeering meetings on anti-crime measures of big syndicate crime has there been a United States Senator who has worked harder for the cause of justice and punishment.

The Biden Bill — or as Senator Biden calls it "The Biden Package" has an uphill fight for passage according to Senator Biden. "The reasons is somewhat understanding, because it will mean stepping on someone's toes," he added.

Biden has been credited with being part of or responsible for the following legislation: a bi-partisan Crime Package of '82, Pre-Trial Services Act of '82, Law Enforcement Assistance, Drug Enforcement Agency assistance, co-authored with Senator Strom Thurmond of the current bi-partisan Crime Package, the Cop Killer Bullet bill which in fact outlawed the teflon bullet, and the Police Memorial Site bill.

Biden, over the years, has been a friend of the law enforcement community.

The Senator said that the next step in his on-going battle against crime is to push for the need for a "Czar" at the national level whose department would work directly against drugs and drug trafficking. Biden said the families which were exposed by Senators McClellan and Keauffeur are still in business today and doing just fine. "What we need is legislation which will bring the arms of the federal government together to fight organized crime," which he added is included in his bill. He also said that if "we equip IRS with confiscatory powers, we can seize all of the property of those we suspect in violation of the law."

Third Vice President of Delaware State F.O.P. - Paul Davis of Frederica; Trustee of National F.O.P. - Charles DeTulio; United States Senator - Joseph R. Biden Jr.; and President of Delaware State F.O.P. - Timothy P. Mullaney join in the official endorsement of Sen. Biden by the Fraternal Order of Police.

He explained that today organized crime has infiltrated major blue chip businesses and the monies are laundered through their own accounting firms who serve the "organization". He went on to say that one major airline suspected of being controlled by the organized crime directs all of their drug traffic operations to coincide with the scheduled air flights. "With this power we can move in and seize all of the property," he added.

In closing the meeting, he added that he would not give the keynote address at the Democratic National Convention, which will be delivered by Gov. Cuomo. He also said he felt Senator Gary Hart would be the Vice-Presidential candidate.

On Saturday morning just south of Kents Packing House on the southbound lane of U.S. 13, the trailer in the picture above had two tires blow out, sending the 18 ft. Wellcraft outboard boat off the trailer and in the air landing upside down. The fiberglass boat cracked as a result of the accident.

Quillen seeks re-election

Representative G. Robert (Bobby) Quillen, Republican from Harrington announced on June 21 he will seek re-election to the Delaware House of Representatives from the 30th District. Representative Quillen previously served during the years of 1968-1972 returning to the House of Representatives in 1982.

The 55-year-old Quillen's return to politics was a resounding success when he defeated Rep. Ronald L. Darling 2,298-1,447.

In completing this term, Representative Quillen stated "After being absent for a period of ten years I found that my constituents were having difficulty in getting answers and help with every day problems. Now I am working with the State Highway Department and with their help upgrading of the drainage problems in our district will begin. As a result I am pleased that I have been available to answer most of their concerns."

In looking to the future Bobby commented, "I believe Delaware has a lot going for it, and I want to contribute to its well being. The budgets have been balanced, a tax cut in the future and improving our

The 30th Representative District is comprised of Maryland, south along the Maryland line to Harrington and northerly to Felton, West Wyoming and West Dover areas.

Most of the ribbons were won by Hondo and Fu, her two Shih Tzus. The Shih Tzu, which means "lion dog" in Chinese, is a toy breed with a coat that reaches the ground.

The Chinese kept "lion dogs" which resembled the modern Pekingese as early as 2000 B.C..

The 8-year-old Hondo and the 11-year-old Fu have been retired by Keene, and now rest on their laurels.

Somy announces candidacy for House seat

by William T. Ficks
FREDERICA - Democrat Irene Somy of Frederica officially announced her candidacy on June 19 for the House seat from the 33rd. Representative District.

The seat is now held by Democrat Harry K.F. Terry, who is not seeking reelection.

Somy will face Republican candidate G. Wallace Caulk in the general election in November.

The 62-year-old Somy is no stranger to politics, having served as democratic committeewoman for 15 years and as district chairwoman for the past two years. She also served as an attache in the state legislature between 1971 and 1976, and is a member of the Central Delaware Democratic Club.

"It took me a few minutes to get over the shock and then I accepted," Somy said.

"It took me by surprise. Once I got the idea in my head, the sweat was over," she added.

Bruce Ney's name had been mentioned as a possible candidate, but he never actually committed himself, according to Somy.

When the democratic district committee put the issue to a vote, Somy was the winner by a 10-9 vote over Ney.

Somy, an affable, outgoing woman, is the mother of four grown children who Somy lives with her husband Joseph, retired from the highway department, in their home near Barratt's Chapel.

The ribbon-winning chares now belong to Sundance Kid, a two-and-a-half year old fox red Labrador Retriever.

Sundance Kid has already won seven or eight ribbons of his own. Keene belongs to the Mispillion Kennel Club which sponsors sanctioned matches every spring and fall at the Harrington Fair Ground.

A pointed show is held every November at the Wicomico Civic Center in Salisbury. The show draws about 1,000 dogs from all over the world. This year's show will be held on November 11.

Points won in this type of show are recorded with the American Kennel Club. When a dog accumulates 15 points he is honored with the title "Champion."

The "Champion" appellation, of course, raises the fees if the dog is eventually sent to stud. Among the 15 points there must be two "majors." A major, Keene explained, is three points or more won against, say, 15 or 20 dogs as opposed to only three on four.

Keene, a switchboard operator at a Dover answering service, keeps busy in her spare time grooming Sundance Kid and getting him ready for the fall Harrington matches and the November Civic Center pointed show.

"Some people I knew suggested I get into dog shows. So here I am. I've been owned by them ever since."

Hondo's picture once graced the cover of Groomer's Gazette, a magazine that serves as a showcase for the country's top show dogs.

As we bid Hondo and Fu farewell, Keene laughed, "They're senior citizens and I can't even collect Social Security on them."

Gab Fest

A hearty hand-clap for Wright Robinson for his new column in The Leader, entitled "The Wright Side of Town". When I first started writing for The Leader many years ago, Wright was my boss, (never a better one than he) and he still remains a treasured friend.

At my age, I can relate to the tales he tells of by-gone days. At our home, too, in spring and fall, housecleaning was a major activity. The feather beds were put out in the sun, the straw mattresses were filled with fresh straw and, when the first warm days came, the Brussels carpet came up from the parlor and the Ingrain carpet up from the sittin' room and were thrown across the clothesline and beaten with the wire carpet beater to get out the dust before they were stored until fall.

In the fall, when the summer matting came up and it was my job, as a little pig-tailed girl, to slide along the floor and remove the tacks with a small tool called a tack-puller. This little tool had a wooden handle and a "V" shaped piece of metal that slid under the tack so that it could be pried up and dropped into the small dish to save for another year. Now, these carpet beaters and carpet tack pullers are collector's items in our antique shop. Also the button hooks which were needed to help button those high-top boots and shoes. Yes, they were, in many ways, the good old days, and I am old enough to remember them vividly. One small area I do not wish to live over. Whenever I walk into the bathroom, I am deeply thankful But, we were, as a people, much happier then, I believe. Especially the children. The children of today have just about anything money can buy. The toys are fantastic, the clothes are beautiful, the food treats run the gamut from corn chips to Puddin' Pops and yet they complain a lot. What can I do? There's nothing to do," is heard frequently.

I grew up on a small farm in the country, and the only time I had playmates was on a weekend when visiting cousins came for the day, but I was happy with my dolls, my pet cat, Thomas, and my pet chickens, "Darling" and "Pinky Jane". "Pinky Jane" was a fat old hen and I taught her to sing for corn. I was a dedicated bird watcher from ten on and a proud member of the Liberty Bell Bird Club, sponsored by the "Farm Journal" Magazine. I enjoyed the daily activities of my mother and grandmother, picking berries in the summer and gathering herbs and chestnuts in the fall, and going to the woods in the winter for beautiful moss to put around the Christmas tree. I clipped and bunched the holly berries for my Grandfather who made hundreds of holly wreaths for shipment to Philadelphia.

Well, back to our push-button existence. Be thankful and keep the faith!

The guest speaker for the service will be Mr. James Miller who will deliver an award-winning speech entitled "Dreams: The Stuff That America Is Made Of." It is a very challenging message," Dr. Russell said, "and one that is not only patriotic in content, but spiritually invigorating as well...It is a timely message." Mr. Miller is a layman and youth Sunday school teacher in the Greenwood UMC, but will soon relocate with his wife, Karen, in Florida.

Immediately following the service, there will be a time of fellowship

In The Pocket

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

On Thursday at Meadowlands in the $125,000 2nd leg of the World Cup Pace Silver Dollar won it for Herve Filion over Salute Hanover and Caramore. The time was 2:53.3 over one and a half miles for a new world record for the distance, eclipsing Beatcha's old mark by 2 and 3/5 of a second.

At Wolverine on Friday in the $24,535 each division of the Matron Trot for 3-year-old c&g first division to Op Art and Bruce Riegle in 1:58.2 over Baltic Speed and OK's Smurf. The other division to Sandy Bowl for Jan Nordin in 1:59 over Crowning point and Nevale Express.

At Meadowlands on Friday in the $100,000 final of the New Jersey Sires Stakes for 3-year-old c&g pace to Butler BG and Ted Wing driving in 1:55 over Royal Command C. In the $20,000 F&M Open Pace to Green With Envy in 1:56.2.

At Greenwood on Friday in the $116,000 Simcoe in the 3-year-old filly trot Head Hunter wins for Berndt Linstedt in 2:00.4 over Arnie's Frilly and Amanda Seelster.

At Freestate on Saturday in the $15,000 Invitational Pace, Duncan's Wright wins for Bryce Truitt in 1:57.1.

At Lexington on Saturday in the Kentucky Sires Stakes for 3-year-old c&g trot it was Gentle Stroke breaking at the start trailed by 15 lengths recovered and came on for the victory in 2:00.1 on a slick track.

At Meadowlands on Saturday in the $35,000 Invitational Pace, American Freedom wins it for Benny Webster in 1:53 flat over George Allen and Hastie Luca. In the $20,000 3-year-old Open Pace was won by Jariz in 1:54.1.

On Saturday at Liberty Bell in the Pa.

Sires Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies it was Desdemona Hanover winning it for Sonny Dancer in 2:01 over Worth Bein.

Sportsman's Park on Saturday in the $107,500 American National Stake for 3-year-old pacing fillies it was Intowin Frost for Chris Boring in 1:56.4 over a good track with Don't Dally second and Majestic Gar for the show. Miss Unicorn by Nero trained by Ray Richards and driven by Del Richards of Harrington lost his first outing this year in this race. She cut the 1/4 in fractions of :27.4 :57 and 1:26.1. She faded in the stretch and finished 5th. Just before the race at Sportsman's Park, a thunder storm came up and officials at the track called off the racing for the night. A half hour later they put the program back on. One member of the Richards family said, "she was really rank before the storm, really wanted to race and we couldn't get her calmed down". Probably the reason why she faded in the stretch. She now has won 5 of 6 this year and as a 2yo was 2 of 3. She broke her leg in an accident at Meadowlands last year and was thought unable to race again. But she has taken a mark of 1:55.4.

Freestate on Sunday in the 3-year-old Open Pace goes to Windemere Promise in 1:57 with World Cup third. Liberty Bell on Sunday in the Pa. Sire Stakes for 3yo c&g pace in the 1st of two divisions of $25,870 each and the final for $25,470, all over a sloppy track, it was Andrel for John Campbell in 1:58.2 over Embrace Me, and King Towner. In the other it was Walton Hanover for Sonny Dancer in 1:59 over Russ Lyn Scott and Trutone Lobell.

Holmes Hanover for Carmine Abbatiello wins getting the final leg in 1:59.3 over Roman Lover and Berganline. At Stampede Park Calgary, Alberta on Sunday in the $200,000 National Christie for 3yo c&g pacers it was Legal Notice for Dr. John Hayes, Jr. in an all age Track Record time of 1:55.1 over Long Fella and Greener pastures.

Del Richards who drives Miss Unicorn is the leading driver at Vernon Downs with 52 wins. His closest rivals are at 24 each. The latest reports on Jackie Parker Jr. and John Simpson Jr. are that Parker has been seen jogging horses at Meadowlands with no date for when he will return to racing. Simpson on the other hand has moved to Vernon Downs where he is supervising his stable there with Sonny Dancer, (Harold Dancer, Jr.) doing most of the driving. Sonny Dancer a premier driver has over 1700 lifetime wins. No date has been set for when Simpson will return to full work schedule.

Leading dash winners are O'Donnell (258), Campbell (220), Lachance (218), Abbatiello (175), and Don Irvine Jr. (168). Leading money winners are O'Donnell ($3,168,500), Campbell ($2,687,170), Lachance, Abbatiello, Herve Filion, Jim Doherty, Buddy Gilmour, Walter Case Jr., Ray Remmen and Sonny Patterson and Eddie Davis 15th with $872,685.

SILVER DOLLAR SETS NEW WORLD RECORD AT MEADOWLANDS - With Herve Filion in the driver's seat, SILVER DOLLAR romped to victory in the $125,000 Second Leg of the World Cup at the Meadowlands. SALUTE HANOVER was 2nd piloted by Mickey McNichol. CARAMORE WAS 3rd with Buddy Gilmour in the sulky. Winner set a new world record of 2:53 3/5 for the one mile and one half pace and paid $21.60. Hudsons attend conference

Mr. and Mrs. W. Roger Hudson representing Hudson Farm Supply Co. of Harrington has just returned from a Southern States Cooperative Summer Dealer Conference held at the Hotel Roanoke in Roanoke, Va., on June 12.

The session was held for training and informing Southern States retail personnel about products and service programs so they could give maximum service to local farmers this fall.

Among the programs featured at the conference were ones on feed merchandising, seed, fertilizer, farm supplies, tires, batteries and automotive accessories.

The sessions were conducted by the cooperative's commodity specialists, supplier representatives and cooperative extension personnel. The conference was held in conjunction with the Southern States Fall Cavalcade Product Show, where dealers were able to view new products and place orders for supplies for the coming months.

Ambro Breton triumphs in slop; John Hervey scores impressively

by Joe Asher

Armbro Breton's win in a preferred pace, John Hervey's superb effort in a winners-over event and Oxford Mary Ann's upset triumph in a fillies and mares open highlighted the week's action at Brandywine.

Howard Parker, who has amassed an unbelievable .442 UDRS average so far this meet, gave Armbro Breton a flawless drive, enabling the 4-year-old son of Bye Bye Byrd to capture Sunday, June 24th's $9,000 preferred pace in 1:59.3 over a track labeled as good after a torrential downpour.

Treiskaideka (Vern Crank) cut fractions of 30.2, 1:00 and 1:30 before the Jack Parker leased and trained horse fanned out for the challenge at the top of the lane and drew off under urging to post a one length victory over Treiskaideka with Keystone Gent (Whitey Moore) a fast closing third.

The win was the fourth sub-two minute mile for Armbro Breton at Brandywine this year in just five starts. His lone setback came when he broke stride shortly after the start, was parked first over the entire mile and lost by just a half length. Joining Armbro Breton in the winner's circle following the race was Jack Parker, Jr., well on his way to recovery following his near fatal accident at The Meadowlands in April.

Howard Parker also captured the week's co-featured $6,500 winners-over pace on Saturday, guiding John Hervey to a five length score in 1:58.4 over Charter Winds (Bob Kinsey) and Tar Keel (Bob Shahan). Parker got locked in a speed duel with Abe Stoltzfus, driving Detective N. with the duo setting fractions of 28.2 and 58 before John Hervey cleared a length and got the wood at the three-quarter pole in 1:27.4.

The 6-year-old gelded son of Flying Bret coasted home in 31 to earn win money for owner Tom Cahill Jr. and trainer Jack Parker. Named after the great harness racing writer, John Hervey was the dominating horse at Brandywine last year, working his way up from $6,200 claimers early in 1983 to rule the preferred ranks for Bob Anderson, Jr. taking a mark of 1:56.1.

A two hole trip from Bobby Reeser enabled Oxford Mary Ann to score a huge upset in Saturday's $5,500 fillies and mares open in 1:58.3. The 1-5 favorite, Camden Katie, fresh off a wire-to-wire 1:57.2 tally, set fractions of 28.3, 58.2 and 1:27.4 while being challenged by Cheryl's Beth before tiring in deep stretch. Oxford Mary Ann, a 4-year-old daughter of Jarold J. made her 1984 debut a winning one for owner Robert Spencer and trainer Reeser, getting up in the final strides to set a new lifetime mark.

Chershot Bret, a 3-year-old son of Bret Hanover, went wire-to-wire to capture a conditioned event on Tuesday in 2:00.3 for trainer-driver Joe Holloway and owners Milt and Stella Rovine. The unique aspect of the $3,000 race was that seven of the eight starters were coming off wins, six horses having won two straight. Breezy Fashion (Crank) finished second while Allwood's Star Bid (Pete Petersheim) earned third money in the incredibly competitive event.

Promising 2-year-olds highlighted the rest of the week, with $100,000 yearling purchases Quiet Force and Ms. Tiffany turning in impressive efforts on Thursday. Quiet Force went coast-to-coast in 2:01.4, which the last quarter in a sparkling 28.4 for trainer-driver Scott Forbes. Owned by John Perlmutter, Gary Revington and John and Paula Campbell, the colt is a member of the powerful Jim Miller Stable. Forbes made it a double for the barn two races later by guiding Ms. Tiffany to victory in 2:02.4 despite being first over. The daughter of Niatross is owned by the Fascinating Fillies L.P. outfit.

Sports Laffs

by William T. Ficka

The high school football coach had just seen his boys humiliated 110-1.

As the dejected coach left the field, the sports reporter for the school paper approached him and asked nervously, "To... to... to what do you attribute today's defeat."

"What's your name, son?" the coach asked the new quarterback.

"Osscowinsinski," said the boy.

"Good," said the coach, "And don't ever change your name."

"Why did you say that?" asked the assistant coach.

"Why?" exclaimed the coach. "Now we'll get even with those smartaleck newspaper reporters."

The basketball coach was teaching his charges the fine art of free throwing.

One cocky kid kept contradicting him.

"Look, kid," snarled the coach, "go down to the psychiatrist and have him give you a sanity test. If you pass, I want written confirmation of it."

An hour later the kid came back and thrust a piece of paper into the coach's face.

"All right, Coach," laughed the kid. "I've got mine. Now let's see you get yours!"

Georgetown Speedway

Stock car racing in its finest form returned to Georgetown Speedway Friday night as promoters Tony Donofrio and George Macintire tried a new formula which kept the track's half-mile clay surface tacky and firm through the entire night of racing.

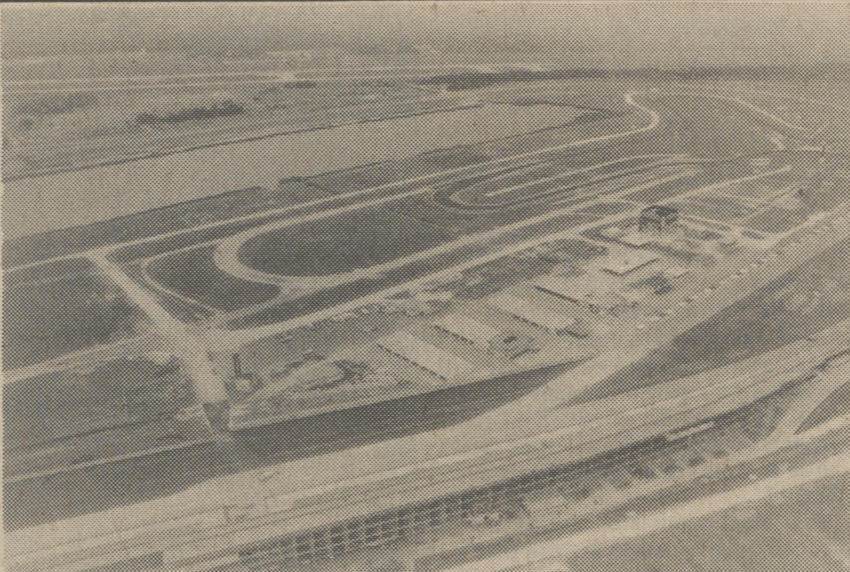

In the Late Model class, Eddie Pettyjohn picked up his second win of the season, outdistancing Lou Johnson, who had led most of the race, in the final laps. Don Riley ran a steady third followed by Brett Givens and Bob Vickers to round out the top five finishers. Alex Beaumont, making his first appearance at Georgetown this season, led the first five laps of the feature, but a blown engine spoiled his debut.

Rapid Richard Jarvis took the early lead in the Modified feature, setting a blistering pace that established a new track record at 20.82 seconds. But, on the 12th lap, Jarvis came to a halt in turn two and had to leave the race allowing Harold Bunting to take the lead on the restart which he held for the checkered flag. Billy Towers followed Bunting across the finish line in second place while Walt Breeding, Tom Capie and Tom Hager finished third through fifth respectively.

In the Limited Late Model class, Mel Joseph Jr. picked up his third checkered flag of the season. Jim Mitchell, who had taken the early lead, had to drop out of the race on lap two with a broken suspension. Lee Joines tried valiantly to catch Joseph, but had to settle for second place. Gerald Jester, John Macklin and Bunky White rounded out the top five finishers.

This Friday night there will be a Twin-20 feature for the Modified class along with the regular 20-lap Late Model and 15-lap Limited Late Model features. Gates open at 6 with the green flag dropping at 8:15.

ALL IN PLACE - Newly-paved sections of the Daytona International Speedway are ready for the July 3-4 Summer Speed Week at the giant racing facility. The new wall and apron leading to pit road (bottom left to center) will provide a better entrance to the pits, while the new road course [dark pavement] features a new dogleg turn and a tighter hairpin. The road course will get its first test July 3 in the 8 p.m. Paul Revere 250, when the Budweiser Trans-Am Series races over the 3.56 mile course. Lewis posts impressive victory

by Gene T. Cain

Milford Kart Club returned to action Saturday night after a week off at Piney Neck Speedway. The track proved to be very raceable and super fast as the weather provided a very enjoyable night for racing. A good turnout of karts were on hand to take advantage of the excellent conditions.

The Boys and Girls Box Stock Class got the show underway with some very exciting racing. Shawn Pepper won the heat and lead much of the feature till he lost the number one spot going by lapped traffic. Then in a last ditch effort on the last lap Shawn went up going into the third turn and overtook the leader to pull off a hard fought win. Craig Anderson came home second and Chucky Hudson was third.

In the Junior Stock class it was Charlie Lutes picking up the winner's laurels but not without a battle. Chris Davis was ever present right on Charlie's bumper for the entire race but just couldn't find a hole to get by. Right behind these two was Dale Elben, just waiting for an opportunity to go to the front. No one made a mistake and David's had to settle for second with Elben in third.

In Stock Light action, the always fast Todd Shaffer was on hand and showed blazing speed as he started deep in a large field in the heat and pulled to the win. But, the feature was not to be as easy as outside pole man Reggie Hazzard hung tough and pushed Shaffer the entire race. With these two long-gone from the rest of the field, another battle developed for third and fourth between Brian Murphy, Ricky Booth and Jim Boone. A mid-race spin, put Boone to the rear of the field and seemingly erased any chance of improving on his finishing position. However, a strong finish by Boone vaulted him past Booth just at the finish line as he ended up fourth dropping Booth to fifth. Shaffer held off Hazzard to pick up the win with Hazzard the runner-up and Murphy third.

Mike Passwaters won the heat in Stock Heavy but had Alan Anderson, Marshall Lewis, and Jeff Link all breathing down his neck. At the green for the feature, the unexpected happened. Passwaters found himself looking at Lewis' rear bumper and that was all anyone was to see of Lewis the rest of the race as Marshall ran away with the win. Link fell out early and Passwaters faded back into the pack as Donald Lingo moved up into the runner-up spot. Larry Holding placed third and Alan Anderson picked up fourth.

The mighty Limited Modifieds put on some very fast action. In the heat, Mike Coverdale got the victory and looked like the man to beat. Early in the feature, Coverdale went out front and set the pace, but back in the pack and coming fast was Lionel Lyons. Lyons moved out front and Coverdale had to settle for 2nd, followed across the line by David Wingate 3rd and Roy Dill in 4th.

The Stock Yamaha closed out the night's card with yet another great race with the winner coming up from deep in the pack. Paul Lathbury sat on the pole, but it was outside front row man Cliff Coverdale who went to the front till he fell victim to a broken chain. Lathbury took the lead only to lose it to Larry Bunting as he charged from 9th place to the point. Bunting continued up top to post the win with Lathbury in second. Steve West finished 3rd, followed by Joe Warrn in 4th.

This Saturday night, Milford Kart Club will be holding a trophy race with trophies being awarded four places back in all classes. Make your plans to be there and see the excitement.

Truex Tops Wall modifieds Lingo, Scisco and Verwys capture divisional

WALL TOWNSHIP - Barney Truex captured the thirty-five lap modified feature Saturday night at Wall Stadium. Truex became the ninth different winner out of ten weeks of competition at the shore speedway.

Starting on the pole, Truex wasted no time in jumping out into the lead as Scott Hendrickson and Tom Mauser quickly followed in second and third.

The first and only yellow of the feature came out on lap six as a three-car tangle in turn four left Marvin Saxton of Trenton awaiting wrecker service with a damaged front-end. On the restart, Truex still commanded the race as by now Eddie Bohn and Jamie Tomaino were the second and third place cars.

The front trio duelled it out lap after lap as Truex managed to hold on for the win. Tomaino tried a last lap move for second, but could not quite make it as Bohn held on for the runnerup spot.

Finishing in fourth was Lenny Boyd as Tony Ferrante of Franklin Square was fifth, Jerry Cranmer was sixth, Tony Hirschman seventh and Rich Rigsby eighth.

In the thirty-lap sportsman feature, Donny Ling made a last lap move around leader Bob Cramer to record his fourth win of the season.

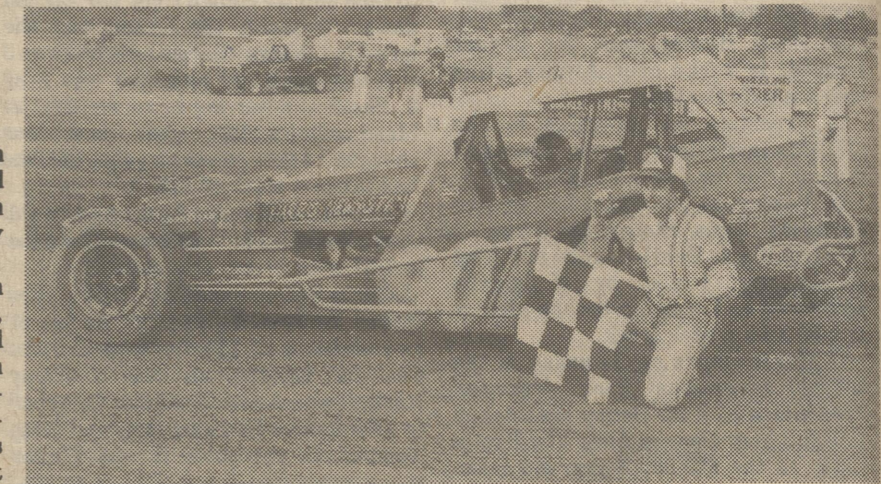

Finishing in third spot was Doug Craig as Martin Truex was fourth and Tom Dancer fifth.

The twenty-five lap modern stock feature was won by Brian Scisco of Farmingdale, his first of the season.

The ten lap street stock feature was won by Bill Verwys, his third in a row. John Roach was second with Les Jolia third, Bob Howard Jr. fourth and George Walters fifth.

Special awards have been planned. It is our hope that many of the drivers will choose to attend. Join us that evening. Help us say "We remember" "We loved you", "Thanks".

Bill Elliott's win at Michigan recently netted him a cool $41,600.00. Even Dave Marcus picked up $10,460. Ricky Rudd slipped in the points standings when he finished last with engine failure on the 41st lap. Waltrip took over sole possession of the points standings with 2237 with Earnhardt close in pursuit with 2207. Elliott slipped into the third spot with 2154. Labonte dropped to 4th with 2142, who finished 31st at Michigan.

In AMA motocrossing racing at Loudon, New Hampshire, Mike Baldwin wins for the second year in a row. The event attracts approximately 50,000 people to the New Hampshire town. Baldwin moved into 10th place in the standings with the win. Ricky Graham still maintains the lead in this category.

Bobby Allison won the Pit Crew event for Ingersoll-Rand at Michigan. This was his first win in that event this year. His pit crew just nosed out the Elliott crew. Both Allison and Elliott moved up in the standings, but Yarborough still leads the category.

Jarvis romps in U.S. 13 modified main

by Don Allen

Richard Jarvis of Ocean City, Md. pulled out all the stops on the Dennis Beer Distributors, Budd Olsen chassis #680 and rocketed to victory over a field of mighty Delmarva modifieds to win the 30 lap feature at U.S. 13 Saturday night. The caution spattered race saw Milford, Del.'s Harold Bunting finish second in his D&D Dismantling #19D with Walt Breeding, Bobby Walls and Tommy Long rounding out the top five in that order.

Pole sitter Bobby Walls led the first lap in the Bullock's Deli #22 but on the second circuit of the track he was dropped to third as third place starter Breeding took the lead followed by South River, N.J.'s Bob Toreky. Breeding would lead the next five laps while a squadron of the finest modified pilots in the region formed up on his rear bumper.

A restart on lap five following a caution brought out when John Kozak and Lacy Lafferty had a disabling accident in the 3-4 turn, saw Breeding challenged by the strong mounts of Jarvis, Bunting, Toreky and Gary Trice. The front pack battled tooth and nail out of each turn. Then as lap eight went into the record books Bunting took the lead.

Bunting's lead was short lived for at the end of lap nine the first three cars crossed the finish line three-wide and Jarvis came out on top.

The white and blue #680 would lead the remainder of the race enduring three more restarts with Bunting and then Toreky threatening as each green fell.

By lap 21 Jarvis had opened a considerable lead but on lap 22 the final caution flew as Tom McGrane spun in the third turn. This put the Lee's Auto Parts #14 of Toreky on Jarvis' bumper ahead of Breeding and Bunting. The green flew and Jarvis and Toreky exited the fourth turn two abreast leaving the 19D and the 7 of Breeding to eat their dust. Toreky gave it his best shot but Jarvis held on.

It looked as if Toreky would ace a solid second which would have been his best finish of the season at U.S. 13, but fate stepped in taking the life from the T&T Racer's engine on lap 26 and forcing Bob to once again watch the end of the race from the infield. This left Jarvis unchallenged for the rest of the show and he took the checkered nearly a half a straightaway ahead of Bunting.

Heats were won by Jarvis and Bunting with the consi going to Lacy Lafferty.
Feature Results: Jarvis, Bunting, Breeding, Walls, Long, David Trice, Chris Michael, Tony Damato, Lou Johnson, Jimmy Martin, Toreky, McGrane, Charlie Phillips, Gary Trice, Steve Way, Lafferty, Kozak, Billy Towers, and Charlie Moore.

The Speedway will present Twin 20's for the Modifieds next week
CORRECTION: It was reported in last week's column that the URC Sprints would return to the U.S. 13 oval on July 26. This was wrong. They will be back on July 21 and all Rain Checks from the July 16 show will be honored then or at any other show including next week's Twin 20's.

David Hill beats "the man" at U.S. 13

by Don Allen

With four feature wins and six top five finishes this year at U.S. 13 Eddie Pettyjohn of Milton, DE has made himself "The Man To Beat" on the Delmar Half Mile and David Hill did just that Saturday night. Newlywed Hill drove his fire-engine red Colony Pool Service #75 flawlessly to defeat second place finisher Pettyjohn, Jeff Patilla, who finished third, Joe Gaita and brother Steve Hill who rounded out the top five.

Patilla set the pace for the first 8 laps of the 20-lap feature in his Carrol's Used Cars #69. Patilla who is fast becoming a power to reckon with on the Delmar clay dropped pole sitter Don Riley to 2nd right at the start and began to open up a lead.

Pettyjohn and David Hill had started 8th and 10th respectively and while Patilla led, they moved steadily to the front. Pettyjohn played the hare as he rim-rode the high groove and Hill was the tortoise holding his racer at the bottom of the track and out-maneuvering Pettyjohn at each turn.

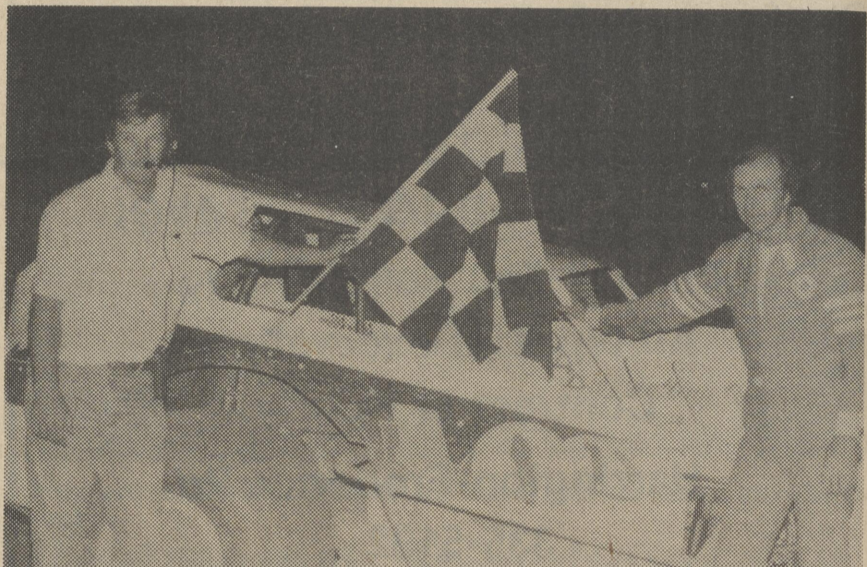

By lap eight they had closed in on Patilla and on the restart following a caution brought out when Gaita spun in the third turn Hill powered by the #69, Hill then began to show the strength of the #75. Pettyjohn dropped Patilla to third on lap 12 and still riding the high groove, began to challenge Hill. At each turn the #880 of Pettyjohn would drift ahead of Hill, but as the two racers exited the turn, Hill would blast ahead by several car-lengths.

On lap 17, the caution flew once again as the K1 of Nick Kincaid lost a drive shaft in front of Bob Vickers causing both cars to spin. It was a sure bet that the #880 would pass Hill on the restart but instead the long-shot paid off for Hill reared quickly to the green and cancelled Pettyjohn's bid for the lead.

Hill held on till the end to take his 3rd checkered flag of the season.
Feature results: D. Hill, Pettyjohn, Patilla, Gaita, S. Hill, Deron Rust, Kincaid, Sammy Lower, Vickers, Duane Rust, Riley, Lou Johnson, Bret Givens, Harlen Williams, Charles Wilkerson, Gil Clemens, Jimmy Goslee.

Mel Joseph aced his third season victory in Limited Late Model competition over Curt Slaughter, Bunky White, Jeff Turpin and Keith Jerman.

Pettyjohn wins open modified main at Middleford

by Gene Cain

Middleford Speedway played host to some of the fastest go-kart racing seen in this area so far this season on Thursday night. A good turnout of karts were on hand to try their luck at the super fast high banks of Middleford.

In racing action, the night got underway with the Stock Junior class. Charlie Lutes returned to the form of seasons past and scored an impressive victory. Keith Mitchell made it to the checkered in second ahead of Dale Elben in third and Greg Darling in fourth.

Shawn Pepper got his first ride on the new speedway surface this week, and he made it count as he picked up the win in the Boys and Girls Stock class. Doug Henry came home the runner-up but was right there had Shawn made any mistakes. Alan Darling was third with Billy Rementer fourth.

In Limited Modified action, Punky Chism was on hand, and he really got his machine dialed in. Punky picked up the win, Cliff Foskey brought his kart home in the number two spot with Ron Rickards in third.

The pace was definitely fast, but maybe a little too furious in Stock Light. A first lap crash eliminated heat race winner and polesitter Brian Murphy from the race with a bent rear axle. The restart saw Todd Shaffer jump out front with Bobby Comstock hot in pursuit, Millie Bunting holding down third and Butch Harrington in fourth. On the fifth lap Josh Swain moved around Harrington into fourth and immediately began to apply pressure to Bunting for the third spot. Coming out of the number two turn Bunting drifted high allowing both Swain and Harrington to get by, dropping her to fifth. AT the halfway mark it was still Shaffer out front. As the race came to the wire, Shaffer had a comfortable lead, but Comstock had to breath a sigh of relief as the checkered waved with him still in second, but Swain in third and Harrington in fourth were right there trying to move on by.

Eddie Cain won the heat in Stock Heavy but had to settle for second in the feature. Melvin Miller went up top on the first lap of the feature to post a wire to wire win. Mike Passwaters came in third behind these two.

In Stock Medium a two-kart battle for the win developed as Jeff Link and Mel Miller pulled away and left the rest of a large field of karts behind. Miller kept the pressure on Link, but Link made no mistakes and Miller had to settle for second. Mike Truitt wound up third and Sonny Warrington fourth.

To bring to a close the night's activities the touring Open Modified Series was on hand and did it ever put on a show. Kevin Darling won the heat but was out gunned on the start of the feature by Artie Pettyjohn. Then on the second lap Kenny Marvel moved into second past Darling. Marvel never did get any further through as he and Pettyjohn waged nothing short of a war every lap around the track. Marvel tried everything he knew, but Pettyjohn was up to the challenge. When the checkered flag waved, Pettyjohn picked up the win over Marvel in second. Darling had to settle for third and Becky Wheelerton came in fourth. The sheer power and speed of these open modifieds is something to see and on the super fast high banks of Middleford they are nothing short of awesome. The Open Modified Series moves from track-to-track each week but will be returning to Middleford Speedway on July 19th and Aug. 16th so if you don't go to any other races this year at least come see one of these as this series is producing some of the fastest and most exciting racing around.

Child Safety Seat Program Begins at Milford Memorial

by William T. Ficks

Milford Memorial Hospital has launched a child safety seat program as part of a nationwide campaign to alert parents to the dangers of allowing children under five years of age to ride in cars without safety seats.

Milford Memorial is the first hospital in the state to offer such a program. Forty-eight states and the District of Columbia have passed laws requiring the use of auto safety seats.

Delaware passed a safety seat law in June, 1982.

In Delaware in 1980-81-82 an average of two children four-years-old and younger were killed and 189 injured in motor vehicle accidents.

In 1983, the first full year the Delaware law was in effect, there were no deaths and injuries dropped to 160.

Mayors in Dover, Milford, Seaford, and Rehoboth Beach, among others, have issued proclamations in observance of child car safety.

Milford Mayor Joseph R. Rogers is observing child car safety between June 25 and 29.

Ten obstetric nurses at Milford Memorial are being trained in the use of the safety seats. The nurses will, in turn, teach the mothers correct usage of the seats.

"We have a complete program, including slides and the actual seats. It's better to teach the mother while she is still in the hospital," said Daniel B. King, Director of Planning and Marketing at Milford Memorial.

King, who is supervising the program, said that the response to the program has been good.

"My phone has been ringing all day," he said.

"We expect to receive the first 20 seats on August 1," said King.

Seats will be available on a loaner/rental basis at a cost of $10 for nine months. When the seat is returned, there is a $5 rebate. The remaining $5 will go toward the purchase of additional safety seats.

Seats are currently available at the same rates at the Williams Service Center in Dover and the Georgetown Service Center.

Romell Cooks, Deputy Director of the Office of Highway Safety, began the program after about 400 people phoned in saying they couldn't afford to buy seats. Cooks sent letters to about 400 civic groups asking for contributions. Cooks' efforts brought in $3,700 in donations which went toward the purchase of seats.

After Cooks approached King at Milford Memorial and offered the seats, the training and seat rental program was initiated.

A $5,000 health service grant to the State Service Centers, was also used to purchase auto safety seats, according to Cooks.

"We have about 60 seats in each service center (Dover, Georgetown)" said Cooks.

"We're getting a very good response. Police are actively saying to people your children are in danger," she added.

Referring to children standing on car seats, Cooks said, "That's a potential bullet standing on the front seat."

Cooks told of an accident earlier in the year in which a four-year-old was killed.

"The child was sitting on a grownup's lap and crushed against the dash," she said. Car seats run between $19 and $70 and a good one can be bought for $30, according to Cooks.

Parents will be fined $25 and must appear in court if a child under four is not restrained in a car seat while the vehicle is in motion, the car safety seat law states.

Cooks said the case will be dismissed if the accused can show proof of owning a car seat.

"It's an educational law, not a punitive one," she said.

Tennessee, which passed the first mandatory child safety seat use law in 1977, has realized a 55 percent drop in the death rate for children four and under since its implementation in 1978, according to a recent study by the Center for Disease Control.

"Even though more people are using child safety seats since Delaware passed a law in 1982, many parents do not use them correctly," said Cooks.

She advises parents to follow the manufacturer's instructions carefully.

If they have problems concerning safety seats, they should call the Office of Highway Safety at 736-4475.

Right From The Start

When you know that a new baby is on the way, you want to do everything you can to give your child the best chance for a healthy beginning.

- Always use the lap and shoulder belt when traveling in a car. Keep the lap belt low under the baby and as snug as possible.

How Will Your Infant Ride?

There is only one safe way for your infant to ride in a car: in a safety seat, facing backwards.

Never let your baby ride in your arms.

The force of a crash or even a sudden stop can rip your baby from your arms. If you are not using your seat belt, your baby could be thrown forward to crush your baby.

Travel Tips

Good news for parents! Research proves that children who ride buckled up behave much better than unprotected children.

- If someone else is driving, ride in the back seat with your baby. The back seat is safer.

Choosing A Safety Seat

An infant must have a safety seat which will face backwards. There are two basic designs.

- Infant-only seats. These seats are for babies from birth until they weigh between 17 and 20 lbs. and reach about 26 inches in length.
- Convertible seats. These seats recline and face backward for babies from birth to 18-20 lbs. Then, they are faced forward and put in an upright position for children up to 40-43 lbs.

These are the most common mistakes parents make in using car safety seats.

- Seat belt in wrong place, no seat belt.
- No harness.
- Infant seat facing forward.
- Belts not tight, harness not snug.
- Top tether not attached when required.

Any of these mistakes could let your child be hurt in a crash. Please read and follow the instructions for your car seat. Your child's safety depends on it.
