

School Board gives Senior Class green light

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

At the board meeting on Thursday night the policy for senior trips was relaxed somewhat. The board indicated its willingness to work with the senior class representatives and the class sponsor to determine a working policy all can follow to the mutual satisfaction of both the class and the administration.

A policy was supposed to have been drafted for approval by the start of the school year at the beginning of the month.

A policy was not drafted. In order for the seniors to be assured of making reservations for the trips they desire, their reservations must be in by the first part of October. The procedure for drafting the policy for the classes to follow...since it is not completed at this point in the year would mean a long and drawn out affair requiring drafts, proofs and final rulings which would carry up to the end of the year or sometime by early spring.

Amy Reed, the class sponsor said they would have to know something by the first part of October or the seniors would have to forego their plans for a trip. Board member Earl Roberts said that Mrs. Reed should get a policy together and present it to the Board at the next workshop ".....and we will work with you to finalize it then. This I can assure you." The Administration is introducing two new concepts into the District which will have to deal with "competencies and writing standards". The board heard it explained that the competencies would be dropped to the 8th grade requirement instead of the 10th grade as has been the case in the past. The writing standard would deal mainly with comprehensive writing where students would have to submit material with complete sentences and well developed paragraphs. Dr. Lysik said, ".....the success of the program will hinge on cooperation and completeness". Board member Earl Roberts called for completeness as a major ingredient. The break in the underground cable was found by special equipment and spliced together last week. The Delaware Cooperative which supplies electric to the school found the break and repaired it. The Administration is studying the South Carolina plan for promoting the upcoming referendum which the Board approved and passed a resolution to hold the referendum on November 16. (See related article on referendum). Dr. Lysik also called for a new secretarial position to be created at the District offices. "We need a secretary who can act as a receptionist, a router of the mail and generally answer the phones. I think without this it leaves us with a lack of professionalism. We need this position created to insure better handling of this kind of traffic in that area of the main office," said Dr. Lysik.

School Board sets referendum date

The Lake Forest Board of Education has approved by a vote of 5-0, Saturday, November 16, 1985, as the date for a two-part tax referendum. The taxpayers of the District will be asked to vote on two separate issues.

One part calls for the Proposed Renovation and Expansion Program (PREP). Residents will be voting on a bond issue totaling $1.7 million. This represents the local share of a total Major Capital Improvement Program of $4.1 million. The State will be contributing the difference of $2.4 million. The renovation and expansion program will be involved with every school in the District.

At East Elementary in Frederica, the renovations will include upgrading the heating, roofint, electrical and control systems. New classroom space..... which has been grossly needed..... will be added to replace the existing portable units. The total cost here is $819,568. South "A" and W.T. Chipman Schools in Harrington again include major repairs from roofing, electrical heating and control systems. Handicapped equipment will also be installed. Additional classroom space is also in that plan. The cost at this site is $1,556,888.

At South "B" Elementary in Harrington will be remodeled to provide space for the new District offices, Instructional Resource Center, a Kent-Sussex Pre-School Diagnostic Center, and central receiving and storage areas. The cost for this project will be $304,015.

For North Elementary at Felton the renovations will be major as planned to the roof, electrical and heating systems. Handicapped equipment will be added and additional classroom space provided. The cost here will be $1,022,407.

At the High School, plans are to remove all heating and cooling units from the roof of the building and new system installed for the facility. Repairs to the roof will also be made. The total cost for this site will be $406,428.

The money necessary to fund this program is to be provided by a $5.00 debt service capitation tax.

The other part of the referendum relates to the Division III Equalization funding. The tax rate must be increased in order for the District to receive full equalization funding from the State. The increase to the tax rate will be 14 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. For every $1.00 the District provides and contributes from the tax increase will generate approximately $2.20 in State monies. The additional taxes will go to provide more books, equipment, audiovisual media, and other instructional supplies. It will also provide additional funds for staff salaries.

Karate demonstration a big hit at Heritage Day

by Carol Ann Porter

He's eleven years old, 4' 10", weighs 70 lbs. (give or take 5 lbs.) and with his size 2 foot (minus the shoe) he broke two 1" thick pine boards and two 2" thick bricks.

Shane Skinner, of Milford, gave an outstanding Karate demonstration Saturday at the Heritage Day celebration during the entertainment segment of the program. He is a 1st degree black belt and a member of Kim's Karate Club in Milford. The Milford Club's Karate "style" is Moo Duk Kwan Tang Soo Do.

Assisting Shane in his demonstration were Mrs. Lee King, a 3rd degree black belt and the instructor at Kim's Karate Club, "Buddy" Hughes of Milford, a member of the club and a 1st degree black belt, and Shane's father, Danny, a 2nd degree green belt.

Shane, who has been taking Karate for three years, did not appear nervous during his demonstration. This is probably due to the fact that he is an "old hand" at performing in front of large crowds. He went through several "forms" which are required to advance to a higher rank or degree within the club.

Shane also performed a "weapons kata" with a bo staff. This part of the demonstration is not taught at Kim's Karate, but Shane wanted to learn this and went to a black belt outside of the club who taught him well (as he proved in his demonstration). Competition plays a big part in Shane's life, and his house is full of trophies that he has won from all over the United States. Shane's father, Danny, sometimes competes, when his busy schedule allows it. Shane has often had to make room among his many trophies for his dad's trophies.

"Karate takes a lot of concentration and exercise," says 11-year-old Shane. He "works out" about two hours a day, mostly stretching exercises and sit-ups. "My dad sometimes calls me from work and tells me to give him ten (meaning 10 push-ups) and I give him ten," says Shane. He said if he gets lazy and doesn't give his dad ten, his brother and sister (7-year-old twins) tell on him.

Kim's Karate Club has some local members including Kevin Outten, Jay Porter and Jon Kane, all from Harrington.

Shane's mother, Kay, is a nurse at Milford Manor Nursing Home, and his dad, Danny, works at the DuPont Plant in Seaford. Shane's paternal grandparents are Maurice and "Bunny" Skinner from Harrington. His maternal grandmother is Mrs. Lida Welty from Milford.

The Harrington Heritage Day entertainment committee, under the direction of Susie Stubbs, wish to thank Shane Skinner for his outstanding performance. Thanks go also to Danny Skinner, Buddy Hughes and Lee King for their time and help in presenting this part of the program.

Harrington resident named semifinalist in Purina Dog Chow Search for the Great American Dog

Lia, a dog from Harrington, Delaware and his best friend and owner, Claire Stevens of RD 3, Box 146D, are semifinalists in the 1985 Purina Dog Chow "Search for the Great American Dog," (tm) a nationwide contest to identify the country's most appealing canine.

Lia is one of 500 dogs nationwide (10 from each state in the U.S.) to be named semifinalists in this year's "Search." Each semifinalist receives a free bag (any size) of Dog Chow, a certificate and an engraved bronze medallion.

Now in its third year, the Purina Dog Chow "Search for the Great American Dog" has attracted entries from dog owners across the nation who want to see their dogs recognized for their friendship and devotion. The theme of this year's contest is "My Best Friend," and Americans from coast to coast have told Purina why their dogs fit that description.

To enter, dog owners submitted a recent photograph of themselves and their dog — or a family member with their dog — and an essay of 50 words or less.

Entries were judged by an independent judging organization on the basis of photogenic quality, composition, charm and relevance to the promotion.

Lia's owner, Claire, told Purina that "Lia has been my best friend for all of her life and most of mine." She helped me learn to walk and talk. My first word was "dog." I helped her learn to play catch, swim and play hide-and-seek. Helping each other is what best friends do best."

From the 500 semifinalists, five regional finalists will be selected in October. Each finalist will receive $5,000 cash; a four-day trip to New York City; a one year's supply of Dog Chow, and a specially engraved sterling silver medallion.

The Grand Prize winner will be determined in November by a vote of the general public.

Photographs of the five finalist dogs, with their owners, will appear in a special newspaper insert as part of Sunday supplements across America, along with instructions about how to vote through specially assigned "900" telephone numbers. The phone numbers and photos of finalists will also be televised on Cable News Network.

If Lia is the Grand Prize winner, the lucky pet and owner receive $25,000; their photo on eight million bags of Dog Chow; a trip to New York City; and a one-year supply of Purina Dog Chow brand dog food.

In addition, the winners will ride on the Purina Dog Chow Great American Dog float in the 1985 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, along with the 1985 "Search" Chairperson Betty Thomas, star of NBC's "Hill Street Blues."

Council hears proposal for new Library at Workshop

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

HARRINGTON - At the workshop meeting on Monday night, the Harrington Council heard the results of a feasibility study conducted to determine the size and cost of a new library. The new library according to the study would be large enough to house about 3700 volumes, which seems to be the minimum size that would be suitable.

The building was designed so that two floors could be added at later dates. The cost is estimated to be $60 a square foot. The building would have to be built under federal regulations in order to obtain certain grants needed to construct the building. With matching funds available from federal grants, the cost to the City of Harrington would be one half of the total cost. The City's share would be approximately $130,000.

The Mayor has established a building committee to study certain sites for a

Accidental shooting under investigation

Steven J. Yaeger, 12, of Milton, remains in serious but stable condition at Christiana Hospital with a gunshot wound to his left hand and head. The youth had been dove hunting with a thirteen-year-old companion, approximately one mile south of Harbeson when the 7:00 p.m. mishap occurred. His companion's shotgun apparently discharged accidentally. Yaeger was taken to Beebe Hospital then transported to the Christiana Hospital by a Delaware State Police helicopter. The incident is being investigated as an apparent accidental shooting. No foul play is suspected.

Harrington Jaycees stage program for youth

The Harrington Jaycees will hold a program on Tuesday, October 1st at the W.T. Chipman School at 6:30 p.m. in Room 205. The program is called "Stranger Awareness Program." According to Sue Ellen Dennis, a member of the Harrington Jaycees, "...the program is designed to make young kids aware of how to prevent advances by strangers. Just to make them aware." There will be free coloring books made available, as well as a Delaware State Trooper who will lecture to the parents and children. Mrs. Dennis said parents should come with their children and pick up on the points of the lecture. There will also be a slide program presented.

Milford Memorial Hospital to dedicate new addition

The public is invited to attend the formal dedication ceremony for Milford Memorial Hospital's new addition to be held Saturday, September 28th at 10:00 a.m. The program will be conducted, rain or shine, at the entrance to the hospital's new main lobby located off of Clarke Avenue in Milford. Parking for the public that day will be available at the East end of the hospital's main parking lot which is accessible from Kings Highway. Governor Michael N. Castle will be on hand to provide keynote remarks and assist hospital officials in cutting the ribbon which will officially dedicate the new 4.1 million dollar addition. Following the ribbons cutting ceremony, light refreshments will be available and the hospital will provide guided tours of the new Radiology Department, Emergency Room and Central Admissions Department. Prior to the ceremony's start, music will be provided by the Milford High School band. The tours of the new addition will be conducted between 10:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Four firemen from Carlisle Fire Co. in Milford were honored with the Hero Award at the recent firemen's convention. They are, left to right, Richard Gilewski, Steve Ellingsworth and Glen Gillespie. Absent from the picture was Les Armour. Gilewski and Ellingsworth were cited for saving the life of a fellow fireman last February in a fire-gutted house on North Street in Milford. Gillespie and Armour were cited for finding a body of a victim under rubble, at the same fire, who was still alive. The recovery saved the fire victim's life. A malfunctioning kerosene heater caused the fire. Carlisle Firemen were honored one other time with the Hero Award given each year to outstanding firemen for saving a life, and that honor went to William Lee Vincent in 1973. He is the son of the late Billy Vincent who lived on Delaware Avenue in Harrington. His mother, Virginia Vincent Twilley resides in Houston. Carlisle Fire Hall will hold an open house on October 5th and 6th. Photo by HGF new Town Hall. It has been the feeling right along that the new City Hall,.... wherever situated, would also house the library and the police department. Thus far no suitable site has been determined.

There is as of this date no suitable location for a new library. The present site is just large enough to house the trailer which is used as a library.
In most places throughout the State the library has been a separate structure.

Other matters heard at the workshop was the matter of training the crossing guards at the W.T. Chipman and South "A" Elementary Schools and in particular the intersection of Center and Dorman streets. The matter of having the Chief of Police instruct the crossing guards is a formality because the crossing guards according to the school administrators have never received any formal training.

Family of 5 injured in accident

A Virginia man was charged with 2nd-degree vehicular assault by Delaware State Police following a two-car accident Saturday night. Five members of a Lincoln, Delaware family were injured in that accident.

Sneller's vehicle, a Dodge Aries, continued moving after being hit and struck a house owned by Harold Bradley before coming to a stop. According to police, no one was injured in the house.
All the occupants of the Sneller vehicle were wearing seatbelts, and alcohol was not a factor in the accident.

Letter to the Editor

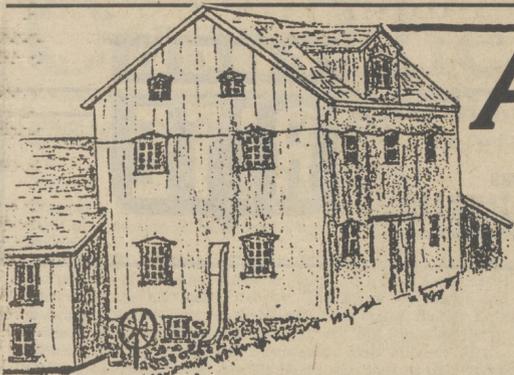

Dear Sir,
During the last few months, a number of Home Satellite companies have been advertising that their equipment allows owners to receive "over 100 channels of programming" for one low purchase price. While this may be the case, this statement is a half truth and misleading. What the advertisements omit is any mention of the emerging costs inherent in owning a home satellite system.
The major movie services have announced that they will scramble their satellite signals this year. The largest service, HBO, is presently scrambling its signals 12 hours a day and soon will scramble fulltime. The other movie services have announced plans to follow HBO's lead. In order for a home dish owner to watch one of these movie services, he or she must purchase a descrambler and pay a monthly fee similar to that paid by cable subscribers. No mention of this issue, or probable new costs is made by most dealers of satellite systems.
The other satellite programming services are also contemplating this same scrambling procedure. In the meantime, a few services, most notably CNN and ESPN, have already announced charges to the home dish owner. Home dish owners must pay these programming fees or they are in violation of the Cable Communications Act of 1984, and are subject to fines of up to $10,000. No mention of these facts are made by Home Satellite Companies.

It is important that satellite signals be made available to the dish owner. This new technology has allowed those who are unable to receive broadcast signals or cable television to have access to a wide variety of programming. It is obviously unfair, however, for dish owners to receive programming free for which others must pay. This unauthorized reception of signal is the reason the Federal Government enacted the set of laws.
It is our belief that Home Satellite Dealers should spell out to potential customers the scrambling that is currently going on, the scrambling plans that have been announced, and the truth about service fees that have been instituted by the satellite services. In addition, the potential purchaser should be made aware of the new Federal regulations governing usage of the home dish. In this way, the purchaser can make an honest, informed decision regarding the product.
Sincerely,
Chuck Stigberg

Autumn at Abbotts Fest

Sunday, September 29, 1985

by Anne Paladino

Ride in an antique carriage, listen to a medley of music, paddle a canoe and watch local craftsmen create fine quality items during Autumn at Abbotts Fest on Sunday, September 29. Centering around the Abbotts Mill Nature Center on Rt. 620 near Milford, Delaware, there will be tours of the historic grist mill, nature walks, face painting and food booths. Craftsmen will be peddling such things as hand-crafted baskets, dolls, ceramics, brooms, bird artwork, and wood carvings.

Beginning at 11 a.m., admission is free. There will be small fees for some of the attractions. The event is sponsored by the Delaware Nature Education Society.

Parking is limited so a free shuttle will be provided from the Milford Middle School on Lakeview Avenue.

Robert McKim, manager and his family, live at the Mill in the old Miller's house. McKim conducts tours and is generally responsible for all aspects of the historic Mill.

One of the most interesting facts about Abbotts Mill is that it is still intact, the same as it was the day Ainsworth Abbott, the last miller, left it. The existing structure was built in the 1880's and continued operation until 1960. It was acquired by the state in 1963.

Delaware Nature Education Society, (DNES), leases the mill from the State of Delaware Historical and Cultural Affairs for $1.00 per year. It is the third or fourth most visited historical site in the State, boasting 10 to 12 thousand visitors per year.

Senator Roth was recently host at a cocktail party where $9,000 was raised at $100.00 per couple, which was used to purchase an additional 5.75 acres which was slated to be cut. The land contains some tulip poplars measuring 11-12 feet around as well as other fine specimens which would have been lost forever. Acquisition insures the protection of this land for all to enjoy. With this acquired acreage the complex now measures approximately 14 acres as well as an 8 acre pond.

Gab Fest

by Pat Hatfield

The name of August has been "Pie" at Trail's End.....apple, raisin and sweet potato. I have even reached the point where I like making them.

Pies were hard for me to learn. It took a good many of these 81 years of mine to learn to do it right. My mother was a dear, good soul, and a wonderful cook, but I was an only child, and since I did not beg to learn as some children do, she did not teach me. My nose was always in a book. So, when I married, I was not a cook. Oh, I could scramble eggs and fry potatoes, fix a steak and make a salad, but breads, cakes and cookies and pies were a sealed mystery.

As a young bride I decided one day to make a pie. After all, I said to myself as I studied the recipe. I can read, I am intelligent and that's all there is to it. I quickly learned that there is more to it than that. So I measured and then tried to mix. It seemed a bit too dry. I added water. It seemed a bit too wet. Desperately I kept on adding flour and water until even I knew it was completely unmanageable. So I ran out of the house with it and threw it behind the barn and went back in the house and cried. And I never told anybody at that time.

But I am a stubborn old Capricorn goat and I keep butting my head against the problem, and at long last I learned by trial and error.

At one time I made the Boiling Water Pie Crust and this is very good, but you have to let it chill in the refrigerator before using, and that was a nuisance.

When my mother was making pies, I remember hearing her say, "If your crust handles well, you might just as well throw it out and start over because you have missed the best."

Excellent pie crust does not handle well. It is hard to roll out and it breaks up and crumbles, and it is a mess.

Finally I chose a good recipe, bought a pastry blender (that helps) and I use ice water for mixing. Most of my friends stir it around with a fork to gather it into a ball of dough, but this does not work for me. I put in a few drops of water at a time and gather with my fingertips into a little blob that will hold together, and so on and then merge the blobs into a ball. Now I am in command of the situation and I like to make pies. But for years, the pie crust had the upper hand!

There is one item kitchen-wise that I cannot seem to master. And how I hate to admit defeat. That is the boiled icing where you cook the sugar and water until it spins a thread and then drizzle it over the beaten egg whites. I have tried and listened and watched others and wasted more sugar and stuff than you would believe, and how I hate to think I cannot do it. But Betty Crocker tells me not to worry. Her canned stuff is really good. I can make butter icing, cream cheese icing, seven-minute icing and all the others except that one kind.

Now I must tell you about something more important than pie crust in my life. A very lovely thing happened to me this week. One day in my mailbox I found a beautiful card. Inside was a note telling me that my column in The Leader was "just super" and a lot of other beautiful words about me and my column. I mention it because this is the only way I can possibly thank the writer, who signs it only....."An Admirer". God bless you, whoever you are and thank you. I will try hard to deserve your kind words of love and admiration.

LF gridders roll over Sussex Central

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

Lionel Dixon is a coach's delight. At least this was the case on Friday night as he led Coach Jim Fleming's Spartans to a 12-3 win over Sussex Central. The "Knights" of Sussex Central have always been a big and rugged football team. This was the case.....at least for previous teams coached by Fleming.

He has posted just two wins over Sussex Central in the past eleven years of coaching at Lake Forest. But in the last two seasons Fleming has fielded better and better teams. "The weight lifting program is working, and I think it showed through tonight as we fielded a very strong football team", added Fleming.

From the early going in the game when linebacker Scott Fleming, son of the head coach "...nearly took the head off their fullback.....the game seemed to go our way after that," added one of the coaches.

When Sussex was shown that they could not run on the Spartans, the Knights took to the airways with Senior quarterback Scott for SC putting missiles in the air. "Had his team given him a little more protection, he might have connected on some of those aerials. He did display a strong arm," said Fleming.

The line play by the Spartans was aggressive led by Senior tackle Eric Warren a 285 pounder 6'4" guy who is as big as some professional linemen literally shoved the offensive line of SC all over the field. "They soon took the ball away from me, because I was up for this game. I just wanted to hit somebody and get the ball carrier," said Warren, who had 4 sacks.

The Spartans fumbled on the opening plays of the game when Wendell "Tyler" Jackson coughed up the football. The Knights were not able to move the ball that far and settled for a field goal. They led 3-0. It was a 29 yard field goal.

But the Spartans bounced right back scoring in 11 plays which covered 77 yards. Lionel Dixon carried the ball the final one yard or less for the score. This was in the first quarter.

The score remained 6-3 through the half and the third quarter. In the fourth quarter the Knights showed a little spark that was left....or might have been left. But a blocked punt by Donnie Bell and a fumble by Sussex Central when they were inside the Spartan 10 yard line were crucial plays which spelled the difference.

On the goal line stand so to speak it was Donnie Bell who raced in from the right side of the line and hit Sussex Central's quarterback Scott from the blind side sending the ball in a spiral toward the sidelines and toward the Knight's goal.

From there the Spartans took over and marched the length of the football field with Dixon going in over tackle from about 5 yards out. Dixon and Watson carried the ball the 80 yards for the score.

"I got a lot of key blocks all night", said Lionel Dixon who is one of the school's leading rushers. "Eric (Warren) was there when I needed him and he made some tremendous holes in the line. I just ran where I saw the holes", added Dixon.

Usually when Dixon hit the line he was trucking enabling him to break into the secondary with a fury, eating up the yardage.

The Spartans had 88 yards total offense in the first half with 14 of those yards coming on forward passes by Rickie Brown who was 2 for 3. The Spartans did not throw the ball in the second half. Sussex Central had 25 yards total offense in the first half. The Spartans had 88 yards rushing in the second half while the Knights had 86 yards total. The Knights were held to minus yardage (13) and 49 yards passing for a net of 36 yards.

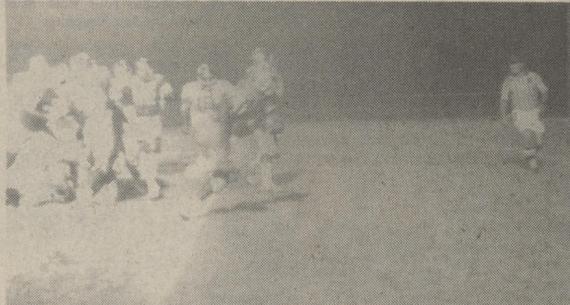

Lionel Dixon had 109 yards in 21 carries for just over 5 yards per carry. "Except for those couple of lookins (passes), I thought that our defense did a great job covering people", said Fleming. "Our people hit everyone tonight.....and we just played a four quarter game," added Fleming.

Sussex Central first year coach Charlie Hudson, who was still showing the effects of an auto injury last winter when he was hit head-on by an oncoming vehicle, said his boys "were just not ready. They (Lake Forest) are big and strong." "I think we just physically dominated them (Sussex) tonight," said Fleming.

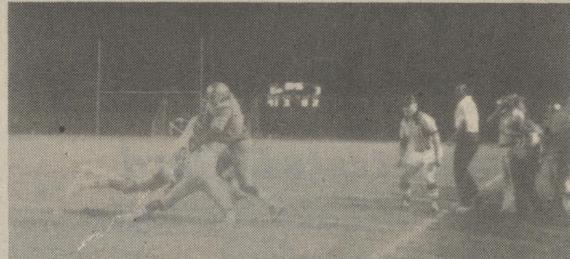

Fleming praised both Eric Warren and Lionel Dixon as good candidates for all-state team. Warren said, "...they finally got around to double teaming me in the second half....but that just made me more determined to get the ball carrier." Dixon on the other hand praised his teammates for making the holes to enable him to pick up the 109 yards in rushing.

Minner and Taylor score against Smyrna

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

The Spartan Varsity Hockey Team may have had a home field advantage on Wednesday, but the way they played aggressive hockey, they would have handled most teams.

The Spartans beat the Smyrna Eagles 2-1.

Teresa Taylor rolled in a goal in the first half, but the Eagles came back and tied the score. Tremendous stick control by the Spartans led by JoAnn Outten and Lori Wilson allowed Taylor and Chris Minner to be dangerous scoring threats.

Minner scored late in the second half when Outten dumped a corner penalty shot into the goal area. The ball squirted through, and Minner who knifed through caught up with the ball gently tapping it in for the score.

The Spartans also got a good aggressive play from Paige Parker.

Minner in the game had four shots on goal.

Coach Pat Dyal was pleased with the win for she got her team to the point where they played real aggressive hockey in each half.

The JV's lost to Smyrna, but again players like Ann Skaggs, Edith Senter, Lisa Wilson, Ginny Crouch and Julie Betts spelled good things in the future.

In The Pocket

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

At Garden State on Friday in the 2-year-old pace, "The Garden State Pace" for $188,035, the division winners were Tijuana Blue Chip for Walter Case Jr. in 1:54.2. Laughs won the second division for Mike Lachance in 1:55.1.

At Sportsman's Park Friday in the Breeders Crown for 3-year-olds and up trot worth $354,554 it was Sandy Bowl getting the win for John Campbell in 1:56.3 in a tremendous stretch run.... if you watched it on ESPN. This was the fastest mile ever trotted on a 5/8ths mile track in North America. Babe Kosmos was second and Crowned Point third. Sandy Bowl now second richest North American trotter ever behind Savoit.

At Yonkers Raceway on Saturday night in the $35,000 Open Handicap pace it was Division Street winning in 1:55.2 a track record for 4-year-old pacing geldings. Big Shift won the $22,000 A-3 in 1:57.2.

At Edmonton Northlands Park on Saturday in the $105,210 Western Canada Pacing Derby, Class Kinbar it for Alvin Bowman in 1:58.1.

The Breeders Crown race at Free-state will be carried on ESPN this Friday at 10:30 p.m. The purse is $390,000.

The time trials at Lexington were called off due to inclement weather on Monday. Falcon Seelster who went in 1:51 in the preliminary to the Little Brown Jug last Thursday at Delaware Ohio, was supposed to go on Monday. This was the fastest mile ever on a half mile track. The previous record was held by Legal Notice in last year's Little Brown Jug in 1:53.3 and tied later in the year by It's Fritz at Louisville. Nihilator is slated to time trial on Thursday.

In the Little Brown Jug last Thursday, Nihilator was the winner of the $350,730 Jug in 1:53.1 and 1:52.1. They were the fastest on any sized track. The heavily favored Marauder was 2nd in the 2nd division won by Pershing Square and 4th in the final.

Harrington Raceway action

by Joe Asher

Sunday's rain turned Harrington Raceway into a sloppy racing surface but did little to diminish the fine quality of action. Havsom Respect trudged through the slop in 2:06 to win the Open Handicap Pace for driver Joe Dugan Jr. For the second straight time, the 6-year-old Keystone Ore gelding led every step of the way to post an easy victory over Nansetron.

The week's top trot was taken by Bella's Sam, who splashed his way to a 2:09.4 triumph for driver Jack Baumann.

Again on Sunday, no one hit the Twin-Trifecta and the carryovers jackpot rose to a record $6,880. To win the Twin-trifecta, a bettor must pick the first three finishers in the seventh race and then exchange that ticket for a payoff and give his top three selections for the eighth race and a chance at the entire jackpot.

John Gilmour, who was the dominate driver at Brandywine after he arrived in late June, began driving at Harrington last night. Gilmour, who was driving champion for many years at Monticello Raceway in New York, is expected to stay at Harrington until Rosecroft opens next month.

Tonight, free ice cream sandwiches will be given to all patrons, courtesy of Hi-Grade Dairy in Harrington.

Bassett leads LF booters over Smyrna

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

Soccer coach Dave Buck said following his earlier losses that in order for his team to win this season, it would be necessary for them to play all four quarters.

That they did on Thursday as they out shot, out scored and out hustled a very badly beaten Smyrna squad.

"In truth we should have had about ten more goals because we had 89 shots on goal today," said Coach Buck.

Bobby Bassett, a tall, lean junior right winger was constantly charging the Smyrna goalie all afternoon. Bassett scored two goals on assists from Jeff Dixon and Jay Green.

The Spartans kept the pressure on and kept control of the ball. Goalie Andrew Guy had 16 saves and held the Smyrna Eagles scoreless.

Coach Buck said, "the team executed well with good ball control.....as well as keeping the ball right down on them for most of the game. We kept their goalie busy."

Jerry Howerin blocked a penalty shot. The Spartans set up the "wall defense." Jerry did a good job there," added Buck.

Buck said he felt the team played better in the first half as he addressed his post game remarks to his players. Jeff Dixon said "that might have been true, but we were really psyched up the second half. We were afraid they might make a comeback."

Raceweek

Reed, Harrington, VanVorst and Coverdale score wins in Delaware Dirt series

by Darlene Dill

Milford Kart Club held the fifth race of the Delaware Dirt Series this Saturday at the Piney Neck Speedway. Boys and Girls Box Stock class had only two entries which were both newcomers. Kart #7 finished first and Kart #11 took second. At the time of this writing, these driver's names were unavailable.

Next on the grid was the Junior Box Stock Class. Greg Reed and Cindy Hurly put on a good show up front. Reed was out front and held his first throughout the race, but Hurly, being the strong contender that she usually is, kept the pressure on the full 20 laps. Reed, Hurly, and the rest of the drivers in this class did some outstanding driving, making this race just as exciting for the spectators as it did for the karters themselves! The finishing order was as follows: Greg Reed, 1st; Cindy Hurly, 2nd; Alan Garey, 3rd; and Craig Anderson, 4th.

The largest class of the evening was the Box Stock Light, which ran two heats. Winners of the heats were Walt Tawnes and Butch Harrington. In the main event, Butch Harrington took the early lead and went on to take the win with an impressive lead. Dale Elben finished 2nd, Greg Mitchell, 3rd; and Walt Tawnes, 4th.

Box Stock Heavy was next up. Mark VanVorst was surely the man with the power as he captured wins in both the heat and the feature. Eddie Cain finished 2nd, Mel Miller, 3rd and Butch Warrington, 4th.

As the green flag dropped for the Limited Modifieds, Butch Harrington, who started pole went on to claim an easy victory. Second place went to Kart #7 (driver's name unavailable), Marty Fleetwood, 3rd; and Kevin Darling, 4th.

The Yamaha class was the last to take the field. These guys were eager to run and after many attempts on the flagman's part to slow them down, racing finally got underway. Cliff Coverdale was out front with a big lead from start to finish. Donnie Stevens took second and C.R. Phillips, third.

Regular racing will get underway next Saturday at 8:00 p.m.

Winston NASCAR

Racing News

NORTH WILKESBORO, N.C. — Time is running out for Geoff Bodine, Ricky Rudd, Bobby Allison and Tim Richmond in their quest to qualify for the 1986 running of The Winston.

All four drivers qualified for the inaugural running of the race — reserved for winners only — at Charlotte Motor Speedway on May 25. But as the 1986 NASCAR Winston Cup season enters its final stages, none of this foursome has won a race during the year and, thus, still have not earned a spot in the 1986 event.

As a result, the pressure is building as the series moves to North Wilkesboro Speedway and the Holly Farms 400 on September 29.

"We need a win — bad," says Bodine in summing up the feelings of his group. "The Winston is too important a race to miss. There is so much money and prestige involved in The Winston that to be part of it almost guarantees that the year is a success — especially for our sponsors, Levi Garrett and Exxon."

The Winston carries a $500,000 purse with the winner taking home $200,000 — the largest first-place prize in NASCAR history. Every driver who earns an invitation to the all-star race is guaranteed $10,000 just by starting the race.

"For everybody involved — the car owner, the crew, the driver and the sponsor," adds Rudd, "The Winston is a race that you want to make sure you are a part of. You sure don't want to be watching it from the pits."

After the North Wilkesboro race, there will be only four events left on the schedule.

"Everybody wants to win a race early in the year so you don't have to enter this part of the season having to win a race to qualify for The Winston," says Allison. "But still, pressure is all part of the game. And sometimes that's what makes this all so interesting — having to do well when the pressure is at the highest level."

Richmond, who scored his last victory at North Wilkesboro in the spring of 1984, feels the key to winning a race on the Winston Cup circuit "is getting into position to win. That seems to be the hardest part. We have only been in that position twice this year."

"You have to do it on a more consistent basis than that if you are going to win," continues the Pontiac driver. "The competition is too tough to expect a win every time you are in that position. So to increase your odds, you need to be in that position as often as you can."

All four drivers realize that with Bill Elliott's dominance on the super speedways this year, the short track race at North Wilkesboro may be their best shot at winning a race and qualifying for next year's The Winston.

Elliott, winner of the Winston Million, has won 10 of the 16 super speedway races this year.

"Bill is going to be awfully tough at Charlotte (the Miller 500 on Oct. 6) and Atlanta (the Atlanta Journal 500 on Nov. 3)," says Richmond. "So I guess our best shot to win a race is North Wilkesboro, Rockingham (the Nationwide 500 on Oct. 20) and Riverside (the Winston Western 500 on Nov. 17)."

Richmond also believes his best chance to win a pole position during the last part of the season is at the .825-mile track.

The unique two-day qualifying session for the Holly Farms 400 will begin at 3 p.m. on Friday, September 27. The fastest eight qualifiers on Friday will go under the clock again Saturday at 1:30 p.m. with the driver posting the best two-lap average earning the No. 1 starting position.

The 400 will get the green flag at 1 p.m. on Sunday with ESPN televising the Winston Cup live.

Ruttman tests DiGard R&D T-Bird at Charlotte Motor Speedway

HARRISBURG, N.C. - Joe Ruttman was at Charlotte Motor Speedway testing the research and development Ford Thunderbird of Gardner Racing on Thursday, September 19.

"Right out of the box, it's the fastest race car I've ever driven," says Ruttman. "Usually, I hold my breath around the corners here at Charlotte. This car feels so smooth that I'm breathing regular all the way around. It feels as smooth as a passenger car. Already I'm running quicker than the time I turned to qualify for the World 600 back in May. I sure wish that I was set to drive this car in the Miller 500."

Ruttman's best practice lap on the 1.5-mile high-banked oval was 33.23 second — 163,650 mph — he qualified 28th for the May race with a speed of 160,614 mph.

According to crew chief Gary Nelson, Ruttman will not be driving the car in the Oct. 6 Miller 500. Nelson said that no driver has yet been chosen, but that the team was presently talking to Jody Ridley and several others.

Mom Elliott hopes son Bill wins the Miller 500 Pole

Certainly the $25,000 award for winning the pole for the Oct. 6 Miller 500 at Charlotte Motor Speedway will be on most drivers' minds. But at least one person, Mildred Elliott, mother of pre-race favorite Bill, hopes her son is fastest on Winston Pole Day (Oct. 2) for another reason. You see, that $25,000 pole prize includes two garden tractors valued at $10,000 from the Wheel Horse Company — one for the pole winning driver and one for his crew chief. It seems that Bill makes a habit of borrowing his mother's garden tractor, and not returning it as promptly as she would like.

"Bill will borrow my tractor to do his yard and forget to bring it back," sighs Mildred. "It sure would be nice if he and Ernie won those tractors at Charlotte. Then, I could be sure mind would always be here when I need it."

Earnhardt wins 4th Waltrip closes in

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

MARTINSVILLE, VA - Dale Earnhardt, the one tough customer, drove his heart out again on Sunday and put his Chevrolet Monte Carlo on the front end with 6 laps left in the race.

Earnhardt held off the late charge of Darrell Waltrip to swipe the victory from the big guns. It was Earnhardt's 4th victory of the year. Earnhardt won by a car length.

Gant and Waltrip elected to pit when Bobby Hill spun and brought out the race's 12th and final caution. Gant took on new tires as did Waltrip, but Gant who was running real strong and seemed to have the victory in hand... especially with the new tires faded badly behind Waltrip at the end. Gant explained that the last set of tires he got were out of round"...they just weren't right," said Gant and as a result he lost this one.

Waltrip with his 2nd place finish did two things. He became the all-time winner of the most money on the NASCAR circuit (close to $6 million) passing Richard Petty in earnings. Waltrip said he was particularly proud of that feat because it meant that he had caught up with drivers who were still active. But Darrell also closed to within 23 points of points leader Bill Elliott.

Elliott was in a crash when Kyle Petty lost his brakes and hit both Waltrip and Elliott. Elliott finished 17th. The points championship will go down to the wire...and probably decided in New York it is so close.

Second generation Allison entered in the Miller 500

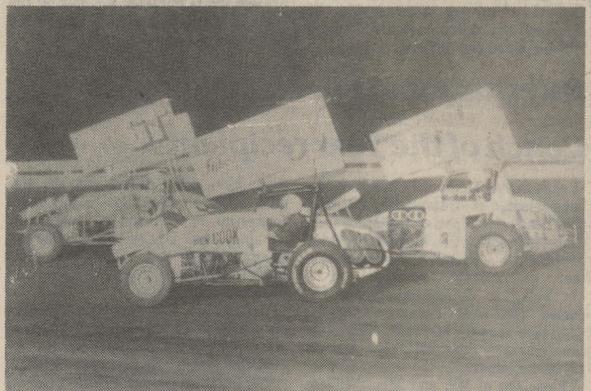

Davey Allison, son of 1983 Winston Cup Champion Bobby Allison, has entered the Oct. 6 Miller 500 at Charlotte Motor Speedway. Allison, who has driven mostly ARCA and late model sportsman cars, will be sporting sponsorship on his Hoss Ellington Chevrolet from the Lancaster Premium Tobacco brand of the Helme Tobacco Co. This is Allison's second foray into the Winston Cup ranks — his first was this past July at Talladega where he finished a credible 10th.

The younger Allison holds the ARCA track record at Talladega with a speed of 200.776 mph and has won four of the last five ARCA races there. His best finish at Charlotte Motor Speedway is seventh in the 1983 Miller 300.

These groups enable persons in similar situations to talk, share experiences, gain knowledge of community resources and vent frustrations. Our next meeting will be this Thursday Evening (26th) at 7:30 p.m. This month we are very proud to present Dr. Wilson from Peoples Place in Milford. He will be addressing guilt feelings, frustrations, and lending his expertise to actual situations that our group members present to him. For additional information, please contact Gene Price at the Center at 398-4224. That is it for this week! Looking forward to seeing you at the Center soon! And remember, if you are having problems in any area, and you are 60 or older, please contact us....we are here to help all of our seniors!

program with a coach like Jim Blades. The New Castle County harrier powers always field big squads. If you could get all the lightweight, greyhound types together in one room at Lake Forest and ask them if they were on the cross-country team, only 15 or so could say yes. We know one lad some years ago who gamely tried to run cross-country for two full seasons despite a severe respiratory ailment. It appears there aren't many kids around today with that kind of courage and dedication.

Otherwise a great program like that at Lake Forest would not have to battle so hard just to get enough athletes to stay competitive.

Gone are the days like those in the mid-sixties when Harrington High

20th Anniversary Celebration

Saturday, September 28, 1985

1:00 P.M. - 5:00 P.M.

by Kay Wood Levenberg

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND
The Great Little Town of Wyoming, in Kent County, Delaware, was founded in 1856 with the coming of the Delaware Railroad. Earlier, the town had grown on part of a tract surveyed for James Wells in 1850, in North Murderkill Hundred.

In 1852, the town of Wyoming, then known as West Camden, consisted of three houses, a grist mill, and a saw mill. The power for these mills was provided by the water of the 42 acre Wyoming Lake (Pond). In 1855, the Delaware Railroad located here, with train service beginning in 1858, and the town grew because of the railroad and the fruit industry.

The story of Wyoming is typical of the towns which grew up along the Delaware Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Few towns, including Camden, wanted a railroad disturbing their peace, so the railroad detoured, and a new town was born.

The village of Wyoming is not an old community, having its inception in the completion of the Delaware Railroad in 1858, and in the opening of an express office.

John T. Jakes an illustrious citizen who was instrumental in the growth of Wyoming was born November 28, 1833 near Pearson's Corner, Kent County. He was of French Huguenot descent, the name originally being Jacques.

On June 1, 1856, the Delaware Railroad and Adams Express Company opened their respective offices for business and appointed John T. Jakes their agent. At the time of Mr. Jakes' taking possession of those offices there were two dwelling-houses which were occupied by the owner of the grist mill located on the opposite side of the stream (Isaac's Branch) in East Dover Hundred and by his miller. In the same year Wm. P. Lyndall built a storehouse and entered in the mercantile business, but in the year following he sold out to John T. Jakes.

Mr. Jakes was one of the pioneers of the new town, and assisted greatly in building it up. He was the leading man in building and having the first Methodist Episcopal Church Society organized there. He was also greatly instrumental in securing the establishment of a post office and became its first postmaster. He was appointed January 6, 1866 and held the office continuously until August 10, 1885, a term of nineteen and a half years. Mr. Jakes was also one of the founders of the First National Bank of Dover, and was chosen a member of the first board of directors in March 1866.

By 1869, the village of Wyoming which had been partially laid out by Dr. Isaac Jump of Dover had already grown into a respectably sized village, located three miles southwest of Dover one mile west of Camden, and bisected by the Delaware railroad. The village was known by the name of "West Camden" and sometimes as "Camden Station" from its inception down to the year 1865, or account of its location.

In 1865, the Reverend John J. Pierce of Wyoming Valley, Pennsylvania came to "West Camden" and laid the town out into building lot. In that year the citizens of "West Camden" decided to change the name of their village to Wyoming out of deference to the Reverend Mr. Pierce. On March 20, 1869, Wyoming was first incorporated as a town, it was reincorporated in 1888.

The center of the town lay at the intersection of Front Street with the railroad near the original location of the freight offices. On the West side of this intersection was Jakes' Store which was for many years the leading mercantile establishment and also the location of the post office.

According to Beer's Atlas printed in 1868, only twelve years after the founding of the town, the following streets had already been laid out: Wyoming Avenue (known as Railroad Avenue today) Layton Avenue, Front Street, Second Street, Third Street, Lake Drive, Water Street, and Mechanic Street.

The main road led from Wyoming into Camden along Front Street to its intersection with the present Caesar Rodney Avenue, then along Caesar Rodney to its intersection with the present Camden-Wyoming Avenue, at which intersection there was a black settlement called Jarrelltown and then along the present road into Camden. That section of Camden-Wyoming Avenue which lies between Caesar Rodney Avenue and the Railroad was in early times, a path leading through orchards and a marsh, called by the more romantically inclined "Lover's Lane". The present back road to Dover ran along the railroad only so far as Hamilton's Store, then known as Garton's crossing. It was extended into Dover between 1896 and 1900.

By 1913, Wyoming was a village with large homes, businesses and farm produce broker centered around the railroad. The Wyoming Directory of 1913 not only listed persons' telephone numbers (if they had one), but also the number of acres and children one possessed, the address and whether one were a tenant, worked on shares or were retired.

By 1938, the Federal Writers' Project compiled their book Delaware, A Guide to the First State, in which the following is excerpted. "From Camden, on State 10, is Wyoming (911 pop.) village that developed after the coming of the railroad in 1856. It has a very large cannery and is in the center of one of the richest orchard and dairy regions in Delaware."

The population has fluctuated as indicated by the following tabulation:

WE'LL SEE YOU AT THE PARK, September 28th!

Wyoming's heartbeat for most of its history has been the railroad. The center of the town lay at the intersection of Front Street with the railroad near the original location of the freight offices. Passengers and produce kept the train station a focal point in the town. Elaborate buildings surrounded the station as a support system. Fred Marker Jr., longtime store owner and one-time railroad worker, shared his knowledge of the site with T.E. Townsend Jr. An accompanying drawing shows the extensive buildings and describes where they were located.

By the 1940's the backbone of the Delmarva Peninsula was still the Pennsylvania Railroad, not yet the U.S. 13 and 118 Highways. America moved on rails, not highways, and a truck simply followed the wagon as a vehicle to move goods from the train station to local stores and homes and from the farm or orchard to the ice cars. There was a double track all the way from Wilmington to Cape Charles, Virginia, down at the end of the peninsula. The old folks used to say they could tell when bad weather was coming by the tone of the steam engines' whistle. And many times they were right.

Today, since automobile and truck traffic on Delaware's highways has supplanted rail traffic through Wyoming, no passengers or produce wait at her train station. The last passenger train left heading north March 17, 1959, and recently the Town Council purchased the station from Penn Central to renovate the building into a town hall as soon as funding can be obtained.

WYOMING TODAY

Through the innovative leadership of Mayor Nancy B. Tieman, since her election in 1976, Wyoming has seen the growth in businesses to 45 in number, with more scheduled to appear because of the recently designated Wyoming Foreign Trade Zone. Mayor Tieman was instrumental in the approval of this first Delaware trade zone through her active involvement on the national level with the U.S. Commerce Dept. in Washington and on the state level through her provision of pertinent information for legislation to the Delaware State Legislature.

For the past six years a 6.5 mile race of national importance has been run through Wyoming and its surrounding fruit orchards. The Great Wyoming Buffalo Stampede of July, 1984 saw 1,004 runners of all ages, representing the U.S. and several other countries, competing for prizes.
The Town partially funds a bi-monthly town newspaper The Wyoming Gazette founded in 1982 by its Editor Kay Wood Levenberg who is a former Town Councilman.

The Town purchased the Wyoming Park in 1965. The 4 acre Park reaches out to a point in the 42 acre Wyoming Lake, across from the Wyoming Mill, which has been in operation since 1784. Swings and slides for children and picnic tables for adults draw large numbers of families on a year-round basis.

An excerpt from "A Tricentennial View of Murderkill Hundred" 1683 - 1983

Representative expenses for tuition for one term of the school year were:

Instruction on Piano and Organ . . $9.00
French and German, each $3.00 to $5.00
Drawing . . . . . $2.00 to $5.00

This bulletin listed its student's names. Among them was Maggie Jakes of Wyoming. Although local families were quick to patronize the Wyoming College or Wyoming Institute, as it was called in 1875, it was not a financial success and by 1888 was no longer operating.

THIS INSTITUTION, now in its twelfth year, is designed to the advantages of a first-class school in which students are taught by highly prepared teachers, for business, or for social life. Courses of study and modes of training are intended to equip students, whose studies rank, in extent, next below college curriculum.

ITS LOCATION
The Wyoming Institute of Delaware was founded in 1866, offering three courses of study: Mathematics, Scientific & Literary, and Classical. Students boarding with private families paid $3 to $3.50 per week and were expected to provide their own napkins, towels, umbrella, and overshoes.

Wyoming Park Celebration

Recently the Caesar Rodney School District has been recognized and honored nationwide for its superior student test scores and for its high standards of discipline. Many families are moving to Wyoming, which is included in this school district, specifically because of the school's fine reputation.

Today Wyoming continues its growth as a rural community, lightly touched by the proximity of the Dover Air Base's Military Air Transport Command, General Foods, Scott Paper and other industries that have come to the surrounding area within the past generation.

WYOMING'S PROMINENT PEOPLE
It has always been a difficult task to compile a list of favorite sons because of the many facts and circumstances to be evaluated; therefore, no such listing has been attempted. It is, however, only proper to mention several citizens of Wyoming who have served in the political and economic life of the State and Nation. The late John Hunn was Governor of Delaware from 1901 to 1905. The late George M. Fisher was Treasurer of Delaware from 1919-1922. Ralph W. Emerson is a former State Treasurer. Brook Jackson went from Wyoming to become a Vice-President of The General Motors Corporation.

Isaac McCullom was a physician and Lt. Governor of the State in the 1940's. He ran for Governor and was narrowly defeated by Governor Bacon.

Lake Forest Invitational

(much smaller than today's Lake Forest) transported 60 cross-country runners to Seaford High, a school also much larger than Harrington.

The Seaford coach rubbed his eyes in disbelief and attempted to keep for of the Harringtonians from running.

Coach Harold McDonald told the confused Seafordian, "Only the first seven finishers from each team count in the scoring. If your guys can run fast enough, they won't see many of my boys for very long". The Seaford boys did not come close to winning that day.

National School Bus Safety Week

September 22 - 28, 1985

Stop for School Buses

Every school day, inattentive motorists pass school buses stopped — with overhead red lights flashing — to load or unload children. The thousands of Delaware children who ride school buses depend on your cooperation with the bus driver and on your compliance with state law. Will you be one of those drivers who endangers a child's life today?

EIGHT LIGHT SYSTEM

The eight-light system on every Delaware school bus is a traffic control device to protect school children.

School bus overhead flashing lights are intended to identify the vehicle as a school bus and to inform other users of the highway that such vehicle is about to stop or is stopped on the roadway or shoulder to take on or discharge school children.

FOUR OF AMBER

The overhead amber warning lights will be activated approximately 10 seconds prior to the overhead red stop lights to give motorists advance notice that the bus is preparing to stop to pick up or discharge pupils. The overhead amber lights are to be used prior to the red and only when the bus is relatively parallel with the travelway. The bus may be in motion when the overhead amber warning lights are flashing.

Approach a bus using overhead flashing amber lights with caution and anticipate a stop. Children may be waiting for the bus or may be running to board it.

FOUR OF RED

The overhead red flashing stop lights will be activated when the bus is stopped as far off the main traveled portion of the highway as conditions permit to pick up and discharge pupils. The overhead red flashing lights are not to be displayed while the bus is in motion either before or after a stop.

When a school bus is stopped on the roadway or shoulder approximately parallel to the travelway and displays overhead flashing red lights, the driver of any vehicle approaching the school bus from the front or from the rear shall stop and remain stopped until the bus no longer has the overhead red stop lights activated. On a roadway with four or more lanes, the driver approaching from the front shall not stop.

Questions? Ask any Delaware State Police Officer or contact the Transportation Section of the Delaware Department of Public Instruction.

PENALTIES FOR PASSING A STOPPED SCHOOL BUS WITH RED LIGHTS FLASHING

Whoever is convicted of passing a stopped school bus with overhead red lights flashing shall for the first offense be fined not less than $100 nor more than $200 or imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days or both. For each subsequent like offense occurring within 3 years, such person shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500 and imprisoned not less than 60 days nor more than 6 months. The minimum fine for this violation shall not be subject to suspension.

SUSPENSION OF LICENSE

Upon conviction for passing a stopped school bus with overhead red lights flashing, the Motor Vehicle Department shall suspend the driver's license and/or driving privileges for a period of not less than 1 month nor more than 1 year. If the driver's license is suspended, a conditional license may be issued pursuant to regulations adopted by the Department.

IDENTIFICATION OF VIOLATORS

If any vehicle is witnessed by a police officer or a school bus operator to be a violator of the school bus stop law and the identity of the operator is not otherwise apparent, it shall be assumed that the person in whose name such vehicle is registered committed such violation of the school bus stop law.

FIRST OFFENSE - $100 to $200 or 30 to 60 days and 6 points
SECOND OFFENSE - $100 to $500 and 60 days to 6 months and 6 points

School Buses Carry The Most Precious Cargo In The World - Your Children. Please Be Extra Careful When Near A School Bus

School Bus Safety is Everybody's Business

About 22 million children ride to and from school each day in 400,000 buses.

Traveling on a school bus is the safest kind of transportation. But it takes everybody's help to keep it that way and make it even safer.

Most accidents happen to children who are hit by a school bus or a passing car.

Most accidents happen on the trip home in the front of the bus to children 9 years and younger.

DRIVER'S JOB

- To be in good physical condition.
- To check the bus before each trip.

- To be on time at each stop.
- To drive safely at all times.
- To obey all laws.

PARENTS' JOB

- To have children at the bus stop on time.
- To know the rules for bus riders.
- To support the driver if behavior problems happen.

STUDENTS' JOB

- To always obey the bus driver.
- To be at the school bus on time.
- To be extra careful when crossing the street or highway.
- To obey the rules at the bus stop.
- To always talk quietly — never scream.

MOTORISTS' JOB

- To stay in your seat until the bus stops.
- When walking to or leaving the bus, if you must cross the street, always cross in front of the bus where the driver can see you.

Here's how to CROSS THE ROAD SAFELY

It's the most dangerous part of a bus trip. Traffic should stop — but don't depend on it!

BE EXTRA CAREFUL

No Time Like the Present

by Governor Michael N. Castle

A major accident in Woodside involving a school bus made headlines in Delaware over the past two weeks. We are very lucky that the 32 injuries from that accident were relatively minor. Yet, those injuries should be a vivid reminder for everyone, especially over the next nine months while school is in session, that we need to be aware of the many thousands of children who travel Delaware's highways to and from school each day.

September 22 marks the beginning of National School Bus Safety Week in Delaware and around the country. All this week, in our elementary, junior and high schools, our children will be learning all about bus safety. The Department of Public Instruction will also be undertaking a public awareness campaign designed to let you know about the location of major school bus stops and about Delaware's school bus loading and unloading laws.

Nearly 88,000 Delaware youngsters ride buses to and from school each day. The safety of our youngsters cannot be over-emphasized and the responsibility for their safety, at least in part, rests with each and every driver who uses this state's highway system.

Last week, I appointed the membership of the Governor's Task Force on Highway Safety which will soon begin work on updating Delaware's highway safety initiatives in school bus safety, drinking and driving and many other important highway safety programs. Also last week, the The Improved Order of Red Men and Degree of Pocahontas, a community-service organization, began a highway safety campaign to focus public attention on highway safety issues.

And on Thursday, the Delaware Drive and Safety Education Association celebrated 50 years of service to the First State's driving public.

All of these groups, working separately and together, will help assure that attention is always being focused on the issue of highway safety. There is no time better than the present to be reminded that all of us play an important role in making Delaware a safe place to travel.
