IF THE FUEHRER IS REALLY A MARRIED MAN

("Adolf Hitler is married, according to a national magazine."—News Item.)

Wife—Well, it certainly looks as if you had got yourself into a fine jam!
Adolf—There you go again, just because I've had a few reverses!
Wife—I warned you not to get into a war.

Adolf—Now listen to me . . .
Wife—I'm the only person who doesn't HAVE to listen to you!

Adolf—I find you very annoying at times, my dear.

Wife—I wish I could be as moderate as that in my reply.

Adolf—Please keep quiet. I've got a lot of problems to figure out.

Wife—I'll say you have! If you take my advice you'll grab at these peace hints.

Adolf—Germany can never be defeated! I shall fight to the last drop of my blood! The Nazis are a super race! Their cause is just . . .

Wife—Oh, Adolf, be yourself! That baloney is all right when you're outside but you're talking to your wife now.

Adolf—You're just like any other woman; if this war was a big success for me you'd claim all the credit.

Wife—I always knew there would be no credit in this one. You had everything about where you wanted

Make an Heirloom Crazypatch Quilt

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

THE oldest of quilt designs is the crazypatch, yet there is something amazingly modern in its angular lines. A variety of embroidery stitches join the pieces, of plain and figured silks. Several colors of silk embroidery thread are generally used. When a number of patches have been basted in place, sew them down to the foundation with the embroi-ery stitches and then remove the bastings. The backing is tied to the front with silk embroidery thread as comforters are tied. Little or no padding may be used.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears has prepared patterns and directions for making three of her favorite Early American Quilt Blocks which she will mail upon receipt of name and address and 10 cents coin to cover cost. Her Sewing Booklet No. 2 contains illustrations for 42 embroidery stitches suitable for patch work quilts; also pattern with directions for making the framed picture embroidery shown on the wall in illustration above. Also numerous gift items: mittens, neck ties; bags; table decorations; and 5 ways to repair fabrics. To get this book, send 10 cents in coin to Mrs. Spears, Drawer 10, Bedford Hills, New York.

SERVE A MODE'N FRUIT PIE AND A CANDY RAIL FENCE IN HONOR OF LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

See Recipes Below

For Patriotic Parties

February, with its two famous birthdays, is a grand month for a patriotic party—with novel decorations and unusual foods, to help make it a success.

Lincoln, the biographers tell us, had a keen "sweet tooth." Children could always be sure he'd have a bag of bonbons in his pocket when he dropped in to visit. Fruit pies were favorites with him, too, so you'll be historically correct to feature a fruit pie when you plan your Lincoln's birthday menu.

"Chocolate Fence Rails" are a novel sweet that will pay double tribute to Lincoln's rail splitting fame and his "sweet tooth." Use three of the fence rails tied in a bundle with a bit of red, white, and blue ribbon, for individual table favors at your party.

Everyone knows the significance of cherry pie at a Washington's birthday party, of course, but few people know that cherry pie a la mode has a double historical meaning! George Washington has been credited, by some historians, with being the inventor of the first ice cream freezer.

You'll find suggestions for almost any kind of party you can name, in my booklet "Easy Entertaining." There are ideas for unusual menus, hints on party short-cuts, too, and a store of practical, tested recipes. With Valentine's day and Easter, ahead, and birthdays in the offing, you'll want to add this useful, inexpensive booklet to your kitchen library.

Slit long, plump, soft rolls down the center, not quite through. Scoop out a little of the inside. Brush with melted butter, and heat. Stuff with any desired salad sandwich spread.

Apricot Pie.
1½ tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter (melted)
2 cups cooked dried apricots (drained)

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, butter, fruit, and fruit juices; let stand 15 minutes, or while pastry is being made. Line 9-inch pie plate with about ½ of pastry, rolled ½ inch thick, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge. Fold edge back to form standing rim. Fill with apricot mixture. "Entertain often, plan with care, and have the best time of anyone there," says Eleanor Howe, in her clever booklet, "Easy Entertaining." In it Miss Howe gives you some clever hints for the modern hostess. She gives you menus, too, for almost every kind of party, and with them, her own favorite tested recipes for party foods. Arrangements to restore the Quints to their parents and put them all together in their own home are progressing. This carries out the general feeling that children should at times get the custody of their parents.

OH, YEAH?
Within the last two years the "Yes Man" has almost completely disappeared from Hollywood, it is claimed. We asked a Hollywood director about this and he replied, "Yes, yes. Yes indeed."

SATISFACTION
I'm glad I'm unimportant; it's pleasant, I've found. For there's not enough importance in this world to go around.

Robert W. Rogers.
Jimmy Roosevelt has gone into the picture making business. Maybe he will get the movie rights to "Life With Father."

DO YOU REMEMBER—
Away back when pedestrians weren't dumbofounded if an autoist gave them a break at a crossing?

and some old wicker chairs, painted light blue, got cushions of bright peasant patterned cotton (from which the motifs painted on the bed were taken). A dressing table was improvised with blue swiss skirt and a painted top with peasant motifs.

For the walls family photographs were framed attractively and hung in a group together. These frames were red ones from the five and ten with wall paper mats in a light blue plaid paper.

Rejuvenating a room this way won't cost a pretty penny—figure on buying paint, yardage of swiss and printed cotton, lamp shades, picture frames and rugs. Then also count in hours of your own labor, for this isn't a glib job to be done in a slap dash. Painting furniture wants to be done very carefully if it's to look right, and making curtains and spreads requires careful tailored sewing . . . every pucker shows on this kind of work. But if you're a patient careful worker, go to it with our blessings.

KNOWN HIS MAN

Patient—Doctor, I'm always dreaming there's someone after me, that I'm being chased.
Doctor—Why don't you pay your bills?

Seasonal Wife
Floorwalker—And you say your wife has lost her purse in this store?
Husband—Yes—a brown one with flaps.

Floorwalker—And your wife's name?
Husband—Helen Summer, and it's the same in winter.

Obliging Husband
Mrs.—What lovely, fleecy clouds! I'd like to be up there sitting on one.
Mr.—All right—you drive. But let me out first.

ALWAYS SOMETHING WORSE

A hillbilly was visiting a Nebraska farmer. The farmer said: "Dog-gone it all, Bill, I sure have the toughest luck. A week ago I had a carload of prime hogs ready for market, and they got cholera and died. It's the craziest ailment ever."
"You is all wrong there," retorted the mountaineer. "Down where I come from it's wuss. The mud balls up on the pigs' tails so bad that it pulls their eyelids back so they can't wink, and they die from lack of sleep."

Lucky Bad Luck
It was a few days after a big party when two friends met.
"Well, old man, how did you get along after I left you?—Get home all right?" asked one.
"No; a confounded policeman took me to the station, where I had to spend the night."
"You were lucky. I got home."

Old Model
"Did you have to give a hint before Frank proposed?"
"Yes. He didn't seem to be equipped with a self-starter."

Proof Enough
Witness—Your Honor, I noticed that this man wobbled about as he walked, but I wasn't sure he was intoxicated until I saw him put a penny in the patrol box at Fourth street, look up at the clock on the Presbyterian church, and say, "Gosh, I've lost 14 pounds."

What's in a Name?
College Boy—Charles is an enigma.
Southern Boy—Is zat so? And I thought he was white all the time.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—One Gulf Stream. Reward if brought nearer shore.
 By a vote of almost two to one, patrons of the Harrington Special School District last week voted in favor of a new school building—and we must give a lot of credit to the pupils of the school. They put on a strong campaign, and when you have a bunch of youngsters working on father and mother for some worth-while development, that development must win.

As an illustration that anything must be worthy if it is to remain in public favor, let's take the plight of that peculiar thing so popular with people whose mental development took a prolonged vacation at the age of eleven years. Some two or three years ago, morons went down the scale a bit to the ranks of sheer idiocy to the mayhem committed by Benny Goodman and were frothing at the mouth over Tommy Dorsey. This didn't last long. Then Artie Shaw came along—and he had a nervous breakdown. Now it's Glenn Miller, who will pass out of the picture within a few weeks. Meanwhile, Wayne King and Guy Lombardo, who have been giving us real music for many years, still hold their popularity.

LO! THE POOR RABBIT!
 The Delaware Game and Fish Commission may be efficient in a broad discharge of its duties, but in one specific instance, not only the present commission, but any commission of the past several years, has lacked efficiency, and has been, to say the least, a bit cruel.
 About two weeks ago, the commission had a lot of rabbits shipped in from the Middle West. A large snow covered the ground at the time and the officials, very sensibly, refused to release the rabbits at the time, claiming they would starve.
 However, we suppose—all though we have no verification—the rabbits were released with the disappearance of that snow. If so, look at the condition of the poor rabbit now!
 If they were released, not many, if any, will survive the present snow, the largest in this section in many years. The question naturally arises, why bring the rabbits to Delaware at the most unfavorable season of the year? There may be good reasons for this action, but we've never heard of them.
 They take the little animals a thousand miles from home, dump them in a strange country at the coldest time of the year. They are not acquainted with the country, they do not know where to look for food or shelter, and, as a consequence, most of them die.
 Then why bring them here at this time of the year? We anxiously await an explanation from the Game and Fish Commission.

THAT "BEAUTIFUL" SNOW STUFF WITH US AGAIN
 We arise to voice indignant denial to the base report that Harrington has only a fifteen-inch snow this week. Probably the report was started by some low, envious creature in a rival town. The snow in Harrington is more than two feet deep, deeper than in any other town in this section of the country. When it comes to leadership, Harrington is always at the top. Buffalo, N. Y., has a deeper snow, but we must remember Buffalo is much larger than Harrington.
 The snow, the snow, the beautiful snow! Who wrote that, now I want to know. What did he look like, and where did he go—
 The critter who wrote of the beautiful snow?
 The snow, the snow, the beautiful snow! Thermometer hangin' right down at zero!
 No wood in the shed, no coal in the bin, No fire, or firewater—not even dry gin—
 And the pipes all a-freezin' and bustin', and so
 The beautiful, beautiful, beautiful snow!
 Give me the weather man just for a while—
 I'll banish him not to the far away isle
 Where Bonaparte died, and the storm-crested wave
 A threnody chants by the corporal's grave!
 Ah, no! I'll consign him to regions below
 So hot that they'll melt the beautiful snow!

WORST STORM IN YEARS BLANKETS LOWER DEL.
 The Delmarva Peninsula south of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal was still struggling out from beneath the worst snowstorm in years today. While the fall, which started late Tuesday and did not stop until noon Wednesday, averaged 18 inches in some places, drifts of eight to fifteen feet were reported. New Castle county and Wilmington escaped the storm.
 After battling the drifts for more than 24 hours highway department employees had made most of the main-traveled roads in Kent and Sussex passable by Thursday morning, although they were far from being clear of snow.
 The crews that started work early Tuesday night will continue in their fight to clear the roads until they are open. They hope that after 36 hours of continuous labor no community will be left isolated.

No break in the cold spell was foreseen before Sunday. In Harrington the thermometer hovered way below the freezing point during the entire blizzard.
 High seas lashed by the storm caused damage along the Delaware coast. Pounding breakers washed the trestle work from under a crane working on the Indian River Inlet, causing the crane to topple into the middle of the inlet. Heavy waves carried away the north and south approaches of the old bridge over the inlet and closed the Rehoboth-Bethany Beach road. Coastguards at the Indian River Inlet Station said it would take at least two weeks to raise the crane.
 In Lewes only 800 feet of the historic Queen Anne pier remained standing after being wrecked by the heavy seas and pounding ice floes. The remainder of the wooden pier which once measured more than 1200 feet is threatened with destruction when the ice begins to thaw.

can be educated to a sense of adequacy which will make his social adjustment a thing of personal satisfaction and will remove the causes of anti-social behavior. Don't blame the pupil for inadequacy."

Dr. Tarumianz' address was supplemented by a "reasonable philosophy of living" presented by Dr. Osbert W. Warmingham, associate director of the American Youth Foundation, in which he developed the precept that "we must be careful not to prepare for living to the exclusion of living."

Dr. Warmingham said progressive improvement of the science of human living together will be materially hastened if as teachers pupils can be guided to a liberation of personality through a knowledge of the true nature of life in its relation to the group life and to the universe.

In his annual address to the association, Dr. H. V. Holloway, State superintendent of public instruction, commended upon the adoption by the association of a resolution by which the teachers pledged themselves to support democracy. Dr. Holloway pointed out that the fundamental principle of democracy is free speech, a right which includes free and open discussion of all existing forms of government.

Dr. John Shilling, assistant superintendent in charge of secondary schools in informing the association of the manner in which State monies would be available for the support of Delaware schools by act of Legislature, said that much study should be given the matter of reestablishing a separate fund for the support of Delaware schools to insure their proper growth and the maintenance of the high standards under which they now operate.

The importance of visual education was stressed at the morning sectional meetings by Lyle Mowlds of the department of public instruction, who is in charge of the state library of educational films. After an explanation of how the library is to function, Mr. Mowlds and Milton Hill, representative of a film manufacturing concern, gave lectures and demonstrations.

George R. Miller, Jr., superintendent of the John Bassett Moore School, was elected president of the association for the coming year. Other officers elected are: Vice-President, Paul M. Hodgson, of Caesar Rodney School; secretary, Mrs. Doris Fearon of John Bassett Moore; director, Lester Judy.

A Checking Account Looks Good

LOOKING at cost: Money orders cost more than checks. You save carfare, gas, and shoe leather, too.

LOOKING at convenience: No standing in line to buy money orders. No running around to pay bills. You pay by check in a minute or two any time.

LOOKING at the effect upon others: The business world looks at you as a person of worth and dependability when you pay by check.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—When Oliver Stanley left the British ministry of transport in July, 1934, he was succeeded by 36-year-old Leslie Hore-Belisha, a Simonite liberal.

On October 8 of last year, Mr. Stanley offered his resignation as president of the British board of trade.

His political alliances have been with the conservative section of the army, who vehemently opposed the appointment of Mr. Hore-Belisha to the war office, early in 1937.

Mr. Stanley's activities since Munich haven't indicated that he is out for appeasement.

He is the secretive, tight-lipped son of the genial, talkative seventh earl of Derby.

KING IBN SAUD of Saudi Arabia has 250 wives, 29 sons, 22 daughters and a palace with 200 rooms.

Britain Ponders As King Ibn Saud Widens Alliances

His synthetic state, carved out in the Arabian coastal territory, in a post-war deal, is a complex of fiercely guarded empire interests.

Since the start of the desert battle of the loud-speakers several years ago, along with the Palestine impasse, there have been indications that Ibn Saud was losing interest as an empire partner.

Last January, he wrote President Roosevelt an appeal for support of the Arabs against the Jews in Palestine, with an implication that the Balfour mandate was working against Islam.

Bull-necked, bull-voiced King Ibn Saud is six feet, four inches tall and weighs 250 pounds.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LaBINE Congress Tears Budget Apart: Defense Fund May Be Raised But Other Items Are Slashed

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union

CONGRESS: Mutilation After almost a month of argument it appeared that congress would grant Franklin Roosevelt his $1,800,000,000 defense budget for 1941, but the price would be (1) drastic slashes in all other items and (2) a boost in the $45,000,000,000 national debt limit.

One warning came from Budget Director Harold D. Stark, who told all federal agencies to start training for a smaller diet next year.

leaguers Finland. So had the President, for his recommendation of a $50,000,000 loan through the Export-Import bank was strictly for non-military purposes.

EUROPE: The Belligerents Britain's war consisted of (1) a factory explosion; (2) a reported railroad sabotage plot; (3) a fiery defense in commons of Prime Minister Chamberlain's action ousting War Minister Leslie Hore-Belisha, and (4) the slaying of Britain's first German on the western front.

France's war featured (1) expulsion from the chamber of deputies of all pro-Stalin Communists; (2) news of a "plot" to aid Hitler, and (3) a verbal battle with Berlin, where France was accused of backing down on its promise not to interfere with German expansion in eastern Europe.

It was not so quiet for the Finns. For five successive days Russian planes defied temperatures ranging down to 51 degrees below zero, bombing Helsinki, Hango and other cities mercilessly.

SWEDISH VOLUNTEER "Now it is your duty..." Russians proved themselves persistent in the far-north Salla sector. Forty thousand of them staged a new drive, only to be routed.

LABOR—Thanks partly to the current house committee probe, a Gallup poll showed most of the nation favors revision of the Wagner labor act. Score (of those who had an opinion): 53 per cent for revision; 18 per cent for repeal; 29 per cent for no change.

COMMERCE—Shipments of airplanes, petroleum and metals to the allies boosted U. S. exports in December to $538,000,000—the largest for any month in almost 10 years.

1940 Census Most Comprehensive Ever Made Since the First Survey

It is a Complete Self-Examination of Uncle Sam by Uncle Sam; It Deals in Facts and We Cannot Have Too Many Facts About Ourselves.

By WILLIAM BRUCKART WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—What were you doing five years ago? And where did you live at that time? What caused you to move, if you did change your residence?

While congress is working itself into a dither of flying arms and legs and heads and heels and while New Dealers are straining at every shirbutton in an effort to show President Roosevelt is the greatest peace advocate in 19 centuries, I want to talk about something that happens only once in 10 years.

A good many folks have been inclined to regard the census as something about which to joke. There was, and is, a certain number of people who think the whole thing is silly. It is not silly.

So, borrowing from the expression of Frank Wilson of the census bureau, let me insist again that there is news of lasting value in this census and the job of census taking.

Counting of Noses Is Not Just Human Noses Actual work in this counting of noses has already started. And when I say "counting noses," the term is rather broader than just human noses.

Then, along about April 1, there will be a large army of real nose counters start to work. They will visit your house and mine and every other one and it is expected they will find at the end of the month that there are more than 33,000,000 dwelling units where people live and, further, it is believed they will have counted upwards of 132,000,000 folks in the United States.

Information Will Help As Guide to the Future I suspect that the current census will produce a lot of information that will be classifiable merely as information. That is, there is bound to be a chunk of the facts and statistics which will serve no immediate use.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS Frozen Meat.—Meat thawed quickly is likely to be tough. Keep frozen meat in warm place before cooking.

Easy to Remove Stopper.—Dip the stopper of a mullage bottle in paraffin before putting it into the bottle and it will not stick.

Baked potatoes will be more easily if a piece is cut from either end of the potato.

Sift the Flour.—Flour has a tendency to pack down, especially fine wheat flour. One may easily put as much as an extra cup of flour in a recipe if it is not sifted before measuring.

A porous pot allows water to evaporate and this is a bad feature in warm dry houses. Plants in clay pots tend to develop a root system between the soil and the pot with very few roots in the soil itself.

Left-over Sweet Potatoes.—Left-over baked or boiled sweet potatoes can be converted into appetizing dishes. One of these is to mash two cups potatoes and mix to a soft paste by adding milk.

Worst Conscience The worst conscience is not the one that is most sensitive to evil and is most troubled by wrong things done and good things left undone, but the conscience that is so dull that it has no experience of guilty pangs and terrors, and can make its possessor able to fit his greatest transgressions into a self-satisfied view and scheme of life, and to reconcile himself to memories of passion and shame.

SAFETY COUNCIL NOTES

LADIES, are you a back seat driver.

Don't apologize. Back seat driving can be a big help to the person at the wheel, if it is done in the right way. In an emergency, don't scream or grab at the wheel. Don't nag the driver with constant advice, nor argue with him. Instead, the Delaware Safety Council suggests that you be a real help by watching road markings, reading maps, watching for trains and taking care of the other details of motoring which draw the attention of the driver from the road.

Assist his quietly and in a way that won't distract. There is such a thing as a good back seat driver. MOTORISTS—many automobiles now have the headlamps in the fenders. A minor collision which dents a front fender often throws the headlamp out of line. If the headlamp beam is too low, you are getting a maximum view of the road ahead. If it is too high, your lights blind approaching drivers. Check the adjustment of your headlights after even a slight fender bump.

BOYS AND GIRLS—Coasting and skating in the winter time are a lot of fun, but unless you are pretty careful, it is easy to get hurt. Here are some rules from the Delaware Safety Council to remember:

1. Never hook your sled on behind cars. This is very dangerous.
2. Never coast on a street unless it has been blocked off for that purpose.
3. Never skate on streets or sidewalks after a thaw or a sleet storm has made them icy. Play safe by playing where an automobile can't go.

KENT FIREMEN MET AT DOVER LAST WEDNESDAY

While the delegates of the Kent County Firemen's Association were attending their 110th meeting at Dover on Wednesday evening of last week and Chief Thomas Baker, Kent County Fire Recorder, was giving a resume of the fires occurring in the county during the past year, the Robbins Hose Company alarm sounded, calling the company to a fire near Rising Sun. Two other companies, Camden-Wyoming and Magnolia also responded to the call. At the time of the alarm, Chief Baker had just finished condemning the practice of calling two or more companies to a fire, when really only one company was needed. The chief informed the delegates after his company returned that this call was unnecessary, since it was only a chimney and not in their territory. His annual report disclosed the fact that the Carlisle Fire Company of Milford had answered 109 alarms during the past year.

When the business session opened Frederica and Milford were not represented.

President Robert D. Simmons welcomed the firemen to Dover, while F. E. Burke of Clayton, responded to the welcome. He newly elected officers took up their duties without a formal installation ceremony. J. Fletcher Truax, of Smyrna, is the new president of the association. Flowers were ordered sent to Director John M. Roe of Dover, who was reported as being ill. Mr. Roe is a letter carrier for the city of Dover.

The Kent County Firemen will again sponsor a Ladies' Night to be held during the month of April. H. C. Tee, F. E. Burke and Howard Schweitzer were named on a committee to promote the entertainment, the date and place to be announced later. After adjournment the host company served a buffet luncheon.
