Peoples Bank names two to Bank Board

William Vanderwende

John M. [Jack] Short

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.
HARRINGTON. The Peoples Bank of Harrington founded in 1905 to serve the community has named two members of the Board of Directors: William Vanderwende of near Bridgeville and John M. (Jack) Short of Harrington. This brings the number of Directors to 8. Deaths of Howard Wagner and George Simpson had reduced the Board to 6 members.

Vanderwende, a native of rural Harrington, is a graduate of Harrington High School Class of '51. He operates a dairy farm on Route 404 near Bridgeville with his three sons. They also till approximately 3,000 acres of a grain

He currently serves in several civic organizations and Boards of Directors.

The Boards on which he serves are Southern States Cooperative which meets every other month in Richmond, Va. and the Board of Directors of the Delaware State Fair. He is also Superintendent of the Cattle Division at the Fair.

Vanderwende also serves as President of the Delaware Soil Conservation Districts of Delaware.

He has been a member of the Woodbridge School Board for the past 10 years. His term there expires in July. He says he will not seek another term on the School Board.

He is married to the former Ellen Ann Draper of near Harrington. They have four children Daniel, Doug, Jim, all of whom are in the farming operation with him, and one daughter, Carla, who lives on the Eastern Shore of Short known to all as "Jack" has lived in the area all of his life. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Delaware State Fair and the Board of Directors of the State Ag Museum in Dover. He is also a member of the executive committee there.

He is Superintendent of the Antique Machinery Division of the Delaware State Fair.

Short recently retired after 30 years of service with the State Highway Department...now called Department of Highways and Transportation. He was Maintenance Superintendent for all of Kent County and part of New Castle County.

He serves in numerous civic organizations and antique machinery organiza-

He and his wife Bessy live on the outskirts of Harrington. They have two married children...one son and one daughter.

The Peoples Bank of Harrington has assets of 29 million dollars and employs

Other members of the Board of Directors are J. Edward Taylor, President; Charles Peck, 1st V.P.; William Paskey, 2nd V.P.; Walter Messick; Calvert Morgan, Secretary to the Board; and Thurman Adams, Sr. Officers of the Bank include Robert E. Everline, Cashier; Pat B. Kohut, Assistant Cashier Head Loan Officer; and payroll clerk; Barry Breeding, Assistant Cashier in charge of Bookkeeping and Computer; and Frances Garey, also Assistant Cashier.

Carper goes to the aid of boaters and fishermen

U.S. Congressman, Tom Carper of Delaware last week called on the President to put back in the budget funds for the Wallop/Breaux fund, which was designed for boating safety programs, fisheries conservation, and boating ramps. "All of these services are near and dear to the hearts of recreational fishermen and boaters," said Carper.

Carper went on to add that to take away that which was promised to "...these people," makes a mockery of the proposal.

Delaware is scheduled to receive close to one million dollars under the Wallop/Breaux Act. "Our fishermen and boaters paid into the fund with the understanding that recreational opportunities would be maintained and enhanced," said Carper.

State School Supervisor retires

Richard L. Connell has retired as state supervisor of programs for exceptional children. Mr. Connell, a member of the State Department of Public Instruction since 1967, cordinated federally funded programs for children with physical, mental, or emotional handicaps that have advanced Delaware to the

He helped to develop intensive learning centers for seriously disturbed children who previously had attended costly facilities out of state. He arranged for the purchase of computer terminals to help handicapped students learn basic skills, and that statewide network was the basis of the current Computer Education Services in which Delaware ranks as a national leader.

A graduate of Albright College, Reading, Pennsylvania, Mr. Connell earned his master's in guidance at the University of Delaware.

He began teaching in Greenwood in 1952 and later worked at the Delaware City School and as guidance counselor at Dover Air Base High School.

Messick attending 4-H Leadership Program

CHEVY CHASE, Md. - Ruth Ann Messick, an adult volunteer 4-H leader from Farmington area has been selected from more than 620,000 eligible adults to participate in a national training program called Salute to Excellence. Salute to Excellence will be held March 16-23, 1985, at the National 4-H Center here. The program teaches management and communications skills to adults who volunteer in the 4-H club system. One volunteer is chosen from each state to attend the week-long program and receive a $1,000 grant to implement a plan to improve volunteerism in your state. The Salute to Excellence program is underwritten by a grant from R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc.

Delaware Music School to hold Recital

The Delaware Music School on Sunday, March 31, will hold the school's annual faculty recital.

Highlights of the recital program include master faculty member Amy Rosser of the Peabody Conservatory at the harpsichord; Pachelbel's Canon performed by pianist Georgiana Wall and violinists Michelle Peters, Mimi Abbott and Paula Crowe; and saxophone and classical guitar solos by William Bennett and

The recital will also introduce two new Delaware Music School faculty members. Rebecca Hale, a graduate of the Wheaton College Conservatory of Music and recent soloist with the Baltimore Symphony and Salisbury Choral Society's production of The Messiah joins the school's voice faculty this spring and will sing an aria from Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro. Amy Forslund, a graduate of Ohio University and member of Wesley College's music department, will join the school's Dover branch this fall as woodwind instructor. She will perform on the oboe, accompanied by harpsichordist Amy

The recital will begin at 2:00 p.m. in the Avenue United Methodist Church, Milford. A reception will follow

On Saturday, March 30, at 2:00 in the Avenue Church, Amy Rosser will give a harpsichord workshop for anyone interested in learning about this elegant baroque instrument and sounding it out for themselves! Both the recital and workshop are free and open to the public. For more information, contact the Delaware Music School at 422-2043.

Soil Conservation conducting surveys

The U.S. Soil Conservation Service (S.C.S.) and the Delaware Division of Soil and Water Conservation are conducting field investigations and engineering surveys in the Hartly and Blackiston areas of Kent County according to Frederick T. Mott, S.C.S. District Conservationist. This work is in conjunction with a supplemental Environmental Impact Statement for the Upper Chester River Watershed Agricultural Drainage Project. The project involves the restoration of Agricultural drainage ditches. The Soil Conservation Service and the Delaware Division of Soil and Water Conservation agreed to do the additional work at the request of a coalition of environmental groups. A public hearing was held last November. The field investigation work is scheduled to continue throughout this Spring and Summer.

Mrs. Plummer celebrates 90th Birthday

by Harry G. Farrow, Jr.

HARRINGTON. She was 90 on Friday, and she said "...it has been the nicest birthday that I have ever had...I

Friends and well wishers came by to pay their respects to Mrs. Hattie Plummer on Friday. Mrs. Jean Harrington and Mrs. Nancy Green, representatives of the Harrington Fire Company Ladies Auxillary made a special visit to Mrs. Plummer's home on Ward Street. Mrs. Plummer is the oldest living member of the Harrington Fire Company Ladies Auxillary. She has been a member for 50 years.

Mrs. Plummer has lived in Harrington since 1926. She was raised on a farm near Farmington. Her maiden name was Lecompte.

She loved going to school. "I never missed a day of school...except one. That was the day they buried my grandfather. I attended his funeral.... and missed school that day," she said. The first school Mrs. Plummer attended was called Coon's Den...near Farmington. "I went there through the 8th grade...then came back to Farmington and graduated from the Farmington school." Mrs. Plummer worked in the Harrington Shirt factory for 24 years. She was also employed for 9 years at the Governor Bacon Health Center at Newport. "I lived there and ran a cottage...that's what they called it then...for children." This was after her husband died. He had been a sawer for Murphy & Hayes during his years of employment. They had one son who died at the age of 2.

Mrs. Plummer is a kind, gentle person who shows signs still of good health. Let's hope that she has many more pleasant years ahead of her.

evening to honor this year's New Wave Swim Team.

The team which was begun by former Aquatics Director, Denny Berry now has 75 members according to Mike Corash the current Director. At the banquet one of the high-lights was the recognition of Danny Haines, one of Lake Forest's leading swimmers, who will be joining Coach Corash at Indian River Community College where he will receive a full scholarship. "If anyone deserved a scholarship...it is Danny. He is a real good boy, and I expect him to go far with his swimming. I know that I will be looking after him at Indian River," added Corash.

All members of the New Wave Swim Team received certificates. Others who were singled out and honored were as follows: Wesley Wood, Barbara Murphy, Alyss Lange, Angie Mason, Julie Smith, Jana Lynn Smith, and Michael Drew. These swimmers were honored and received recognition for having scored in the top 8 in the State Championships of the U.S. Swimming Team held last December at the Wilmington Acquatic Club.

There was a prayer rendered by

Coach Corash which appears on page VIOLA. A banquet at the VCF 10 of this newspaper. "The prayer...I Ruritan Club was held on Sunday felt coming on was to let all of the members of the team know how I felt about them...and in particular the 11 and 12 year olds who cried when I informed them that I was leaving," said Corash. He went on to say that it is an experience that "...I will never forget. I love all of them...and I wanted them to know how I felt," said Corash. Mr. Mike Corash, who will be ending his work, but not his influence with the swimmers as of April 1, wrapped up the season with a very inspirational talk for the swimmers. He emphasized to the swimmers that the team needed to continue its work towards team spirit. Many of the actions, activities, and policies which Mr. Corash has developed over the last three months have enunciated the idea of "we" not

The New Wave Swim Team will be continuing its participation in several important events within the next few months. Members will have at least two more scheduled meets, one in late March and one in mid-April. Swimmers for the New Wave team and swimmers from area swim teams will have an opportunity to improve their skills in the Lake Forest Swim Clinic which will be held in mid-May. Mr Corash will be returning to the clinic to assist with the goal setting sessions of the clinic. Joining his efforts will be those of Frank Keefe, 1984 Olympic coach and John Trembley, coach of the National Prep School Champions, of Mercersberg Academy. The team members would like to take this opportunity to thank the community for its support and would welcome new members to come join in the fun. The team has a lot of team spirit to grow on-THANKS COACH!

Miss Delaware-USA 1985 crowned in Milford

On March 16, 1985 Sheila Jill Saints of Wilmington was crowned Miss Delaware-USA. Ceremonies were held at the Milford Senior High School auditorium. Miss Saints will represent Delaware in the Miss USA Pageant on May 13, 1985 in Lakeland, Florida.

Miss Delaware-USA, Sheila Saints is a graduate of the University of Delaware, with a B.A. in Communications/Journalism, and is currently a weathercaster with Rollins Cablevision. Also receiving awards Saturday night were: First Runner-Up, Kimberly Barkmeier of Dover, DE; Second Runner-Up, Lynn Marie Taylor of Montchanin, DE; Third Runner-Up, Sema Monica Tezcan of Wilmington, DE; Fourth Runner-Up, Lisa Ann Dempsey of Newark, DE; Miss Photogentic, Sheila Jill Saints of Wilmington, DE; Miss Congeniality, Kimberly Benson of Wilmington, DE.

The production was MC'd by Chuck Marcus of WSEA and our former Miss Delaware-USA, Miss Denise Lenick was on hand to crown Miss Delaware-USA 1985. The theme for the pageant was a "Southern Holiday", which was produced by Don Blakey. It was a lovely evening with our 26 contestants competing in a photo session, bathing suit competition, evening gown competition, and personal interview. Be sure to watch our Miss Delaware-USA on May 13, 1985 on your local CBS TV channel. The Miss USA Pageant will be

It's not too late to save on your 1984 taxes. You can open a Mellon Individual Retirement Account and make your contribution as late as April 15.

Start an account with any amount from $100 to $2,000. Working couples can each open an account, and deduct up to $4,000 from their income reported on federal tax IFIEDS returns. But no matter how much you deposit, it can make your tax refund bigger, or reduce the amount of the check you send the IRS this year.

You can still get an IRA from Mellon and save hundreds of dollars on your 1984 taxes. Come into Mellon before you file.

Here's what you can save:

$2,000 filing joint tax return.

| If your 1984 marginal tax bracket is: | 15% | 25% | 40% | 50% |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------|--------|--------|
| Invest this much in Individual Retireme Accounts and your tax savings will be: | ent | | | |
| $ 500 | $ 75 | $ 125 | $ 200 | $ 250 |
| 1,000 | 150 | 250 | 400 | 500 |
| 2,0001 | 300 | 500 | 800 | 1,000 |
| 4,0002 | 600 | 1,000 | 1,600 | 2,000 |

When you open your 1984 IRA, you can make your 1985 contribution, too, so it will be earning tax-deferred interest for you through the rest of this year. If you don't have the money you need to make your IRA contribution—or if you don't want to use your own cash—ask about a Mellon installment loan or Personal Credit Line.

An IRA from Mellon gives you even more:

More security. A Mellon Individual Retirement Account is insured by the FDIC up to $100,000 unlike insurance company and broker IRA programs.

Investment options. Choose from two different kinds of investments: fixed rate investments which guarantee a rate for a specific term or our variable rate option where the rate is reset every 91 days.

No management fees. Unlike some other IRA's, a Mellon deposit IRA carries no service charge.

Extra convenience. At Mellon, you don't have to make your entire IRA contribution at one time. You can make deposits through Mellon Bank-by-Phone, payroll deduction plans, direct deposit and your Mellon community office. You can also call Mellon's Rate Line for our current interest rates, (302) 429-4980.

It's not too late to save on your 1984 taxes. So stop in your nearest Mellon office and open an IRA today.

Maximum contribution is $2,250 if you're married and your spouse is not working (some limitations apply). Early withdrawals subject to substantial penalties and to IRS regulations

Gab Fest by Pat Hatfield

Surely one of the scourges of our present age are the many maladies known carelessly as "the virus". Apparently it comes in all sizes, little, big and overwhelming! Dad has fought it more or less successfully for about three weeks now and still complains of the aches and the miseries. He went through every stage, starting with a slight pneumonia condition and ending with nausea and diarrhea. I started with a sore throat, slight cough and drippy nose. I seemed to get over it, got back into circulation and felt real smart about the whole thing. Then on Monday morning at 2:30 I awoke with nausea and diarrhea and was flat on my back all day. Ellen and Gary came with chicken soup and ministered to me.

I read recently the story of Bette Davis' life and I'm keeping her motto in front of me..."No guts, no gain!" you know, when you come right down to it. there is no convenient time to be sick. Murphy's law becomes very much in evidence..."Nothing is as easy as it looks; everything takes longer than you expect; and if anything can go wrong, it will, and at the worst possible time." Just when I needed to do so much, I was forced by the illness to just watch the world go by. I needed to start some letters off to our Teddy in far-off Korea, I needed to work on the book I'm writing; and this was the week my kind, next-door neighbor passed away before I had really time to get to know him. And I was unable physically to do the small things that neighbors do at such a time.

This is a typical March day, blustery and rainy and crazy, and we are doing a typically March thing. Housecleaning has begun at Trail's End. My dear friend and helper, Dawn, is here and she is redecorating the downstairs bathroom. She has painted the ceiling cardinal red and the window and door trim red also. The wallpaper is a newspaper design in black and white with colonial advertising. Red carpet tiles will go on the floor. This is at the north end and it needs a bright and cheery color. I love to wear red, too. It makes me happy.

Another day has dawned and the cold March wind is still howling. I sat musing upon the fact that with all the nuclear power and all the computers in this supposedly great age of science, no one has really been able to control the weather or even do much about it. In spite of perhaps being labeled an old fogie, I cannot help but feel we are handling it all wrong. We rejoiced when we split the atom and got ourselves nuclear power and so on, and now we find ourselves burdened with the problem of nuclear wastes and no place to dispose of it. So, now, too, we seem to be throwing a lot of stuff up into space. They tell us it's getting full of debris up there. So, now we say that the computers will solve all our problems, but we are already facing the fact that this knowledge can be and often is abused. I can only think that perhaps we've got a tiger by the tail and can't let gol

Spring, March 20, 1985, 4:00 p.m. Saw a marvelous TV show Thursday night. That is if you like Country Music. "Legend of Country Music", began with Eddie Arnold and ended with Brenda Lee. Can't possibly list all, surely did enjoy the entire show! Mrs. Sylvia Meredith was leader of Bible Study Monday morning. Misplaced the list of those present and the text of the study. Anyway, it was a good hour.

Monday afternoon was members meeting. Pledge of allegiance by all, prayer by Sylvia. Vice President Maurice Adams held the meeting. "Andy" Anderson was back and read minutes of last minutes, Louise Burgess the new Treas. read the financial report. Both reports approved as read. Decided to make some changes in the investment of money. The ill reported. Bazaar final directions made. Don't forget, March 29, 1985, 10 a.m. -2 p.m. (Share a lunch with a friend.) Meeting adjourned.

Friday is Charlottes last day at the Center (as an employee). Annabel Morrow presented her with a lovely card and a nice remembrance from the Harrington Senior Center. Charlotte tearfully accepted the kindness extended. She will be missed, hopefully she will make periodical visits to the Center that she has served so well for My last day as an employee of the Center was March 11, 1985 but plan to stay on as a volunteer until after the Bazaar. I have been here seven years. Volunteered in ceramics when the Center first began at the Century Club (my daughter Gene and I) Mildred Minner was the Director and she always had the places set and equipment out ready to go when we got there. That was a great lot of ladies that gathered at the Century Club, they brought their lunch or fixed something there. Sorta reminded me of a big family gathering. Lots of laughter, chatting, working, crafts of every description. Mrs. Morris and Mildred Minner and others I'm sure went out and got those that had no way in to the Center. Betty A. Lyons was a helper and Betty Ann Cooper and Mrs. Fair were among those that began the entire procedure. The ladies and gents that go to the Center now are still a great people; kind and thoughtful, working.

Harrington Senior Center is a nice place to meet new friends, listen to good music, sing if you like, enjoy the tasty meals from Modern Maturity Center - Dover (Manna). You still have time to bring in your white elephants. They go so well!

Be kind to each other. Best wishes to all homebounds and those who are ill at home or in the hospital on convalescent home. A special prayer for those in deep sorrow. Hello Out-of-Towners. Love - Faith!

Harrington Baptist Church

Each Wednesday night at 7 p.m. the church is open for Prayer and Bible for those in the community. All are welcome.

On Thursdays at 6:45 p.m. there is visitation in the community. This Thursday at 7 p.m. the 25th Anniversary Committee will meet at the church. Tapes of the worship services are available for anyone who would like to hear them. If you know of a shutin who cannot make it to church who would like to hear a Sunday service contact a Baptist man. The Assoc. Bible School Clinic will meet Tuesday, March 26th, at 1st Southern on South Little Creek Road, Dover, at 7 p.m. for any and all Bible

School teachers and workers. The Baptist Women's Prayer group will meet at 10 a.m. at the church on the 26th of March. The Nursing Home group will meet at 1 p.m. the same day. Revival services are only 5 weeks away with Rev. R. F. Gates from Louisiana from April 21 to 26. He is unique in that he preaches the doctrines of sovereign grace and yet urges souls to turn to the Lord with great zeal. Plan now to attend.

"Now when the evening was come, he sat down with the twelve. And as they did eat, he said, "Verily I say unto you that one of you shall betray me.' And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began everyone of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? And he answered and said, "He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me." Matthew 26:20-23.

Avenue United Methodist Church

You are cordially invited to meet the renown artist, Mrs. Carolyn Blish on Sunday, March 24, 1985 at Avenue United Methodist Church, 20 N.

Church Avenue, Milford, DE. Her presentation during the 11:00 worship service is entitled, "His Design...Not Mine".

A few examples of her work are on display in the church.

Prints will be available for purchase. She intends to personalize them following the service. Mrs. Blish takes no profit from these prints. Avenue Church is directing any profit to Ethiopian Relief.

From the Pastor's Pen

by Clifford Lones, Pastor Independent Bible Fellowship Church Harrington, Delaware

The Easter season brings to our mind crucifixion, all of which are recorded in the Bible. One of the unusual experiences of Jesus was in the garden of Gethsemane (Matt. 26:36-46). Here it was that Jesus prayed three times, "let this cup vass from me". He was speaking, of course, about His impending experience of death for the sins of the world. Each time He uttered His request He included, however, "nevertheless, Thy will be done"

Within the Biblical record of this very emotional experience we find that for Jesus it was a SORROWFUL cup. His sorrow was not for Himself but for humankind who had been inflicted with sin. Sin had subtracted from humankind all the enjoyment of real life for which God had created humanity.

It was also a STRUGGLING cup for Jesus. He who never sinned was about to die on behalf of sin. He who was life in all its fullness was about to die. His struggle was, would He die that people might live? The eternal fate of many future believers lie in His decision

Furthermore, it was a SINGULAR cup for Jesus. No one else could ever do this for the sins of the world. In the Old Testament animal sacrifices were given to cover sins until that One whom they pictured would come to forever forgive sins. He was the only begotten Son of God, the perfect God-man, who paid the penalty of sin demanded by a Just God.

Consequently, it was a SAVING cup. He drank it, that is, He experienced death within the next couple days. At the time of the passover, He died and became, as John had previously preached, "the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:20). Will you, therefore, at this Easter time accept this Saviour for the forgiveness of your sins?

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Silver Dollar, a winner in two of three outings against the best free-for-all pacers in North America, has earned selection by the U.S. Trotting Association as the Feb. Harness Horse of the Month.

He won three preliminary legs of the Presidential series at the Meadowlands' including 1:56.4 and 1:55.4 tallies for catch-driver Carmine Abbatiello in his first two starts in February.

Silver Dollar's earnings for February, $60,750, boosted his seasonal tally to $81,050 and his lifetime bankroll to and pacers return for the 33rd season at Brandywine Raceway starting this sunday, March 24, and continuing until September 2.

As usual, the highlight of the 138 night season will be the 26th renewal of the prestigious $100,000 Battle of the Brandywine, the richest racing event in Delaware.

On opening night, and each succeeding Sunday, post time for the first race will be 7:30 p.m. The rest of the week, Tuesday through Saturday nights, racing starts at 8:00 p.m.

During the early part of the week, there will be ten races each night, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. One additional race will be carded on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

TOMMY HOUSTON—"We've picked up a new sponsor in Midstate Mills and we think that's going to give us a big avid trucking enthusiast. Everything boost. I'm looking forward to going to from custom pickups and 4WD's to Martinsville because that's really our handsome 18 wheeler show rigs like first major short track race. The track is really tough on brakes and in the past, you could run 200 laps and find you were out of brakes for the last 50. Now I think you'll see the cars going even harder from the beginning...you'll see a heck of a race there. I think it's going to be some super racing and maybe even better racing than we've had there in the past."

DALE JARRETT—"Last year wasn't really the season we were looking for. I think we learned a whole lot in '84-I think that's the biggest and the best thing that came out of 1984. I really feel like I let a race slip away in the fall race at Martinsville in 1984 but even that is one of those things that you learn from. I hate to keep chalking things up to learning but you've got to learn before you can win in the division because it's so competitive. It's not that you just have to outrun one or two guys anymore; there's 10 or 12 guys that you've got to outrun every race. LARRY PEARSON—"The '84 season especially since it was my first full year of racing. Ithink we ran 16 races and finished in the top ten 11 times, which really made us feel good. To me, the Sportsman division is every bit as competitive as the Grand National division and so to run well is really a 30. Tim Richmond, Pontiac Grand great accomplishment. Martinsville, I would have to say, is the toughest track that I've had to run at. The car really takes a beating. For this race, I try to take it easy during the first part

The daily catch limit is six trout except in the fly fishing only section of White Clay Creek (just above Thompson's Bridge to the Pennsylvania line), the possession limit is four trout. On this stretch of stream only, anglers may hook and release trout as long as they do not possess more than three.

You really have to change the car around a lot to make sure you have some brakes at the end."

JACK INGRAM—"The biggest pleasure Ihad in 1984 was winning that race at Martinsville (the spring Miller Time 500). Ihad been going there for so many years and had finished second several times and led some races but never had won. I Inever win another race there, at least Ican say Iwon there once and Icertainly am pleased about JIMMY SPENCER—Martinsville is the best because it means something. That's where the greats in racing win and it would mean a lot for me to win there. I have a goal to race in the Grand National division and so Late Model Sportsman would be our next step. We plan an all-out assault on the Late Model Sportsman title in 1986 and I want to be the next driver to win both a Sportsman and Grand National event at Martinsville (following Geoff Bo-

GEORGE KENT-"I only go to Martinsville for one thing—to win. I've always enjoyed running there and a win there really means something to all the drivers. Every race there is tough because all the top drivers are going to be there.'

BRETT BODINE—"This will be an interesting year because I'll be going back and forth between the Sportsman and Modified cars pretty much all year long. I'd like to get this season off to a good start at Martinsville and Iknow we should be very competitive in the Modified division and we're going to hope to a good run in the Sportsman race too. Sam Ard have told me that Modifieds are harder to drive than Sportsman, so if you can drive a Modified competitively that should CHARLE LUCK—"Out goal this year is to finish fourth in the point may think those are lofty goals but I really believe we're ready for it. There's no question that Martinsville is my favorite track. We've done really well there in the past and that gives us a big reason for hope heading there for this race. But you've got to use your head and not your heart at Martinsville because it's a thinking man's race. I think a race there is a test of toughness and all you have to do is look at the guys that have won there to realize how really tough it is."

HAMPTON, GA. To some he brings to mind "Huck Finn", but to others he is the next super-star on the NASCAR

He is Bill Elliott of Dawsonville, Ga., and Sunday he won the Coca-Cola 500 at Atlanta International Speedway for his 6th career victory.

He never complained about the handling of the car as the Coors-Ford dashed through the 500 miles as smooth as gossmer-wing. The problem Elliott experienced on Sunday was having to drive the Ford with a broken leg, which was the result of the crash at Rockingham two Sundays before the Atlanta race. Elliott's left leg is

Elliott got the lead 54 laps from the end of the 328 lap event from Cale Yarborough, who ran strong all afternoon but went out with a blown engine. Yarborough said he thought he had the race won. "I felt something give in the motor and then it just let go," said Yarborough.

Elliott is the first native son of Georgia to win a NASCAR event in that state. Jody Ridley was standing by to take over for Elliott in case his leg gave up...but Elliott took it right into the winner's circle.

There were 16 lead changes among 10 drivers with Yarborough or Elliott commanding the lead from the 173rd lap to the end.

Geoff Bodine took second and in so doing moved into the NASCAR points lead. He will be hard to dislodge from that position. Bodine had a skip in the motor otherwise he might have given Elliott and Yarborough a tussle earlier. He played it safe and got the two hole. Neil Bonnett got third with Rudd getting up for 4th.

Bell is a native of England who spends about half of his time in the United States competing in the International Motor Sports Association (IMSA) Camel GT series.

He and teammate Al Holbert will be among the favorites in the Coca-Cola 12 Hours of Sebring March 23.

Bell and Holbert have finished runner-up and won in the first two Pa. races. They had a commanding lead in the season-opening SunBank 24 at Daytona before electrical problems in their Lowenbrau Special Porsche 962 cost them a victory. And then in the Lowenbrau Grand Prix of Miami, Bell slipped his Porsche around Darrin Brassfield's Chevrolet March just two laps from the end to win the most prestigious event on the Camel GT circuit.

Bell and Holbert are tied for the Camel GT point lead with 35 points each. Holbert is a three-time Camel GT champion (1976, 1977, and 1983), but Bell has never won the title.

But this might be the year Bell becomes only the third foreign driver to capture the Camel GT championship - and the $60,000 bonus from R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. John Fitzpatrick (1980) and Brian Redman (1981) are the only international drivers ever to win Camel GT titles.

Ernie Wilsberg, owner of the Richards Electric sponsored #5, out of Mattituck, New York will be looking for his third consecutive win at Icebreaker '85. This 75 lap NASCAR Modified Championship Event will be held on the weekend of March 30th and 31st at the Thompson International Speedway in Thompson, Ct.

Jarzombek, who chauffered the legendary #5 to victory lane in 1984 will be looking for his second win at Icebreaker '85.

Jarzombek took the lead in last years Icebreaker on lap 40 and was never headed from that point on. But, the finish was alot closer than Jarzombek had hoped. Mike McLaughlin and Richie Evans who finished second and third were less than a car length behind when the checkered flew.

It was again Evan's misfortune in 1983 when Greg Sacks making a timely pit stop, taking on new tires, out smarted the Rapid Roman. With a mere nine laps to go Sacks took the lead from Evans and drove on to victory lane.

Qualifying for all 4 divisions will get

DARLINGTON, S.C. - It's one of those "Unbelievable But True" facts. Richard Petty, NASCAR Winston Cup stock car racing's all-time winning driver, has not won a race at Darlington International Raceway since 1967. That's a real head-scratcher, particularly when one considers that Petty has logged 200 career Grand National victories and has won on each of the 15 tracks which compose the Winston Cup

But it has been 18 years since Petty took the checkered flag at Darlington. There must be something to that explanation. Any competitor will tell you that in order to win at Darlington you must use all your skills and hope that the fates will not conspire against you. Over the years, they have seen fit to do poorly by Petty.

There have been many changes in Petty's career over the last decade. His glory days with Petty Enterprises, which were highlighted not only by that stellar 1967 season, but also by seven Winston Cup championships, have passed. He's now a member of Mike Curb's STP team, headquartered in Kannapolis, N.C., not far from the Petty compound in Level Cross. Petty and the Curb/STP team come to Darlington with a new engine program, operated by Dan Gurney's All-American Racing in Santa Ana,

As a competitor who has run the tricky 1.366-mile Darlington track for all of his 25 years in racing, there can be no question Petty knows all the do's and dont's. He has, over the years, done things wrong and done them right.

"But it has never been a case where I didn't know what to do and when to do it," he said. "It's been a case where a lot of times I haven't had the opportunity." "Still, I have always managed to get around that tough ol' track pretty good. There aren't many drivers who can say that. I think you'll notice that, over the years, three or four drivers have emerged as those who do so much better than the majority of the "Pearson is one. Cale (Yarborough) is another. Bobby (Allison) is another. And one matter what my record says, I think I do pretty good.

"All I need to get people to quit asking me when I'm gonna win at Darlington again is the opportunity — just a chance — to do just that.'

The TranSouth 500 is scheduled to get the green flag at 1 p.m. on April 14th. GAINESVILLE, Fla. — One race.

and his Hawaiian Punch racing crew to go from a respected Funny Car drag of more than $51,000.

racing team to one that is regarded as truly competitive.

The moment Johnson, a 32-year-old native of Ft. Worth, Texas, lined up against Kenny Bernstein in the second round of the 1985 National Hot Rod Association's (NHRA) Winternationals at Pomona, Calif., he knew he would have to push his 1985 Dodge Daytona as fast as it could go.

Not only had Johnson topped Bernstein, he had run the quickest and fastest Funny Car quarter mile in NHRA history. His elapsed time was a sizzling 5.580 seconds, good for a speed of 263.62 miles per hour. The blue-andred Hawaiian Punch Dodge had done everything Johnson and crew chief Roland Leon could have possibly hoped

What has turned Johnson, Leong and the Hawaiian Punch crew into such immediate contenders?

"Basically, we put in a lot of time in the wind tunnel over the winter," said Johnson. "We found the car's body was caving in and distorting during races. So we eliminated the drag from the body in the wind tunnel and added some horsepower to the engine."

When Johnson first hooked up with Leong at Indianapolis (NHRA U.S. Nationals) in 1984, he told the talented Hawaiian that the car had quite a bit of power, but the energy was not being used as well as it should. Thanks to a winter's worth of work, all has changed for the better.

DARLINGTON, S.C. — His nick-name is "Hillbilly" and he speaks with a down-home North Carolina accent, but that's the only thing slow about drag racer Roy Hill.

Hill, who hails from Sophia, N.C., (just a stone's throw from his close friend Richard Petty of stock car racing fame) is preparing for the 1985 International Hot Rod Association (IHRA) Winston World Challenge Series with great expectations.

Hill's 1985 Topaz will sport a 650-plus-cubic-inch motor and will be nearly seven inches narrower than the car he raced last year. These changes, along with the addition of a dyno machine (which Hill feels is a must to stay competitive with top drivers) may keep Hill and his Budget Rent-A-Car crew in the fast lane throughout the IHRA

Hill has three IHRA career Pro Stock victories to his credit. His last national event win was posted at the 1978 Winter Nationals. He also has victories at the 1978 Pro-Am Nationals and the 1977 Dixie Nationals to his credit.

The 1985 IHRA-Winston Challenge Series will begin at Darlington, S.C., March 22-24 with the Zoom winter Nationals.

Coach's Prayer for a Swimmer

Editors Note: This was a prayer rendered at the Banquet on Sunday honoring the members of the New Wave Swim Team.

Build me a swimmer, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when she is weak and brave enough to face herself when she is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, but humble and gentle in victory. Build me a swimmer whose wishes will not replace her actions. A swimmer who will know thee, and that to know herself is the foundation stone of knowledge. Send her, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort but the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge; here let her learn to stand up in the storm, here let her learn compassion for those who fall.

Build me a swimmer whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high; a swimmer who will master herself before she seeks to master others; one who will learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past, and after all these things are hers this I pray: enough sense of humor that she may always be serious yet never take herself too seriously. Give her humility so that she may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength; then I, her coach, will dare to whisper. "I have not lived in vain.

Penn National sets April 28 as '85 season opener

Grantville, PA.—Another season of highly competitive small block modified and street stock racing will debut at the half-mile Penn National Speedway clay oval Sunday evening, April 28, when the fourth consecutive season of action is unveiled by Promoters John Wertz and Kenny McMullan.

Opening Day at the popular facility will feature a 25-lap small block main event and a 15-lap street stock feature race along with qualifying heat races

The top names in small block racing compete at Penn National every Sunday. Billy Schinkel, Dave Schoffstall, Randy Fortna, Davey Wenger, Freddy Rahmer, Mike Follweiler, Ray Swinehart, Matt Reimert, Charlie Eckert, Bobby Gerhart Jr. and many more are expected to be in the weekly cast as the clan gathers each Sunday evening throughout the summer.

Many special shows will be on the 1985 menu. Included will be visits from the United Racing Club winged sprinters on May 12 and August 4; the Memorial Day Spectacular (4-20 lap small block features) on May 26; the Third Annual Lebanon Valley 100 lap small block modified championship on September 1; MODCAR on September 8 and Run-What-Ya-Brung will serve as a season-closing event on September 15. The street stocks will run a special

Pocono Qualifier on August 18. As in the past, gates will open each week at 5:00 p.m., warm ups will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the green flag will wave for the first event at 7:15 p.m. For more information, contact the speedway business office at (215) 693-5600 any weekday during normal

W.T. Chipman competes in Stock Market game

Hey, Mrs. Sharp, when do you think the Dow will break 1300?" "Do you think the possible airline strike will affect my stock?"

'What did IBM close at yesterday?" These are only a few questions thirty eighth-grade students at W.T. Chipman are asking as they compete in a stock market game. Using ideas presented in eighth grade social studies class, students give up lunch time and study halls to participate.

Sponsored by Butcher & Singer Inc. and Widener University, students are given $100,000 of "computer money". They use money to buy stocks traded on the New York Stock Exchange. The computer uses daily quotations and allows students to buy or sell at any time. In order to simulate the real world, brokerage fees are charged.

Throughout a ten week period, students buy and sell stocks, hopefully increasing their wealth, as they compete against classmates and nearly 3000 teams from Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The first place team in the region will win a trip to New York City. The first place team at Chipman will be recognized at a

In order to prepare for the game, Mr. Eugene Pratt, a stock broker with Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. spoke to students, giving tips on buying stocks and teaching them how to read the stock market page in the newspaper.

Although the chances of winning a trip to New York are slim they have much enthusiasm for learning a skill they can use when they become adults. Ron Bouchard goes for 3 at Darlington DARLINGTON, S.C. — Don't look now, but Ron Bouchard is going for three in a row at Darlington International Raceway.

What's that, you say? Bouchard has never won a NASCAR Winston Cup race at the 1.366-mile track - although he and his Jack Beebe-owned Valvoline team must be considered a good shot in the April 14 TranSouth 500.

True, Bouchard has yet to crack victory lane in a Winston Cup event. But, when it comes to Late Model Sportsman competition at the track. he's been a whiz.

Bouchard, from Fitchburg, Mass., swept the two Sportsman races at Darlington last year, the spring Dixie Cup 200 and the Darlington 200 prior to the Southern 500. In both, he drove Pontiacs owned by Beebe and John Dufour under the banner of Dubee

At Daytona, Bouchard and fellow competitor Bobby Allison were the only drivers to experiment with the V-6 engine, although Allison removed his before the start of the 300-mile

'We kept ours in and we were right there with the leaders until a connecting rod broke," said Bouchard. 'We didn't lose the engine/or anything

Obviously, Bouchard will draw a lot of attention when the green flag falls on the Dixie Cup 200. Not only will he be racing with the V-6 engine - which some say is the future powerplant for the Winston Cup cars — he'll have a chance at being the first man to win three consecutive Sportsman events at Darlington.

"We'll be ready for it." he said. No one should expect anything less.
