Donald Derrickson

What do I like about Harrington?

"The people are friendly, and I like the slow pace of living in Harrington. This town can be anything you want to help make it. We have a great city administration, and they are all behind what the citizens want. Whatever you are willing to give in kind, you get back ten fold."

School's out - Summer Fun Days is in!

By Carol Ann Porter

School is out, kids are free and summer is officially here. What's in store for youngsters in the Lake Forest School District? Fun, games and interesting activities abound at Summer Fun Days which began on Thursday, June 27.

That's right! Every Thursday from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m., old-fashioned playground programs take place at the W.T. Chipman

Middle School.

According to Linda Chick, chairperson of the Harrington Parks & Recreation Committee, parents and grandparents remember good, wholesome activities from their childhoods. This is what Summer Fun Days is all about, with an emphasis on crafts and group games, all led by experienced counselors and other volunteers.

Planned this year are bike hikes, storytellers, drama, dance and music coaches and a variety of visitors to fill each Thursday through August 22.

Summer Fun Days wraps up its weekly activities with a Summer Jamboree, a street fair complete with music and games planned for the evening of August 29.

Parents may register their children at Harrington's City Hall. There is no fee to participate, but a

Senior Center couples add up to 1,259 years of marriage

By Carol Ann Porter

Twenty-three couples representing a total of 1,259 years of marriage enjoyed the Harrington Senior Center's Annual 50+ Club Anniversary Party on Monday, June 24.

This is the tenth year that the center has sponsored the event with all of the married couples cel-brating more than 50 years of wedded bliss attending.

The couple this year having been married the most years was Melville and Mary Taylor celebrating 63 years!

Next were Oscar and Ida Dickerson and Robert and Harriet Robinson, celebrating 62 years.

Eddie and Lela Taylor and William and Hazel Davis celebrated 60 years of marriage this year.

Elmer and Phyllis Clink celebrated 58 years while Tony and Marie Dulik celebrated 56 years.

James and Virginia Nichols, Ken and Joan McKnatt, Arthur and Jewel Hoffman, Dot and John Godwin all celebrated 55 years of marriage this year.

George and Dorothy Mende and Allen and Tollie Johnson celebrated 54 years this year.

William and Betty Lord were next with 53 years, and Charles and Edna Warren celebrated 52 years of marriage.

Edgar and Blanche Voorhees celebrated 51 years, and several couples celebrated their golden anniversary this year. With 50 years under their belts were Ed and Carol Russell, Irene and Dale Dean, John and Harriet Trump, Martin and Virginia Jarrell, Guy and Evelyn Winebrenner, and William and Clarabel Walls.

The dining room was decorated in a wedding reception decor with white wedding bells and lace table cloths.

First, the couples were served lunch at their tables followed by the procession of couples where each couple was announced in order of years married.

The husbands were presented roses to give to their brides with a kiss, then back by the wedding cake for a photo.

Rev. Beers had a "Blessing of the Unions" followed by Mary Bereton singing two selections, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "True Love." She was accompanied on the piano by Bob Shultie.

Then there was a question and answer game which according to the senior center's Executive Director, Gene Price, was quite a hit with the couples.

To top off the day, a beautiful wedding cake was served to the couples. Mr. Price said that everyone present had a great time, and he is looking forward to seeing everyone at next year's celebration.

Harrington's "Hub Tappers" perform at Rehoboth Bandstand

By Carol Ann Porter

On Saturday, June 8, a local dance group called the Hub Tappers performed at the Rehoboth Beach Bandstand.

This same group will be appearing at the Delaware State Fair on the Delmarva Power Free Stage on July 22 at 5 p.m.

The Hub Tappers first organized in 1991 and have appeared at area senior centers, Lions Club events, fire companies, Harrington Heritage Day, the Delmarva Chicken Festival, Senior Olympics, Bethany Beach Grandstand, the Governor's Festival, and nursing homes in both Maryland and Delaware.

Their program consists of both dance and comedy. Some of the dance numbers are "Me and my Shadow," "Ma, He's Makin' Eyes at Me," "Singular Sensation," "Top Hat," and "In the Mood," just to name a few.

There are also many skits done by each member of the group. They are booked through December of this year with three or four shows a month on their busy calendar.

The group of ladies consist of Lucy Mondazza, Betsy Short, Evelyn Poggi, Kaye Sapp, Nel Montgomery and Hilda Jaywork. The emcee for the group is Jack Short.

Jack Short, emcee for Harrington's Hub Tappers, does a little "ad-libbing" during a recent performance at the Rehoboth Beach Bandstand.

These couples at the Harrington Senior Center's Annual 50+ Club Anniversary Party represent a total of 1,259 years of marriage.

The Felton Bank recently held their customer appreciation day on Wednesday, July 3. The bank provided refreshments to their customers in appreciation of the continued loyalty and support from the Felton and Milford communities. Summer is officially here, and the beaches and tanning parlors are overflowing with people searching for that ultimate tan. In the next few weeks, The Harrington Journal with the help of Dr. Elizabeth Masten, a dermatologist in Milford, will be supplying our readers with "food for thought" on how to enjoy the summer and the sun "sensibly."

June Jam provides music, games and hope

By Bruce Williams

Was that "Hang On Loosely" by 38 Special floating above the tree-tops in Harrington on Saturday, June 22, or maybe it was hot, southern licks being laid down by Johnny Neal, or it could have been the blazing guitar of Joey Fulkerson of the Hurricanes resurrecting the memories of Jimi Hendricks or Stevie Ray Vaughn. Actually, it was all three, as the 18th Annual June Jam, Delaware's Best Outdoor Concert, filled Callaway's Hitching Rail Campground with music and hope at nearby McCauley's Pond.

While the day of the annual June Jam is about bringing the best in local and national touring bands to the Harrington/Milford area for a day of music and fun in the sun, the purpose of the event is much more serious. For 18 years, Bob Hartley, President of June Jam Ltd., a registered, non-profit organization in Delaware, and his staff of nearly 200 part-time volunteers have been bringing hope to dozens of local residents, who have found themselves in financial need through no fault of their own, and worthy organizations of Delmarva.

However, while the Annual June Jam is the "main event" of the year for Hartley and his "staffers", it is hardly the only "labor of love" provided by June Jam Ltd. If you listen to WZBH throughout the year, you have undoubtedly heard June Jam's name mentioned in association with other benefits sponsored by the group such as the benefit held for Ralph Brown of Dover, who is suffering from cancer of the liver and pancreas, at the Camden/Wyoming Fire Hall, and, more recently, the benefit for Thomas Malice of Georgetown, who is in desperate need of a liver transplant. In addition to sponsoring benefits on their own,

June Jam is also active in lending a hand to other worthwhile local groups, such as Home Of The Brave, a shelter for homeless veterans in Milford, and the Annual Punkin' Chunkin' in Lewes, who donates the proceeds of their event to local charities in Eastern Sussex County.

To date, June Jam Ltd. has raised and distributed in excess of $11,000 for its beneficiaries, not counting the proceeds from ticket sales, charity raffles and vendors of this year's Annual June Jam. Hartley said he is sure his organization will exceed the record total of $13,000 raised last year, and he is confident that this year's goal of $18,000 will be met and probably exceeded. Hartley said of his staff, "I'm very proud of our people. There probably isn't another group of unpaid volunteers who can put on this quality of a show for so many people on the entire East Coast. They work very hard to ensure everyone has a safe and good time at the Jam, and their efforts help so many people. I'm very proud."

Among the people and organizations scheduled to receive money, and in some cases additional money, from this year's June Jam are: Sandra Bush, whose son suffers from a rare disease which requires expensive medication; Ronnie Warren, who has cancer of the tongue; Erica Wildrick, a six-year-old who suffers from a rare cancer that affects the skeletal structure and whose parents need help with transportation costs, food and rent; Sandra Benson, a brittle diabetic undergoing numerous eye operations in an attempt to save her sight; Billie Jo Cooper, a pregnant mother who recently lost her husband in a tragic accident and needs assistance providing for two young children and the soon-to-be addition to the family; Don Lynn, who lost two small children in a house fire and requires treatment from injuries he suffered while trying to rescue them; Wendy Found, who needs a double lung transplant; Delaware Association of National Head Injury, a new organization that provides assistance to those who suffer from head injuries; Ashley Peebles, a 15-year-old student who lost her mother a few years ago and needs assistance for school and future college costs; Delaware Home & Hospital for the Chronically Ill, June Jam hosts a number of wheelchair-bound patients for a day of fun at the Jam.

Other organizations receiving monies are the Harrington and Houston Fire Companies, the Alzheimer's Association, the March of Dimes and the Leukemia Society.

When asked what is next for June Jam Ltd., Hartley replied, "You mean besides already preparing for next year's Jam? Well, August 9, we will be holding a benefit at the Camden/Wyoming Fire Hall for Jodie Guthrie, who was recently diagnosed with leukemia and needs help affording the treatments. Tickets are only $7.00, come out and join us."

In addition to 38 Special, Johnny Neal and The Hurricanes, Hartley expresses appreciation to Rick Wilson, Red Letter Day, Bob Croce, Montana Wildaxe, Mercy River, Crystal Zoo and Great Train Robbery for providing a day of great music. He also appreciates all of the vendors who provided entertainment and services to the crowd, with a special appreciation to all of the sponsors who donated much needed cash and services and whose yearly donations are in large part responsible for the success of the Annual June Jam.

Donations are accepted through the year by June Jam Ltd. on behalf of the above mentioned individuals or organizations, or you can donate a check or money order directly to June Jam Ltd., and they will see that the monies are used for the most pressing need at the time. For more information or a schedule of events, call 302-284-JUNE.

Results of a series of experiments in bright sunshine have implications for infectious disease and immunization effectiveness, said Dr. Kevin D. Cooper, professor and chairman of the department of dermatology at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

The data also suggest that damage from the sun's natural rays is even more profound than that produced in experiments using UVB-rich sunlamps.

Volunteers basked in sunlight on a university rooftop prior to being exposed to the contact allergen dinitrochlorobenzene. Investigators then measured their levels of sensitization.

Even at levels of sun exposure too brief to produce a sunburn, volunteers demonstrated fewer strongly positive reactions to the allergen.

Dr. Cooper said it was "surprising and scary" to see how powerfully sunlight undermines immunity. The process drives Langerhans' cells out of the epidermis and provokes mast cell de-granulation and the release of a number of cytokines and mediators.

Within days after sun exposure, macrophages move into the dermis and then the epidermis where Langerhans' cells once reigned, completely "changing the milieu of immune response," said Dr. Cooper, also of University Hospitals of Cleveland and the Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Cleveland.

He warned that those with dark-skinned skin suffered the same kind of immune suppression as light-skinned individuals, but with less warning from redness.

In pale volunteers a sunburn was visible at the 50% immunosuppressive dose of UV. That is, they were clearly sunburned at a dose that activated the immunosuppressive factors in their skin.

In contrast, dark-skinned volunteers were immunosuppressed in the absence of any sunburn.

"Their skin doesn't feel warm. There is no feedback for people with dark skin to know when they've reached (dangerous levels of immunosuppression)," Dr. Cooper said.

Why I volunteer: I like to keep active, but mostly because I have been so blessed during my life. I like to think I am giving something back.

My memberships (club organization and etc.): Harrington Senior Center, St. Bernadette's Church and Choir, Laubach Literacy Action, Friends of the Harrington Library, Milford Hospital Auxiliary.

My proudest accomplishment: Raising four successful, well-adjusted children, and that is no small accomplishment in these times.

The worst time in my life: When one of my children came down with encephalitis (sleeping sickness) at age 5, and was in a coma for five weeks.

The best time in my life: When she recovered with no lasting side effects.

The craziest thing I ever did: Hobbling through a ten-day tour of California on a broken toe, wearing a rubber thong sandal - the only thing I could get on a swollen foot.

The most embarrassing moment: There have been so many. It might be the time I was stretching to unlock the car door, and my foot came off the brake and hit the accelerator, and I demolished the automatic garage door of my best friend; or maybe the time I stapled my own fingers in front of an amused class of high school seniors; or realizing I was wearing my dress wrong side out after meeting and chatting with half the town at the food market. Take your pick!

My pet peeves: Telephone sales promotions. They always call at meal time too.

My best habit: Neatness. I have to straighten pictures and tidy up.

My worst habit: Procrastination - I put off and put off doing things.

My hobbies: Gardening, crossword puzzles, reading.

Traits I most admire in others: Cheerfulness and a sense of humor

My advice to today's youth: Always keep learning as long as you live. It will bring you much profit and satisfaction.

Sound Off

Sound Off provides a forum for readers who wish to express opinions about public issues but not give their names. To Sound Off to the Harrington Journal, 678-8255 any time, day or night. Keep your message brief. We will edit calls for clarity, accuracy, brevity and libel. Not all Sound Off calls are printed. Comments are selected for publication based on their timeliness and relevance to local issues.

'I wonder how they felt'

Every once in awhile Sound Off prints some calls that are definitely anti-military. Callers run down the value of our service, the value of our Air Force, and the value of the people who serve this country. I wonder how they felt after the bombing in Saudi Arabia, where 19 of our very best lost their lives. Let me tell you something folks, there's an awful lot of people who are jealous of this country. There are a lot of people in this world who would like to bring America to her knees. Because of people like those who gave their lives, this country is fairly safe. It deserves the stature our forefathers earned. Those who are anti-military should thank these people for making this country what it is, and in retrospect, they should take back some of their anti-military comments.

Get hold of this epidemic

Years ago, before people were given a marriage license, they had to have a test for venereal diseases. The American Medical Association is talking about making it mandatory for pregnant women to be tested for AIDS. I wonder if your Sound Off readers will respond on what they think about having an AIDS test prior to people getting a marriage license. We've got to get hold of this epidemic before we no longer have a country.

T-E-A-C-H-E-R-S!

I'm calling with respect to alternative training for teachers. I would like to say one thing: do you know how many teachers are without work in this state - teachers who went to school for four years to become teachers but can't get a job because we're not 22 or 23-years-old and just out of college but are from this state? This is ridiculous! We don't need alternative teachers - we need people in this state to give jobs to teachers in this state - T-E-A-C-H-E-R-S!

If you want the whole nine yards

Who do these state employees think they are? They want to get a raise after they retire? The private sector doesn't get a raise after they retire. I urge everyone to get a state job so they will have more benefits and the whole nine yards.

Biden should be finding out

I'm disappointed that our own Sen. Biden is acting as an apologist for President Clinton. Instead of trying to cover up the FBI file flap, he should be finding out who committed this crime.

If that man wanted to run

Here I am watching the news. They're back talking about Colin Powell again. All they talk about is Colin Powell. Is he going to run or not? It's so stupid! If that man wanted to run he would have made up his mind long before this, and I'm sure there would have been a reporter standing there waiting to report on it. If I were him, I would run all right - I'd run somewhere and hide. If that man had a gas expulsion, there would be a reporter standing there trying to report on what he'd had for lunch. I mean, it's so ridiculous! Why the hell can't they let the man alone and report on something that's actually important? If he says he doesn't want to run, the hell with him! He doesn't want to run - can't they get that through their skulls? What part of no don't these jerks understand?

NOTES & NEWS from the Harrington Business Community

Candidates prepare to pucker up in readiness for Third Annual Pig Kissin' Contest

Who would you like to see kiss a pig? Some days, the list could be endless. Well, the word is out. The Harrington Business Association, the Greater Milford Chamber of Commerce, Main Street Milford and the Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce are busy lining up candidates to do just that -- kiss a pig in full view of the public. The object is to have a great deal of fun while raising a healthy chunk of money to underwrite a scholarship fund for junior exhibitors who take part in the Delaware State Fair. The vehicle for raising that money is the Third Annual Pig Kissin' Contest.

This is the way the contest works: The Pig Kissin' candidates, are volunteers from state and local political ranks as well as from area businesses. They will be collecting votes (For "votes," read "cash donations") prior to July 25 at 4 p.m. when the Pig Kissin' finals will be held on the Delmarva Power Free Entertainment Stage at the Delaware State Fair.

-Public Asked to Vote-

The public is invited to take part in the Third Annual Pig Kissin' contest in two ways. The first is by voting. Racks with mason jars for each of the candidates will soon be appearing in businesses from Harrington and Milford to Dover. Pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and dollars deposited in those jars will constitute the votes for the candidates. No donation is too small or too large. And in this election, stuffing the ballot boxes and voting at more than one location are not only legal, they are encouraged. The faster the ballot jars, the healthier the scholarship fund. In addition to the racks of jars, there will be individual collection jugs at various locations.

-Scholarship to be Awarded-

The beneficiary of all this hoopla, the winner of the 1996 Junior Exhibitor Scholarship will be announced later in the day at the Delaware State Fair Junior Livestock Auction. Applicants for the scholarship must be Delaware residents who have been Junior Exhibitors at the Delaware State Fair for at least two years and have achieved excellence in the fair's Junior Exhibitor programs (4-H and FFA included).

The Junior Livestock Auction, held each year at the fair, offers Delaware youth an opportunity to recoup some of the funds needed to purchase and raise the animals they exhibit, to accumulate funds for the next year's project, and in some cases, to establish or add to college funds.

The Junior Exhibitor Scholarship, supported by the annual Pig Kissin' Contest, rewards one or more of those outstanding young exhibitors with added dollars for continued education. In 1994, the first Junior Exhibitor Scholarship was shared by Danna Lynn Vanderwende and Amanda Pie-shala. The 1995 winner was Michele Winkler.

For more information, please call Dana King at 302-398-4130 or Amy Fleming at 302-398-3895.

Anna Marie Fahey's family offers $10,000 reward

The family of Anne Marie Fahey, the missing 30-year-old Wilmington woman who serves as Governor Carper's scheduling secretary, announced last week they are offering a $10,000 reward for information leading to the whereabouts of Anne Marie.

Fahey was last seen with a male acquaintance at a Philadelphia-area restaurant on the evening of Thursday, June 27th. Anyone with information, or who may have seen her, is asked to call Wilmington Police at 302-571-4512 or the Delaware State Police at 302-323-4412.

What a great weekend of weather. Terrific July 4th weekend.

First, I would like to begin this column with an apology for the change in the trash pick-up this past week. Our contract hauler could not pick up all the schedules they were to service due to the July 4th holiday. I did not have enough notice to advertise the change, and again I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

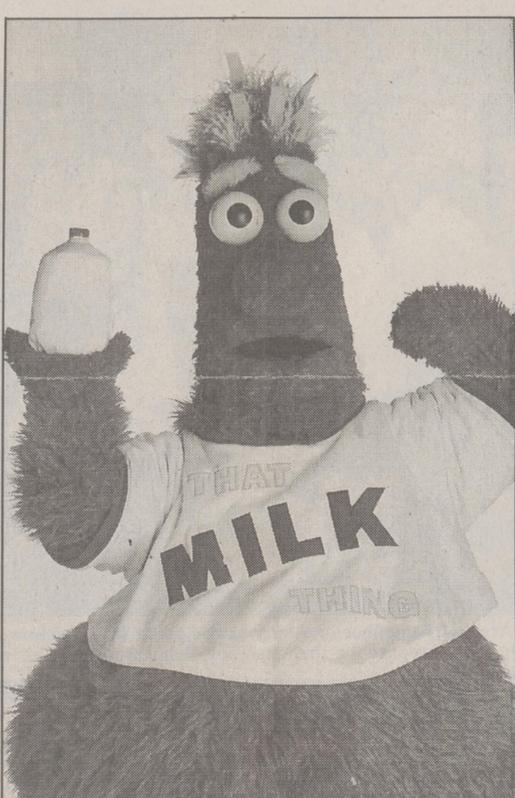

Once again this summer, the city has hired summer help to clean and paint the curbs in the city. This program has afforded the youth of our city employment while helping beautify the city and also help with traffic control with the painting of the curbs.

Our Public Works Department has a heavy work schedule this summer as they do all year long. If you think you have need of the services of the Public Works Department, please call City Hall and discuss it with me so we can get it on the schedule.

Remember, we are here to serve the taxpayers of Harrington.

Please continue to watch for the kids on the streets. Say hi to your neighbor. Have a safe week and remember, if you are in need of help or have a question, please call me at 398-3530.

"The Milk Thing" will visit the Delaware State Fair this year on Children's Day, July 23. He will be on hand to entertain and educate youngsters from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., so look for him when you visit the Fair this year!

Delaware State Fair Board elects new president

The Delaware State Fair Board of Directors' Annual Reorganization Meeting was held on Monday evening, July 8, with William J. DiMondi elected as the new president of the board.

The candidate put forth by the nominating committee was William J. DiMondi with Leroy Betts being nominated from the floor. The vote was tied at 35-35. Another vote was taken after another director arrived late. The second vote was 39-34 in favor of Mr. DiMondi.

Mr. William Chambers announced during the meeting that he would not seek re-election. He served as president for eight years.

New National MS office to open in Camden

The Delaware Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society is opening an office in Camden to better serve the needs of individuals with multiple sclerosis and their family members who live in Kent County. The office will open on July 17 in the Town Council conference room in Camden. The space was donated by the Camden Town Council after being contacted by Camden resident Mary Ann Teller.

Office hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Volunteers will staff the office on a rotating schedule under the supervision of Marilyn Van Savage, Chapter Services Coordinator. Marilyn will be in the office every other Friday afternoon to be available for counseling, meetings and consultation. Laura Morris, Chapter Services Assistant in the Sussex County office, will be at the new Kent County office on alternate Fridays.

The office is a product of the new Kent County Service Council that is chaired by Regina Byers. This Council, which will have rotating leadership, has spent the past three months planning ways to enhance services in Kent County.

Council members are anxious to provide more services for people with MS in Kent County; they would appreciate hearing from clients regarding the kind of services and programs they would like. The Kent County office phone number will be 302-698-0847. For further information, call the main office of the Delaware Chapter at 1-800-640-1001.

Education

Kent County 4-H Fair is a success

Each year the Kent County 4-H Leaders Association plans an educational event to help the 4-H members prepare for the Delaware State Fair. This event provides the 4-H'ers a chance to have their exhibits judged once before the State Fair to allow them the opportunity to make improvements. The day also allows the 4-H members with livestock exhibits an opportunity to show their animals in a show before they compete in the State Fair shows.

One of the day's activities is the County 4-H Livestock Judging Contest. The top winners this year are:

Arin Hall - Viola Fireflies 4-H Club

The winners of the overall showmanship were, in the livestock area, Cara Bullock, Country All Stars 4-H Club, and in the horse area, Cheyenne Pritchard, Country All Stars 4-H Club.

The day was not all work. The last event of the day was the pie eating contest. Adults and 4-H'ers from the various clubs participated as a team. The Country All Stars 4-H Club was the winner. What a mess to clean up afterwards!

The 4-H'ers competed for trophies and ribbons during the day. Local sponsors, including the Delaware Cooperative Extension, the Kent County 4-H Leaders Association, Art Craft Enterprises, and the Kent County Farm Bureau, made this day possible. The co-chairmen for the day were Ed and Tina Holz, Adult 4-H volunteer leaders in the AA 4-H Country Club.

If you would like to become part of this active youth educational program as a member or volunteer leader, contact the Kent County Extension office at 697-4000. The 4-H program is open to all persons regardless of race, color, sex, handicap, age or national origin.

Area 4-H members recently participated in a workshop to help them prepare for the upcoming Delaware State Fair competitions.

Brode receives National Mathematics Award

The United States Achievement Academy announced recently that Robert G. Brode has been named a United States National Award winner in Mathematics.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Robbie, who attended W. T. Chipman Middle School, was nominated for this national award by Jamila Riser, a teacher at the school.

Robbie will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy.

She has also been employed by Turnabout Counseling as an addictions counselor. Lake Forest adopts '96-97 school calendar

During their April 25 business meeting, the members of the Lake Forest Board of Education adopted the 1996-97 school calendar.

Discussion was had relating to the procedure for making up days missed due to weather. It was decided that those days would be made up at the end of the school year.

"It is our hope that staff and parents will use this calendar as a schedule with which to plan their own calendars for the coming school year," explained Superintendent Dr. James H. VanSciver. "The fewer educators who are absent and the fewer students who are absent make the education process that much more productive. We like our staff and our students to be in school."

It was pointed out that major community events are also included on the calendar for the convenience of the district's citizens.

"I might as well start reading!"

By Dr. James H. VanSciver
District Superintendent

Joseph F. McKenna, a veteran business journalist, is a contributing editor of Managing Office Technology. He penned an article entitled "Education, Our Common Task", for the May 1996 edition of that journal. In it, he describes wonderfully the essence of the reading experience, the fundamental education skill which supports us through our schooling . . . through our lives.

"My Great-Aunt Pauline was a sweet-voiced octogenarian whose small, wrinkled frame belied a grand wisdom," he wrote. "The child of an accomplished German-American building contractor, she championed reading for its practical as well as its aesthetic value. Reading well was as much an indispensable skill in the world as dressing oneself or crossing the street with care. If I was learning the other skills, she decided, I might as well start reading. Thus, I spent many afternoons in my Great-Aunt Pauline's room, building my world of words out of the varnished tiles of her well-used Scrabble game.

"And that, basically, is how I've progressed from stringing together T-H-E out of small blocks of weed to fashioning sentences on this page.

"I know I'm biased, but I think my dear Aunt's approach might be a key to overcoming our current educational crisis."

The elements he so skillfully identifies in his article are powerful: start the reading experience at the earliest age; persist throughout childhood and into adulthood; and have everyone focus on the importance of reading.

In so doing, we may cause an evolution which would create a revolution. Our youth, our citizens may read more!

The next time you have cause to enter into conversation with a neighbor, a family member, or a member of our community, ask two questions.

First, "What book are you now reading . . . because you want to?" And, next, when you see people out in the community, "Where are you going . . . to the library?"

If we ask these questions in a meaningful way, and demonstrate the desired behavior ourselves, we may just make it happen; we may make reading important.

IS THIS BETTER... OR IS THAT...

For fifty years, Delawareans have been answering that question for us and we've been providing them with the best in eye care and eyewear. Come celebrate our 50th anniversary with us and see what half a century of experience can do for you.

Sunday Worship Service at Houston United Methodist Church at 9:30 a.m. Sunday School for all ages immediately following the service at 10:30 a.m. Rev. James Van Der Wall, Minister. All are welcome.

Last Sunday was the first anniversary of Rev. Van Der Wall being our minister. We are very happy to have him and Mrs. Van Der Wall back with us for another year.

It was Communion Sunday and Rev. Van Der Wall served Communion assisted by Phyllis Fisher. He delivered the message on the life of Isaac and Rebecca.

Mrs. Van Der Wall spoke to the children. She told the story of three hymns, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Silent Night" and "It is Well With My Soul." Ruth Layne played the hymns softly as she spoke.

Birthday Greetings

Marvin Smith goes "round" with boxer Joe Frazier

By Carol Ann Porter

Marvin Smith, a Felton resident, celebrated his birthday on June 23 with his wife treating him to a ferry boat trip to Cape May, N.J. and a stay at the Angel of the Sea Bed and Breakfast. But there was a little added surprise to his birthday celebration that was quite unexpected.

It seems they arrived at the Cape May-Lewes terminal a couple of minutes late and missed the ferry they had originally planned on boarding.

While in line, they noticed a white Mercedes in front of them. When the Smiths pulled up to the toll booth operator, they were told that Joe Frazier, the famous fighter and former world heavyweight champion, was in the Mercedes.

Mr. Smith, a fighting enthusiast and also one of Joe Frazier's biggest fans, saw the celebrity emerge from the Mercedes and immediately introduced himself.

According to the Smiths, Mr. Frazier was very friendly and personable. "We were very impressed," said Mrs. Smith. "He has a great personality." Mr. Frazier even posed as Mrs. Smith photographed the champion and her husband together.

Mrs. Smith added that her husband has not stopped smiling yet. "And it wasn't because of the birthday present I arranged for him," she smiled. "It was because he met Joe Frazier."

Clients from The Benedictine Open Community Program pose in front of Cinderella's Castle during their recent trip to Disney World.

Benedictine clients travel to Disney World

Under picture perfect skies, 43 clients of the Benedictine Open Community Program recently left the Ridgely, MD, campus for their flight to Orlando and five days in Walt Disney World. It was a vacation that will not soon be forgotten. Clients and staff of the Open Community Program had spent close to a year preparing for what one client called "the vacation of a lifetime"! Dozens of fundraising events were held, including bake sales and raffles throughout communities in Maryland and Delaware where Benedictine clients live and work. In addition, all of the participants spent months putting aside savings from their own paychecks to help defray the costs of the trip. Upon their arrival at Disney World, the clients were treated like royal guests. They stayed at Disney's All-Star Music Resort, delighting in its oversized swimming pools in the shapes of massive musical instruments. Hectic days were spent in all three of Disney World's theme parks--The Magic Kingdom, Epcot, and MGM Studios--with each of the clients being able to spend as much time as they wanted in the areas they most enjoyed. Without question, the trip to Disney World was a resounding success. Special kudos go to Eleanor Sweeney, Babiker Obaid, Carolyn Ebling and the rest of the Open Community staff who flawlessly organized the trip, as well as to the many counselors and parents who accompanied the clients throughout the week. The Benedictine School is a nationally-recognized residential special education program located on 300 acres in Ridgely, on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Approximately 120 students reside full-time at the school, with an additional 80+ living in more than 25 group homes and apartments scattered throughout Maryland and Delaware. For further information about the school and its programs, you can call 410-634-2292.

"And Jesus put forth His hand, and touched him saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed." (Matt. 8:3)

Rev. James Carmean Jr. is the minister at Prospect Church, which is located five miles west of Harrington on Route 14 in Vernon. Mary Lou Wright is our pianist. We invite you to worship with us each Sunday. We have Sunday School for all ages at 8:45 a.m. and worship service is at 9:45 a.m.

On Sunday, July 7, Virginia Brown was greeter, and Ashlee Stewart was candle lighter. Barbara Hanson led the service. The choir opened the service by singing "I Was Glad". They chose "God Bless America" for the anthem, with everyone joining in the second time. Anna Webb prayed the offertory prayer, and Vivian and Francis Dill were ushers.

Jean Miller talked to the youth about frogs. She had brought Freddie the Frog with her. Frogs are green, ugly and not too smart. One day Freddie drew a picture of a frog with big muscles and it was special. The other children made fun of it and Freddie felt like a worm. One day Freddie read in the paper about a school for handicapped children, so he went to the school and played with the children and read to them and showed them that someone loved them.

One day the children made a poster for Freddie and told him they loved him. That made him feel special. God loves each one of us and that makes us feel special.

Jeannie Camper gave the message. Her scripture was from Matthew 8:1-15. The title of her message was "Be Touched and Changed". A mother and her two-year-old daughter were riding on a train. In the next seat sat an elderly gray-haired woman. She was very dirty. The child went over and talked to the woman and at first she didn't want to talk to the child. But the child kept talking to her and finally the woman changed and was friendly with the child.

Everywhere Paul went he told how Jesus' love touched and changed the blind man, the leper, the ill and the dying.

Jesus also touches our lives. When we pray to Him, He helps us. Jesus had a lonely life. He was born in a stable, He was never married, He died a horrible death nailed to the cross, and He was buried in a borrowed tomb. Jesus is loving and forgiving and He paid the price for our sins. He died on the cross for us. We must be forgiving if we want God to forgive us.

July 15: 7 p.m. Bible School meeting.
July 17: 6 p.m. Family Night.

LAWNMOWER INJURIES

There are 30 million lawnmowers in use in the United States. Every year they are responsible for more than 100,000 injuries. The Consumer Product Safety Commission reports that children under the age of 14 are at greatest risk of injury.

The mower is such a common sight that we are lulled into feeling comfortable with its presence and we often go about our activities with it virtually under our noses. The most common mode of injury occurs when the individual is run over while playing near the mower or by falling off of the mower.

The lawnmower has devastating potential. Last year the greatest risk of death for mower injuries was in children under the age of six. People underestimate this machine. It creates as much kinetic energy as someone dropping a 20 pound weight from the top of a building 100 feet tall.

Besides the bone and tissue damage caused by the blade impact, these injuries can be grossly contaminated with grass, soil and animal wastes. For this reason, they are very prone to infection.

Recognizing the hazards, the manufacturers have installed many safety features which have reduced the potential for projectile injuries and danger to the operator of the mower. Unfortunately, these improvements do very little to protect a small child from slipping or falling into the blades.

Lowering the staggering incidence of these injuries will only be possible through improved awareness and respect for the potential damage that these machines can create. Keep small children away from power lawnmowers -- far away. Children should NEVER be allowed to ride as a passenger on the riding type of mower. No matter how careful and cautious you may think that you are, accidents happen. Don't subject yourself to the lifelong guilt that you would feel if such an injury occurred when a child slipped from your arms, or the lawnmower rolled over them because of an inclined slope, wet grass, or lost wheel. The injuries that are created when small children fall under the blades of the mower are not only the least justifiable, but they tend to be the most severe as well.

Adolescents should have attained a reasonable amount of maturity before they are allowed to operate these machines. Remember that the highest incidence of injury occurs under the age of 14.

Anyone of any age who operates a power mower is at risk. We must remember to observe every safety precaution and exercise common sense to minimize the chance of a disabling injury.

Ride the "Rail" and enjoy sights

Since its inception in 1992, the annual special train trip from Philadelphia and northern Delaware to the Delaware State Fair in Harrington has always been a pleasant experience. Passengers have been treated to a scenic ride aboard an air-conditioned Amtrak train that allows passengers to enjoy the Fair while making for a comfortable, stylish ride through Delaware's countryside. For these reasons, the train has been filled to capacity for the annual excursion. This year, Rail-To-The-Fair '96 offers even more.

feature a food service car for passengers wishing to purchase food and soft drinks when it makes the trip Saturday, July 20.

The one-day rail trip, presented through the Delaware Department of Transportation in cooperation with the Delmarva Rail Passenger Association and the Delaware State Fair, will depart on its fifth annual journey from Philadelphia at 9 a.m., with stops in Claymont, Wilmington, Newark, Middletown and Dover, before arriving at the fairgrounds in Harrington at 12:07 p.m. The train will depart from the fairgrounds at 5:11 p.m., allowing passengers to enjoy up to five hours at the Fair. However, riders may continue on an optional scenic journey to Frankford and spend approximately two hours at the Fair.

Tickets for Rail-To-The-Fair '96 are available at Mitchell's Family Stores, the Transportation Store in the Wilmington Train Station, or at the Market Street Mall ticket booth in Wilmington. They are also available by mail through Delaware Transit Corporation in Wilmington. Credit card phone orders will be accepted by calling 1-800-892-7000.

An old passenger train much like the one shown in this photo, at one time carried people to and from the Delaware State Fair. Have fun at the Fair this year and have fun getting there "on a train!" The Rail to the Fair is set for Saturday, July 20, and passengers will enjoy a scenic ride aboard an air-conditioned Amtrak train which allows passengers to enjoy the Fair while making for a comfortable, stylish ride through Delaware's beautiful countryside. This year, the train features a food service car for passengers wishing to purchase food and soft drinks when it makes the trip. Photo by Carol Ann Porter
