Range of Family

Owing to the variety of ways in which people live, the United States census bureau, for census purposes, is obliged to place a wide meaning on some of its terms. A "family," or those who constitute a household, ranges from a man living alone in a tent to a thousand inmates living together in an institution.

TAKES PLANNING TO PRODUCE MEATLESS MEALS See Recipes Below.

Favorite Foods in Lent

It takes a bit of planning to produce meatless meals that please the family because we're so accustomed to the meal that's built around substantial roasts, or chops, or steaks. But fish, eggs, milk, cheese, beans, peas and nuts, are excellent protein or body-building foods that should be substituted now and then for meat.

Fish and eggs occupy an important place in meatless meals; less commonly used, but inexpensive and good, are cheese, nuts, peas and beans.

Cheese is a concentrated food which gives good returns for the money spent on it; because it is an excellent body-building food and is rich in mineral salts, and because its flavor combines well with that of other foods, it should be more widely used.

Nuts are apt to be considered a mere accompaniment to a meal, or something to be nibbled on "between meals," but wisely used, they're an acceptable substitute for meat.

Vegetable plates are popular for meatless meals. Where they include peas or beans or eggs (which might be hard cooked, sliced and creamed) they provide a satisfying and "balanced" meal.

Lentil Feast. Mix together 8 cups soft bread crumbs, 1/2 cup fat (melted), 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons onion (minced), 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 4 eggs (slightly beaten), 1/4 cup milk and 1 cup peanuts (chopped). Pack into a well-greased ring mold and bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for about 30 minutes.

Baked Eggs. 12 slices bread, 1/4 cup butter, 6 eggs, Salt, pepper, paprika. Cut crusts from whole slices of bread and spread six of the slices with butter which has been thoroughly creamed using a small biscuit cutter, cut the center from the six unbuttered slices.

Rice au Gratin. Part I.—1 cup rice, 3 quarts water, 1 teaspoon salt. Wash rice and drop into boiling salted water. Boil rapidly (uncovered) until rice is tender. Drain and place in a buttered baking dish. Cover with Cream Sauce.

Cream Sauce. Part II.—3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 cups milk (scalded), 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon salt, Dash of pepper, 1/2 cup cheese (grated), 2 teaspoons prepared mustard. Melt butter and add flour. Mix thoroughly and add milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens.

Better Baking. This practical, usable booklet by Eleanor Howe is, just as the name indicates, a guide to "better baking." You'll find in it hints on how to improve your technique, and a wealth of reliable tested recipes—recipes for delicious breads and cakes and cookies, and for the flaky tempting pies your families love.

Swiss Eggs. (Serves 6) 1/4 pound sharp cheese, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup coffee cream, 1/4 teaspoon salt, Dash cayenne pepper, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 8 eggs (beaten slightly). Sliver the cheese and spread evenly over bottom of a shallow buttered baking dish. Dot with butter. Mix together the cream, salt, pepper, and mustard and pour one half of this mixture over the cheese. Beat eggs slightly and add. Last of all, add the remaining half of the cream mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees Fahrenheit) approximately 25-30 minutes, or until eggs are set, but not dry.

Baked Tapioca Cheese. 1 pint milk, 1 egg (well beaten), 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 cup American cheese (grated). Mix all ingredients in order given. Place in baking casserole and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) approximately 15 minutes—or until mixture thickens. Stir occasionally while baking. Serve on hot buttered toast.

Tuna Fish Scallop. (Serves 6) 1 1/2 cups milk, 3 cups soft bread crumbs, 1/2 teaspoon onion salt, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 2 cups tuna fish (flaked), 3 hard-cooked eggs (sliced), 1/2 cup cracker crumbs (buttered). Scald milk, remove from flame, and soak crumbs in it, for 15 minutes. Add seasonings. Add tuna fish. Arrange this mixture in layers in a buttered baking dish, alternating with the sliced hard-cooked eggs. Top with the buttered cracker crumbs. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees Fahrenheit) for 20 to 25 minutes.

with butter and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for approximately 20 minutes.

Pieced Border for Kitchen Curtains

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

DO YOU remember this old-fashioned Saw Tooth quilt pattern? It has been used for the border of many a handsome quilt. It is so effective and so simple to piece that it should serve more decorative purposes. Here it trims kitchen curtains of unbleached muslin. It surprises one a little to see how modern it looks. Cut a piece of stiff paper in a perfect square and then cut diagonally through the center. One half will make your triangle pattern. The size suggested in the sketch makes a very striking border. If a very strong, bright color is used for the plain triangles, a narrower border in this design will also make a good showing.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears has prepared for our readers a set of three Quilt Block Patterns from her favorite Early American designs. Included in the set is the Kaleidoscope, and the Whirlwind. The third is the Ann Rutledge, which Mrs. Spears sketched from an original in the Rutledge Tavern at New Salem, Ill., where Abe Lincoln boarded, and where he courted the proprietor's daughter, according to the romantic legend so familiar to movie goers. It is an unusual variation of the Nine-patch, and rich with historical background. For set of three complete patterns, send 10 cents in coin to Mrs. Spears, Drawer 10, Bedford Hills, New York.

Smiles

What Counts "Darling, if you marry I'll satisfy your smallest wishes."

Asked to paraphrase the sentence, "She had a singular mode of address," a boy wrote: "She wore clothes like a spinster."

Skeptical Jailer—Visiting hours are from two to four. New Prisoner—Stop joking. You wouldn't let me go visiting.

SHE ADMITS FAILURE

Butch—Why in the world do you let your wife go around bragging that she made a man out of you? You never hear my wife saying that sort of thing.

Alphonse—No, but I've often heard her say she tried her hardest to do so.

Fearful "These are hard times. You're looking very seedy, old pal." "Yep. I tremble every time I pass a sparrow."

His Right "I say, barber," said the customer, who was having rather a rough shave, "have you got another razor?" "Of course, sir," replied the barber. "Why?" "I want to defend myself."

Exquisite Luxury of Reading in Bed

By ELIZABETH MacRAE BOYKIN Few are the creature comforts to be compared with the exquisite luxury of reading in bed. In fact, we feel that it's a pleasure well worthy of concentration on planning details of convenience. A good bed is the first requisite, of course. The next is some proper propping, which can be achieved by a grand array of pillows or by one of those overstuffed back and arm rests. Or maybe a good light should rate first in the list of musts. If the room is shared by someone else, the lighting facilities ought to be arranged so that one can read without disturbing the other; that calls for a special spotlight that leaves the rest of the room dark. We recently had a look at the newly completed home of a pair of book worms, and every room on the block was arranged for good reading. But it was their bedroom especially that appealed to us because it was charming for all its bookish nature. The twin beds were set in a niche with a single built-in book shelf running all around it just above the low headboards of the beds. Fit into this shelf were spotlights between each bed and a small radio, just in case. Between the beds a broad top table provided adequate space for odd stuff. The colors of the room are very restful—the walls are painted in a soft gray-blue, while the rug is in a slightly deeper shade of this gray-blue. The bedspreads, of corded velvet, are in the same color. Draw curtains of old gold raw silk, painted lift-lid chests in white with a gold stencil design, slip covers of old gold corduroy for the two easy chairs... and there you have the color essentials of the room. A modern chest in bleached finish waxed to a satiny patine stood against a broad mirrored wall space while a flat-top modern desk, also in bleached finish, stood at right angles to another window. CIVILIZATION WILL PERISH UNLESS MEN COOPERATE

"Either people will learn to live together or civilization will perish from the face of the earth," declares Dr. Arthur Holly Compton, eminent physicist and Nobel Prize winner, in the current Rotarian Magazine.

"The story of the millennium is being written now," thinks Dr. Compton. In his article, "Science is Not Enough!" he does not minimize the present conflict and its potentialities for widespread devastation, but suggests that it like others will pass.

"Science, alone, is not enough. Goodwill to all men, old in statement, but ever new in significance, is the vital spark needed today. If such goodwill is absent as men become more and more dependent upon each other, we can only expect increase of vicious strife.

Yet Dr. Compton is not pessimistic. Few men, he thinks, want the war now darkening the world. "I believe that progress has been made, that the world is, through science and moral agencies working together, acquiring a higher standard of morality in spite of industrial strife, wars, and other throwbacks.

WELFARE BOARD DENIES FRICTION IN KENT COUNTY

Officials of the Old Age Welfare Commission today denied that there has ever been "any friction of consequence" between the commission and the Kent County Levy Court over the administration of relief.

This statement was issued in reply to charges emanating from Dover of "apparent conflict of activity" between the commission and the Levy Court. The welfare board officials explained that the probable basis of the reports is due to a change of relief in investigators in Kent County.

"This change is being made," a spokesman for the welfare commission stated, "with the consent and approval of the majority of the Levy Court. The only interest of the commission is in the efficiency in relief investigators." "The Old Age Welfare Commission has no desire to do otherwise than work in complete harmony with the Kent County Levy Court and we regret inferences to the contrary. The welfare commission is not interested in any political angle."

"The relief situation naturally offers many problems, and time and again representatives of the commission have consulted with the Levy Court in deciding how to best handle some of these problem cases. When it comes to hiring investigators for relief work in the county, it has always been the policy of the commission to consult with the Levy Court."
