City of Harrington adopts 1986-87 CITY OF HAPPINGTON PROPOSED PURCE

budget The Harrington City Council adopted a $375,391 budget for the fiscal year 1986-87 on Friday night. Councilmen James Temple and Donald Jarrell, on a Jarrell motion, sought to reduce the tax rate from 64 cents per $100 of assessed property to 50 cents per assessment. That motion was defeated 4-2 with Councilmen Jim Boyd, Sue Ellen Dennis, Daniel Coleman, and Jack Wyatt voted against.

A motion was then made to keep the present tax rate the same which is 64 cents per $100 of assessed properties. Temple and Jarrell voted against with Boyd, Dennis, Coleman and Wyatt voting in favor. A schedule of the budget revenues, expenditures, and salaries and benefits is shown graphically.

Over The Backyard Fence

we do not have a patch, so our feasting is very limited. We have a patch started for next year and it looks great. The family went and picked some the otherday and I made sugared ones for the freezer and some freezer jam, which is our favorite. With the jam, I ran into a snag. When I opened the Sure-Jell package, the directions read 1/4 cup of water to the powder and boil one minute. I knew this was wrong and I thought my eyes were playing tricks on me. I got my magnifying glass and went over the the window and sure enough, the directions read 1/4 cup water. I added a bit more, but I knew it was not right. Of course, the soft jam can be

Luckily, the Sunday Delaware State News published strawberry recipes sent in by the cookery editor of the Leader, and one of her contributors had submitted a recipe for the Sure-Jell freezer jam. It should read 3/4 cup of water. I wonder how many boxes of Sure-Jell are on the market with the wrong amount of water. Of course, perhaps many cooks are not as timid as I am and maybe adjusted it themselves.

The lawn mower has so far spared the baby rabbits so I guess they are scampering around, but we do not see them. My friend, Tess, reports a wee baby rabbit in her backyard.

Speaking of babies, Mother Robin is now getting her first brood of children _ monthly financial report that I disliked out into the world. We see the young ones sitting glumly on tree limbs and fence posts, cheeping pitifully for Mama, but Mother Robin knows her business and is very firm with them. I me, "You don't need to do this for see that most of them are able to take another week yet." This is strawberry season and this year its gifts. There are about fifty buds on the bush called "Love". The inside of the petals are brilliant red and the outside of the petals are a creamy white. We have had one bloom from the bush, "A Touch of Class". It is a deep pink variegated with a lighter pink.

The lima beans are coming up. I'm trying to use up what is left in the freezer, so they are on the menu today...with hot biscuits of course and fresh sugared strawberries.

Lima beans are very easy to get into the freezer. I just shell the evening before while I watch television; put them into the refrigerator overnight. In the morning, blanch and cool and it works fine. Corn is not easy. There is so much to do to it. Dad usually helps by getting off the husks. Then the silking takes a lot of time. And, after blanching and cooling, we cut most of it. The whole ears take up too much space in the freezer. We ran out of corn this year, so I must do more than ever.

But, at least nothing compares to that job of pickled beets. As you have heard me say before, I hate that whole process with a purple passion. I am planning to do them as soon as they are ready, so I can then relax and enjoy the rest of the

I always do the hated and difficult tasks first. This is easier then letting them stare me in the face. When I worked in an office, we used to do a doing. It was a huge sheet of figures and then it had to be proof read, and the whole bit. Knowing I hated doing it, my boss used to say when he handed it to "Oh, yes I do." I need to do it He liked it so much that he applied the idea to his own routine, and found that

On Saturday, May 31st, Mrs. Daniel McSweeney of east of Harrington, joined a group which meets at the Milford Police Department for a "Stream Watch" program. The workshop was for the Mispillion River. It is a program sponsored by DNELS months away! (Delaware Nature Education Society and the Delaware Department of Environmental Control).

The program encourages the adult and teenage public to volunteer their help and also to "adopt" a stream. Saturday's tour was by canoe and guided by Amy Wendt and Mary Henderson of Wilmington and Rob McKim, Director of Abbotts Mill

Nature Center. The weather was agreeable for the 2hour trip. It was a pretty sight to see so many canoes in the water at one time. Participants enjoyed the natural wildlife along the river banks. "Stream Watch" is a worthwhile program and Mrs. McSweeney already has adopted her stream and will be looking for volunteers this Fall. The Greater Harrington Historical Society will meet on Thursday, June 5, 7:30 p.m. at the Senior Center. All Women will have their final meeting members and friends are urged to be present. The museum is quickly progressing toward completion. Tuesday, May 20, someone stopped me and asked where the new sub shop was. My first thought was the Deli's opened the Center for singing and Hands Howath, Roberta Smith, Alberta again, as I raised my hand to scratch my brow, realized my leg was being pulled. That person had missed the submaking at the Adult Center.

Our program for the day was learning to make a good sub. Bert and Jean had everything all arranged. Mary, Jane and I proceeded with the art. What a pleasant way to have a program, then top it off by eating the delicious served along with a cool drink or hot coffee, then a good dish of mixed fruit or pudding.

Yanks drop twin bill

by Mike Dill
The Milford Yanks continued to struggle at the plate as they dropped a doubleheader to Bridgeville 3-2 and 4-3 in Eastern Shore Baseball League

In the first game, Bridgeville's Doug Willey picked up the win and Mike Schock picked up the save for the Former Lake Forest standout Tim Stump took the loss for Milford, despite just surrendering two earned runs. Milford's Kevin Barkley had the big stick, stroking two hits that included a two-run triple in the first that put the Yanks on top. Bridgeville's Chris Graves was the man at the plate, gong three for three with a solo homerun in the third.

The nightcap was an eight-inning thriller that saw the Yanks come from behind to tie the game, only to lose on Harry Johnson's RBI single in the bottom eighth.

Milford's Jim Moss pitched an outstanding game in his first start of the year. Moss, playing on a tender ankle, continually kept the Bridgeville's hitters off balance by effectively mixing up his fastball and curve.

Mike Schock, replacing Bridgeville starter Harry Willey, came on to take the win as Bridgeville improved to 4-0 and Milford fell to 0-4.

Dudeck named to JCPenney baseball team

by Harry G. Farrow Jr.

MOOSE FIELD, HARRINGTON -For Brian Dudeck, being named a member of the JCPenney baseball team...together with uniform...was a high water mark for this 12-year-old who has suffered from muscular dystrophy from birth.

Brian attends school at the Kent County Orthopedic School in Dover. He gets his regular studies there where he gets good grades. "I like social studies and all kinds of history...but I really love baseball," added the friendly

For him JCPenney is the very best team. "My cousin Larry (Morris) plays for them, and he is really good. That's my team," he added. "I know everyone on the team. They are my friends," said

He says he likes the major league Phillies sharing the top billing. "Eddie Murray is my favorite player in the American League, and Mike Schmidt in of the New York Yankees, will compete the national," said Brian.

When you come to the Little League Park in Harrington in the future, you Racetrack on Thursday night, June 5. will see a new player in uniform. His number is 15. He might be on the sidelines now, but his heart is in the game with his JCPenney buddies.

Thompson, Brown lead Harrington

by Mike Dill

The Harrington Big League team behind the hitting of Steve Thompson and the pitching of Rick Brown won two of three games last week.

Brown was the star in last Wednesday's game against Woodbridge. Earlier in the year, during the high school season, Brown lost to Woodbridge 2-1 in a nailbiter at Bridgeville.

Revenge must have been in Brown's mind this time as he registered a phenominal 17 strikeouts as Harrington defeated Woodbridge 7-1. With the team scoring runs, Brown was able to relax and responded by pitching an outstanding game. Brown helped his own cause by going 2 for 4 at the plate. The real hitting star of the evening was Lenny Catalano, who was a perfect 3 for 3 with a double.

Then on Saturday night the team traveled to Millsboro for a game. The long trip was well worth it as Harrington defeated Millsboro 22-8 in a home run derby.

First year player Steve Thompson clouted two homers to pace Harrington's seven homerun attack. Mike Gygrynuk, John Kirby, Rick Brown, Keith Chandler and Elvin Spence all blasted homers.

Thompson also combined with Spence and Rob Bates for the pitching

Thompson, overlooked by many as a contributor to this year's team, has been a real find. Thompson is only 16, but he has been given the chance to play every day and has responded.

"I am really pleased with Steve, he has hit the ball really well," stated Harrington manager Ken Outten. "I was very happy with the way we have played up until the Milford game. The game Outten is referring to is

John Kirby and Eric Collins both had RBI's on fielder's choice plays to put

Former Lake Forest ace John Kirby continued to have tough luck on the mound, being saddled for his second straight loss. Kirby struck out 11, walked one, and gave up seven hits. Kirby continues to pitch well, but his Harrington teammates just never seem to score enough runs. Harrington has scored 2 runs for Kirby each time out he has pitched. "Kirby has pitched as well as he could," said Outten. "We should be 4-0 right now instead of 2-2. Except for the Millsboro game, we aren't scoring enough runs.

"I still think we have a good enough team to go all the way if we just start playing together."

COLUMBUS - A majority of harness tracks operating in the United States show increases in attendance and handle so far in 1986.

Sixteen of the 30 associations racing on a schedule have posted increases in attendance. The picture is even brighter on the handle side.

Heading the parade is Northfield Park near Cleveland, which shows gains of 32% in attendance and 23% in handle. Other tracks showing increases of more than 10% in both attendance and handle include The Red Mile in Lexington, KY; Sciota Downs in Columbus, OH; and Buffalo Raceway in New York.

Turola Hanover, a four-year-old daughter of Albatross, won her 17th straight race this year, May 18th at Northlands Park in Edmonton, Alberta, defeating the top pacers on the grounds in 1:54 flat. That time not only equalled the all-age track record set by Cam Fella, but also established a new world record for four-year-old pacing mares on a five-eights mile track, shaving 3/5 of a second off of Toy Poodle's old standard.

Turola Hanover sold for $63,000 at the 1983 Harrisburg sale to Doug Arthur of Ontario. (Ironically, Arthur was also the developer of Cam Fella, Harness Horse of the year in 1982 and 1983, and the horse whose Edmonton track record Turola Hanover tied.) She did timetrial in 2:00 2 5 at two, but she could only achive four thirds in 12 starts during 1985, and was sold after the season to the Sky West Farms of Okotoks, Alberta.

Placed under the care of Vern "Butch" Sifert, Turola really started the year in the "non-winners of 2 races lifetime" class and the mare started to win. After winning 15 straight in a dramatic climb to the top, Turola was pitted against Preferred company on May 11 at Northlands, where she won in 1:56.

In the record mile, teaming for the first time with driver Gary McQuaid, Turola Hanover moved to the lead after the 28 second first quarter, reaching the half in 56 4 5. The three-quarters in 1:25 4/5, final quarter home in 28 1/5.

Wilco's Data and Mr. Rodeo Drive win battle prevues, Laughs takes open, Pezzelle sets track record at Big B

by Mary Bachrad

Wilco's Data overcame the ten post overpowering nine rivals to win the fastest division of The Battle of the Brandywine Prevue Sunday night.

Ted Wing started John J. Magan's 3year-old Storm Damage colt from the second tier and was at least three lengths behind Image in Motion, who was directly before him going rough at the race start. While The Big Wiz cut blazing fractions; of 27.4, 55.3 and 1:24.4 leading through the opening three quarters. Nobleland Sam was racing first over on the outside. Wilco's Data got some brief cover down the backstretch and then made abig threewide move approaching the far turn before speeding away from his rivals for a three-lengths victory in 1:54, the second fastest mile in track history only two-fifths of a second off Pershing Square's record in last season's $100,000 Battle of the Brandywine. Smartest Remark finished second, Nobleland Sam held on for third in front of fast closing Mister Hanover who was last at the top of the stretch and rallied for the final qualifying berth in The Battle. Mr. Rodeo Drive pulled a surprise to win the other $25,000 Battle Prevue. Walter Case Jr. shot the Strike Out colt into the early lead, fought off challenges from Ultra Bright (Eddie Davis) for the first half mile and was never headed in a career fastest 1:54.4 triumph. The Grandstand Stable's bottom of the eighth on an infield early winter $100,000 purchase has almost paid himself off winning for the Milford jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the fifth time in 11 races this season, never bottom of the first, but Harrington finishing off the board. Mr. Rodeo Drive fashioned panels of 28.1, 57,

1:26.3 and a 28.1 last quarter. Audobon Hanover received a perfectly placed trip from Tom Haughton to Harrington up by one for the time finish second. Race Favorite Robust Hanover, who disappointed in his Milford tied the game up by adding a seasonal debut the week before was able single run in the bottom of the sixth to to salvage third in front of Ben Erie with Herve Filion, all of whom earned a spot in the $100 Battle Sunday.

Laughs used a front end drive from Michel Lachance to advantage romping to a 1:57 victory in his seasonal debut in a 3-year-old open Pace. The Silent Majority colt was never in danger enroute to the win over Souffle and Caressable in the program's sub feature. The bay owned by Eight Friends Stable has never been farther back than second winning 11 of his 15 career races.

Pilgrim's Rainbow was hustled out of fifth approaching the half-mile and was uncovered the rest of the way as Abe Stoltzfus coaxed the Albatross 5-yearold to a 1:56 win in an $8,000 Preferred Pace. Ramblin Storm (Bill O'Donnell) was second in front of Stonebridge Skipper (John Campbell) in the tight

Ageless Ridgewood Express returned to the winner's circle taking a $7,000 Open pace for driver Ken McNutt. The 9-year-old Laverne Hanover horse showed his stretch gameness withstanding a late challenge from Robbie's Fela to score by a nose in Earlier in the week, Vain Jane posted a nose victory in 1:59.1 for driver Per Henriksen to take an $8,000 division of The Blue Ribbon Series for 3-year-old filly pacers on Saturday. Alls Dahlin (Ross Hayter) finished second and Send Flowers (Russ Thomas Jr.) was third. Pizzelle became the fastest female trotter in Brandywine history Friday when trotting specialist Mark Daniels left fast from the seven post to grab a seat third then pulled out after the half sat alongside leader Deep Rough until mid-stretch then pulled away for a two lengths win in 1:58.4, a new track mark for an aged mare trotter. The 6-year-old Super Bowl daughter is owned by long time Delaware trotting enthusiast and patron Herman Brown of Dover.

Delaware celebrates Mational Fishing Week

Two weeks ago, when Fish and Wildlife biologist Janis Thomas was looking for volunteers to help erect snow fences around some of the critical eastern nesting areas in the coastal dunes, she expected some of the local birders to pitch in, and they did. What she didn't expect was the enthusiasm of LINCOLN - Heather Lynn Watkins a group of surf fishermen who spent part of a weekend helping to protect the hard-to-see nesting sites from beach goers and fishermen who regularly use the dune crossings

The week of June 2 is National Fishing Week to recognize the many significant contributions of sport fishing to our national well-being.

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the editor and reporter who wrote the article on the rape and to the community!

How does one write about a rape? It's hard for us as the parents of the child to write this. We know the wrong that's happened. Don't you know that? We are trying to understand how this happened. You are asking, where were the parents, that they let this happen? We were here and have been. Right here all the time. Yes, I went to the school the first time she was taken off the school grounds last year. So they knew. I was assured by this teacher this would not happen again. This teacher, who has been teaching all of the other children, called my home and told me he was sorry for taking my daughter off the school grounds. Well, it happened again and again. I cannot help what you choose to believe. That's up to you. Ms. Brady, the Assistant Attorney General, who is handling the case assured me that it was my (community duty) to let our daughter testify at the hearing. Well, we did. Do you know through this? Well, we have done our (community duty) so other children would not be hurt like ours. What good has it done? We haven't had any community support. I've seen her friends drop like flies. The newspapers did a bang-up job of reporting the hearing. It hurts and hurts like hell.

I do not have the answers to your question (How did this happen?) We'll have to find out with the help of some counseling. Maybe we never will. Until then, we try to take each day as it comes and pray a lot. It's hard to see what used to be a happy child, go into a shell. Something she'll have to live with for the rest of her life. That's a long time. Ms. Brady (God love her) says she was a (victim). That's what we have to believe. I walk down the street and see how happy other children are, and Iwish the same for ours. That's not to be for a very long time and maybe never

Senator Minner's column

It seems like this time of the year in Dover is always dominated with private talk of coming vacations in the summer months ahead and business talk of what might and might not happen in the remaining weeks of the General Assembly.

This week, however, I would like to focus the attention of this column to the special group of individuals in our community who have reached a very important goal and are now embarking on a new series of goals and journeys. Many local high schools and colleges are holding commencement exercises these final weeks of May and into June to recognize the accomplishments of graduates completing their education and marking the beginning of new educational endeavors, new careers, or military service. In the hustle and bustle of the legislative work in May, we sometimes don't recognize or emphasize the significance of those commencement activities and what they mean, not only to the participating individuals, but the related families, local educators, and elected officials at the state level. Discussion about technical things institutions.

such as "career ladder," "mastery testing" and "teacher recruitment," and the emphasis on all the things that are wrong with our education system tend to overshadow the positive things about our schools and the hundreds of success stories that our system produces every year. As a community, we sometimes disagree as to how we modify, improve and revitalize our commitment to education, but nearly all of us will agree that this time of the year, more than any other, affords us the opportunity to look past the disagreements, discussions and policy matters and take pride in the high school and college graduates who represent the real 'success stories.'

In addition to congratulating these graduates (from our numerous high schools and local colleges) for their hard work, dedication, and perseverance. I would like to thank the many individuals in our community (the parents, the teachers, the businessmen, etc.) who, without their personal and financial commitment, we could never support our learning

Governor Castle calls for gasoline tax increase, better roads and lower taxes for Delaware

by Governor Michael N. Castle

Last week I sent a simple message to the members of the General Assembly - It's time for lower taxes and better roads in Delaware.

In January I had proposed cutting personal income taxes by four percent, a modest reduction that would offset the effect of inflation. At the same time, I recommended that the state cut red tape and costly paperwork for thousands of businesses by lowering several business

Since then, the estimate of how much money the state will collect from taxpayers next fiscal year has increased by over $17 million. Having already proposed an adequate state budget for fiscal 1987, I believe that money should be returned to the taxpayers - by cutting personal income taxes by 10 percent. The reasons are compelling: First, we have an obligation to take as little as possible from each taxpayer. Second, the state can't spend what it doesn't have, so we control the size of government. Third, our record of cutting taxes provides a tremendous incentive for business and industry to locate in Delaware and create new jobs for our citizens.

A 10-percent tax cut will mean a family of four earning $30,000 a year will pay at least $100 less in taxes each year. More important, it will mean that an average family's taxes have been cut in half since 1979!

At the same time I asked the General Assembly to cut taxes, I proposed a major new program of highway repairs, financed by a small increase in gasoline taxes. Combined with federal highway needed now.

funds, the 2-cent-a-gallon increase would allow the state to spend more than $130 million on road resurfacing and repairs, bridge repairs and safety improvements over three years.

The timing is right: after a decade of artificially high prices imposed by a foreign oil cartel, fuel prices have dropped to more reasonable levels, and gasoline selling for well over a dollar-agallon is a thing of the past.

The money raised by this two-penny increase would be dedicated to transportation projects, assuring that the state is able to provide good, safe roads in every county. What's more, it would allow us to solve some of the pressing problems created by overcrowded roads in northern Delaware and beach traffic in Sussex County.

For example, Route 26 would be overhauled from Route 1 all the way to the Maryland state line. The new funding will allow the Department of Transportation to give top priority to development of an east-west route through Sussex county, and to continue its extensive resurfacing program for secondary roads in Sussex and Kent

Again, there are good reasons to do this: our citizens expect good roads. Businesses that provide jobs expect a good transportation system. And we have an obligation to assure that driving in Delaware is safe for our

The next step is to convince legislators - from all three counties, from the leaders of the Senate down to new members of both houses — that lower taxes and better roads are needed, and

.time is nearing for a decision by Harrington Council on City Hall." The time has come and nearly passed by for Harrington Council to make a decision on what they want in a City Hall. The matter has been debated back and forth for at least the past three years. At the rate the Council is moving, it could go another three years without a decision. Time, tide and ripening

The Council had at one point possibly three options, and they are to either remain where they are, or find an existing building suitable to their needs, or build a new building.

A building committee was formed about three months ago to determine the best course for Council to take. After being told the present location would need heavy repairs or expenditures to allow the library to be moved there and the police department moved to the three-car garage in the rear, the committee was left with basically only one option, and that was to build a new building. Now it is reported the present City Hall could house and support the weight of the books.

With a deadline approaching this August for the City to vacate the present premises...or buy it, it seems rather remote that a new building could be put up within the time required.

It seems to me that the most salient point here is to first find a home for City Hall. We must solve this first especially since time is not on our side. The library has a home, but after August unless City Hall finds something quick. it will be out in the street. The proposed new budget for the City has dialed in $20,000 for the library, which is paid for by taxpayer's dollars. The Council should be urged to clear the decks and get down to business at hand, and that is establishing a spot and calling it City Hall. If the City can stay where they are, the library could join in and share the premises with the City. If the City elects to buy John Satterfield's home on Dorman St., the City must also make room for the library or let the library stay where it is presently located. The price tag on the present location is a reported $89,000, and the Satterfield home has been offered at $75,000. The cost of a new location would be at least $100,000. Of course the other question which has to be asked is does the City have the money to purchase something under the present tax structure. Will it take another tax increase?

The City had three options at one time. The library still has three options, and they are to stay where they are located, join in with the City or build a new building. If the latter option is chosen, the library must seek matching funds or pay for it through taxes, which will take a referendum.

That's getting us out in left field again. What the City needs to do now...and I mean right now is to resolve the matter of where City Hall will be located.

Spina Bifida research by March of Dimes

Results of a five-year study may point the way to a significant decrease in the crippling effects of spina bifida (open spine). Doctors at the University of Washington — March of Dimes Birth Defects Clinic in Seattle have reported that early diagnosis and delivery by cesarean section can greatly reduce the chances of severe paralysis. Apina Bifida affects some 2,000 American babies each year, making it one of the most common severe neurological defects. It often results in paralysis below the waist, poor bladder and bowel control, and hydrocephalus (water on the brain).

Improve teacher morale

by Helen Foss (Reprinted from observed that the strengths of the Delaware School bulletin, June '86)

TEACHER MORALE must be improved in Delaware, says Helen M. Foss, Governor Castle's new education aide, and the school system should education. reach out to the many persons here who are eager to help keep the schools interested in working with the schools

Mrs. Foss, who was appointed to her position in November and is experienced as a teacher, told Educationally Speaking many factors lower teachers' morale, including "a schools, Mrs. Foss cites consistent perception of a lack of respect for them increases in achievement scores, which as professionals.

'More and more demands are placed on the schools," she said, "and teachers are asked to do a superhuman job. But Americans seem to have a propensity, when they look at public education, to see what's wrong, not recognize what's

One way to raise the status of teachers, Mrs. Foss holds, is to bring them into the process of school reform. "We've done much in Delaware to improve our schools, but we haven't really tapped into the expertise of teachers. The recent forums for teachers held by the Education Commission of the States offer one way to use that valuable resource. People who implement reforms should help develop them." Delaware must make itself competitive in teacher salary, Mrs. Foss maintains. But state officials have to consider many other requests for funding, and education is challenged to show how high it should rank in state priorities. The challenge is made harder by the "graying" of America and the sharp drop in the percentage of citizens who have children in public schools and thus could be counted on for support. A current DPI project to develop indicators of school performance she thinks will help educators show the public how much of a return it gets from its investment in the schools.

A wide variety of people in Delaware are already committed to education, Mrs. Foss said, and they should be involved directly in school reform. She schools have become a big selling point in state efforts to recruit new business, and many corporate leaders realize the value of the public investment in "A lot of people in Delaware are and simply want to know how to help," she said. "Part of our challenge is to plug them into the system, to give them a vision of what they can do.' As main strengths of Delaware place in our schools are impressive, Mrs. Foss said. "And exciting opportunities for further gains are being pursued right now, including the state work on a teacher evaluation form and the training that all educators will receive in our instructional improvement model. Once we enlist enough helpers, we can get the time and money we need to recruit teachers who will meet our high standards and also develop programs to make our good teachers even better."

A resident of Hockessin, Mrs. Foss studied at the National College of Education, Evanston, Illinois. After teaching in Illinois and California, she came to Delaware and taught in Greenville Elementary and Alexis 1. duPont Middle School. For nine years she was regional director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. She convened the 'Breakfast Group" of community leaders who advised officials on the New Castle County desegregation; chaired the State Board's Desegregation Advisory Committee; served on the Task Force on Education for Economic Growth named by Gov. duPont; and led in developing the Green Circle human relations programs.

Brightbill sweeps Triple 20's at U.S. 13

by Charlie Brown

Freddy Brightbill was picture perfect as he won the D&D Dismantling Triple 20's Saturday night at the U.S. 13 Speedway. The feature wins were worth $700 each plus Freddy collected the $500 bonus for winning all three and $150 extra from Copps Seafood to bring his evening's earnings to $2750.

Wayne Weaver led the 22-car modified field to the green in the Delaware start. Second year driver, Norman Short took over the runner-up spot with Richard Jarvis in third, Barry Burkhart, and Hal Bronwing rounding out the to five.

Buddy Wilkins moved his Blue Hen mount into the top five by lap five. At the halfway point, Weaver had built a straightaway lead and Wilkins had moved into third. Going into the third turn, Weaver lost power and his chance for his first victory.

Richard Jarvis took control on the green with Burkhart second and Short third. Freddy Brightbill took advantage of a couple of yellows to move quickly into the to five and was running in second by the five to go sign. On lap 16, Brightbill edged into the lead at the start-finish line. Short spun to bring out the caution with two to go. On the restart, Jarvis used everything in his bag of tricks to get by Brightbill but it was not to be as Freddy picked up the checkered. Jarvis finished a very close second with Wilkins third, Gary Trice fourth and Ed Brown, Jr., rounding out the top five. Six through ten were Burkhart, Jim Baker, Ron Keys, John

Pinter, and Short. Billy Towers brought the field to the green in the second modified main, but it was John Pinter shooting from the outside of the second row to take the lead on lap one. Jim Baker moved quickly into the number two spot with Eddie Brown Jr. following into third. Bobby Wilkins charged into the top five just before the halfway mark. At the same time Pinter fell off the pace and at the mid point it was Brown in first. Ed was only able to enjoy the top spot for one lap as Wilkins shot by into the lead. Harold Bunting was on the move and slipped into second as Brightbill moved

Bunting spun to bring out the yellow with five to go and ended a super charge for the D&D Dismantling pilot. Brightbill quickly moved into the number two spot. Wilkins had just taken the two to go sign when he slid high in the second turn and Brightbill took the lead. Brightbill and Wilkins crossed the finish line bumper to bumper with Barry Burkhart third, Baker fourth and Richard Jarvis claiming fifth at the wire. Ron Keys finished in teh sixth spot with Brown seventh, Bunting eighth, Weaverninth, and Towers in tenth.

On the initial start of feature number three, Norman Short led the field to the green. Short got crossed-up in the fourth turn with Billy Towers and Ed Brown Jr., spinning to bring out the yellow. Bunting went to the top of the speedway to take the lead on the restart. Jim Baker dropped Hal Browning from his second spot with Don Garwood bringing out the yellow once again on lap three. By lap five, Brightbill was running in the third spot coming from tenth at the start. Freddy edged by Baker at the halfway mark just as Brown spun with Towers once again getting involved.

On the restart, Brightbill and Bunting went side by side into turn one and stayed that way until the fourth turn when Brightbill once again went on top. The 13th lap proved to be unlucky for Ed Brown Jr., as he spun in the second turn and was hit hard by Don Garwood. Neither driver was injured, but both were out for the night.

It was all Brightbill in the remaining laps as Bunting battled Burkhart for the second spot. At the checkered it was Brightbill for the third time followed by Bunting, Burkhart, Gary Trice, Wilkins, Charlie Decker, Ron Keys, Deron Rust, Brian Brittingham and Baker in the top ten.

Next week will feature the return of the URC sprints sponsored by Taylor & Messick of Harrington. Along with the sprints will be the modifieds, late models, limited late models and street modifieds.

Earnhardt wins Coca-Cola 600

A brief shower sunday was the break Dale Earnhardt needed to win the Coca-Cola World 600. The rain came 400 miles into the race and changed his

"After that rain, the track came to us (the car started sticking in the turns),' said Earnhardt. "I still had the feeling it wasn't going to be my day, even after the halfway point. Then things started to come together. This was a dream come true, said Earnhardt. "I used to come out here and sit on a flatbed truck in the infield and watch my Dad run. An Earnhardt has finally won the 600.' It was Earnhardt's eighth World 600 start. His only Winston Cup win at this track came in the 1980 National 500.

Just before the rain hit, Cale Yarborough who dominated the middle of the race, had moved into position to lap Earnhardt. "When it began to rain, I started waving the flagman and got on the radio to the pits to tell them there should be a caution. I was glad to see Earnhardt, the first triple winner of the season, averaged 140.406 mph, earned $98,406 and boosted his 1986 winnings to $590,090. Richmond won $64,355. The race was slowed by four other caution flags for spins and wrecks. No driver was injured.

Yarborough finished third in a Ford, Harry Gant was fourth and Darrell Waltrip was fifth in a Chevrolet. Elliott's Ford was the only other car in Earnhard knew Elliott would have to make a late stop for fuel and said, "I was content to run in second place. No. I wasn't playing games with Bill. I wasn't pressuring the car. I was trying to save the car and tires. I was just waiting until Bill pitted.

"I just didn't have the car to pull it off," said Waltrip, winless in his last 13 starts. "At times we were good and at other times, we weren't so good. Still, I'm pretty pleased about how we

Pauch grabs first CLM Lubricants Winner Classic position

The CLM Lubricants qualifiers got started at Flemington on Memorial Day. The first driver to earn a starting position in the CLM Lubricants Winners Classic is Billy "The Kid" Pauch.

Pauch bested a stellar field of Modifieds to score the Flemington win. He was followed by Stan Ploski.

The CLM Lubricants Qualifiers are held in conjunction wit the Sun Country Cooler Super DIRT Series. By winning one of these races, a driver is automatically guaranteed a position in the CLM Lubricants Winners Classic held Friday, october 10th during Super DIRT Week. He also becomes a preferred starter in the Miller American 200, providing he time trials within a half second of the 30th fastest qualifier.

If a driver wins more than one race in the Series, the spot will go to the next driver without a starting position. The CLM Lubricants Qualifiers run all through the Summer throughout the

Winston Cup Point Fund Up

LONG POND, PA — Two years ago, the NASCAR Winston Cup point fund was worth $500,000, and the champion took home $150,00.

This year, the leading driving at the midway point of the season will win $150,000 alone Another $1,500,000 will be awarded at year-end with the 1986 Winston Cup champion pocketing $400,000.

"In the past, you didn't really concern yourself with where you were at midseason," says defending Winston cup champion Darrell Waltrip. "If you were third or sixth of eighth, it didn't really matter. The key was what happened during the second half of the season. That is when you made your move, as far as trying to win the championship,' adds Waltrip, who has become famous for his late-season charges to the Winston Cup title

Qualifying for the Pocono race, 13th of the year, will begin on Saturday, June 7, at 11 a.m. Bill Elliott will be trying to win his fourth-straight pole position at the 2.5-mile track.

The Miller 500 will get the green flag at 1 p.m. on Sunday with Special Events Television Network (SETN) taping the race for a later showing.

Kreitz and Wolfgang win at Port

For the second time in their storied history, the World of Outlaws sprint car contingent failed to master a fast and demanding Port Royal Speedway here May 28 and, in fact, were handed a major setback as Pennsylvania Posse drivers Don Kreitz Jr. and Doug Wolfgang rolled to first and second place spots in the 30-lap shootout.

Kreitz made his first ever PRS win a thriller as he lifted Wolfgang of the lead with five laps to go in the $4,000-to-win event. In taking the checkers by a fivesecond margin, Kreitz became Port'sb 7th different winner in 11 sprint races this year.

Wolfgang tore into the lead on lap 17 and began to roll.

A caution on lap 18 set the stage for Kreitz' run at the top. The restart order had Wolfgang out front, with Haudenschild, Dave Blaney, Kreitz and Jeff Swindell in the to five. When action resumed, Kreitz ducked his Nancy 69 racer into the low groove and motored past Blaney and Haudenschild for second. The 19th lap saw Kreitz reel in Wolfgang and by lap 20 the former United Racing Club kingpin was pulling alongside the leader. The next four go-rounds offered the banner field of fans a duel for the lead second to none, and with five laps left Kreitz sizzled under Wolfgang in turn one and rolled down the backstretch as the frontrunner.

From there, Kreitz opened up some daylight and captured the win. Wolfgang rolled home second, wit Blaney getting third. Jack Hewitt was fourth. Finishing fifth through tenth were Haudenschild, Swindell, Bobby Davis Jr, Mark Kinser, Craig Keel and Dave Kelly. Outlaw king Steve Kinser and Port sprint champ Keith Kauffman finished outside the top ten.

Heats went to Jimmy Sills, Cris Eash, Jack Hewitt and Tim Gee. The B-Main was copped by Steve Kinser.
