

Helen McNally retires after 27 years

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.
HARRINGTON - A long time employee of Kirby & Holloway retired at the end of October -- with 27 years of perfect loyalty and outstanding service to her employer.
 Helen McNally of Harrington has stepped down from her position as bookkeeper, credit manager, office manager, and at least a half dozen more titles.
 Twenty-seven years ago, Kirby & Holloway was a thriving little business. In addition to the sausage and meat plant, Russell Kirby and John Holloway also had two family style restaurants in Dover, and a harness equipment business.
 "It wasn't long after I came with Kirby & Holloway...that Mr. (John) Holloway decided to step down and get out of the business," said Mrs. McNally. It was then that the restaurants were sold in Dover, and Russell Kirby came back to Harrington to run the meat business.

 When Helen McNally came to Kirby & Holloway there were 19 employees. "We all congregated in one room then. The salespeople, the courteous Mr. Kirby, and the employees all landed in that room. We did all the business from that one spot," she said.
 "Today there are 37 employees, and I feel good about my retirement - although I had planned to leave in the spring...I know I am leaving a good company - a very prosperous company...and I have been a part of that success. I am leaving a company much better and much larger than the one I joined 27 years ago," she said.

 "Mrs. McNally did an outstanding job for us with all that she had to bear and endure outside of her job," said her former employer John Holloway last week. While working at Kirby & Holloway in the beginning, Mrs. McNally cared for both her sick mother and mother-in-law in her home. "I have been coming to Kirby & Holloway by 5:30 each morning - for more mornings than I care to remember. I would open up and do some general office chores - then go back to the house to attend to my mother and mother-in-law," she said recently.
 "Of course in the early years after I left home for the second time to go to the office for the second time I would then go to the harness horse equipment business to help there," she said.

 For Helen McNally working at Kirby & Holloway was not work. It wasn't quite like Sunday on the farm either. If you ask her what she disliked the most about her job, she sums it up this way. "There really wasn't anything unpleasant about my job. I can honestly say that I enjoyed every minute of it...every responsibility...and every demand. The 27 years have flown by," she concluded.
 Her husband Bob, when she married 43 years ago, retired as a government inspector after 25 years of service. "I thought...gee whiz why wait until

Short takes on area news

Milford man arrested in Florida

Harold R. Owens, a 25-year-old convicted burglar from Milford, was arrested on Oct. 30 by the Sheriff in Clay County, Florida. He was picked up in Green Cove Springs, Florida two weekends ago by Delaware State Police and returned to Delaware, said Gerald K. Pepper Jr., police spokesman.
 Owens escaped on Oct. 6 in his mother's car while on a weekend furlough from Kent Correctional Institution, according to police. He later abandoned the car in Delaware and began working with a traveling carnival.
 Owens, convicted of third-degree burglary and violation of probation in 1983, had only six months of work-release time left before he was to be paroled from KCI.
 He was arraigned Friday morning in Delaware Superior Court on a charge of escape after a conviction, which carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison.

...and a little child shall lead them

Delaware politicians can forget those high-priced pollsters in the next election. They can save big bucks by using the services of a group right here in Little Old Delaware.
 Where? In the state's high schools.
 In a survey sponsored by the Delaware chapter of the American Statistical Association, about 750 students from 10 high schools across the state conducted a telephone survey in which they filled out 877 questionnaires.
 The survey was taken between Oct. 18 and 23. Dr. James M. Lucas, a vice president of the Delaware chapter, said he would like to do it again with a follow-up poll about a week before the election to catch late-developing trends.
 The poll was remarkably accurate. It showed Reagan taking Delaware by 22.8 percentage points. He actually won the state by 20 points.
 The poll showed Biden winning by 20.7 percentage points, almost a bulls-eye. It also predicted Carper and Castle victories. Castle would win by 13.5 percentage points, according to the poll. He won by 10. Carper surprised the pollsters with a 16 point victory. They had him winning by only three-tenths of a point over Elise du Pont.
 The pollsters were fooled by the Woo and Levinson victories. They had Battle Robinson winning by 0.5 percent. Woo, as of Saturday, had an unofficial 0.3 margin of victory. But this was well within the 4 percent margin of error claimed for the poll.
 Elliott was shown winning by 2.9 points but 30 percent of the people contacted were still undecided. Levinson won by 9 points. A follow-up poll, as suggested by Lucas, probably would have caught the late shift to Levinson.

Delaware PTA aims at drug education

Members of the statewide Delaware PTA met Saturday at the Sheraton Inn-Dover to discuss ways of educating parents and students about drug use and abuse.
 The group recommended a drug and alcohol awareness program for every school district in the state.
 By the time a child reaches age 12 he has probably been offered either drugs or alcohol, according to Stephen Moores, a director at the YMCA of Wilmington and New Castle County.
 Elizabeth Shaw, a PTA member in the Red Clay Consolidated School District said highway deaths resulting from drinking "is a major problem statewide."
 She said an awareness program would have to be tailored to fit the needs of each school district. Police officials, teachers, and health officials could participate in the programs to inform parents of the substance abuse problem, the group said.
 One of the main reasons students become involved in drug abuse is the peer pressure that is put upon them, according to officials.

Fire hits house on West Mispillion

A house owned by Jean Dorman at the northwest corner of Mispillion and West Streets in Harrington was on fire when Harrington Volunteer Firemen arrived on Monday night. Twenty-five fire fighters and three pieces of equipment were called into action.
 The occupant of the house escaped with a small child. He said he did not know the Fire emergency number (911), but did in fact call the Milford Fire Company who relayed the call to the Kent County Fire Board (911). The fire began as a result of a hot stove pipe which went through the wall of the house to the outside. There were no protective devices around the pipe to avoid a possible fire. There were no smoke detectors.
 Aubrey Brown of the Harrington Fire Co. said "...every do not was done".

Twenty-three injured in school bus mishap

An 8:20 a.m. accident last Wednesday, involving a schoolbus and a garbage collection truck resulted in twenty-three children being transported to Kent General Hospital for treatment of minor injuries.
 Delaware State Police at Troop 3 near Woodside say that a schoolbus owned Cool's Bus Service of Camden, De., and operated by Lee A. Blocklinger, 29, of Dover, De., pulled into the path of a garbage collection truck owned by Eastern Disposal, Inc., of Dover, which was being operated by Juan A. Rodriguez, 22 of Dover, De. The accident occurred on Kent County Road 105 at Mifflin Meadows just south of Camden.
 The accident occurred when the schoolbus, which was enroute to the Star Hill Elementary School with students, exited the Mifflin Meadows parking lot. Blocklinger apparently did not notice the garbage collection truck which was southbound on Kent 105. Rodriguez applied his brakes and swerved; however, he was unable to avoid the collision. The schoolbus travelled approximately twenty-two feet sideways after being struck in the left front by the garbage truck.
 Four of the injured were transported to Kent General Hospital by the Camden-Wyoming Volunteer Fire Company Ambulance. A substitute schoolbus arrived at the scene and transported the remaining students to the Star Hill

Harrington City Council at work

by William C. Wharton, Jr.
 In a swiftly moving two hours, Harrington City Council Members considered, dispensed with and adopted issues with versatility, aplomb and efficiency at their regular meeting at City Hall, November 12, 1984.
 Foremost among considerations was: AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE OBSTRUCTION OF VEHICLE TRAFFIC DUE TO RAILROAD SWITCHING AND MOVING OPERATIONS:
 The ordinance was proposed in an effort to alleviate "...the massive daily switching and movement operations by the railroad companies within the City and (as a result) causing congestion and delay in public streets...for very lengthy amounts of time..."
 Endeavoring to equalize competing interests between vehicular traffic and "...steady movement of freight through the City..." it was proposed that the Municipal Code of Harrington, 1962 read, in part as follows:
 "...it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate any locomotives, train of cars or railroad in such a manner...as to obstruct the flow of vehicle traffic for a period of more than ten (10) minutes..."
 Emergencies would, of course constitute an exception to the above. Convicted violators would be subject to fines of "...not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor more than Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) dollars." The ordinance was passed by the Council, unanimously.

 The Council did not adopt a Resolution for Public Hearing relative to an amendment of the zoning ordinances of Harrington to include "...any building or part of a building in which there are three (3) or more coin operated amusement devices..." identifying such building as "Arcades".
 The Council was addressed by Debbie Schiffer, of Dover relative to posting of signs and distributing advertisements concerned with CAROLING ON THE GREEN in Dover. It was suggested that either Quillen's Market area or the Post Office area, if it was agreeable to them would be ideal locations to display a poster.
 Also addressing the Council was a representative of REALTY WORLD/Alpha Real Estate Company relative to building a "neighborhood convenience shopping center"...between the lanes of Route 13... South of Hardee's Restaurant. Action was deferred pending further discussion at the "workshop" meeting of the Council on November 26th.
 Mayor Mann signed a proposal recognizing the week of November 11 thru 17, 1984 as American/Delaware Education Week. The full text of the proposal is as follows:
 WHEREAS, the Lake Forest School is committed to the education of all students to the best of their individual abilities; and
 WHEREAS, the Lake Forest School

District maintains a position as an outstanding school system whose leadership strives to ensure and enhance the possibilities for excellence in the education of our children in a free society; and
 WHEREAS, more than 350 staff members including classroom teachers, speech and hearing therapists, psychologists, secretaries, classroom aides, guidance counselors, librarians, food service personnel, playground, cafeteria, and study aides, diagnosticians, custodians, nurses, and administrators are committed to quality education for the benefit of more than 3,100 students.
 NOW, THEREFORE:
 BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, ALFRED

MANN, Mayor, representing the Council and City of Harrington, do hereby recognize and commend the Lake Forest School District students and personnel on their quest toward a more quality education, and recognize Nov. 11-17, 1984 as American/Delaware Education Week.
 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:
 November 13 be designated as Food Service Employees Day
 November 14 be designated as Aides Day, and November 15 be designated as Custodians Day.
 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that parents are invited to visit schools and take advantage of individual activities

Harrington scene of mock rail accident

These two cars were used in the mock train/car accident last Wednesday night at the East Street crossings.

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.
HARRINGTON - Last Wednesday night fire companies and rescue squads from Greenwood, Felton, Farmington, Milford, the State Police Helicopter squad and Harrington participated in a mock rail-car accident.
 There were supposed to have had two cars collide with a train at the East Street crossing in Harrington. Approximately nine people were involved in the mock affair. They were Tracey Brown who was transported to Milford Memorial Hospital with an amputation of the leg, Beth Von Gorres, a deaf mute who was suffering from internal injuries, Shirleen Wright who had open wounds and suffering from shock, Lola O'Day, who had a compound fracture of the right arm, cuts of the head and glass in her face, Margaret Nichols, Hazel Riley, Marion Brown, Louise Burgess, Debbie and Ken Hastings, and Daren Rodney Simpson.

There were no deaths attributed to the accident. All casualties were transported to Milford Memorial Hospital, where they were treated in the emergency room of the Hospital.
 The Harrington Fire Company was being evaluated by instructors from the Delaware Fire School...Joe Marbitto and Jay Reynolds. They were evaluated on their response to the situation and how they reacted under the crisis. Conrail officials, who were involved in the accident were also evaluators.
 Wesleyan Church bus driver, Calvin Hill, provided van support to transport the participants to the Delaware State

Barratt's Chapel celebrates 200th

by William T. Ficks
 The annual Heritage Sunday celebrated at Barratt's Chapel on Sunday took on a special significance as area Methodists prepared to celebrate the Bicentennial of American Methodism.
 The Sunday service was a prelude to the special service to be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Barratt's Chapel which will commemorate the 200th anniversary of the historic meeting of Francis Asbury and Dr. Thomas Coke.
 The heavy rains on Sunday didn't deter the overflow crowd that attended the Heritage Sunday service.
 Guides were decked out in Colonial garb at the chapel and the adjoining museum.
 The annual service is traditionally held under the direction of the commission on Archives and History of the Peninsula Conference of the United Methodist Church.
 Old chalice from Barratt's, Old Union, and Laws Chapel were featured in the Sunday communion service. Communion was by intinction (dipping the bread in wine and giving both together to the communicant).
 Following communion, the Second Street Players of Milford presented a one-act dramatization of the Asbury-Coke meeting entitled, "Meeting, A Challenge for the Future of the Methodist Church" written and directed by Dick Pack.
 It was 200 years ago today that Asbury and Coke met and laid plans to hold that year's Christmas Conference in Baltimore. The Baltimore Conference resulted in the formal organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America.
 The special guest speaker at tonight's service will be Rev. Dr. Charles

Helen McNally retires after 27 years

March, which is the month I started working here, to retire. I need to spend more time with my husband and our family.

After 43 years of marriage, two children...Charles (Chuck), a state environmental scientist and Carol, a medical doctor...pediatrician, who between them have presented her with 5 grandchildren, "I think it is time I slowed down", she said.

With all this there was still room in Helen McNally's life for her church and her role through God in a healing service to her fellow man. "Whatever the extent of my belief in God and life hereafter, I can honestly say that I owe that much to Mrs. McNally" said John Holloway last week. "I have witnessed what her talent can do and I have witnessed what her prayers can do," said John Holloway.

Helen McNally knows miracles can and will happen. But she will tell you it is not she who performs these healing skills "...it is God and my faith in God that allows these things to happen," she added.

For Helen McNally life moves along at a brisk pace. Never one to sit back and let the world pass her by when she was on the job...so it is unlikely she will find many quiet moments in retirement -- particularly without responsibility.

25,000 attend Return Day in Georgetown

by William T. Ficks
GEORGETOWN - Return Day, a day of reconciliation going back some 200 years that brings together the victors and the vanquished in state and local elections, was celebrated last Thurs. in Georgetown.

An estimated 25,000 people came to the county seat to see the politicians literally bury the hatchet, and enjoy the fun, food, and festivities at this traditional celebration.

The tradition started in the 18th century when rural Delawareans would travel many miles by horseback and carriage to Georgetown to cast their votes. Hand-counting the ballots took two days. Many people, rather than return home, stayed over and waited for the results on the Thursday after Election Day. Down through the

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Remembering back on Heritage Days in the past, it is no wonder that people continue to flock to Taylor & Messick to see our craftsmen - they only improve each year. This year we wanted to thank each craftsman who donated their time and talents: Sally Bowman, John & Susan Clark, Eddie Mae Cooper, Charlie Hrupsa, Claude Neeman, Beverly Turner, Alexander Vogl, Jehu and Lillian Camper, Bernard Coffman, Edgar Graef, Janice Martin, Til Purnell, Joe Ward, Mildred and Carroll Welch, Charlotte and Jim Alexander, Robert Masten, Rev. John Passwaters, Cricket Mellroy, Georgia Garton, Raymond Dill, Calvin Minner, Sharon Lynch, Sarah Gale, Dorethea Coverdale, and the Department of Agriculture. Be sure, if you see them, to encourage them to return next year and bring another friend!!

As it was Heritage Day, we were lucky to have antique displays by T & M, and the Harrington Fire Company, The Reese Home, and the Harrington Historical Society Block House, along with the Harrington Public Library, the Harrington Senior Center, a steam powered train from Conrail, and a morning demonstration of a snorkle truck from Carlisle Fire Company, adding to the day-long festivities.

Behind the scenes, the Harrington Lions Club made arrangements for all tables and chairs, the Rotary Club "manned" the Information Booth throughout the day, the Delaware State Fair Board of Directors again afforded us the opportunity to use the Stage. This year the Harrington Journal sponsored a "help yourself" luncheon for the Heritage Day Committee and guests, which turned out to be a nice hideaway for a few moments to collect our thoughts, discuss some questions, and remind us to eat. A super thank you to them.

Other thoughts and thank yous: Rev. William Miller and Rev. Kyle Smith for their inspiration (in time of rain), Lake Forest High School Band and Mr. Beeton for opening ceremonies musical entertainment, Charlie Brown, David Jones, Bobby Quillen, and Buck Cahall as our Masters of Ceremonies. Everyone else that I have inadvertently and sincerely forgotten to thank - THANK YOU!!! A big THANKS to all who attended and made the sixth annual Heritage Day one not to forget!!

See you next year!!
Sue Ellen Dennis,
Chairman

Dear Ruth Ann:

Congratulations on your victory Tues. I am sure that your family and friends are both proud and happy on this Returns Day. My family and I wish to join them in wishing you well in your next term in office.

My two campaigns for the Senate have taught me to respect you as a person of integrity and a formidable foe, although a fair one. I hope that politics aside, we will remain friends in the future and that our 18th District will benefit from our mutual efforts.

Again, with warm personal regards from my family to yours, I remain,

Very truly yours,
Tom Barnett

Ridgely for the past 60 years.

Her husband, Tilghman Rash Sr., died in 1977.

She is survived by two sons, A. Tilghman Rash Jr., Ridgely, Md., and S. Edward Rash, Chester, Pa.; two daughters, Joyce Hollingsworth, Centerville, Md., and Gladys Thomas, Graysonville, Md.; seven grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-granddaughter.

Services were private.

Friends called from 7 to 8 p.m. Friday at the Boulais Funeral Home, Greensboro.

Burial was in Hollywood Cemetery, Harrington.

Gab Fest

by Pat Hatfield

We cannot believe it's November yet in our little state. We have had a few hours when it was cold and cloudy and the skies were gray, but the trees were filled with green foliage and the grass is green and growing.

Let's remind ourselves of the importance of grass upon the earth. One of our great writers has called grass "the handkerchief of God".

I believe it was Ingall's who gave us this thought: "Grass is the forgiveness of Nature-her constant benediction. Fields trampled with battle, saturated with blood, torn with the ruts of the cannon, grow green again with grass, and carnage is forgotten. Forests decay, harvests perish, flowers vanish, but grass is immortal.

It bears no blazonry of bloom to charm the senses with fragrance of splendor, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, and yet, should its harvest fail for a single year, famine would depopulate the world."

My lavender rose which is new this year has been very reluctant to produce blooms, but today Dad brought in a lovely one with a fine fragrance, along with the butter yellow ones I love so much. The yellow bush is very prolific and still have eight more buds if the frost tarries.

I have two big kettles of turnip greens and kale cooking. We will have some for dinner and I'll put the rest in the freezer. We prefer these greens cooked with the side meat and put into the freezer with some of the broth. I use the two pound oleo boxes for this.

I have just returned from getting my prescriptions filled in order to keep my innards working. The terrific price for medicines these days will raise your blood pressure, so it becomes a vicious circle.

I sat down and opened the Old Farmer's Almanac for the year 1876, and, on the inside cover were two advertisements for two of the current patent medicines of that far off day. I am still laughing. The first ad was for a medicine called "Balsam of Wild Cherry". Under the title it reads, "The great remedy for Consumption, for the relief and cure of all lung complaints". Another paragraph says: "Coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, influenza, whooping cough, hoarseness, pains or soreness in the chest or side, bleeding at the chest or lungs, liver complaint, etc. etc. Especially recommended for clergymen, lawyers and singers, 50 cents or $1.00 a bottle."

The other half-page ad is the "The Peruvian Syrup-a protected solution of the protoxide of iron. This is good for dyspepsia, liver complaint, dropsy, chronic diarrhea, boils, nervous affections, chills and fevers, humors, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, loss of constitutional vigor, female complaints and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood. $1.00 and $2.00 a bottle."

Both of these medicines were prepared by Seth W. Fowle and Sons, 86 Harrison Ave., Boston, Mass.

Life was a lot simpler in those days. Even medicine in a bottle was kind of a new fad then. Mostly you did not spend your money for that stuff. You just greased your chest with mutton tallow and camphorated oil, drank your sassafras tea and swallowed your spoonful of sulphur and molasses that Grandma doled out. It must have done some good. I'm a survivor of those days, and I ought to know!

The Youth Group for the United Methodist Charge in Greenwood meets at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday in the church at Greenwood.

Bible Study meets on Wednesday evenings, 6:30-7:30 p.m. in the Greenwood Church.

On November 18 at 2 p.m. Epworth will celebrate its Homecoming with the Rev. Dr. J. Gordon Stapleton as speaker. Refreshments afterward.

On November 25, at 7:30 p.m., evening service at Greenwood with Rev. Jim Reilly from Penie 1 UMC in Wilmington.

Report from our Greenwood Public Library: Greenwood Public Library and Smoky the Bear celebrated Fire Prevention Month by presenting a program for the children of the Greenwood community and also for the first grade students from Woodbridge Elementary School and the Greenwood Mennonite School. Approximately 150 children, plus teachers and parents attended one of the two programs held at the Greenwood VFW Post home.

The children first saw a movie telling about Smoky and giving some fire safety rules. Following the film, Smoky himself arrived and the children talked with Smoky.

The children promised Smoky that they would not play with matches and were given comic books and balloons to mark the occasion.

Later the Library and Smoky were sent letters written by the children thanking them for the program. The library staff would also like to thank Smoky for stopping by and to thank the VFW for the use of their Post home for this program.

Mrs. Lillian Johnson and daughter and little grandson of Pleasantville, N.J. were overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe Henry during the past weekend.

Boy Scout Troop No. 113

Boy Scout News

On October 26, 27 and 28, 1984 Boy Scout Troop 113 attended the fall camporee of the Two Bays District. The boys had a good time and worked hard and it paid off. The Viking Patrol took second place in patrol competition. The patrol was led by Patrol Leader, Michael Hinspeter, Assistant Patrol Leader Scott Melvin and included Robert Crisco, Wade Gordy, Frankie Hinspeter, Michael Krumm, Lucky Kohland and Joey Watkins. Along with the patrol taking second place, the troop took over all best troop in the Two Bays District. The troop received a trophy stating Best Troop. The trophy was received by Senior Patrol Leader, Fred Hinspeter. The trophy was presented by Charlie Coverdale, the Two Bays District Committee Chairman. Also present were Assistant Scout Masters Don Melvin and Scott Newvine and Scout Master John Hinspeter. The best part is the troop did all of this on their second birthday, October 28, 1984. Monday night the boys of Troop 113 had a birthday party, but as it turned out we had a lot more to celebrate - second place patrol and best troop in the Two Bays District. The party was held at the Church of God, Felton, Delaware and the Rev. Marcus Johnson was present.

Yours in Scouting,
John Hinspeter
Scout Master, Troop 113

P.S. The boys of Troop 113 would like to thank the committee and everyone else who helped us achieve this honor.

Pit Notes

Short takes

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

Gant enters NASCAR's last race as both darkhorse & favorite

RIVERSIDE, CA. - Heading for the final NASCAR Grand National stock car event November 18 at California's Riverside Racway, driver Harry Gant remains a long shot to capture the Winston Cup Driving Championship, but Gant and his crew are the point-leading favorites to win NASCAR's National Pit Crew Championship.

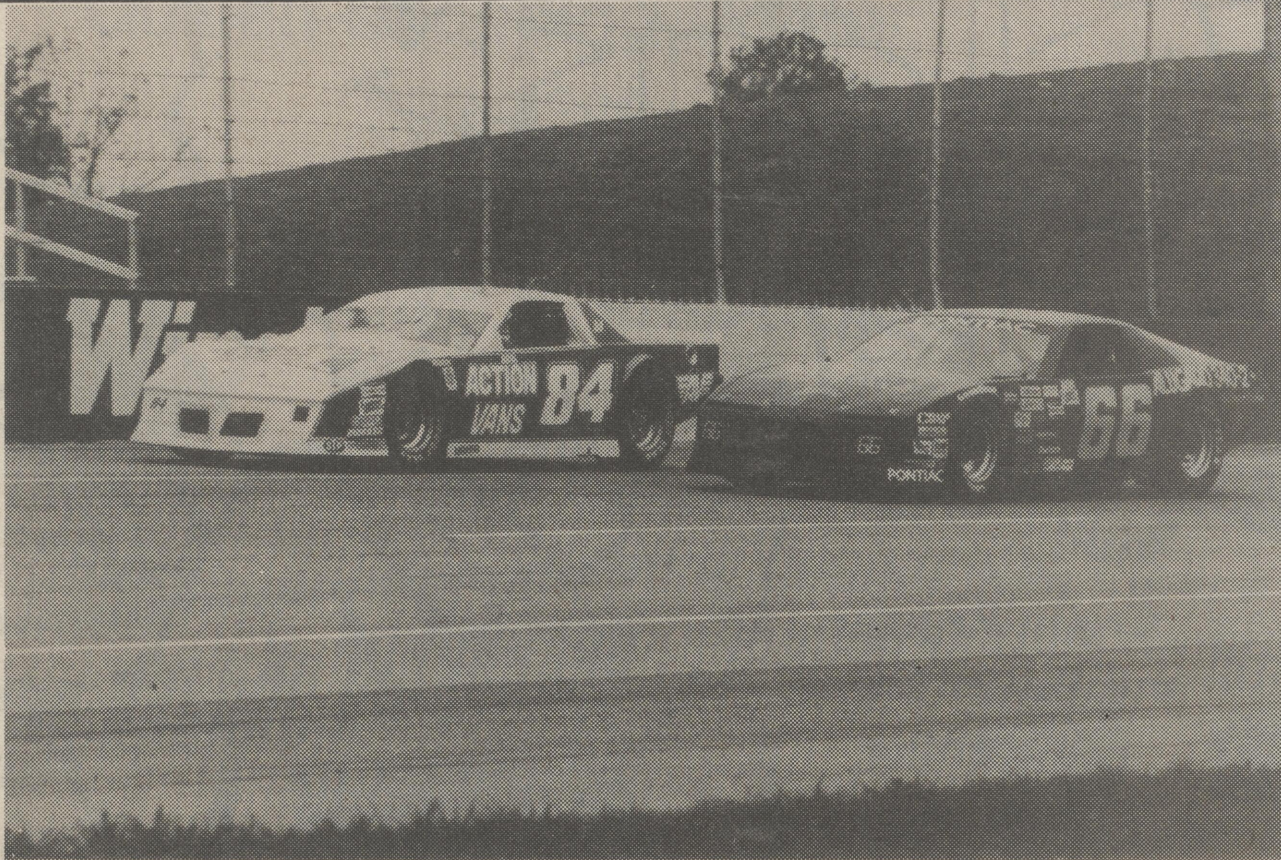

Winston Cup point leader Terry Labonte still stands between Gant and the Grand National driving title. But in the battle for the pit crew title, Gant's team holds a slim eight-point advantage over Benny Parsons' team - 230 to 222.

Besides Parsons' crew, Carter and his men also face a pit road challenge from Bill Elliott's team, the only other one with a mathematical chance to capture the $30,000 Pit Crew Championship.

The Ingersoll-Rand Company, manufacturers of Ingersoll-Rand power tools, sponsors the ten-race competition, which awards a total of $75,000 to the crews whose cars spend the least total time in the pits.

In addition to awarding $2,500 to the winner of each round of the contest, Ingersoll-Rand divides its $50,000 year-end point fund, paying $5,000 for third place, $10,000 for second and $30,000 for the team that wins the Championship.

Although not entered at Riverside, Cale Yarborough's crew still is in the running for second place, while Bobby Allison's crew has gathered enough points this season to hold on to a chance for third.

Now in its sixth year, NASCAR's Pit Crew Championship has awarded a total of $373,800 to 142 teams since 1979.

Defending champion crew chief Dale Inman has led the crews of Richard Petty, Joe Ruttman and Terry Labonte to Championship wins in 1979, '80 and '83. Dale Earnhardt's team, led by crew chief Doug Richert, won the title in 1980, and Ernie Elliott headed up brother Bill's crew as the pit crew champions in 1983.

Elliott takes lead in balloting

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - With the Nov. 20 deadline fast approaching for race fans to determine the most popular driver on the NASCAR Winston Cup circuit, Bill Elliott has become the new leader.

Elliott leaped past Terry Labonte during the past week due to a huge influx of votes from his fan club and his hometown of Dawsonville, Ga.

In the voting for the National Motorsports Press Association (NMPA) award, Elliott holds a 1,581-vote lead over Labonte, the previous leader. Elliott has received 6,354 out of the 30,109 votes cast. (A person is allowed to vote only once.)

If Elliott maintains his lead, he will receive $20,000 from Winston cigarettes at the annual NMPA convention in January.

The deadline for voting is Nov. 20. Tim Richmond has moved into third place with 4,331 votes, while Darrell Waltrip is fourth with 3,484. Geoff Bodine, who had been the leader a month ago, has dropped to fifth with 3,323 votes.

Ballots to determine this year's award are being placed in programs sold at all NASCAR Winston Cup races during the last half of the season as well as in many of the nation's top racing publications.

Only votes on the official ballot will be tallied.

Pollard quits Parsons Team to pursue racing career

DENVER, N.C. - Larry Pollard, crew chief for Champion Spark Plug Rookie of the Year candidate Phil Parsons and the Eckerd/Skoal Bandit team, will leave his position at season's end to begin a Late Model Sportsman driving career.

The 29-year-old Pollard, from Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, has been Parsons, crew chief since the start of the season. He will campaign on the 1985

NASCAR Busch Late Model Sportsman circuit in cars owned by Bill Anderson Racing in Mt. Airy, N.C.

"This is like a dream come true for me," said Pollard.

"When Richard Childress gave me the chance to come south in '81 I took it and worked with Ricky Rudd for a year. Then I spent a year with the Petty operation before joining the Skoal Bandit team," said Pollard.

Hobbies are rare on NASCAR circuit

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Hobbies are hard to find on the NASCAR Grand National stock car circuit.

"There just isn't time," says Doug Richert, crew chief for driver Neil Bonnett. "When we do manage to steal a few hours to relax," Richert continues, "a lot of us around Charlotte like to water ski."

"For instance, Waddell Wilson and Cliff Champion both live on Lake Norman and both have hot V-8 jet boats that'll give a wild ride to four skiers at once."

Although water skiing appears to be the favorite hobby of the Grand National teams, several crew members enjoy other off-track hobbies:

Gary Nelson, crew chief for 1983 NASCAR Champion Bobby Allison: "Right now, my obsession is flying." George Elliott, team manager for son Bill Elliott's Coors Racing Thunderbird: "I've got a Ford agency in Dahlonega, Georgia."

"Dahlonega was a mining town that minted 2.5, 3 and 5 dollar gold pieces from 1838 to 1861 when the Confederates shut it down. There's a gold museum there today."

"In fact, the gold for the dome on top of the Capitol Building in Atlanta was mined at Dahlonega."

"I've got a complete collection of the 59 types of coins that were produced there."

Dan Elliott, rear tire changer for brother Bill Elliott: "I've got four Ford Mustangs that I'm restoring - a '68, '70, '71 and a '72."

"The '71 is a Boss 351 that's got some unusual options like power windows. It's a real rare one."

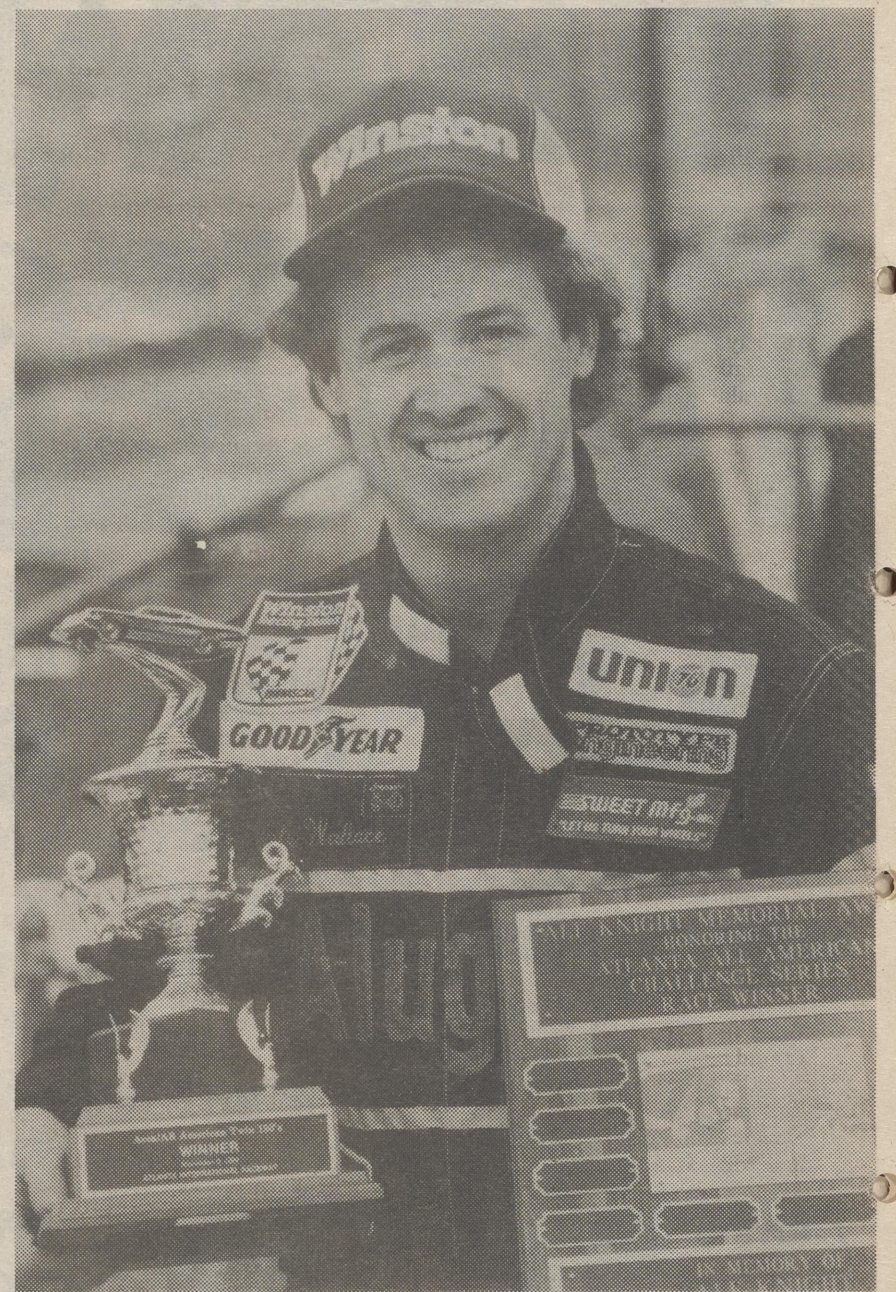

Harry Hyde, crew chief for Geoff Bodine: "I've collected pocket knives all my life. I've had as many as 1,350 of them at one time.

My brother has an even larger collection. But he's older than me - he's 67."

Tim Brewer, crew chief for Tim Richmond: "My wife collects limited-edition porcelain clowns. I started to buy old barber-shop chairs after I saw Banjo Matthews' collection. I've also got a 40-year old dentist chair that still works."

"I have a pretty good collection of old currency too...coins and gold."

In The Pocket

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

On Friday the 2nd of November at Liberty Bell for the Breeder's Crown Series which is the richest race for Harness Horses in Delaware Valley history. Naughty But Nice won it for Tom Haughton in 1:56.4 on a cold and windy night. She raced outside most of the way and defeated Hit Parade by half a length. However, Hit Parade was disqualified for causing interference to Don't Dally approaching the 3/4 pole and was placed ninth. The 77-1 shot May Wine is placed second with Intown Frost placed third. The win makes Naughty But Nice the first pacing female to go over $1 million in lifetime earnings. A crowd of 845 bet a seasonal high of $850,328.

The Breeder's Crown for 3 year old trotting colts will be this Friday night at Pompano Park and is carried over ESPN from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m.

FRIDAY AT POMPAÑO PARK in the $12,000 Charles Slutsky Memorial Trot, it was Fancy Crown racking up her 3rd WORLD RECORD for 3 year old trotting fillies with a 5 length 1:57.4 victory with Bill O'Donnell in the bike bettering Keystone Sister's former World Record by 1/5 of a second. This record coupled with a 1:53.4 mile World Record at Springfield and a 1:57.1 at Delaware makes for her holding records on three sized race tracks. Garland Lobell was second and Skullangel third followed by Speed Merchant, Why Not, Artificial Bait and Limbo Joe.

In the $8400 Open trot it was Gallant Pro with Tom Haughton in the bike winning in 1:58.4. Gallant Pro is prepping for this Friday's Breeder's Crown. Also Jodi's First with Bob Barella wins in 2:02.1.

Boys - Girls win Kent County Title runs

by Keith Burgess

Lake Forest's boys and girls cross-country teams won titles in the First Kent County Cross-Country Championships.

The Spartan boys total of 21 points is so low that it sounds like a dual meet score, instead of a quintuple meet. Caesar Rodney was a distant second with 60 points, followed by Smyrna, Dover and Milford.

Freshman Mark Tozar, has the honor of being the first Kent County Champion. Tozar slashed some fifteen seconds off the Lake Forest mark, for the 5,000 meters (3.1 miles) Killen's Pond course. Mike Melvin, in second place, missed his best effort here, by only a second or two (17.39) but was 22 seconds ahead of Smyrna ace Colin Lessard, in third. Chris Cronis of Caesar Rodney (4th) was the only other runner to beat any of the Spartan scorers (top five runners for each team) as Mark Whidden (18.09), Dan Haines and Eric Payne were next in line.

Kevin Pelton was 11th, Mike Mosley 16th and John Caskey, in 17th, ran a new, personal best, in his last start, in

Spartan harriers third in State Title run

by Keith S. Burgess

In the season-opening Lake Forest Invitational, a brash archmere runner approached Spartan Coach Jim Blades and abruptly announced that Archmere Academy was out for revenge, in the 1984 State Championship meet. The upstater was still thinking of the 1983 state meet, won by Lake Forest by a scant three points, over Archmere. The Spartans beat Archmere, in that Lake Forest Invitational, beat them again in the Salesianum Invitational and were a whopping 40 points ahead of fourth place Archmere, in Saturday's state meet.

Dickinson High were prohibitive favorites to win Division II and prevailed easily, scoring five of the top ten runners. Lake Forest, expected to finish second, but had trouble with the hilly, Carpenter State Park course and were nosed out by a Tower Hill team, which last finished as high as second place, in 1973. Dickinson was state champs for the first time. Tower Hill's advantage lies in the fact, that Rockford Park is nearby, with plenty of hills to practice on Downstate hills are virtually non-existent. Nevertheless, this writer feels that the Hillers could not beat Lake Forest again, in five tries on any Delaware course.

Hockey wins first round of State Tourney

by Rebecca A. Brown

The Lake Forest field hockey team beat Glasgow 2-0 in their first ever appearance in the state tournament.

Both the defense and the offense played aggressively to give Lake Forest the shutout. In the first half the Spartans had many scoring opportunities, but failed to capitalize on them until Teresa Taylor scored from five yards out with 10 minutes left. That was all they needed to win the game, but Lizzy Watkinson added one SATURDAY at YONKERS in the $75,000 Ireland Fund Pace won by Caramore with John Patterson, Jr. driving came off the pace to win in 1:56.1 with Mr. Dalrae second a head back and Mr. Escort fourth placed third. Mr. Dalrae and Guts battled throughout the fractions of 27.3, 55.3, 1:26.2 with Guts finishing last in a 6-horse field.

Still at Yonkers in the $25,000 Open Handicap pace to Happy Gennero with Rejaan Daigneault in the sulky with a winning time of 1:56.2 a track record for aged pacing geldings.

MAYWOOD on Saturday in the $16,000 FFA handicap pacing event in light snow it was Gol winning his 3rd straight in 1:59.1 with Ron Marsh in the bike over Lensometer and Fern Cliff andy.

POMPAÑO ON SATURDAY in the $12,000 Invitational Pace it was Deacon Lobell shooting the rail to win in 1:57.2 with Mickey McNichol aboard over Colossus Bay and Arbed deatheated for second.

Still at Pompano in the $10,000 Fillies and Mares Preferred pace it was Millie with Jack Moiseyev winning in 1:56.4 with Hit Parade dead heated for seventh in that race.

LIBERTY BELL ON SUNDAY in the $10,000 Preferred pace it was Torino Lobel with Mark Lancaster in 1:59.2.

Leading dash winners and money won: Bill O'Donnell (398-$8.5 million), Mike Lachance (387-), John Campbell ($7,073,435), Leigh Fitch, Carmen Abbatello, Bill Gale, Bill Parker, Jr., Ron Marsh, Don Irvine, Jr., Dave Wall, Buddy Gilmour ($4,097,586) and EDDIE DAVIS with 216 wins (16th and $1,334,468) at 27th.

Spartan livery. Alvin Hudson, Ken Foy and Pat Caskey, all ran very well with Foy getting a new record clocking. If Ken Foy every becomes famous, he can rip off those autographs in nothing flat. He is related to Eddie Foy, a former movie star, singer and dancer.

Kelli Pelton was runnerup to Smyrna's Molly Porter, in the distaff meet. Porter is a former state champ, in track and was runnerup in the 1984 Group II State Cross-Country meet. Pelton's good 21.36 for 3.1 miles paced Lake Forest to an easy victory. Lori Wilson was sixth, in 22.54, with Tara Gladden next. The Mollohan's (andrea and Angela) cemented the victory by sprinting in together, to become Lake Forest's final scorers. As the identical twins roared across the finish line together, a slightly tipsy spectator, started in disbelief and muttered "Now how did she do that?" Debbie Jester, Shirlaine Goodman and Melanie Pelton, finished 11, 12, 13, with Maria Kazlauskas, finishing 15th, in new, personal record time.

Caesar Rodney, Smyrna and Dover trailed the flying Spartans.

Mike Melvin was the top Spartan finisher, getting ninth place of 91 runners. Mark Tozar was 12th, an excellent debut, for a freshman. Danny Haines, a senior, was 13th nd did a great job in his last cross-country race. Mark Whidden was 17th. Whidden a senior transfer from Parkside High, Salisbury, Md. and Haines were slowed by leg injuries, which kept them from reaching their potential, but came back to be extremely valuable to the Spartans' fine season.

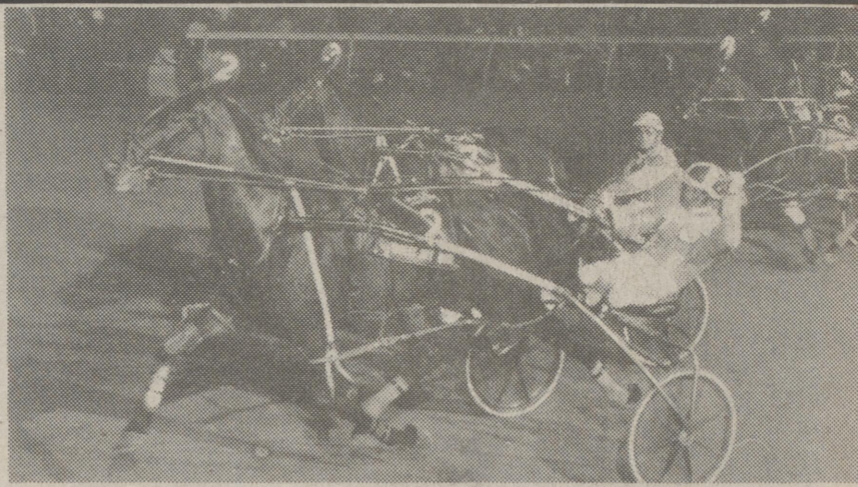

Mike Mosley, a key runner for 1985, was running No. 8, on this team only a couple of weeks ago. Mike was No. 5, Saturday and almost managed to enable the Spartans to get that second place finish.

In the girls' race only five of the nine distaff Spartans could make the trip. Kelli Pelton's 15th place finish was the top local effort, as she ran 3 plus hilly miles in 22.46. Tara Gladden was next, followed by Debbie Jester, Melanie Pelton and Maria Kazlauskas. The latter probably ran her best race ever.

Ursuline Academy, a strong favorite, won easily, with the shorthanded Spartans running well to finish 7th of 12 teams. At full strength the locals would have had a shot at third place.

more for insurance early in the second half. The Spartans almost made the score 3-0 but had their last goal taken away by an off side penalty.

Lake Forest out shot Glasgow 18-2 and out cornered them 21-6. Showing how well the Spartans played both offensively and defensively. The Spartans are now 10-1-2, and will advance to the quarter finals Tuesday against last year's state champion Friends.

Naught But Nice(2) digs in in the stretch to defeat Hit Parade(3) in 1:56.4 to capture the Inagural $465,000 Breeders Crown three-year-old filly pace Friday night at Liberty Bell Park. Driven by Tom Haughton, Naughty But Nice boisted her career earnings to over $1 million with the $232,500 she banked Friday night. The daughter of Meadow Skipper is trained by Apples Thomas in the Barn of Hall of famer William Haughton and posted her 10th win of the season for co-owners William Sheehan and the Kentuckiana Farms, of Ky. Naughty But Nice holds a world record on a half-mile track and on a five-eighths mile track and with tonight's win may have locked up three-year-old pacing filly of the year honors.

Hit Parade was disqualified from second place because of interference with Don't Dally at the three quarter pole and placed ninth. May Wine(8) finished third and was placed second. Intown Frost(4) finished fourth and was placed third.

Free admission and parking for Dover Downs opener

DOVER, DE - Free general admission and parking will be featured opening day of the 1984-85 harness meet at Dover Downs. Racing at the speedy five-eighths mile Delaware oval gets under way Sunday, November 18th at 1 p.m. The 75 day meet runs through March 23rd.

"We're very enthused about opening day and expect that enthusiasm to carry through the entire meet," says Dover Downs President and General Manager Denis McGlynn. "With our well prepared racing surface we expect to continue the record breaking performances that our fans and drivers have become accustomed to."

"The strong local economy is also a good sign for us," adds McGlynn. In addition to the free opening day admission and parking, an appearance by a major name driver is planned. An announcement will be made as soon as final arrangements with the driver are complete.

Dover Downs Director of Racing Ted Leonard has received a record number of stall applications from horsemen assuring plenty of quality racing stock.

Last season's leading dash winner, Walt Callahan, will be returning as will last year's UDRS leader, Eddie Davis, when his schedule permits. Other top driver expected are Robert Shahan, Edward Morgan, Whitey Moore, Linda McNatt, Betty Gill, Gary Botsch and Roger Botsch.

Post times at Dover Downs are 8 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday through December 22nd. Following a break for the Christmas holidays, programs will be held December 29th, 30th and 31st. Beginning January 1st race days will be Tuesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Babe Herman, the old-time Brooklyn Dodger outfielder, was a great man with the bat, but his ability with the glove left a lot to be desired.

When he heard that someone was going to New York nightclubs impersonating him and cashing checks in his name, he decided to investigate.

He went to one of the club owners and told him, "The next time he comes in, take him outside and hit a few flyballs. If he catches them, call the cops."

She was only an athlete's daughter, but she was always ready to play ball.

Jackie Robinson, the first black baseball player ever to play in the majors, had a wry sense of humor.

On his first day in the big leagues, he left his hotel room and kissed his wife goodbye.

"Now if you have any trouble recognizing me, honey," he said, "just remember that I'm number 42."

Spartans lose tough Homecoming game

by Rebecca A. Brown

In one of their best games of the season, the Lake Forest Spartan football team lost to the Caesar Rodney Riders Friday night 6-14.

The Spartan defense held back the Riders for the entire first half, while the offense managed to put 6 points on the board with Donnie Bell's 24 yard touchdown run late in the second quarter. After the half-time break, however, Lake Forest was unable to score again, while Caesar Rodney managed two touchdowns and a two point conversion.

Next week the Spartans play the Milford Bucs in the "Battle of the Bell" at Lake Forest. If they win they will capture the Henlopen Conference Southern Division Championship. The Spartans now have a record of 2-0-2 in the division and 3-4-2 overall.

Days of Our Years

by Janis Gorski

10 YEARS AGO

A Maryland Co., Baltimore Aircoil Co., is planning groundbreaking this month for its new plant 7 miles east of Harrington. The company plans to hire several hundred employees in the early part of 1975.

James D. Moore, of near Harrington, was named the City's first building inspector last week.

The Frank O'Neals returned to their Harrington Manor home Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. to find a smoke-filled house. The firemen used very little water to extinguish the fire. Much of the damage to the house was due to the smoke. The cause of the fire was believed to have been due to faulty wiring in the kitchen ceiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Rissmuller and son of Baltimore were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Hazel Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brobst visited the home and museum of Christian Anderson in Chadds Ford Saturday.

Miss Cathy Voshell of Sandtown spent the weekend with Gale Zeitler.

Mrs. Irene Adams suffered a broken shoulder and is in Milford Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Edith Massey suffered a fall at her home this week.

Winston C. Burgess suffered a broken arm when he slipped on a stairway at his home last Thursday night.

Airman Howard E. Caskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd F. Caskey of R.D. 3, Felton, has been assigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

20 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Trice of Pennsgrove, N.J., have purchased the former E.S. Richards residence at 204 Center Street and intend to occupy it before Christmas. Trice retired recently from the DuPont Company.

Trice, known since childhood as Maugie, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trice who owned a hotel on the site of the present Stone's Hotel 47 years ago.

Army Pvt. Karl G. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Skinner, Shaw Ave., Harrington, completed advanced training as an artillery automatic weapons crewman under the Reserve Enlistment program at Ft. Bliss, Texas, November 6, 1964.

Army Pfc. James C. Dill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philemon Dill, Felton and other members of the 1st Infantry Division are participating in exercise Gold Fire I.

Gayle Smith, local hawkeye, added another title to his impressive collection of victories, when he won the doubles crown in the Atlantic City Gun Club's trapshoot at the N.J. resort city on Saturday. Gayle shattered 92 out of 100 targets.

30 YEARS AGO

The Eagle Scout award was given to William P. McCluley, Jr., Troop 76, Harrington, at the Dover District Boy Scout Court of Honor at Smyrna High School Thursday night, November 4, 1954.

The Harrington Lion's Club met Monday at the Wonder R. The main subject was the recent fire in which John Abel and his mother lost all their personal belongings and household furnishings.

Friends and neighbors of Watson Baker, who injured his hand in a cornpicker, recently picked 75 acres of corn for Mr. Baker.

Vernon neighbors and Taylor & Messick furnished cornpickers and wagons and did the job in a day and a half, all told. Inclement weather interfered.

There will be a public opinion poll, on the question of intergration of white and Negro pupils into the public school system, at Harrington High School Saturday, Nov. 20, 1954.

The poll is being sponsored by a group calling itself the Citizens Committee, of which Luther Hatfield is chairman.

Mark Dufendack left Thursday of last week to return to the Naval base at Savannah, Ga., after having spent quite some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Dufendack.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swain, of Lincoln, are the happy parents of a baby boy, born Friday morning, Oct. 29, at the home of Mrs. Swain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rifenburg.

Mrs. Swain will be remembered as the former Dorothy Rifenburg.

25,000 attend Return Day in Georgetown

years, the event has blossomed into a statewide celebration.

Old-timers used to celebrate the day with an ox-roast over an open fire in the town circle. Today's celebrants have substituted steer but it is still referred to as an ox-roast.

In addition to the beef sandwiches there was everything from crab soup and oyster sandwiches to homemade pastry and cotton candy.

Marching school bands and a parade featuring the winning and losing candidates riding side by side in horse drawn carriages and vintage automobiles were highlights of the celebration.

Battle Robinson, losing candidate for lieutenant governor, shared a carriage with the winner, S.B. Woo.

"It was the toughest thing I ever did," said Robinson.

Sen. Joseph R. Biden Jr. said that, for the losers, "It was a grueling experience...this must be the most brutal ceremony thought up by rational man...it's a very difficult thing."

Insurance Commissioner David H. Elliott and David N. Levinson, the man who defeated him, rode in separate carriages. Elliott and Levinson had been engaged in perhaps the most acrimonious campaign battle in the state.

After local undertaker Ronald F. Dodd, who serves as town crier for Return Day affairs, announced the "official" election returns, Republican and Democratic state chairmen buried a bronze-headed hatchet in a coffin-like box of sand.

A 45-pound ceremonial cake decorated with the crest of Delaware's three counties was cut by Gov.-elect Michael N. Castle. The cake was washed down with a swig of "Methodist punch."

Jean West, who chaired this year's event, said the plans for Return Day got under way as soon as the streets were swept clean in 1982.

Devotees of this biennial kiss-and-make-up shindig are looking forward to 1986.

Beef steaks, meat pie, goose, turnips, green beans, oysters and a ragout await guests of an elaborate southern dinner party in Winterthur Museum's Marlboro room display at Yuletide. The table is set with tortoise shell or "clouded" wares and salt-glazed stonewares, both popular in the colonies during the first half of the Eighteenth Century.

"Annie" and Community Singers a big hit

DOVER, Central Middle School. The Community Singers presented the Broadway hit "Annie" over the weekend. Near sell out crowds were the order of the day.

"Annie" is the type of production that is moving and with expert choreographer and singing the play can really take off. Such was the case with "Annie". The play on Friday night was interrupted several times with thundering applause. At the end before final curtain call the audience was on their feet applauding.

Emily Almond, 13 year old daughter of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Russell Almond does a beautiful job in portraying the orphan who longs to find her parents.

She is backed up by Don Dean as Warbucks. As Warbucks' personal secretary, Grace, played by Trudy Ruchmund, also gives a real good performance in this role.

Marge Bailey plays "Miss Hannigan" the overseer at the orphanage. In the role of Rooster, Bob Castro along with Marsha Raque' Wilson as Lily play out the role of falsely portraying the parents of Annie very well.

Roles of the servants played by Paul Janiga as Drake as the leading one in this group was well received by the audience.

Lee Gibson, a veteran of the Dover stage, portrayed the role of F.D.R. to its limit.

during this week.

Other Business: The Council accepted the Librarian's report; the Tilcon Motion with reference to patching state-maintained street repairs not to exceed $4,000 was also accepted; minutes of the October 8, 1984 meeting were accepted, as was the October Financial Report; The Waste Water Treatment Plant Operation Report and the Street Foreman's Report also found acceptance.

Mock accident

Fairgrounds where make-up artists provided the mock wounds.

When the participants were taken to the Hospital, the emergency room officials, who are trained to handle crisis such as this, instructed the victims on what to do...and how to remain calm under the situation.

Lola O'Day, who is a correspondent for

The Harrington Journal, was one of the victims. "We are made up at The Fairgrounds and then taken to the scene of the accident, and placed in the vehicles", she said. "It was a real experience...and I would rate the fire companies and hospital personnel as doing an excellent job", she added.

Memorabilia sought for museum

The Greater Harrington Historical Society is seeking memorabilia for its museum.

Due to a limited storage area, articles loaned or donated should be of historical interest and pertaining to Harrington.

Among some of the items already received are bill heads, local made furniture, postcards, pictures, diplomas, china, baskets, clothes, bottles and advertising items.

In addition to general items, as mentioned above, the Society is seeking railroad memorabilia, to be housed in the railroad tower museum.

Anyone having articles to donate or loan, please call Kenny McKnatt, 398-8354; Arthur Cahall, 398-3089; Donald Gester, 398-8298; Tom Parsons, 398-3000.
