Senior Citizen Prom bridges generation gap

By Carol Ann Porter

Who says you can't turn back the hands of time? That's exactly what Lake Forest students did Saturday night for approximately senior citizens during the school's first-ever Senior Citizen Prom.

Reciting the lyrics from a '50s melody, one enthusiastic senior citizen said, "Memories are made of this," as she watched friends and students cha-cha, waltz and swing past her during the evening.

The event, sponsored by the school's National Honor Society and the Student Government Association, seemed to bridge the generation gap for students and senior citizens alike.

"Students thought this would be a great opportunity to bring together different generations and also enjoy a night of fun and dancing," said social studies teacher Karen Wothers, who also serves as faculty advisor to the student council and the honor society.

Ms. Wothers said senior proms are an annual springtime event in Delaware, but Saturday's prom was the first of its kind. "This was unique in that it brought together two distinct groups... the young and the young-at-heart," said Wothers.

In preparation for this event, Lake Forest students took ballroom dance lessons for four weeks from

Bill and Trixie Wilson of the Shawnee Dance Club in Milford.

The Wilsons have been dancing together for 50 years and have taught the art of ballroom dancing in areas around Delaware for most of those years.

It was Ms. Wothers' idea to engage the dance instructors who taught the students not only ballroom-dance techniques but also such dances as the cha-cha, waltz and the swing.

On Saturday night, students and senior citizens (50+) arrived at the prom in fashions that went along with the 30s, 40s, 50s and 60s music.

There were gowns, tuxedos, jeans and even mini-skirts. It didn't matter what the garb was, there was an air of excitement and fun!

Waiting outside the door for the dance to begin were Virginia and Martin Jarrell of Harrington.

"I'm ready to dance. This is a great idea, but I hope my feet haven't forgotten what it's like to be 18 again," Mrs. Jarrell laughed.

Principal Frederick Duffy added that the "mature citizens" helped him feel very young also.

Wothers said that she has watched a very special group of students grow and mature as they learned to appreciate the differences in the generations. "At the

March spotlight is on Women in History

Harrington BPW Joins the Celebration

This year, for the ninth straight year, women across the nation will be honored during the month of March for their contributions to business, community and family.

In 1996, Harrington Business and Professional Women will be paying special tribute to those women who are engaged in preserving the history of our community. Those who have been selected for this recognition will be featured in the pages of The Harrington Journal all month long. Be sure to look for their stories and get to know them a little better.

Our honoree this week is Clarabel Peck Walls.

By Carol Ann Porter

Clarabel Peck Walls may live in Milford, but in her heart, she is a true Harringtonian. She devotes most of her hours to her love of history, serving as the historian for the Harrington Historical Society and conducting extensive research on the early history of the town of Harrington.

It's no surprise to anyone why Clarabel is so interested in the history of Harrington since she's made quite a bit of history herself.

She began school in the Harrington School District in 1926. She and her family lived on a farm four miles west of Harrington near Blades Crossroads in the Potash country school district.

Her parents, Charles L. and Sarah H. Peck wanted their children to attend the town school, so Clarabel was sent along to school with another brother and sister.

School buses were not available at this time so the means of travel to and from school for the Peck family was a horse and buggy.

The horse would stay in a barn stall across the street from the school for the remainder of the school day.

At the end of the day, the horse would be hitched to the buggy by the brother and thus the ride back home began. Clarabel's early school days had many hardships, but her love and desire for learning stayed with her all during her life.

In 1939, Clarabel graduated Salutatorian of the class and received an academic diploma. She was remembered by her classmates as a shy, quiet person.

Many of her classmates saw the depression years of the 30s put a damper on their educational dreams, but her desire for higher education won out, and she graduated from Beacom College in Wilmington.

During World War II, Clarabel pursued a career with the DuPont Company as a time analyst in a methods and standards office.

In 1946, she married William J. Walls of Ridgely, Md. She gave up her career for the love of her family.

In 1961, she returned to a business career in the banking field as secretary to the state bank commissioner of the state of Delaware. She held this position for 25 years.

The home shown above was built around 1915 and has since been divided into four separate dwellings in Harrington. Pictured in front of the home are Mr. Fleming and his wife, Emma. After the homes were separated, the carriage house was moved to Delaware Ave. to be used as a private home, and another part of the home was moved on the opposite side of Center St. The home on the left in the bottom photo is owned by the Asbury family, and the home on the right is owned by the Gamido family.

Fleming home ages well

By Carol Ann Porter and Clarabel Peck Walls

Editor's note: Exerpts of the following article were taken from a 1915 article which appeared in The Harrington Journal.

In 1914, Henry C. Fleming, one of five sons born to Ezekiel Fleming Sr., a very successful businessman who was also heavily invested in the lumber industry, married Miss Emma Reis of Milford. It is believed the family of Miss Reis owned the Windsor Hotel in Milford.

In 1915, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming built a large, charming home on Center Street in Harrington. Today, on Center Street, one can view three of the homes which show the perfect craftsmanship which went into the construction of the large home of Henry Fleming. A home which once served as the carriage house for the large home is now located on Delaware Avenue. The carriages used by the Fleming family were of the best quality and drawn by beautiful horses. Each member of the family had a carriage for his own use.

The three homes we see today, were once joined together, forming standing service and commended her for the many years of service with the state banking commission after her retirement.

Besides the banking career, Clarabel has always been very devoted to her children. The family consists of three daughters and one son. Sharon Walls Hall is presently a teacher at Polytech; Marilyn R. Longenecker is a teacher in Montgomery County, Md.; Andrea P. Dugger teaches in Louisa County High School, Va.; William J. Walls Jr. is a Family Court Judge for Kent County, state of Delaware.

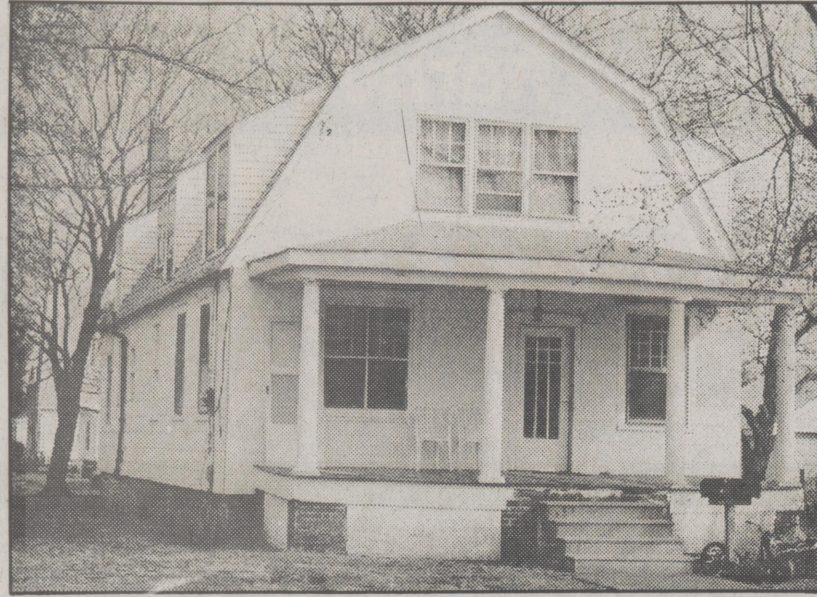

All the quality times that Clarabel and her husband spent with their children have been very rewarding. Clarabel was honored with an "Outstanding Service Award" for excellence of performance to the State in 1972, and in 1986, she retired. The State Legislature presented a resolution to her for outstanding service and commended her for the many years of service with the state banking commission after her retirement.

She is presently involved with many activities and hobbies, but her love of history and preserving historic buildings and landmarks is tops on her list. Besides serving as historian of the Historical Society, she also serves as historian for the Asbury U.M. Church and her alumni class of 1939.

Besides her extensive research on the early history of Harrington, she also is a director of the museum and a tour guide. She states that the organization is committed to preservation and the ability to pass to future generations the great heritage that they have received from their forefathers.

Clarabel feels that she has been able to live life to the fullest and that is one of the greatest blessings a person could receive she says.

a large living quarters, ballroom, bowling alley and other structures such as porches and a billiard hall.

Rumors disclosed that the family entertained in the best fashion. Some of the social gatherings lasted for a week or more.

On Feb. 26, 1915, a housewarming party was given for friends and relatives of the Fleming family. The party was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Fleming and Mrs. Fleming's brother, Sol Reis.

It is said that they entertained during the party in a most delightful manner, the affair being the most elaborate ever given in lower Delaware.

When the Flemings completed construction of the large and handsome home on the north side of town, it was connected by a sun parlor. It boasted of a private dance hall, bowling alley, billiard hall and casino.

Boardwalks were even established around the house for use by the guests. There were red-coated waiters who catered to the guests' every need.

One such waiter was the late Norman Sorden, who also worked the late shift at Peoples Service Station during this period.

Stories told by the late Clarence Collins, Harrington's greatest historian, are filled with a wealth of information about the Fleming family and their famous home.

When guests arrived, they not only enjoyed the entertainment of bands and orchestras from Atlantic City, but their eyes beheld such features as a solarium and potted palms.

The home was a marvel of richness costing many thousands of dollars. It was about 150 ft. in length, of Colonial architecture and contained several sleeping apartments, bathrooms, Turkish rooms and a handsome conservatory and sun parlor with a southern exposure.

A handsomely painted steel ceiling adorned the dance hall and bowling room while around the walls, the decorations were beautiful and costly, a professional decorator from Baltimore having done the work.

For the housewarming, the entertainment began on a Thursday night. Mrs. Fleming issued invitations for that night for a dance and the electric-lighted ballroom was a scene of unusual beauty.

The orchestra was seated in an alcove behind a mass of palms and other plants. The attendance was large, guests being present from Baltimore, Philadelphia, Virginia and nearly every town in Delaware had one or more representatives.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reis, M. Hamburger, Mr. Hood, Baltimore; Mr. Renner,

Virginia; Mr. Shaffer, Philadelphia; Misses Fisher, Bice Frazer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, Messrs. Victor Clark, Smithers Cole of Dover; Miss Windsor, John Holland, Milford; Mr. Griffith of Ocean City, Md.; Charles Murphy, Mrs. Murphy, Farmington; Miss Tumlin, Farmington; Mr. Fields, Seaford; Mr. Layton, Bridgeville; Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Sheldrake, Miss Bessie Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrington, Miss Taylor, Miss Vinyard, Walter Voshel, Dr. and Mrs. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hunger, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fleming, E. Fleming, Jr. of Harrington; Miss Sheets, Mr. Pyle, Wilmington; Mrs. Burns, Milford; S.S. Pennewill, Greenwood; Mr. Scott, Mr. Watson, Dover, and many others.

On Friday night, a smoker and party was given by Mr. Fleming, Mr. Reis and Charles Murphy, and it was a delightful affair. It was given in the ballroom and was largely attended by friends of the hosts.

To add to the entertainment, professional entertainers from Wilmington were engaged and added much to the pleasure of the affair.

At midnight, a supper was served. Many of the men who were at the dance attended the smoker and there were also present Messrs. Marshall of Milford; Mr. Figgs of Dover; Mr. Sawtelle of Harrington and many others.

During the dance and smoker, a large number were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Fleming at their home and at the hotel. About 30 men formed a house party remaining until Monday.

Dr. Barber's wife, mentioned in the article as a guest, was a direct descendant of William Penn. Another guest, S.S. Pennewill from Greenwood was Governor of the state of Delaware.

History has proved that good fortune has a way of suddenly changing. Early in the 1900s, the large home was sold to individual buyers, and three separate, private homes were established. The homes sit on separate lots on Center Street. The carriage which was eventually moved to a lot on Delaware Avenue, exists today as a home.

The house that the Gamido family now occupies was once owned by Mr. Horace Quillen, and it is rumored that there was an elevator installed at one time. Will Sharp once owned the house now occupied by the Asbury family, and Enoch Richards once lived in the home on the north side of Center St. The VonGoerres family at one time owned the carriage house that was turned into a home located on Delaware Avenue.

The fine craftsmanship and outstanding construction of this great home has a unique place in the history of this community and should be preserved.

Miss Rodeo Delaware scholarship contest planned for May

The 5th Annual Wild West Days celebration in Harrington will include the 5th Miss Rodeo Delaware Scholarship contest. This special contest will recognize a young lady from Delaware to represent the sport of rodeo for Delaware in 1996.

Entrants, who will compete for $2,500 in scholarships and other prizes, must be 16 years of age, single and a Delaware resident. Applications can be picked up at High School Guidance offices or at Chick's, US Rt. 13 in Harrington, and must be submitted or mailed to Chick's along with a 3 x 5 headshot photo. No entry fee or riding skills are necessary. Contest entry deadline is Saturday, April 20th.

Last year's winner, Miss Heather Bullock of Frederica will reign over the contest and pass her crown on to the new 1996 Queen when the big event rolls into town May 9-12.

Contestants are judged on poise, appearance, talent and personality by local civic and business leaders from the regional business community at a semi-finals presentation.

PTO meets at W.T. Chipman

The Parent Teacher Organization (P.T.O.) at W.T. Chipman Middle School held their monthly meeting on February 22 at 7 p.m. Officers of the 1995-96 P.T.O. are: Mrs. Eleanor Brown (parent), President; Mrs. Marion Fluhr (teacher), Vice President; and Mrs. Carol Starke (parent), Treasurer.

One of the items on the agenda for the evening was for five teachers to do fund request presentations. These requests included: classroom reading materials, a classroom set of encyclopedias, intramural equipment, a stove for the cooking lab, and guitars for the 6th grade music classes.

The P.T.O. hopes to honor each of the teacher requests by holding fundraisers throughout the year. Their first scheduled fundraiser will be a parent/student volleyball game on March 22 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the W.T. Chipman gymnasium. Admission will be $1 per person and students must be accompanied by their parent or guardian to be admitted to this fun event. The W.T. Chipman faculty and administration will be on hand to play volleyball and socialize. Teams will be organized for a great evening of volleyball fun and exercise (parents are not required to play).

Several teachers have requested a classroom set of encyclopedias or reference books. If you are able to donate any of these resources, call Dr. Kathy Andrus, assistant principal at W.T. Chipman, at 398-8197.

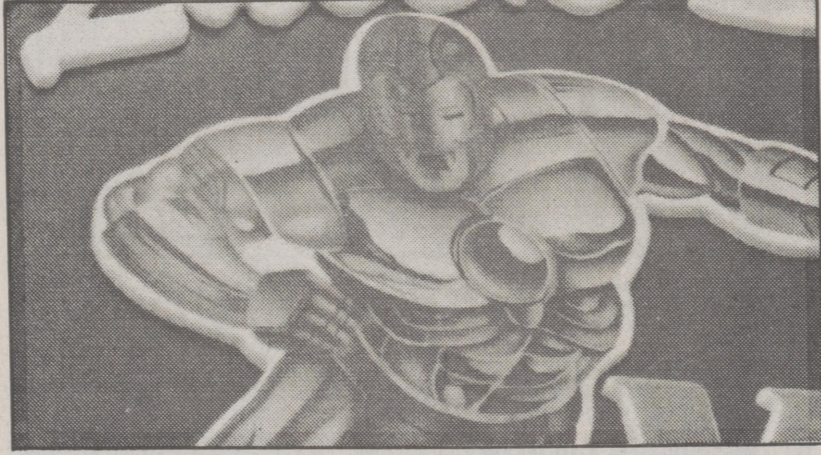

A P.T.O.-sponsored dance will be held on April 26 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the W.T. Chipman gymnasium. Anyone able to chaperon this event, call Dr. Andrus at the above number.

The next P.T.O. meeting will be held on March 26th at 7 p.m. in the W.T. Chipman library. Be sure to mark your calendar to attend and try to bring a friend.

Business

By Len Coryell, Harrington City Manager

NOTES & NEWS

from the Harrington Business Community

by Linda Chick

Streamlining, re-structuring; coordination and collaboration are the trend in business today. Similar concepts are carried over into our social lives as civic organizations join the struggle to do more with less.

With these new ideas come a certain amount of resistance to change. We feel safe and in control only when we are familiar with the environment. To sail new waters and explore the unknown we must go in faith and intuition.

Often, we are aware when the old has worn out its usefulness. Yet change is resisted until it becomes inevitable, when a dwindling of resources paves the way to the new and different.

We can see this happening all around us as businesses downsize. To remain competitive, they reduce the number of employees, combine duties of those remaining, cut benefits, delay expenditures and plot strategies for retaining market share.

Volunteer organizations do the same. They face a double whammy, both a reduction in man-power and a reduction in the traditional financial support. They, too, cut salaries of staff members, reduce costs and plot strategies for continuing services to individuals and communities.

These factors clearly demonstrate the need for rethinking and reorganizing the way we "do business" in the workplace and in the communities as we head into the 21st century. They demonstrate the need for change.

The economy demands that we change our focus. Service industries are replacing manufacturing as an economic base. Brain power is replacing brawn. Increasingly, the phone, fax, modem and computer are the tools to master.

Success in business requires a new way of thinking, a new set of skills and a new way of doing our work.

Today, civic involvement demands that we change our structure. The need for services continues to be strong, and will increase as workers adjust to the economic shift. But the ability to offer needed help is diminishing. There are many good causes but fewer volunteer hours to spread among the many. To make a difference through philanthropy requires new thinking, new organization and a new way of meeting the needs.

It all hinges on the ability to embrace change. And change, if we allow it to happen, is what keeps the world fresh and interesting. And the opportunities are just waiting to be discovered.

By the time you read this, Spring will officially be here, and the weather will be kinder to us.

The first week of April will soon be here - "Spring Clean-up Week." Remember, we will not pick up construction material of any kind. All refrigerators and air conditioners must be free of the freon, and refrigerators must have the door removed before the city will pick them up. Everything must be at the curb.

March 30, 1996 will be the city's Parks & Recreation's Easter Egg Hunt at W.T. Chipman School. The hunt begins at 11 a.m. and is for all children up to 12 years old. Come out and have a great time with us. A special guest will be with us.

The West Street Elderly Project is underway. When the project (Phase I) is complete, there will be apartments for senior citizens. Contrary to some public opinion, this project when complete will pay property tax and all utilities. The complex is a private project, therefore it is not tax or utility exempt. To be eligible to live there, a person must be at least 62 years of age, and their income must be at a certain level to qualify. If you have any questions about this project, call me at the office.

Please continue to watch for our youngsters on the streets. Say hi to your neighbor. Have a safe week and remember. If you are in need of help or have a question, please call me at 398-3530.

Lake Forest administrative costs lowest in Delaware

By Dr. James H. VanSciver
District Superintendent

Senior Legislative Analyst Michael L. Morton forwarded to State Board of Education President Paul R. Fine a February 23 communication which details current expense by category by district for the 1994-95 school year.

When comparing "percent of total, excluding food services and special education schools," Lake Forest School District ranks 17th of the 19 Delaware school districts with only one percent spent on general administration (chief school officers, assistant superintendents, administrative assistants and clerical), only .1 percent higher than Indian River School District and .2 percent higher than Christiana School District. The state average is 1.3 percent.

For "percent of total, excluding food services and special education schools," Lake Forest School District ranks as the lowest in Delaware with respect to the percentage spent on school administration, principals, assistant principals, and clerical. Our 3.8 percent is .2 percent lower than Polytech. The state average is 6.1 percent.

When combining the two, Lake Forest's 4.8 percent is the lowest in Delaware, with the state average being 7.4 percent.

- Spent in the Classroom: $13,166,710, 63.5% of total.
- Spent on General Administration: $213,958, 1.0% of total.
- Spent on School Administration: $785,793, 3.8% of total.
- Spent on Operations & Transportation: $2,974,536, 14.3% of total.
- Spent on Instructional Support: $3,596,854, 17.3% of total.
- Total: $20,737,851.
- Net Instruction: $12,928,242, 61.8%
- Students: $1,296,916, 6.2%
- Instructional Staff: $238,468, 1.1%
- General Admin: $213,958, 1.0%
- School Admin: $785,793, 3.8%
- Operation & Maintenance: $1,910,608, 9.1%
- Student Transp.: $1,063,928, 5.1%
- Other Support: $2,299,938, 11.0%
- Food Services: $170,719, 0.8%
- Net Current Expenses: $20,908,570

South B rallies for Running Start!

First-grader, Chelsea Wooters, helps students cheer on winners during Lake Forest South B Elementary School's "Running Start" program. The closing celebration held Friday morning in the cafeteria recognized 89 students for their accomplishment of having read the required number of books. Principal Earl Griffin presented the students who reached their goal with a certificate and pin. The Chrysler Corporation, in cooperation with Reading is Fundamental, provided funding to selected schools in all 50 states for this program which was designed to give beginning readers a boost in reading. The goal was for each student to read or have read to them, 21 books within an eight-week period. Photo by Carol Ann Porter

Edward Welch resigns from Lake Forest Board

Long-time Lake Forest School district Board of Education member, Edward L. Welch, of Harrington, has resigned from the school system's board.

Welch, who has served on the board since July of 1986, wrote in his letter of resignation, "I have enjoyed the nine years and eight months that I have served. Sometimes, the decisions that were made seemed easy and, at other times, they were difficult. I am sure that I will miss the late hour meetings and the difficult time of scheduling my calendar, but my family may see more of me."

Welch, during his tenure on the board, had served as both vice president and president.

His resignation, "in order to pursue an opportunity that is before me," became effective on March 2, 1996.

"He will be missed," said Superintendent Dr. James H. VanSciver. "He was a steady influence on our board, one who was able to call upon his vast experience to deal with decisions which needed to be made."

The Lake Forest board members intend to leave the seat vacant until the May 14 election produces a member who will assume the seat on July 1, 1996.

LFHS honored by Redbook

Lake Forest High School Principal Fred Duffy received some very good news recently. He was informed by REDBOOK Editor-in-Chief Kate White that Lake Forest High School had been named a winner in REDBOOK's America's Best Schools Project.

"Congratulations!" wrote White. "I am delighted to announce that your high school has been named a winner in REDBOOK's America's Best Schools Project. Your school has been selected for its innovative and successful programs as well as its uncompromising commitment to excellence."

Nearly 400 schools were nominated for recognition. A panel of a dozen education experts selected 155 winners in six categories, classroom innovation, parent/community involvement, extracurricular activities, special-needs programs, significant improvement, and overall excellence. Lake Forest was selected in the extracurricular category and will be spotlighted in REDBOOK's April issue.

Lake Forest High School social studies teacher Karen Wooters' P.I.T.C.H. (People Involved Touch Children's Hearts) program was prominent in the application process.

Founded in 1994, "our goals are to raise awareness about and money for the Make-A-Wish Foundation," she explained.

Thus far the group has amassed over $7500 with projects such as vending at Blue Rocks Stadium in Wilmington, vending across the Carolina Minor League, and hosting a Carnival for the Kids. The organization has garnered prestigious awards such as The Governor's Outstanding Volunteer Award (Youth Division), the National Honor Society's Outstanding Service Project Award, and the President's Outstanding Volunteer Award.

An article appeared in Baseball Weekly in May of 1995 detailing the group's efforts. They have also appeared on Kevin Riley's radio sports show in Wilmington.

"We now have an African pen pal who began writing to us because of the article which appeared in Baseball Weekly," Wooters said. "Our goal is to have raised over $10,000 before the end of this school year."

same time, I've seen the appreciation and acceptance from the community for the time, energy and talents that these students have dedicated to this project."

Alexis Thompson, a Lake Forest

senior, summed up the night by saying, "I'm glad that we had the opportunity to interact with the senior citizens in our community, and I hope this is the beginning of a new tradition."

Sunday worship service at Houston United Methodist Church is 9:30 a.m. Sunday School for all ages immediately follows the service at 10:30 a.m. Rev. Dr. James VanDerWall is the Minister. All are welcome.

Last Sunday Rev. VanDerWall delivered the message. In his message he stated that God does not look at us from outward appearance but from the heart.

Mrs. VanDerWall spoke to the children. She said, "If money could talk, we wonder what it would say." The Senior Choir sang "A Crown Of Thorns".

Greeter was Penny Austin. Ushers were Mr. and Mrs. James Durity. Richard Layne was Acolyte.

Keep in mind the Bake the United Women are having at Wal-Mart on March 29 beginning at 9 a.m. There will be lots of goodies.

The Easter Sunrise service will be held at Blair's Pond on Easter morning at 7 a.m. The public is invited to come worship with us. It may be cold, so bring along a blanket and chair. Donuts, coffee and hot chocolate will be served following the service. The regular church service will be held at the church at 9:30 a.m. The public is invited to worship with us at both services.

A note of thanks was read from Doris Wagner who has been in the Milford Hospital. She is recuperating at home and her daughter from New Jersey is spending some time with her.

The flowers in the church on Sunday were from the Preston Minner and Hope Minner wedding on Saturday, March 16. Rev. VanDerWall and Rev. Wall officiated. Congratulations to the happy couple and may they spend many happy years together.

Birthdays congratulations to Sara Hunter, Wayne Eisenbrey and Francis Arthurs.

On Saturday evening, March 16, the Houston Fire Co., held their Annual Ladies Night Banquet. It was catered by Jay's Market. Carroll Jester was Master of Ceremonies. Guest speaker was President of the Delaware State Firemen's Association, Lynn Rogers. Several awards were given. Charles Hayes was honored for being a member for 60 years. William Davis and Robert Minner were honored for being members for 50 years.

A dance with music by D.J. Just Kidding Around was held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. It was a very enjoyable evening.

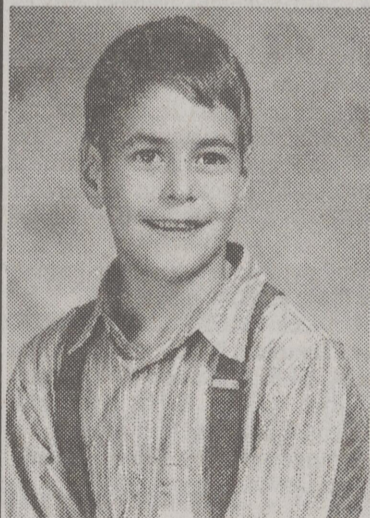

Congratulations to Brenda and Carlos Villa who became parents to a baby girl weighing 8 pounds, 4 ounces on Tuesday, March 5, at the Kent General Hospital. She is named Alayna Grace Villa. Her maternal grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. John Gilmore of Milford.

Church

St. Bernadette's Church News

Mass is celebrated Wednesday at 7 p.m., Saturday at 4:30 p.m. and Sunday at 9:30 a.m. All are welcome! The Parish Lenten Reconciliation Service is scheduled for March 27th at 7 p.m.

Stations of the Cross are a popular form of piety intended to stimulate private prayer and devotion. The first Way of the Cross, with stations and meditations, appeared in the middle ages and enabled Christians who could not visit the Holy Land to trace the steps of Christ. By the 18th century, these stations counted 14 in number, drawn from scripture and traditional accounts that were passed on for generations. Thus, whether publicly or in private the journey made in following the Way of the Cross is a sign that the church is a pilgrim upon earth and that individual Christians are called to die with their Lord so as to rise with Him in glory.

Stations of the Cross will be held at 7 p.m. on the Fridays during Lent at St. Bernadette's.

Metropolitan U.M. Church

The Metropolitan United Methodist Church, located at 109 West Street, Harrington holds church services as follows:

Church School - 11:30 a.m.
Morning Service - 12:30 p.m.
Choir Practice - 7 p.m. Monday
Tutorial Program every Wednesday night.

Administrative Board meeting the second Tuesday at 7 p.m.
U.M.W. meets the second

Pilgrim Chapel

We'd like to extend a warm welcome from Pilgrim Chapel. Our services are:

Sunday School - 9:30 a.m.
Morning Worship - 10:40 a.m.

Trinity U.M. Church

Trinity United Methodist Church is located at 63 Commerce St., Harrington. Rev. James E. Carmean Jr., is our pastor.

Sunday School is at 10 a.m. for all ages, and worship service at 11 a.m. Community Bible service is held each Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. Senior Choir rehearsal is at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday, and Junior Choir practice is at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Our friendly greeter for Sunday, March 17, was Kathleen Montague. Kristen Ryan and Megan Deering served as acolytes. Mr. Wayne Porter and Mr. Samuel Powell, Sr., were ushers.

Asbury U.M. Church

The Asbury U.M. Church is located at 200 Weiner Avenue in Harrington with the Rev. James VanDerWall Minister.

We have Sunday School classes for all ages at 9:45 a.m.-10:45 a.m. Worship service is at 11 a.m. A nursery is provided for children under five, and Mrs. Marie VanDerWall has a message each Sunday for the children. Bible study every Monday at 1 p.m. and Disciple Bible study every Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Please feel free to attend any or all of these services. We cordially invite you to join us.

During the past couple of weeks several people from the Asbury Family have been writing devotions and the following was written by Betty Clarke:

Psalm 142:7 - "Set me free from my prison that I may praise your name. Then the righteousness will gather about because of your goodness to me."

These words were David's own at a time when he was hiding from Saul, never knowing from what direction an attack would come, but always knowing God was his protector.

We know God is our protector and we love being in His church, surrounded by others whom He loves and protects. The prisons we set up for ourselves of fears that we try to solve by ourselves; anxieties that seem unrealistic to anyone other than ourselves; anger and malice when our spirits become small; addictions to anything... alcohol, drugs, food, gambling; these are all prisons from which we can be released. This release comes simply by turning our will to God. Good old fashioned down-on-your-knees prayer.

Prayer: Please, Lord, make my will Yours.

Looking Ahead at Asbury:

Peninsula Regional Gathering will have a worship service at Asbury Church in Harrington next Sunday, March 24. This gathering is designed to bring renewal to the United Methodist Church. Rev. Wes Davis will be the guest speaker. He is both pastor and a singer. Effective July 1, he will be the new pastor of the Lincoln UMC. Please plan to attend.

Asbury will be receiving new members into the church on Palm Sunday, March 31.

Thursday, April 4: Maundy Thursday. There will be a Seder Meal, which is a recreation of the Last Supper of Jesus, in Collins Hall. All are invited.

"I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd gives his life for the sheep." (St. John 10:11)

"Go To Church On Sunday"

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church News

Holy Week - 1996

The Journey of Your Life

Would you like to make a marvelous journey with Jesus? This would give us an opportunity to get to know Him better -- to experience His love first hand, His grace, joy, compassion, pain, anguish, and suffering in a new way. There is a sense in which the Church makes this possible by means of the Holy Week and Easter liturgies.

The Journey begins on Palm/Passion Sunday on the road from Bethany to Jerusalem as we cheer the new king, waving palm branches and shouting "blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord." On Wednesday in Holy Week we pause to act like an Orthodox Jewish family gathered for the Seder or Passover Feast. Jews have celebrated it each year, ever since their flight from slavery in Egypt. It commemorates the shed blood of the paschal lamb smeared on the door posts of the Jewish homes to signal the Angel of Death to "pass over" the households of God's people.

This can help us comprehend the significance of the Maundy Thursday Eucharist. On that night we will be with Jesus as He instituted the Lord's supper on The Feast of the Passover. Having participated in the Seder on the previous night, perhaps we will better understand the significance of the words, "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us," spoken as the celebrant fractures the host. When the altar is stripped following this service, we can feel the starkness and emptiness of being without our Lord as He is betrayed and led away to be tried and executed. Some may even want to maintain a prayer vigil this night in order to pray with Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane and attempt to do what the disciples failed to do when they fell asleep after He asked them to watch with Him one hour. Let's be there that night to hear Him give us two new mandates -- "Do this in remembrance of me" and "Love one another as I have loved you."

On Good Friday we will stand at the foot of the cross, with the women and the disciple whom Jesus loved, watching the execution; we will cringe at the torture; hear Him pray for the forgiveness of those responsible for putting Him on the cross, and watch Him die and be taken to the tomb. Let's be there to receive a new awareness of how precious we must be for Him to endure so much for us.

On Easter Eve during the Great Vigil, we can experience the transition of our Lord from death to life and His departure from the darkness of the tomb as the church is switched from total darkness to full light while we worship. We move from abject despair to exceeding joy, from crushing defeat to total triumph over our last enemy, death. Finally, let us be there as He merges from the grave to shout, "Alleluia, Christ is risen."

Holy Week and Easter Schedule
March 31 - Palm-Passion Sunday, Blessing of the Palms and Holy Eucharist, 10:30 a.m.

April 3 - Wednesday in Holy Week, Seder, 6:30 p.m.

April 4 - Maundy Thursday, Holy Eucharist and Stripping of the Altar, 7:30 p.m.

April 5 - Good Friday, Community Service, Trinity UM Church, Frederica, 7 p.m.

April 6 - Easter Eve, The Great Vigil of Easter, 7:30 p.m.

April 7 - Easter Day, Sunday School at 9 a.m., Adult Discussion Group at 9:15 a.m., Holy Eucharist with special music by our children at 10:30 a.m. An Easter Egg Hunt will follow the service.

Prospect U. M. Church

"But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." (Hebrews 11:6)

Rev. James Carmean Jr. is the minister at Prospect Church, which is located five miles west of Harrington on Route 14 in Vernon. We invite you to worship with us each Sunday. We have Sunday School for all ages at 8:45 a.m. and worship service is at 9:45 a.m. Mary Lou Wright is pianist.

On Sunday, March 17, Albert Wright was candle lighter. The choir opened the service by singing "We Have Come Into His House". They chose "He Wasn't There All the Time" for their anthem. Doris Fry prayed the offertory prayer, and Barbara Hanson and Harold Fry were ushers.

Jean Miller gave the children's message with Terry Woodward as her helper. They did a play with Terry as the young man and Jean as Sin. Sin entered the young person's home and Terry told Sin that she wasn't invited to come in and should not have done so. Sin told him she was invited because he had been reading a book which he should not be reading. She had the right to be there. Sin knocks at your door and you let it in. The young man did not like Sin in his house, so he made Sin get out of his house.

Rev. Carmean read scripture from Luke 8:22-28 and Hebrews 11:6. His sermon was based on Faith. Jesus took the gospel to a lost and dying world. When the storms of life attack us, we need to call on the One who can get us through our problems. We must have faith to be able to please God. We must live by faith and through faith all things are made possible. We are under a critical time and only God is the answer to our problems, but we must call on Him to help us.

March 20 - 6 p.m. Family night.

March 21 - 7 p.m. Choir practice.

March 23 - 6:30 p.m. Movie Night at Prospect.

March 24 - 7 p.m. Hymn Sing at Prospect with Sounds of Grace.

March 30 - The church will be serving lunch at the Martha Poore sale.

Harrington Baptist Church

"When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and this disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, Woman, behold your son! Then He said to the disciple, Behold your mother. After this knowing that all things had already been accomplished, in order that the scripture might be fulfilled, said I am thirsty." (John 19:26-28)

Jesus the God Man, all God, and all Man, gave evidence of His humanity when He uttered these two words, while hanging there on the cross, "I thirst".

Battlefield Baptist Church

Sunday School - 10:00 a.m., Morning Service - 11:00 a.m., Evening Service - 7 p.m., Wednesday Evening Service 7:00 p.m.

"When the SHOUT has not died out!"

Pastor James Richardson and the congregation at the Battlefield Baptist Church on Addix Avenue in Greenwood invite you to join them in worship services and find out how you can be 100 percent sure that you are going to heaven. For more information call 398-3478.

What are you thirsting for? Buying things you don't need or really want, seeking pleasure you don't really enjoy and yet you still have that deep feeling of emptiness and loneliness within, that nothing seems to help. That's because you don't know what you are thirsting for. Nor can you know until you know our Lord Jesus Christ as your own personal Lord and Savior.

Harrington Baptist Church invites you to come and worship with us every week as we seek to give praise and glory and honor to our Lord in the messages of our pastor, Willie Johnson. We feel as you listen to him bring the gospel of Jesus Christ each week, you will find the answer to your thirst and emptiness.

Our church is located on East Liberty St. across from the Armory. Our phone number is 398-3373. Everyone is welcome.

Opportunities for the week:
Sunday School for all ages at 9:45 a.m.

Sunday worship services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. (morning nursery provided).

Adult Choir rehearsal on Sundays at 6 p.m.

Sunday Youth Watchers class at 6 p.m.

Wednesday prayer service at 6:30 p.m., followed by Bible study at 7 p.m.

Thought for the Week: "The law discovers the disease; the gospel gives the remedy."

Harrington harness racing contingents revel in winner's circle

Sleepwalk, trained and driven by father-son team, sets new record; Longshot, Cochran Greg, romps to fastest victory of 17-race career

Wilmington's Roll The Dice Stable's Sleepwalk scored the fastest mile in Delaware harness racing history in the $11,000 Invitational pace on Sunday, March 10, at Dover Downs.

Sleepwalk broke his own track record of 1:54.1 in an awesome display of closing speed to score a 1:53.4 victory.

The victory completed a training-driving double for J.D. Dennis, 65, of Harrington and his son, George, 25, of Felton, who also collaborated to win the $10,000 Cloverleaf Series Final one race earlier on the 13-race afternoon program.

Sleepwalk, a seven-year-old gelding, set the previous track record two weeks ago when he broke a 10-year-old mark. Romanoble (Walter Callahan) finished second in the momentous mile followed by Yankee Beamer (Ray Robinson Jr.)

The Delaware Series Final turned into an all-Harrington production as 15-1 longshot Cochran Greg, owned by Nellie Ann Dennis and Frank Chick, trained and driven by 'the Dennis' scored a 1:59.2 upset-victory.

A joyful Harrington area contingent reveled in the winner's circle after their three-year-old colt romped to the fastest victory of his 17-race career, rushing past pace-setting Mr. Belvedeer (Eddie Davis) in mid stretch to win by two lengths.

Truth Hurts (Ray Robinson, Jr.) closed boldly to finish second in front of the tiring Mr. Belvedeer who held on for third.

Power Ranger, driven by Rick Murphy, also entered the Dover Downs' record books, notching a 2:00.3 track record for a three-year-old colt trotter in the feature trot.

In the afternoon program opener, Dixie Laag won his first pari-mutuel start in a sizzling 1:59.2 as George Teague Jr. guided the three-year-old colt home first by four lengths for owner Kevin Fry of Milford.

Spirit, Mind & Body awards named

The YMCA of Delaware announced on March 11 the names of the ten high school basketball players who are the recipients of the 5th Annual "YMCA Spirit, Mind & Body Awards".

The awards honor youth leadership activities and commemorate the YMCA's role in the invention of the game of basketball. The awards are made to students based on their record of scholastic achievement, community service and athletic ability. This year's recipients were selected by the YMCA from students nominated by high schools throughout Delaware.

The 5th annual awards presentation takes place in two segments. The male recipients were honored on Saturday, March 16, at the Boys High School All-Star Basketball Game at Caesar Rodney High School. The female recipients will receive their awards at half-time of the Girls High School All-Star Basketball Game on Friday, March 22, beginning at 6 p.m. at Smyrna High School.

Here are the area "1996 YMCA Spirit, Mind & Body" award recipients and their respective schools: Chasity Cole, Lake Forest High School; Melinda Failing, Caesar Rodney High School; Mike Simpson, Lake Forest High School.

A brochure with pictures of the award recipients along with their accomplishments for personal and community growth will be distributed to those in attendance at the All-Star Games.

NHRA/Pepsi 1st State National Open to kick-off U.S. 13 season

With a little help from Mother Nature, the first event on the 1996 drag racing schedule for the U.S. 13 Dragway will be the annual NHRA/Pepsi 1st State National Open March 22, 23 and 24. Local racers were able to get in practice last Saturday but Sunday's opener once again fell victim to the weather.

The Pepsi 1st State National Open is expected to attract more than 200 of the top Sportsman racers in the East. Divisions that will compete include Super Comp, Super Gas, Super Street, Super Stock, and Stock. Action will get underway on Friday, March 22, with gates opening at 11 a.m. and the "Tune & Test" session running from noon until 5 p.m.

Saturday, March 23, gates open at 8 a.m. NHRA inspection will run from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. NHRA

Time Trials will run from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. with National Record Runs taking place during the first two sessions. ET Tournament inspection will begin at 3 p.m. followed by time runs and eliminations for Super ET, and Heavy ET begin at 6:30 p.m.

Sunday, March 24, gates open at 8 a.m. Final NHRA inspection will run from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. Final NHRA Time Trials will run from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. with eliminations beginning at 11 a.m. ET Tournament time trials and Jr. Dragster time runs will begin at 3 p.m. with bracket eliminations to follow.

No Pro Bike or Trophy classes will be run the entire weekend. Jr. Dragsters will compete Sunday afternoon only. For more information, contact the dragway office at 302-875-1911.

Racers, start your engines

By Charlie Brown

The record book is ready to be rewritten during the 1996 season at the Delaware International Speedway. Several drivers are currently on the verge of breaking existing marks.

In the Modified division, one record that is guaranteed to be set will be the first driver to win a point championship under the D.I.R.T. banner. Bobby Wilkins heads the list once again this year but for the first time he will be both owner and driver. Last season, Wilkins became the first modified driver to win five point crowns, tying Lou Johnson in the Late Models. This year both Wilkins and Johnson have a shot at becoming the first drivers to ever win six division titles. Wilkins and Kenny Pettyjohn in the Lake Model division currently have won four consecutive point championships each. Either could set the mark for most consecutive championships this year.

Wilkins is also just six wins away from being the winningest driver ever at the track. Retired chauffeur, Harold Bunting, still holds that distinction with 87 modified wins. Current leader in all-time Lake Model victories is David Hill with 85. Hill also has an excellent chance at becoming the top all-time winner in any division with just three more victories '96 and he will be looking for his fourth point championship in the division.

Elwood Driscoll returns to the Street Modified ranks for 1996. Driscoll leads the division in point championships with three and is only four wins behind all-time division win leader, Dale Bounds.

The Dwarf Car division is entering only its third season. Ronnie Wilson captured the first two point championships including last year when he failed to win a single feature. Wilson will be looking to keep his streak alive with a third consecutive win.

Tune-up for the potential record breaking season will begin on Saturday night, April 7, with an open practice night for all divisions. The 1996 season will officially get underway on Saturday night, April 14, with action in the D.I.R.T. Modifieds, the Late Models, the Street Modifieds, and Dwarf Cars. For more information contact the speedway office at 302-875-1911.

Board Certified — Plastic Surgeon
Fellow, American College of Surgeons

A Community Physician

As the first and only full-time Board Certified Plastic Surgeon to live and work in Sussex County, I feel a great deal of commitment to the people of lower Delaware. Prior to moving here almost seven years ago, I spent nine years learning my profession. The first six years were in General Surgery with five of those six years being spent at Harvard. During the course of my General Surgery training, I spent a year doing research in a laboratory at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where I worked on developing artificial skin. Subsequent to completing my General Surgery training at Harvard, I spent three years at the Johns Hopkins Hospital learning Plastic Surgery. At Johns Hopkins, an emphasis was placed on cosmetic surgery, hand surgery, and reconstructive surgery.

This intensive training has prepared me to provide a full range of Plastic Surgery services. My nine years of training allow me to treat both adults and children. Pediatric Plastic Surgery was a significant component of my training. Pediatric services usually involve treatment of congenital or birth abnormalities often of the hands or face. A particular problem of interest for me is that of prominent ears, which can be treated very nicely with a reconstructive procedure as an out-patient.

Adult Plastic Surgery includes cosmetic surgery of the eyelids, nose, forehead and face and also body contour surgery commonly called "tummy tuck" (Abdominoplasty) and liposuction. Breast surgery normally involves reconstruction after mastectomy or breast reduction for women with heavy, pendulous breasts suffering neck, back and shoulder pain. Hand surgery includes the medical treatment and occasionally the operative treatment of a wide range of hand problems such as Dupuytren's disease, ganglion cysts, carpal tunnel syndrome, and work related hand problems as well as trauma to tendons and nerves in the hand. The treatment of skin cancer often requires reconstructive flaps or skin grafts on the face for skin cancers to minimize scarring and deformity.

All of these procedures can be performed locally here at the hospital. My office staff and I are happy to see patients either in our Lewes Office or Milford office at your convenience. Please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions.

GANGLIONS

We all worry about the lumps and bumps that we have. It must be human nature to wonder whether that little mass is some sort of cancer. Fortunately, most are benign (noncancerous). One such lesion is the ganglion, a cystic mass which bulges out from a joint or tendon sheath like a mushroom on a stalk. It has a synovial lined cavity filled with synovial fluid (the nourishing/lubricating fluid found in major joints).

Most authorities feel that ganglions occur when a weakness develops in a joint capsule or tendon sheath, whether by the trauma of a sudden impact or the repetitive microtrauma caused by work on an assembly line, the weak tissue allows for a bulging to occur. At first, the cavity is in continuity with the joint or tendon sheath and may fluctuate in size. As the joint is more active, more fluid is produced and the lesion becomes larger. It may become smaller with rest or may even be emptied back into the joint by gentle pressure. Eventually, as the ganglion continues to grow, the connection becomes obliterated by fibrous tissue and the ganglion is now a completely enclosed lesion. They may continue to grow, although more often they remain relatively constant in size. The contents become more viscous and jelly-like because of a lack of motion and fluid exchange.

A ganglion is usually firm yet fluctuant, smooth and round in appearance. They are frequently associated with aching discomfort or a feeling of weakness. Ganglions have been reported in virtually every anatomical location but are seen more frequently in the extremities. In fact, the ganglion is the most common tumor of the hand. The typical site of origin is the dorsum (back side) of the hand and the next is the volar (palm) side of the wrist. Men, women, and children can all be affected because it has no age limit or sexual preference.

Treatment is aimed at eliminating the ability of the cyst to retain fluid. In the past, a large book such as a Bible was used to strike the ganglion in order to rupture the cyst wall and expel the contents. Today, treatment is generally provided by needle aspiration or surgical excision. With the needle technique, a local anesthesia (like Novocaine) is administered first. Then a needle and syringe are used to suction out the fluid in the cyst. Several holes are made in the cyst wall though a single skin puncture to prevent re-accumulation. This has a cure rate reported between 50-65% but can be performed in the office.

The surgical procedure requires a small incision made under anesthesia to completely remove the entire cyst. This has a cure rate of 90-95% but must be performed in the operating room.

No matter what the choice of treatment, the odds are favorable that a successful outcome will be achieved.

Give the gift of letters

By Eleanor A. Dickenson,
Postmaster of Greenwood

To encourage a revitalization of letter writing, the U.S. Postal Service is celebrating National Card and Letter Writing Week from March 18-23, 1996. The theme for National Card and Letter Writing Week is "Give the Gift of Letters... The gift that lasts forever".

This week I encourage everyone to participate in National Card and Letter Writing Week. Everyone has someone who would love to receive a letter from them. Whether it's your mother, an old friend or even the editor of your local newspaper, there is someone out there who would love to receive a letter from you.

With the advent of the "now generation" -- a generation raised on fast food, taxes, computers and overnight mail -- the art of pouring out hopes, dreams or thoughts in a letter has almost disappeared. Today less than four percent of the mail we receive at home are personal letters.

Why not join me in corresponding to someone? Your letter may become a gift that will last forever.

During this week, the Greenwood Post Office is sponsoring a letter-writing project called "Pen Friends", and is encouraging everyone to write to the men and women involved in the U.S. Military Bosnia peace enforcement mission. You can send a letter for 32¢. Addresses are as follows:

- Mail not intended for specific individuals in Army, Air Force or Marine Corps U.S. land forces should be addressed to:

- Any Service Member, Operation Joint Endeavor, APO AE 09397.

- Mail to "any" Navy or Marine Corps personnel aboard ships supporting the mission: Any Service Member, Operation Joint Endeavor, FPO AE 09398.

- Mail to "any" families of service men and women deployed in the Balkans:

- Any Family Member, Operation Joint Endeavor, APO AE 09399.

VFW#6009 celebrates anniversary

By David Dill

On March 8, Members of V.F.W. Post #6009 of Felton celebrated their 50th anniversary.

The post was organized on March 10, 1946 in Felton and was given the name of Adams-Simpler-Ware in honor of Loran Adams, Caleb Simpler and John Ware. These three young men who gave their lives for their country and for freedom.

Senator Nancy Cook of the 15th Senatorial District, along with Robert J. Voshell of the 18th Senatorial District and Robert Quillen, 31st District Representative gave tributes to the Post on its anniversary. Mrs. Dorothy Donoway was given the honor of Gold Star Mother.

Stories of conflicts and humor echoed throughout the room as members of World War II, Korean War, Vietnam and other American campaigns were told.

Guest speaker Hugh Foster III of Carlisle, PA spoke to the audience about the sacrifices of American young men's roles during war time. Mr. Foster reminded the veterans of the many young souls who are left on the battlefields of Europe and Asia, and not to forget them because they gave the ultimate sacrifice of all.

Happy senior center birthdays to Nellie Stallings, Ina Holmond, Addison Groff, Abluter L. Curtis, Dorothy Vincent, Eileen Eldridge, Benjamin Hughes and William Melvin.

Get well wishes go out to Steve Sheline. Steve is the son of Don and Brenda Sheline of Felton. On February 1st Steve was in an accident in Atlanta, Georgia from which he suffered a broken neck.

Family members report that he is doing very well, his determination and spirits are high and his mother has moved to Atlanta to help with his recovery. Steve's 26th birthday is March 31 and it would be nice if he were flooded with birthday greetings and get well wishes. He expects to be in the hospital for at least another eight weeks. His address is: Steve Sheline, Shepherds' Spinal Center, 2020 Peach Tree Road, N.W., Atlanta, GA 30309.

Miss Kate Jester performed in the Ballet Theatre of Dover's presentation of The Dream and Peter & The Wolf this past weekend. Congratulations Kate!

Mr. and Mrs. M. Terry Roberts of Davidsonville, Maryland spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.T. Roberts.

Many area senior citizens, and not so senior citizens, attended the Lake Forest Senior Citizen Prom on Saturday night. Jack and Betsy Short and Jack and Kaye Sapp were in attendance to support the event as well as in celebration of their wedding anniversary's. The Short's 43rd anniversary was March 6th and the Sapp's 32nd anniversary was the 7th.

Cindy Porter and children Jake and Nicole along with Brittany Porter enjoyed a night at the movies on Saturday evening.

The Harrington Community Yard Sale is held today between 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Center on Fleming Street.

Don't forget that the Harrington Senior Center's 2nd Annual Spring Auction will be held today between 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. at the Center on Fleming Street.

Happy belated birthday to Matt Dill who celebrated his 19th birthday on the 13th.

Elaine Zeitler was the guest of honor at a surprise bridal shower at the Colony Inn on Sunday afternoon.

Kim Gruwell was a recent house guest of her grandparents Klein and Genevieve Moore. The Moore's have also been enjoying the company of their grandson, Dwain Moore and a friend of his from Clark's Summit, Pennsylvania.
