Elliott visits Journal on campaign tour

Dave Elliott, incumbent insurance commissioner who is seeking reelection, visited the Harrington Journal Tuesday on a busy downstate campaign tour.

Elliott, one of the top Republican vote getters in the state, will face the winner of the democratic primary between Dave Levinson and Marilyn Huthmacher.

"According to Levinson's own poll, I'm running 22 or 23 percent ahead of him statewide," said Elliott.

"Levinson himself told me 'In Sussex, you massacred me.' Those were his said Elliott.

Elliott, a former farmer-businessman from Laurel, is particularly strong in Elliott.

When he ran for state Senator in 1968, he won with 68 percent of the vote. This was an incredible feat, when you consider that the democratic advantage among registered voters was

Houston men enjoy getting clipped

by William T. Ficka

Add another woman to the list of ladies who have chalked up a rousing success in what was once exclusively a man's domain.

For Vicki Kirchner, Houston's woman barber, has done just that.

Her well-patronized barber and beauty shop is tucked away in a separate room in the Williamsville Country Store at the Williamsville Crossroads.

"She's top notch. I go to her all the time," said Dan Anstine, owner of the country store who rents the store space to Kirchner.

Anstine is not the only satisfied customer. The popular barbershop draws clients from as far away as Dover and Leipsic.

Licensed as a master beautician and barber, the versatile Kirchner can handle any job that comes her way. "I've cut the hair of a two-year-old girl and an 82-year-old man," Kirchner said. She does perms and coloring by appointment in addition to offering free consultations.

The men can have their hair clipped and styled according to their liking. "I make suggestions. A lot of the men don't like to try new styles," Kirchner

Lake Forest student completes Leadership Camp

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.
HARRINGTON - Mike McColley of Harrington was chosen by his teachers at Lake Forest High School to receive the Danforth Award and attend the school at Shelby, Michigan...which is a training center in leadership.

He was there for two weeks where he learned leadership abilities and how to motivate people. He met people from all over the U.S. and Canada "...and one girl from Geremany", he said. "It was different from anything else I have experienced. It was a real friendly atmosphere, and we were taught how to trust people", he added.

The students attended classes throughout the day. "We learned how youths in the Soviet Union lived as well as learning more about their lives and culture", he said.

The course is designed to develop strong leadership qualities as well as trust. "One test was to stand on a five ft. high platform and fall backwards to the ground in the arms of your fellow students. This was designed to build trust. It did", he said.

They lived in open sided cabins in the woods with 7 people to a cabin. "We

Mike Coverdale returned to high school

LAKE FOREST HIGH SCHOOL - is which set of statistics to believe. Michael Coverdale of Harrington, a There is a conflict as to whether or not Lake Forest High School Ag Teacher will be teaching again at his old position at the High School.

Coverdale, in a regular school board meeting last Tuesday night, was reinstated by a vote of 3-2 (Caulk, Williams and McCready for and O'Neal and Feutz against). Teachers and some parents were up in arms over the decision citing the need for teachers elsewhere in the District, which Coverdale was supposed to fill when the previous Board voted to send him to the Chipman Junion School.

The question which is in limbo (quere)

there will be enough students to come up with a unity count which decided how many teachers the district will

The debate goes on with no final solution in sight. Yet some feel the order of the Board is final.

There are other problems in the District such as the need for more classrooms at Lake Forest East in Frederica where mobile units (trailers) are slated to be installed. The need for more special education classrooms and teachers in this area may also prove to be a giant problem down the road.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I wish this to be a letter to the taxpayers of the Lake Forest School District. After the past two meetings of the Lake Forest School Board of Education, I feel that more people should take an active interest in this school district.

A copy of the Lake Forest School District Policy Manual was recently brought to my attention. It contains many pertinent facets of information and guidelines developed to make the Lake Forest School District's Educational system more professional. All school board members have a copy.

One point in this manual particularly states "The duties and obligations of an individual board member may be enumerated as follows: 1. To familiarize himself with the state school laws, regulations of the state department of public Instruction, Lake Forest School District policies, rules and regula-

Following these last two meetings, it is apparent that several board members have not yet read their policy manual.

Further in this policy manual, it states: "The Lake Forest School District Board of Education believes that the legislation of policies is the most important function of a school board, and that the execution of the policies should be the function of the Delegation by the Board of its executive powers to the superintendent provides freedom for the superintendent to manage the schools within the board's policies, and frees the board to devote its time to policymaking and appraisal functions.

As only elected members of a school board whose policy includes "that (a) the public schools belong in every sense to the people who created them by consent and support them by taxation;" Sara Williams. Russell McCready and Wallace Caulk, we as taxpayers, ask you to read "Board Policy 9700 - Board Members Ethics II.7. As a member of my local Board of Education, representing all citizens of my school district, I recognize....It shall be my constant endeavor to bear in mind under all circumstances that the primary function of the Board is to establish the policies by which the schools are to be administered, but that the Administration of the Educational Program and the conduct of school business shall be left to the employed superintendent of schools and his professional and non-professional staff."

Smile! The True Art of Memory is the Art of Attention-Samuel Johnson.

Bingo on Friday was played with a new twist, or should I say, a new needle. Velma Whitley donated several pieces of needlework to the Bingo games. It was fun. Troy was the runner, and as each player Bingo'd, they picked a piece from the bag. Thanks a million Velma. Everyone truly enjoyed the games! This was while the chartered bus was on a trip to St. Michaels and Chesapeake House.

The Center opened Monday morning as usual, but it was so nice and cool outside as well as inside.

Bible Study was with Mrs. Clara Judy and Mrs. Sylvia Meredith. Clara took Chapter 12 of Ecclesiasticus for study and discussion along with Isaiah, Chapter 53 and Psalm 103. Clara said, 'We need to know God. Clara gave the closing prayer. Sylvia was at the piano. Enjoying the Happy Hour was Francis Wright, Mildred Vincent, Gladys Hill, Elwood Morris, Annabel Morrow, Tony Perrone, Anna Mae Short, Amy Poynter, Ethel Holdin, Maurice Adams, Etzel McCready, Thelma Legates, Ola Tildon, Florence Minner, Louis Gerardi & Evelyn Lare.

Jolly Times Tuesday morning with Mrs. Ina Hughes. There were sixteen present. The sounds are invigorating. As we were on the Dart Bus, we were talking of different things that are not around any longer, simple everyday things such as a door-to-door milkman, house-to-house bread man, Iceman, a chimney sweep going through the town making his cry "chimenys to sweep." Then there was the oyster man, "Any oysters today? Any oysters today?" Can you remember the meat wagon and the man in the big white apron weighing all the meat. With all the rules governing meats, etc. now, it's a wonder we are alive to tell the tale. (Ha Ha!) Always the fish man was around with the fish almost wiggling. Wasn't that a good time to be around? They were also the days of the five-cent cone. Goodness, one piled high with vanilla & chocolate would sure be good right now.

Senior Chorus or Sounds with Mrs. ris, Catherine Stevens, Russel Le-Annabel Morrow, Etzel McCready, Legates & Troy Dennis.

Wednesday afternoon was a "haul out of attic auction" at the Center. It was fun. Purchases were varied, such as carpet, dish, saucer, old screens, bag ties, glass cases to name a few. Troy was the auctioneer. He had fun also.

Thanks all Volunteers! Harriett took folks shopping. Thanks all gardeners. Best wishes to all homebounds-to all Check for trips. Try to be present for special days. But to tell the truth, everyday at the center is a happy one. Again, Loving Thoughts and Faith!

Trail's End, a morning that makes it easy to count your blessings. Yes, of course there is a Fast wind blowing! And this morning I am so grateful, even at 80, that I am still needed. We live a rather fantastic lifestyle which varies from day to day, because of our many activities. I never know who will be here or how many for lunch, but I find it stimulating and exciting. And the fellowship cannot be surpassed.

I learn a lot, too, from the five or six children who are sometimes here. They usually choose peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, but I did not realize how many different ways there are to make a peanut butter and jelly lunch! One wants crunchy, one wants smooth, one wants jelly, one does not, one likes it cut crisscross, one straight down, and one does not want it cut at all. And one day, one child did not want any of it any way. But we go casually along, trying our best, and start to pour the juice and milk. We breathe a sigh of relief when the Kindergarten shift has been served, and they are everyone precious to us.

We had a special moment last evening. When we came home for an errand were immediately greeted with the clear, liquid notes of "Bob, Bob White!". He was in a tree very close to us. We sat entranced for about ten minutes listening to his sweet shrill Finally, having gotten no answer to his call, he went on down in the meadow. I said a little prayer that no hunter will shoot him this fall. This will bring a storm of protest down on my head from our sportsmen and hunters. I know this is all a part of life, but I cannot help the way my heart reacts to the subject.

This is a delightfully cool morning at field of corn, all in tassel, lush and beautiful, but I feel a bit "hemmed in". We cannot see the woodland beyond and when the temperature hovers around ninety, it almost seems to radiate heat waves. Yes, of course this is only a fantasy. Also the old saying that on a hot summer night you can stand in a corn field and "hear the corn grow". I've tried this and there really are small rustles and cracks going on.

think about the fastest growing thing in the world is zucchini squash! One morning while we were at Ronald's, we were strolling in his yard and he reached down and picked a zucchini, saying that if he did not take it in then, it would have grown too big by the time we got back from church. Peggy served it sliced, and simmered, gently buttered. Very delicious.

Yesterday I made a kettle of oldfashioned peach preserves which you cannot buy in a store. I start with hard, yellow peaches. Half as much sugar as fruit and cook slowly until they are a lovely henna brown in color and the syrup thickened. About an hour before they are down, I add about half a cup of apple cider vinegar. This cuts the sticky sweetness and perks them up. and sat down in the yard chairs, we I'm sure you could use lemon juice if you prefer, but my mother and grandmother used the vinegar. Lemons were expensive and not always to be found in the market when it was not holiday time. So, I made them with notes in the cool of the evening. vinegar and used my two lemons for lemon meringue pie, which was hailed with glad cheers from the lunch gang.

I also made fourteen pints of peach jelly, so I've paid my dues for the week. For the rest of the week I may just sit and look at flowers and listen to the birds, and as Winston Abbott say, "We have yet to listen to the song of Across the road from us, we have a the cricket."

In the Pocket from Brandywine

by Joe Asher

Victories by Perky Fiddler, Pilgrim's Rainbow and Oxford Mary Ann in the main events and the continued close battle for the driving championship topped the action of the next to the last week of racing at Brandywine Race-

On Sunday, August 26, Eazy Fraca $5,500 Winners-Over-Pace in 1:58.3. Rick Farrington put the six-year-old son of Gypsy Fiddle, who set the track record at Pocono Downs in his last outing, on the lead shortly after a :29.2 first quarter and proceeded to set fractions of 1:00.3 and 1:30.2 while racing unpressured. In the stretch the Anne-Lis and Bruce Saunders owned and Bruce Saunders trained horse held off the challenge of the pocket-sitting Grandpa's Roger. Joe Hundertpfund, Jr. by two lengths with a :28.1 kicker. Diamonds And Rust (Abe Stoltzfus) finished third with the favorite Duke of Talbot (Red Ross) a dismal fourth.

Also on Sunday, Pilgrim's Rainbow turned in one of the most impressive performances of the meet with an awesome 1:58 score in a $5,000 Winners-Over event. Shifty Harry (Forrest Gerry, III) set comfortable fractions of :30.1 and 1:00.4 before driver Abe Stoltzfus moved the heavily favorite Pilgrim's Rainbow out of fourth to take up the chase. The Pilgrim Farms owned and Merv Stoltzfoos trained 3-year-old son of Albatross immediately rushed up to challenge the leader and the two raced down the back stretch as a team, passing the three-quarter pole in 1:29.1. Turning for home, Pilgrim's Rainbow began to draw off without any urging, opening lengths at will. At the wire, Pilgrim's Rainbow was eleven notches in front fo the select field as his :28.4 final quarter capped off a :57.1 second half. Scarlet Attraction (Vern Crank) finished second with Jetlite (Ray Smith)

On Saturday, trainer-driver, Bobby
Reeser guided Oxford Mary Ann to the top near the quarter pole and never looked back in capturing a $5,000 fillies and mares open in 1:59.3. The 4-year-daughter of Harold J., in foal to Justin Passing, passed the quarter in a quick :28.2 before getting a breather in the second quarter, passing the half in :59.3. Camden Katie (John Lister) then moved out to force the pace. The two raced down the back stretch together and after a 1:29.3 clocking at the threequarters, it appeared that Camden

Katie was headed to victory. However, in deep stretch, Bob Spencer's Oxford Maryann dug in and withstood the challenge to score a half length victory over Camden Katie with Valiant Bid (Ed Gannon) finishing third. Also, on Saturday, B.J. Scarlet (Gerry, III) came from last in the to score a two length trius in a $4,500 Winners-Over pace in 1:59.4. Abra Cadabra (Lister), who performed magic earlier in the meet, winning five straight including the $10,000 final of the Stepping Stone Series, returned to action after a two month layoff due to a foot injury and set panels of :29, :59.1 and 1:29.1 while being pressured by the favored Southern Robert (C.D. Harris). However, in the stretch the leaders tired and the three horses that were trailing in the field came storming down the lane with the Elmer Brown owned and Weldon Carroll trained B.J. Scarlet prevailing over Goldcreek Midas (Crank) and Escort's Lass (Jim Porter).

With only seven days left in the 1984 meet, the race for the coveted driving championship is the closest in Brandwine's 32 year history. Forrest Gerry, III has 58 wins on the season, which give him a three win lead in race. Defending champion Vern Crank, Jim Porter and Abe Stoltzfus are tied for second with 55 victories. The tight race has attracted a lot of attention during the last two weeks, becoming the most talked about event at the track. Gerry, III, Crank and Porter are expected to get many catch drives from their respective supporters while Stoltzfus is expected to race most of his strong stable here during the next week in an effort to capture the title. The race is so tight it may well go down to the last night of the meet!

by Don allen

Harold Bunting and Richard Jarvis, U.S. 13's answer to the Ringling Brothers, split the Twin 20 bill at the Delmar, De. speed plant Saturday night. They also shared the second place money as Jarvis finished runnerup to Bunting in the first with Freddie Brightbill third, Ron Keys fourth, and John Kozak fifth. The #19D of Bunting was a very close placer behind Rapid Richard in the second 20 as Walt Breeding took the show spot with Bob Toreky fourth and Tommy Long fifth.

Two two heats and one consi produced a 20 car field led by the #290 racer of Nelson James and as the first feature got underway it was clear that it wasn't to be a Sunday drive for anyone. James held onto the point for 3 circuits until the first yellow came out at the #54 of Gary Shimp came to a stop in the third turn. Bob Passwaters and Jarvis sat on James' bumper as the green came on and Jarvis kicked the Dennis Beer Dist. #680 to the outside and dropped James to second as they passed under flagman, Bill Lawson. James tried to hang onto the #680 but got high in the 3-4 turn and lost several spots before he could gather the car in. Jarvis was joined at the front by Bunting on lap five and this set the stage for some of the best heads-up racing witnessed by the Delmar fans this year. The field stayed under green for the remainder of the race with the front two cars screaming through the turns and opening a considerable lead. On lap 16, lap traffic became a factor and this allowed Bunting to close in on second turn on lap 17, Bunting found his chance and snatched the lead from the #680. Bunting held off Jarvis' challenges till the checkered for his fifth feature win of the season.

The Second 20 looked like it was over before it even started when a costly wreck occured in the fourth turn just after the field had gone green. David Trice in his West Side Auto Parts #133 had started in the third position and when the front pack roared into the turn, he got crossed up. When the dust settled no less than nine of the 20-car field sat in a tangle of wreckage at the beginning of the front stretch. There were no injuries but the racers of Kozak, Freddie Brightbill, and Jack Sapp went to the pits on the hook. Of these three, only Sapp was able to

When the green flew again, Billy Towers, back in the familiar Covey's Car Care #21, sat on the point. His lead was short lived though as Jarvis moved quickly from mid-pack and commandeered the front spot from him on lap two. Jarvis started to out-distance the field, but on lap seven he saw his lead evaporate when the caution came out for the dissabled racer of Bob Wilkins. By this point, Bunting, who had suffered some cosmetic damage in the earlier accident, was up to third behind Walt Breeding. The green returned for four more laps and the front three along with Keys and Long engaged in some heated dueling. Rumor has it that, come next season, Miss Hurley's appearances will not be as rare, as she intends to be back full firm. We all hope so.

The next class called to the grid was Stock Light. Brian Murphy and Bobby Comstock brought the field down for the green in what looked to be a real battle between these two for the checkered. But, oh what a surprise was in store as Millie Bunting moved from her fifth place starting position up to second around Comstock in short order and began putting the pressure on

Labonte gets first career win at Bristol

BRISTOL, Tenn. - Terry Labonte won a wreck-marred 500-lap NASCAR Grand National race on Saturday, August 25 as Darrell Waltrip failed in his bid to set a NASCAR record of eight straight victories on same track. Waltrip and Richard Petty share the standard of seven consecutive victor-

Harry Gant was three laps down in third with Dave Marcis. Bill Elliott and Greg Sacks followed in that order. Labonte, who started sixth, took the lead from pole-sitter Geoff Bodine on Lap 337 and pulled away from Allison. With the win he moved into the lead in the GN standings.

Lingo posts impressive win at Middleford

Action at Middleford got underway with the Junion Stock class. Charlie Lutes picked up the win but it wasn't easy. Lutes had pressure on him the entire race from runner-up Dale Reed. Reed tried everything to get around Lutes, but just couldn't find a way to take the lead, having to settle for second. Harold Staley brought his kart hom third.

In the Boys and Girls tock, Chris Mason won the heat and lead the early part of the feature. A hard-charging Doug Henry finally swept past Mason into the lead and was never headed. They came to the wire with Henry as the winner. Mason held onto the number two spot as Kevin Colburn took home third place honors. Alan Darling rounded out the top four.

In the Limited Modifieds, it was Kevin Darling who showed this class the fast way around the speedway and picked up the win. Cliff Foskey ran second to Darling with Mike Horten in Next out onto the speedway was Stock Heavy. Eddie Cain continued his domination of this class picking up another win. Mell Miller captured the runner-up honors following Cain under the wire. Glen Jarvis moved up to take third while Mike Passwaters finished Mitchell held the lead, but Swain fell back to third, as Bobby Comstock moved up to second. Meanwhile, Butch Harrington got a poor start and fell the the rear of the field from his fourth place starting position. Mitchell held the lead but behind him everyone was changing positions. Comstock found himself hung out to dry as, first Swain, then Darling, and finally Harrington roared by. Harrington and Comstock picked off Darling to move into third and fourth. Continuing his charge to the front, Harrington moved around Swain into second and began putting pressure on Mitchell for the lead. Harrington put the heat on but his was to be Mitchell's race as he held off Harrington at the finish. Bobby Comstock got by Swain to end up in third, dropping Swain back to a fourth place. In the Open Two-Cycle action, it was, once again, Emory West with the win. Bill Topman was the runner-up.

The last class of the night was Stock Medium. This also turned out to be the largest class of the evening. In his first appearance of the season at Middleford, Donald Lingo showed the field nothing but his rear bumper as he won his heat and led the feature from wire to wire. Eddie Cain ran a strong second until a late race encounter with lapped traffic, which put him at the rear of the field. Mel Miller moved up to second and held it until the checkered. Gene Cain came home in third followed by green. At the end of the first lap, Glen Jarvis in fourth.

Ed Pettyjohn in his "Racing Bandit", Hitchens Bros. #880 overpowered a full field of Late Models including the likes of David Hill and East Windsor LM regular, Jim Rossell, to win his fifth feature at U.S. 13 this season. After experiencing some irritating engine problems over the last few weeks, Pettyjohn brought the Delmarva Venture racer to the front on lap four and led the remainder of the race in spite of the challenges of second place finisher, Hill and the Cropper's Pet Control #96 of Lou Johnson. Bob Vickers finished fourth and Brett givens rounded out the top five.

Ron Wilson moved from his fourth starting spot to lead the first two laps but on lap three, he had to make way for the Colony Pools #10 of Steve Hill. Hill only saw the front for one circuit as the #880, up from eleventh, ended his lead on lap four.

by Marianna Wasn't that meatloaf recipe great and so easy!

This week, I will explain the term power levels. POWER LEVELS: Varying the power level also alters the speed of heating. If you lower the power, you'll lengthen the cooking time needed. HIGH power is used for fast cooking such foods as chicken, fish, hamburgers and most poultry. MEDIUM power is used for foods that need extra attention such as beef and pork roasts, turkey and cheese dishes. LOW power should be used for delicate foods or those needing tenderizing. Examples of these are stews, pot roasts and souffles. Talk about as American as apple pie. Try this one!

EASY APPLE CRISP Power Level: High

Microwave Time: 10 minutes Servings: 6 to 8

Cookware: Glass pie plate 1. Peel and slice 5 medium-size apples in baking dish. Any cooking apple may be used.

2. Toss with about 1/2 cup brown or white sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg.

3. Crumble over top ½ package "Almost Home" granola, fruit and nut cookies.

4. Drizzle over top of this 1/2 stick margarine (melted 1 minute in the microwave).

Differing from many present-day beauty pageants, there is no talent competition, no essays to write, and no speeches to give. The reigning Mrs. Delaware 1984 is Saundra Burkett of Newark. Owner of a boutique specializing in antique clothing, the blue-eyed blonde is actively involved with Common Cause of Delaware, Newark Senior Center, Delaware Art Museum, and is a volunteer and fund raiser for The Autistic Children of Wilmington.

Trivia buffs may be interested in knowing the finalists range in age from 20 to 51. The average contestant is 35.5 years old, married 7.3 years, and has 2.3 children.

Those who hope to follow in the footsteps of Helen of Troy, Cleopatra, Aphrodite and other famous beauties can receive applications and additional information by writing or calling: 1985 Mrs. Delaware Pageant, Regional Headquarters, P.O. compass course. They built lean-tos out of materials from the woods and spent the night in them to complete the Wilderness and Survival Merit Badge. They also went a whole day without water. Jim Lauder from the Sussex County Soil and Water conservation Department spent six hours with the boys. Through his efforts and counseling, all the boys were able to get their Water and Soil Conservation Merit Badge. All the boys earned their Fire and Chip. Scott Melvin was awarded First Class. All the boys participated in cooking the meals, which included some specialities as omlets, chicken soup, ham, chicken and dumplings, pasta, roast beef and for family night the boys prepared turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy and string-

The boys also completed 48 hours for the President's Physical Fitness

The boys also enjoyed swimming and canoeing throughout the weeks. We offer our thanks to the following organizations who donated to our troop: Country Cupboard, Kling's Meat Market, Hilltop II, Kemp's T/A Farms, Fifer Farms, Warner Enterprises, Kirby and Holloway, G & D Market, Felton Bank, Quillen's Mkt., Perdue, Jim Herman from Perdue, Country Pride, Dover Warehouse, and First National Bank of Wyoming. Special thanks go to Jay Gordy, Arlene Hinspeter, John Hinspeter, II, Don Melvin, Nancy McFarland, Tom McFarland, and Harry Watkins. Everyone had a great time and hopes to go back next year.

Murphy. Bunting stayed glued to Murphy's bumper lap after lap hoping for a mistake, but it never came, as Murphy drove a flawless race for the win. Bunting finished in a strong second place. Bobby Comstock had to settle for third as he narrawly edged out Dave Book in fourth. Stock Heavy was next and the man who has dominated this class of late silenced many of his critics with a convincing win. Donald Lingo again got hooked up on this track as anyone has ever been. Alan Anderson finished strong to capture runner-up honors. Eddie Cain brough his kart home in third while Mark Bell wound up fourth. The mighty Limited Modifieds were up next in what looked to be a very exciting race. With the high powered machines of Coverdale, Lyons and LeCates on hand, as well as Gold Cup regular, Rick Elliott, a whole of a race was shaping up. Elliott was having his problems early on, but still managed a second in the heat behind David LeCates. When the green waved for the feature, it was Elliott who got the jump and led LeCates around the speedway. LeCates kept the pressure her head once again. This time her victim was LeCates. Going down the front chute, trying to find a way around Elliott, Legates' motor literally exploded and The Lady had claimed yet another victim. From that point on, Elliott coasted to victory. Lionel Lyons powered his way up to second, followed by Dale Venable in third and Kevin Darling in fourth.

Closing out the show was Stock Yamaha. Andy Kiker was on hand but the only man to beat him recently was not. It looked like a cake walk was in store for Kiker. How wrong we were! True, Kiker did win the race, leading it wire to wire. Kiker started on the pole and jumped into the lead. Right on his bumper was Dale Warner. Warner tried everything but Kiker knew the groove and didn't make any mistakes as he warded off challenge after challenge from Warner. This was a really exciting race to watch. The duel between Kiker and Warner was not the only good battle to watch as Steve West and Cliff Coverdale had a war of their own going for fourth place. Riding all by himself in third between these two battles was Larry Bunding. on, but then it happened. This track is When the checkered was unfurled, beginning to get a reputation like Kiker had successfully held off Warner Darlington has. The Lady can be very, for the win. Bunting had placed third very, good to you or she can reach out without any real challenge and Steve and slap you in the face. As has been West barely edged Coverdale by inches the case with just about every big race at the wire. All in all, an exciting end to this season. The Lady in Black reared a full night of racing.

turn and on the restart, Bunting set his sights on Breeding and dropped him to third one lap later. Once again, the final laps were caution free and the Jarvis-Bunting Circus gave a command performance. By the time that the #19D had passed Breeding, Jarvis had opened a healthy lead, but with nothing but clear track ahead of him, Bunting began to close. By lap 18, with lap traffic looming ahead, the #19D sat close on the #680's bumper. As the pair entered the 3-4 turn on the final lap, Bunting stuck the nose of his racer
