Harrington Perspective

Phyllis Curtiss

What do I like about Harrington?

"I like everything about Harrington. I like the hometown feeling that you get."

Oh! Maggie set to open at LF High

After a very successful world premiere on the Possum Point Players stage in Georgetown a year ago, "oh! maggie" will be performed by the Lake Forest High School drama group under the direction of Ms. Denise Baker in May.

"oh! maggie", the brainchild that grew into a light-hearted song and dance look at adolescence-approaching adulthood, is the creation of local writers Martin Dusbiber of Milford, who wrote the music and lyrics, and David Dutton of Millsboro, who wrote the play. After almost three years of composing, writing, revising, revising, revising, the musical comedy went on the boards last April and was an immediate success. The writers have completed copyright procedures, the sound track has been recorded by the original cast members, and video tapes have been made.

Almost in the trite, but true mode of "I've got an idea, let's write a play!", the friends came up with some ideas based on songs Dusbiber had already composed. He and Dutton have been involved in community theatre for years -- on stage, in the orchestra pit, in the director's chair, leading the chorus, designing the set, etc. The two have worked frequently with Possum Point Players and Second Street Players.

St. Bernadette's plans Annual Spring Fest

By Carol Ann Porter
Editor

For the very first time ever, St. Bernadette's Church in Harrington is expanding its Annual Spring Fest to three days.

According to Debbie Heinsch, chairperson of the Spring Fest, the reason for the expansion was an opportunity to involve more of the community with added attractions such as a carnival.

The three-day event will take place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 22, 23 and 24. The event, which is the largest fundraiser that St. Bernadette's holds, will be open to the public from 5 to 10 p.m. on Thursday night, 5 to 10 p.m. on Friday night and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and will be held on the church property at 109 Dixon St. in Harrington.

In addition to the carnival, complete with cotton candy, popcorn and candy apples, St. Bernadette's 3rd Annual Spring Fest will include Trash Can Dan from the Department of Natural Resources. Trash Can Dan will be entertaining the children on Saturday while he passes out very important information on environmental issues.

Also on Saturday, the Harrington Fire Department will be on hand to give kiddies a ride on their fire truck, and J.D. Dennis will bring his horse and buggy into town to delight the children with a ride.

For anyone who wishes to make a splash, there's the dunking booth with many local business people and celebrities.

The Delaware State Police helicopter will be landing at 11 a.m. Saturday in the field behind the church, and children can get a first-hand look at the inside of a real helicopter.

Representatives from Kent General Hospital will be on hand Saturday to do finger casting, and a clown will be delighting youngsters with face painting.

On Saturday there will be a petting zoo which houses baby chicks, a calf, sheep, ducks and a billy goat. Pony rides for the youngsters will be available also.

The Mustang Car Club will be parking their cars between the church and the hall on Saturday for everyone to catch a glimpse of what cars were like in days gone by. They should be in place by 10 a.m.

Another Saturday highlight will be the Harrington Police Department sponsoring a canine demonstration as well as fingerprinting youngsters throughout the day.

A magician will be on hand Saturday to add to the live entertainment. He will be showing off his talent of prestidigitation. The Milford Community Concert Band will be providing live entertainment throughout the day also as well as the Chipman Jazz Band.

Beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday there will be macarona lessons and a hokie pokie demonstration. Harrington's very own Hub Tappers will entertain beginning at 3 p.m., and a karate demonstration will take

Friendship...

...friendship, it's the perfect blendship. When other friendships have been forgot... ours will still be hot!

By Carol Ann Porter
Editor

They both have the same first name, their birthdays are a few months apart, their husbands work together, they're both Garth Brooks fans, they love NASCAR and camping, and they both watch the same TV shows.

"That's just a few reasons that she is my 'bestest' friend," smiled Crystal Shockley Yerkes, 38, of Harrington, as she spoke about her best friend, Crystal Jackson Lynch, 37, of Houston.

They met ten years ago at a function given by George & Lynch Co., where both of their husbands, Paige Lynch and Stoney Yerkes, are employed.

Paige, Stoney and Crystal L. all graduated from Milford High School while Crystal Y. graduated from Lake Forest.

"Sometimes I feel left out," said Crystal Y. "They're all Buccaneers, and I'm the lone Spartan," she laughed.

Crystal Y. works for JCPenney

National Bank, and Crystal L. works for Drs. DeShuttle and Rowe. "And just because she works for doctors, we all think she's a doctor too," laughed Crystal Y. "Whenever one of us gets hurt, we call on Crystal L. to tell us what to do."

"I could never say anything bad about Crystal. She's my backbone."

Crystal Yerkes

The Yerkes have one son, Brandon, 8, and the Lynches also have one son, Jeremy, 15. "I got started a little later," smiled Crystal Y.

Both girls agreed that they hit it off right away when they met. "We found out we both had a lot in common," said Crystal L. "And people actually thought we were twins just because we had the same first name."

Although Crystal Y. says that Crystal L. is a health nut, working out at the gym each week and watching her diet, they both manage to find time to get in some walking together. "I'm too busy with Little League right now to work out, but Mrs. Swartzenegger over there works out strenuously," said Crystal Y.

Crystal L. says she'll never forget the night they were walking, and they kept hearing a quacking sound coming from behind them. They eventually turned around to discover that a duck was following them and quacking as he followed.

"We turned around and quacked along with him," laughed Crystal L. "And we tried to get him to follow us back to the pond where we thought he came from."

But when they got him to the pond through a little coaxing and quacking, he would not stay. Every

Felton Alumni Association holds 43rd Annual Reunion

By Bonnie Haines Voshell

The Felton High School Alumni Association held their 43rd Annual Reunion Saturday, April 26, at Lake Forest North Elementary with 235 members and guests attending. Two classes were honored, the class of 1947 and the class of 1957.

Following the invocation by Lawrence Kates, a delicious dinner was served by Betty Starkey that included a tasty salad, roast beef, chicken, fresh asparagus, to name a few items on the menu.

President Jeff Robbins welcomed everyone to this year's gathering and introduced the 1996-97 officers. Marilyn Green Alexander gave the Treasurer's Report; reporting good news for yet another year. Jim Blades introduced and thanked both former and current School Board and faculty members in attendance.

Freda Kelley was the speaker for the honor class of 1947. She gave a delightful history of her class, now celebrating their 50th reunion, with many of her former classmates in attendance. It's always interesting to hear how much has changed over the years, and Freda did it so well.

Dorsey Hammond was the speaker for the class of 1957. He not only gave us a feel for the year 1957, but filled us in on those in attendance. He was also joined by former classmate, Mary Theresa Hrupsa Allen, who read a poem about their school years that she had written. The surprise at the end of the poem was for both Dorsey and his mother, Violetta Hammond. Violetta was given a certificate for "Official Home Room Mother" from the class of '57, presented to her by Betty Jo Walters Wood, Eleanor Kemp Hall, Norma Jean Walls Tribbitt and Theresa Hrupsa Allen. She was also given a corsage, pinned on her by son Dorsey Hammond.

New alumni president, Barbara Brown, introduced incoming officers for the year 1997-98 and they were as follows: First Vice President - Jean Paskey Callaway; Second Vice President - Ronald Robert Voshell; Third Vice President - Bonnie Smith Maris; Fourth Vice President - Robert Hughes. Bonnie Haines Voshell will serve as Recording Secretary, Thelma Killen Gerardi as Corresponding Secretary, Marilyn Green Alexander will again serve as Treasurer, and last but not least, Joyce Wyatt Sipple will serve as Historian.

Other awards given were: Oldest Members - Grace Turner, class of

'27, and Pearl Torbert, class of '28; Traveled the Farthest - Geneva Carpenter Bowling, from class of '47, traveled from Centerville, MD, Elmer O'Day, from class of '57, traveled from Texarcana, AK, while the overall traveler was Olive Sherwood James, Port St. Lucie, FL. Those booking first reservation were Barbara and Wayne Walters.

Lake Forest Referendum fails for second time

By Gregory S. Layton
Staff writer

On the way out of South Elementary School last Tuesday evening, many Harrington residents found the school's brown inner door sticking.

As they gave an extra push to exit the building, 744 of them had already voted against a referendum item that would have improved school hardware such as hinges and door frames.

Both of the Lake Forest District's rerun referendum questions failed again.

A vote to raise district property taxes by 8.6 percent per $100 valuation to cover capital improvement cost failed 1,874 to 2,186.

A vote for a 17.93 cents raise in property taxes per $100 valuation to cover current operations cost failed 1,647 to 2,399.

Board President R. Ronald Draper said the district will have to consider running the two questions again as soon as the state will allow. "We're going to lose time they started to walk away, he would follow. "We laughed so hard," said Crystal Y. "Here we were, two grown women, flagging cars to get over so the duck wouldn't get run over and quacking right along with the duck," she laughed.

They finally walked up to Howard Brown's house and got him to hold the duck by the pond so they could leave.

The two couples bowl together every Wednesday night and the six of them also camp together. They love summer and going to the beach.

But they also love winter and the snow. They reminisced about one cold, snowy Friday night when all six of them were taking turns riding on an old truck hood tied to a tractor. The girls recall taking Jeremy and Brandon in the house, and when they came back out, they saw Crystal Y.'s dad pulling Stoney. "Well, Stoney flew up in the air and came back down," said Crystal Y. "We both ran over to him in the field, and Crystal L. knew we needed to get him to the emergency room. He had a broken ankle."

Crystal L. managed to get her best friend into the emergency room to be with her husband because she worked for Drs. De-Shuttle and Rowe.

And she was there the whole time," said Crystal Y. "She was even there at 6 a.m. in the morning when Stoney had to undergo surgery. And she would stop by the house every day and check on him," she said. "How many people would go out of their way and leave their family to help another family?"

Crystal Lynch describes her best friend as a very honest, trustworthy person. "She's always busy, very outspoken, and I am closer to her than I am to my two sisters," said Crystal L.

"She added that one of the main reasons she is so close to Crystal Y. is that she speaks what's on her mind. "I feel that if she doesn't like something about me, she will be honest and tell me. . . she tells the truth even if it hurts sometimes, and that's important to me" said Crystal L. Then she added, "She's also very emotional."

When Crystal Y. is asked to describe her best friend, she tearfully pulls out two greeting cards from her purse and tries to read them. "I can't read them because I get too emotional," said Crystal Y. "I keep them by my bed in a Longaberger basket (they both also love Longaberger baskets) and pull them out and read them if I want to be close to my best friend in the whole wide world."

One card reads: "Some people might search for a lifetime and never find the kind of friendship we share. I'm so glad we're friends. Our friendship means the world to me."

Another card reads: "We laugh and cry at the same movies. We both love the same kinds of food. We know to keep quiet or ask what's wrong when we're crabby or in a sad mood. We're there for each other like only the closest friends do. At the heart of my life in the heart of my heart, my sweet friend, there will always be you."

"I could never say anything bad about Crystal," said Crystal Y. "She is my backbone, and she is the twin I probably should have been born with," she said. "If you are fortunate to find a friendship as strong and as meaningful as ours. . . cherish it," said Crystal Y.

Then Crystal Y. talks about her bout with cancer. "I am a six-year survivor," she says. "And Crystal was there for me when I went through that rough time in my life," said Crystal Y.

Do they disagree on anything? Well, Crystal L. is a diehard Redskins fan, and Crystal Y. is a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan. "But I still love her," laughed Crystal L. But they do have the same hobbies. Both of them love country stores, craft shows, antique shopping, auctions and yard saling together.

They recently went to an auction, and the item Crystal L. was waiting for was one of the last items to be auctioned off that day. Crystal Y. and Brandon waited patiently for the item to go on sale, and little Brandon looked up at his mother and said, "You must really love Crystal because we stayed all day waiting for her item to come up for auction."

The girls both agree that they know what the other one is going to say before they say it. They talk on the phone together almost every day, and Crystal Y. said they trust each other so much that they both color each other's hair.

"Now that's trust," laughed Cryst-

tal Y. "I always tell Crystal that if she's good, she'll look like Bo Derrick. If she's bad, she'll look like Phyllis Diller."

They said it's nothing to get a 'pick-me-up' bouquet at work. "And I don't even have to read the card because I know who it's from," said Crystal Y.

They both agree that the highlight of their friendship was sharing a Garth Brooks concert. They spent the night in Dover waiting for the tickets to go on sale at Movie King. They were the first in line when the tickets went on sale.

They both love to dance, but they hate to cook. "I told Stoney that when I die, put on my tombstone, I might never have fed you, but I kept your house clean," laughed Crystal Y.

She likes scary movies, and I cover my face during the gory parts," said Crystal Y. "She likes hot spicy foods, and I don't, and when she puts her mind to do something. . . she sticks with it and does it," said Crystal Y. "I get bored and quit."

Crystal Y. said she would never hesitate to volunteer her best friend for something that she was involved in. An active member of the Harrington Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary, Little League and the PTAG, Crystal Y. said she keeps her friend active in these organizations also. "I try to make everybody else's life as miserable as mine," laughed Crystal Y. adding that she loves it.

They both say that their parents treat them as part of the family. "When my mother makes a Christmas vest for my sisters and me, she also makes one for Crystal L.," said

Dutton, a designer and the office manager for Design Exchange Architects, Inc. in Lewes, has written nine or ten plays, as well as several short stories, a couple of screen plays, and fictional works of novel length. He is also an English teacher at James H. Groves Adult High School.

Dusbiber is the project manager for Design Exchange Architects, Inc. in Lewes. He owns and operates his own in-home recording studio, and also does photo restorations in his spare time. Never far from music, Martin is also a percussionist and vocalist. He has served as a choir director, has composed many songs, and is now working on another musical comedy.

Their friendship and mutual interest in theatre, music, and writing seemed to naturally lead them to the collaboration that is a full-length, 48-composition musical comedy, "oh! maggie", the story of six college students and their families, does have its sweet and silly side. Girls "enhance" their figures, guys tease and brag. And, everybody eats pizza and fabricates their past. Chorus members and principal characters have the pleasure and the challenge of skipping and slipping from one musical genre to another. There are college fight songs--rah rah with pennants and pompoms, a taste of gospel (complete with chorus in choir robes), some spoof songs, lyrical love ballads and even some two-stepping country western twang.

The central character, Maggie, lives in the midst of empty soda cans, crumpled pizza boxes, rumpled sweatshirts, and wistful thoughts of being swept off her feet by The Guy. When she's not munching out, she blows her troubles away on her tuba, and hopes to be in a rock band.

Romance is always in the air waiting for the right two people to match hearts and learn each others' interests. Everybody is sure that their true self and family baggage is totally unacceptable in the real world. And, as in the lives of most young people, everything is bound together with song. The girls sing humorous songs about "Pizza Boys", the boys rap out a right of passage song in "Blast", and the universal teen query, "Has he/she noticed me?" is sung by both boys and girls in the plaintive plea, "Notice Me".

The writers point out that the story line is timeless and relevant. "To a certain point, it is a spoof," says Dutton, "but basically, we're telling a very old story in new clothes and with new music". What did the writers draw from as they wrote the plot and dialogue? "We used experiences with our own kids," said Dutton. "A lot of what I had to listen to with my own teenagers is included in this show."

And, of course, where there are teenagers, there must be parents, and they occasionally take center stage in "oh! maggie". The title song of the play is every parent's prayer as Maggie's dad sings "Don't try to change so much so fast. There are plenty of moments ahead of you. . . You've got the rest of your life ahead of you, so be happy with who you are. . ."

"oh! maggie" will be presented at Lake Forest High School on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 15, 16 and 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

place at 4 p.m.

A 50/50 raffle will be held with the drawing taking place at 7 p.m. on Saturday. You do not have to be present to win. There will also be a drawing for a Longaberger basket, and plenty of delicious pies, cakes and cookies, all baked by the members of St. Bernadette's Church, will be on sale throughout the day.

There will be a flea market on Saturday with plenty of tables still available to rent at $10 per space. Also for the kiddies, in addition to the carnival rides on Saturday, there will be several children's games available including sand art.

Food booths include hamburgers, hot dogs, french fries, meatball subs, sausage sandwiches, barbecued chicken, crab crakes from Jimmie's Grille, ice cream, sodas, tea and punch.

The Red Cross will have a booth to inform the public about health immunizations, and Delmarva Power & Light Company will have an electric display.

And for anyone who wishes to make a splash, there's the dunking booth. Come out and try your hand at dunking the following people: from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m., Mr. Barry Breeding, Harrington Lions Club member and branch manager of Wilmington Trust; 10:30 to 11 a.m., Hal Blades, L.F. School Board member and Delaware State Police officer; from 11 to 11:30 a.m., Mr.

Fred Duffy, principal at Lake Forest High School; from 11:30 to noon, Mr. Carl June from the Harrington Pharmacy; from noon until 1 p.m., Mr. Tom Melvin from Melvin's Funeral Home; from 12:30 until 1 p.m., Mr. Leonard Coryell, Harrington's city manager; from 1 to 1:30 p.m., Mr. Michael Makkad from Quality Exteriors of Harrington; from 1:30 to 2 p.m., Lt. John Horsman from the Harrington Police Department; from 2 to 2:30 p.m., Sgt. Terry Helsel from the Harrington Police Department; from 2:30 to 3 p.m., Mr. John Tazelaar of Tazelaar Roofing in Felton; from 3 to 3:30 p.m., Mr. Aquedo Garcia, a St. Bernadette's parishioner; and Mr. Terry Smith from 3 p.m. until people get tired of throwing balls at him, also a St. Bernadette's parishioner.

If anyone would like to rent a flea market table space, they can do so by calling Debbie Heinsch at 398-8269 or 398-4851. Also, the church encourages the public to purchase their carnival ride tickets in advance by calling the same telephone numbers.

All proceeds go to St. Bernadette's Church in Harrington. "This is one of our major fundraisers," said Mrs. Heinsch. "If it is successful, we will do it again next year. Right now, we're just praying it doesn't rain," she smiled.

NOTES & NEWS from the Harrington Business Community

by Linda Chick

Harrington Business and Professional Women will meet on Wednesday, May 14, for dinner, with a program on Financial Management to follow. The meeting will be held at the Colony Inn Restaurant, Rt. 13, beginning at 6:00 p.m. An opportunity for networking precedes the dinner. Visitors are welcome. Call Kim Robbins, president, at 335-5633 for more information. BPW meets the 3rd Wednesday of each month at the Colony Inn.

Students in the Lake Forest District spent several days last week taking academic achievement tests. They were joined by students in all districts in the first statewide assessment under the New Directions initiative.

Unlike most achievement tests, this was primarily an essay test. Students were given a question which required thought and organization of ideas. They were given time to write, edit, then complete the final draft. This is quite a departure from the usual testing format. Can you imagine grading thousands of essays? Sounds like a daunting task!

School was not all work last week. GaWaNi Pony Boy, an excellent historian and exceptional horseman, brought a little fun to elementary and middle school students throughout the district. Pony and his horse Kohla ushered in Wild West Days by setting up camp for a day at each school.

Pony, who travels to over 100 schools each year, was impressed with the respectful students he met in our schools. This is wonderful to hear from someone with a perspective so much broader than our own. Congratulations, kids, for making us all very proud. And thanks to JCPenney National Bank for co-sponsoring these presentations.

The covered arena at the fairgrounds proved to be a real laundry-saver for the rodeo cowboys last weekend. Although it rained Friday evening, the show went on, and no one left covered in mud.

Spectators gave the arena high marks as well. It was the atmosphere that rodeo fans appreciated the most. You just can't beat being close to the action and part of the enthusiasm. The sound system is also much improved, with speakers placed to cover all areas, and excellent equipment for announcing.

This building has great potential as a multi-use facility. It will be interesting to observe its evolution; and it is sure to be a source of pride for our community.

"Community" is an important concept for us as Americans; it is why we become involved in events like Wild West Days, Heritage Day, the Christmas Parade, and the State Fair. It is tradition, ritual and a way of working together for the common good.

Help is always needed to make community projects successful. Sincere thanks to all those who gave time and resources to Wild West Days. Now with Heritage Day plans in high gear, that committee would love volunteers. Call Ruth Peterman at 398-4493 and plan to have some fun.

We invite our readers to respond to this column by sending letters to The Harrington Journal, P.O. Box 239, Harrington, DE 19952 or by calling Sound Off at 629-2050 or 678-8255.

Low-cost Tell*A* Friend mammograms now available

The American Cancer Society's low cost Tell*A*Friend mammograms are now available at most hospitals and radiology centers throughout Delaware during May and June.

To keep cost from being the reason a woman does not schedule a yearly mammogram, the American Cancer Society, in partnership with the state's radiology centers, launched the low cost mammogram program four years ago. The program is for women without insurance coverage or with a high deductible, and for women in their off year for Medicare coverage.

Eligible women should call the mammography center of their choice and ask for the low cost

Tell*A*Friend mammogram --$40 at most locations, but a few are higher. At many locations, payment is expected at the appointment, so the woman should ask when she makes her appointment.

There are two sources of free mammographs for eligible women. Rite-Aid Drug Stores are offering free mammograms during May to women who qualify, and women who meet financial guidelines of the state can get free mammograms through the Mammography of Delaware's mobile van.

The American Cancer Society recommends that every woman 40 and older should have a yearly mammogram.

District Dialog

A reason to rejoice

By Dr. James H. VanSciver
Superintendent

Democracy is a bittersweet process. When the voting goes our way, we rejoice in the fact that our values have been celebrated. When that voting does not support our cause, we languish as a result of our predicament.

May 6 was an important day for Lake Forest School District. The democratic process worked as we drew nearly one-third of the eligible voters of our school system to the polls. It was a day of celebration for the democratic process.

That our constituents did not favor either of the questions posed to them is cause for concern. Our situation remains critical.

Yes, I have reason to rejoice in the professional and positive manner in which our staff have responded. You are here, not simply plugging through the day, but as usual, exceeding expectations in your efforts to provide a quality education for our students.

I celebrate our staff for your spirit, for your determination, and for your professionalism. Because of your efforts, our students will receive the kind of education of which we may all be proud.

For that, I am indebted to you.

We invite our readers to respond to this column by sending letters to The Harrington Journal, P.O. Box 239, Harrington, DE 19952 or by calling Sound Off at 629-2050 or 678-8255.

LF drops school property tax

During their May 7 special meeting, in the aftermath of the failed two-part referendum, the members of the Lake Forest Board of Education voted unanimously to accept the staff recommendation calling for the elimination of the $308,000 in state money next year. That will require some painful cuts.

"In the meantime, we need to look into ways to ease crowding. Double sessions at W.T. Chipman are a possibility."

Voting "no", Rebecca S. Manchester of Harrington captured the sentiments of many district voters, saying, "I just don't want my property taxes raised. That's it."

Felton resident Billy J. Morris agreed, saying, "The teachers make enough money. The schools are fine."

But not all Lake Forest residents voted against the two questions.

Larry W. Fibelkorn of Harrington voted "yes" because, he said, "The schools are old and need repair. Our daughter, Brooke, is taught in a trailer out back."

Anna L. Hellegreen, also of Harrington, said, "This is about our kids. We need to support the teachers who teach our kids." She said the narrow defeat of two March referendum questions brought her out to vote for the first time Tuesday.

In the end, board member Donald L. Brown said, "The failure of this referendum is not a victory for the district."

Kathy A. Razzano, an elementary teacher at Lake Forest South Elementary, noted the defeat came on National Teachers' Day. "It shows that teachers don't have support in the district." She said the students in her portable classroom will be very disappointed this morning.

Superintendent James H. VanSciver said a referendum next March is possible, but for now, the district must concentrate on creative ways to deal with overcrowding and budget shortages.

LF senior wins contest

Lake Forest High School senior Kristin Buck has much to be thankful for.

Recently, her Lake Forest High School classmates selected her to be their Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for the 1996-97 school year. That entitled her to be eligible to enter the DAR Good Citizens Essay Contest. She did.

Her essay was selected as the winner for the Colonel Haslet Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was awarded a check in the amount of $50. That entitled her to be eligible to enter the state contest. She did.

Her essay won the state contest and she was awarded a check for $250, as well as a DAR Good Citizens pin and certificate.

"Wear this pin with pride," wrote DAR Regent Caroline S. Abbott. "Remember to mention this award on any resume you make in the future. We send our good wishes to you as you enter life after high school."

Yes, Kristin Buck has had an enjoyable spring. And, it is just the beginning.

LF senior wins scholarship

A senior from Lake Forest High School has won a future teacher scholarship worth $1,000 from the Delaware State Education Association.

Kristin Buck was among 33 public school seniors who applied for the annual Christopher K. Smith Memorial scholarship.

A resident of Harrington, Kristin ranks fourth in her class of 175 with a 4.0 grade point average in Honors/Advanced Placement history, English and calculus. She hopes to become a high school biology teacher and has been accepted at Ursinus College and Randolph-Macon College.

She is active in high school activities, including drama, sports and various academic clubs. She's been elected to the National Honor Society as a sophomore, junior and senior, and was a National Merit winner in Science and French her junior year. She is also active in her church, as well as a volunteer for the Milford Memorial Hospital and Second Street Players.

"Kristin's academic, community and leadership accomplishments are truly impressive and we are thrilled to help her enter the most challenging and rewarding of professions," says DSEA President Maryann Pry.

The scholarship is named after Chris Smith, an Association activist and Social Studies teacher from the Colonial School District, who passed away in 1990. The scholarships have been awarded since then to 12 outstanding Delaware seniors.

Kristin is the daughter of Dave and Kay Buck. Her father is a physical education and health teacher at Lake Forest High School.

Lake Forest High School drama group director, Denise Baker, is well into rehearsal of the original musical comedy, "oh! maggie", as the show has been blocked and work has begun on the larger production numbers. Behind the scenes, work has begun on the multi-level set, and props and costume person, Kay Buck, and her helpers, have begun the search for various props, including everything from a tuba to an enema bag.

"oh! maggie" is a lighthearted musical comedy concerning three girls and three boys who have embarked on their college careers. As ordinary as this may seem, the story becomes much more than that as two of the girls and two of the boys decide to become someone they are not. What follows becomes a tangled thread of who is who and why they are not who they seem to be. This situation is further complicated by their parents who are unaware of what has transpired while their children are away at college. The cast is complemented by several additional characters who further complicate the plot.

Lake Forest senior, Jen Organ, plays the lead role of Maggie O'Hearn, the college sophomore who spent her freshman year more or less isolated with her studies and her tuba while her entrepreneur widower father, played by senior Bob Keary, travels the globe in search of new markets. The mysterious Maria Schesnowkowski (aka Debbie Smith), one of Maggie's new roommates, is played by Destiny Kerstetter, a senior, and Kristin Buck portrays the third part of the female trio as Charlotte Beaumont, of the "Georgia Beaumonts". Troy Harrington, a sophomore, plays Martin Gorbowski, the co-captain of the Awanabee U. football team, while J.T. Callaway plays Tim Delaeny and Adam Mayle portrays Dave Schlep, two friends who come to Awanabee U. as freshmen and add an interesting twist to the plot.

Adding to the confusion, are Jessica Lukehart and Matt Porter as Mr. and Mrs. Beaumont, and Jason Hobbs and Heather Davey as Mr. and Mrs. Schesnowkowski. Add to this, senior Shaun Kurry as Stan the "custodian", Elayna Garton is the waitress, Jane Alan plays the secretary, and Jen Davis and Debbie Passwaters are sorority sisters, and everyone sings in the chorus. Kenny Cartwright will appear as the soloist in a 60s style number.

In all, "oh! maggie" is a story about identities, finding out who you are while being someone you're not... and in the end, being happy with who you are. The music adds much to the story as the chorus comments on the actions of the players while assuming a somewhat abstract identity of their own. The songs comprise a wide range of musical styles, ranging from gospel to modern rap. While each song serves its purpose within the plot of the story, it also adds a melodious dimension to the characters and their plight.

"oh! maggie" will open in the Lake Forest High School auditorium on Thursday, May 15th, at 7:30 p.m. and will continue on Friday and Saturday, May 16th and 17th, also at 7:30 p.m. tickets will be on sale at the door.

Senior personality at Felton High School - Betty Jo Walters: Light brown hair, sparkling eyes and continual laughter just about sums up this senior girl's outer appearance. However, to really get to know her you must know that she likes all kinds of sports and is always ready to go out on a fling. Truly, Betty Jo is not one to sit still except in typing, shorthand and P.O.D. classes and only then does she consent to such an ordeal because she happens to like these classes.

When Betty Jo decides to really hit the road, she prefers to do it in a Buick or a Chevy.

Now when it comes to the opposite sex, To Jo stands firm in her belief that all boys should have black hair, blue eyes and a nice personality. In the food line, she rates pizzas, submarines and french fries high on the list.

For future plans, she chooses secretarial work to fall in the commercial course she has been taking for the past four years.

All of Betty Jo's classmates know what her pet peeve is: annoying people, especially those who follow a body around like an unwanted pup in a snowstorm.

"Come unto me, all who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

"Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you shall find rest for your soul.

"For my yoke is easy and my load is light." (Matthew 11:28-30)

This is the promise our Lord Jesus Christ gives to all of those who will place absolute trust and faith in Him. For before you can give Him your life's burdens, you must confess your sin burdens, seeking His forgiveness and acknowledging Him as your own personal Savior. You must be born again. Then you can start claiming all the promises He makes in His Holy Word, the Bible. He never promises to take away all our burdens, He just says He will be with us giving us rest and peace under the load.

Harrington Baptist Church invites anyone who will come to join us each week as our pastor, Bob Good, brings us the message of salvation and teaching what it means to live a Christian life through the power of the Holy Spirit Himself. This is what the gospel is all about.

Our church is located on East Liberty Street across from the Armory. Our phone number is 398-3373. Everyone is welcome.

Opportunities for the week:

Sunday School for all ages: 9:45 a.m.

Sunday worship services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Sunday Watchers Class: 6 p.m.

Wednesday Prayer service: 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday Bible study: 7 p.m.

(Nursery is provided for the Sunday morning worship service.)

Prospect United Methodist Church News

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul and with all thy might." (Deuteronomy 6:5)

Rev. James Carmean Jr. is the minister at Prospect United Methodist Church, which is located five miles west of Harrington on Route 14 in Vernon, DE. We invite you to worship with us. We have Sunday School for all ages at 8:45 a.m. and Worship Service is at 9:45 a.m. Mary Lou Wright is our pianist.

On Sunday, May 11, which is Mother's Day, Steven Stewart was the greeter and Ashlee Stewart was the candle lighter. The Introit by the choir was "I Was Glad". They sang "When Mother Prayed" for the anthem. Jeanne Camper prayed the offertory prayer and Julie Camper and Thelma Rae Melvin were ushers.

Diana Woodward talked to the children about mothers. She asked what mothers do for us. The response was everything. They teach us to do the necessary things of life from combing our hair to taking care of our own families. Mothers are loving and kind. Some mothers are very strict on their children and some mothers even abandon their children. Hannah prayed for a child and God gave her one in her old age. God also gave Sarah a child in her old age. The first and greatest mother of all was Mary, who was the mother of Jesus.

Rev. Carmean read scripture from Deuteronomy 6:1-14. What kind of a judgement would God render upon this nation today in the ways we have taught our children? We do not get the coverage we need from the media for the good deeds people are doing today. Bless the mothers today that have their children in Sunday School and church, and who are teaching their children the basics of life. No matter how old a child gets, mother still loves you. God has put a special trait in mothers so that she can love her children no matter what they do. We may not always like the things a child does, but mothers still love the child.

If our nation is going to be great, then it has to begin on the door steps of the home. We of the church must live by the principal that God has handed us down. He must be first in the nation, the church and the family. Mother usually runs the taxi that takes children to church, school and all their activities. Our children are the most precious asset in the world.

Independent Bible Fellowship Church News

On Sunday, May 11, Pastor Simpson began our service by recognizing the mothers of our congregation. His message was continued from the book of 1 Corinthians, chapter 10:1-13, and he related this text to how our lives as children can either bring joy or sorrow to our mothers. The title of his message was "A Mother's Joy".

As Christians, we are ultimately created to bring honor and glory to Christ through our lives daily. Every word we speak, every move we make should be for the honor and glory of Christ. However, how does our lifestyle affect our mothers? What would they as Christians want for their children?

Pastor Simpson gave us a list of three things that mothers who love the Lord would want for their children. 1. To love the Lord (Matthew 22:37); 2. Seek to live for the Lord (Romans 12:1); 3. Learn from wise counsel (1 Cor. 10:11).

Within the text of 1 Corinthians 10, we see that the Lord is reminding us of what happened to the children of Israel as they went on their 40 year journey to the promised land (Exodus). As they were on their journey, God provided not only water, but manna. They were not content with this and they became ungrateful for what had been miraculously provided and they began to lust for meat (Num. 11:4).

They also became idolaters (Num. 25). We live in a time where sometimes our own selves become our idols. We put what we want above what God wants. Or our bodies sometimes become our idols. Our society today focuses so much on physical appearance that we get caught up in spending so much time on "getting our bodies into shape". While it is good to take care of ourselves, we must be careful of what our focus and motives are always-no matter what we are doing that consumes our time.

The Lord reminds us of what happened to the Israelites when they took their eyes off of Him, as an example to us (1 Cor. 10:11), so that we can avoid falling into the same sins and to avoid His judgment upon our own lives as Christians. A mother who loves the Lord knows that if her children also love the Lord, live for the Lord, and learn from wise counsel, no matter where they live or what circumstances they may be under, the hand of the Lord will be upon them and will take care of them-for He takes care of those we seek to love, honor, and obey Him. If you do not know Christ as your personal Lord and Saviour and you want to be sure of not only spending an eternity in heaven, but to live life upon this earth now with security of knowing, no matter what may happen in our lives. He will take care of us and provide for us-will you go before Him in prayer and ask forgiveness of your sins, and simply believe in His finished work at Calvary? We are not saved by our works, but our works are a reflection of our love and commitment to Him. Please come and worship the Lord Jesus Christ with us. We are located on Rt. 14, Milford-Harrington Hwy., east of Harrington.

Reader demands major change

Dear Editor:

With the overwhelming results of the second Lake Forest referendum, the voters of the district have sent a loud and clear message. The problems, however, in the Lake Forest School District are far from being resolved. In the course of my involvement in this issue, several areas of great concern have come to my attention. First and foremost, is the shameful way that I can only hope a select few teachers misused their public trust to influence their students, and make some of them pawns in the political process. The threats of an inferior education, the "solidarity ribbon gimmick" and the involvement of non-taxpaying, and in most cases, youngsters who have little or no experience in the real world day-to-day problems of paying bills and making a budget, serves to point up a far more serious problem.

Our youngsters are, and rightfully should be, our most important focus. To show them that the end justifies the means is, I feel, what has taken place. There once was a law that mandated only one referendum in a six-month period. I wonder who was responsible for quietly changing that law! Most people I've met were also astounded that non-registered voters could vote in a tax referendum. But as long as one could say it was "legal", the long-held belief of the voters seemed unimportant. The obvious lesson here is let's stack the deck in favor as much as we can!

I found it enlightening that the high school would allow students to film the deterioration of the buildings, in an effort to point out a genuine need for repairs. Most people in the district are well aware of the laundry list of repairs that have gone virtually untouched for the better part of 30 years! The issue of portable classrooms was also misrepresented to the voters, and although they are not the most desirable environment to learn in, they do fulfill a pressing need. I cannot imagine admitting to the fact that the portable classrooms have been in use upwards of 30 years! It's obvious the preponderance of monies over the years has gone for salaries rather than a comprehensive maintenance and building plan.

While the present administrator and some of his staff were riding roughshod over both the teachers and the students, the walls have literally and figuratively been falling down around them!

The obvious lack of a meaningful maintenance program to maintain the schools makes it clear their priorities were elsewhere. The needs of the district are great and the voters are going to have to swallow a very expensive pill to correct all the deficiencies.

We are all going to have to get involved with this very important issue. I sincerely feel we can't go on with the present administrator and his coat pocket school board! We have to make major changes in how the district conducts business. The upcoming election on the 13th of May is, I believe, a good place to start. We have to move on in a positive, open, above-board manner and address the serious long-term problems.

'Something's got to give'

It's Tuesday night, shortly after 11 p.m. I have to tell you, I'm deeply disappointed in the Lake Forest School District. They should now go and reassess all of the homes that are being undervalued and under-taxed. If everyone were taxed appropriately for the true value of their homes, we could then have the money we need for our schools. The people around here seem to want everything. You want low taxes, you want your houses to be undervalued so you can pay less in the way of taxes, and then on top of that you don't want to vote for referendums when we need them. Something's got to give, because you can't have it all.

'Sensible voters would vote yes'

I want to tell the Lake Forest teachers not to feel too bad. As an upstate newspaper editorial said, "Sensible voters would vote yes on those questions." Unfortunately, that's not the case when you're dealing with narrow-mindedness. No referendum would pass in this atmosphere.

'Maybe now we'll keep taxes down'

As a concerned parent in the Lake Forest District, I'm very happy with the way the referendum went. I'd like to thank the voters for getting out and for looking out for us and the future of our kids. Maybe now we'll keep taxes down, and then they can have something like this pass someday. As far as Mr. Draper's comment that we don't care about education, that's not true. We do care about education. We care about money we feel is being wasted by the administration and in the way of teachers' pay raises. Come on, people. Thanks! It's time we made our vote count. And my vote for Draper the next time will be "no."

'Then it will pass'

I see the Lake Forest referendum was again defeated. I hope for the sake of the children that when the referendum comes up again, the district will just look at the idea of building a new school because of over-crowding and leave an increase in teachers' salaries out of it. Then it will pass.

Find a more fair and equitable way

I just finished reading the article concerning the failure for the second time of the Lake Forest referendum. Kind of interesting. One board member made a brilliant statement: "The defeat was not a victory." Well, I guess we can go up from there. However, it's time for the district to heal. Name calling by individuals calling into Sound Off and saying those who voted against the referendum were "narrow-minded" and must stop. These people now must come together and understand that property owners are sick and tired of paying all of the taxes. It's time to revisit the way we allocate funds for the paying of teachers, school maintenance, the school building, etc., in the school districts in Delaware. Our politicians need to get together with school board members and voters and look for a more fair and equitable way to raise taxes to support these functions.

Many can't explain who God is

I'm calling regarding the coverage in the paper on April 20 titled, "Fans voice their opinion on Ellen." I think it's really something that the Delaware State News only chose to put positive remarks about Ellen "coming out" in her TV show. Why didn't you ask older, more mature people, or people with a Christian background? Many of these young kids don't even go to church. Many can't even explain to you who God is, so therefore none of this mattered to them.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We thank you for taking the time to express an opinion. Others are welcome to share their thoughts in the form of a letter to the editor or Sound Off call.

LF over-count a one time error

Dear Editor:

Included in last week's edition of the Harrington Journal was an article dealing with an issue regarding overcounting of students in special education classes at Lake Forest High School. As a result, $179,384 has been returned to the State.

This is a situation which happens rarely, but when it does, causes us to take a very close look at our system of checks and balances with respect to reporting unit count information. It is important to point out that the staff sharing the numbers in our high school special education count did so accurately. The numbers they reported were correct. From that point forward is where the difficulty occurred.

This was a one-time error, unfortunately not detected either by individuals compiling the report or by those checking the numbers contained in the report. I am convinced that there was no intent to falsify these figures. From this the people involved have learned.

It was reported in the article that this matter will be handled through monies in a contingency fund of $1.5 million. That response was misstated. The $1.5 million was actually the amount of money brought forward to the current year budget from last year's budget. It has been distributed to cost centers throughout our budget as of July 1, 1996, and is being used in those budgets.

We do, however, have a State mandated $136,330 contingency. And, the manner in which we construct our budget provides for the collection of funds, those on which one cannot determine a constant flow, i.e., interest on deposited funds, athletic gate receipts, indirect costs, etc., each year. Those funds are saved each year and built into the following year's budget when they are completed collected. As of March 31, 1997, Lake Forest had collected $555,814 in these funds. As a result, the total amount of uncommitted contingency available presently is $691,330.

This matter was handled with those monies.

Any individual who may have questions or comments regarding this matter may certainly bring them to our superintendent's office.

Teachers are appreciated by most

Dear Editor:

It is late on a Friday night in the Lake Forest School District. In the middle school parking lot, the field trip had returned an hour ago and parents have picked up their children, except one. The teacher is patiently waiting with him. It's cold and beginning to rain. The teacher says, "Come on, let's go. I'll take you home." They head to Sandtown, a full half-hour in the other direction from the teacher's home. As they knock on the child's door, mom answers in a sleepy stupor. "Oh," she says, "Is it that time already? I must have fallen asleep." The teacher tells them goodnight and heads for home himself. It is midnight before he sees his own family that day. Somehow, the words "thank you" did not quite come out of the mother's mouth, nor from that of her child. But, the teacher thinks to himself while driving home, "Another successful field trip. Everyone is home safe, and maybe the kids learned something today!"

An upcoming dance at Lake Forest High School is cause for excitement for the students. Many want to have their pictures taken with their date, but a professional photographer is cost prohibitive for most of them. One of the teachers, an amateur photographer, volunteers to take the pictures instead. That way, he feels all students, whether they can afford it or not, will have a photo memory of the special evening.

The annual "end of the year" eighth grade class trip to Hershey Park is approaching. Teachers notice that a certain boy has not signed up. Realizing that family finances are the problem, the teachers take up a collection among themselves to pay for the boy's class trip. They set the situation up so that the boy did not ever realize where that money came from. He now has that trip as a wonderful memory of the middle school.

A curriculum writing session for teachers in the district office is interrupted with the tragic news of the death of a student at North Elementary. They attempt to continue the meetings, but soon realize that they needed to be back at the school to support, hug, and cry with one another and with the children. They are there within the hour.

A sixth grade student on a survey writes about her teachers, "When we come in they make us feel so good. We can tell them our personal problems and they don't just go out and tell the whole world. They really take you seriously. When you're down, they get you back up."

Teachers in the Lake Forest School District have taken students home, bought them clothes, fed them, and, yes, even adopted them in order to provide the support and love that the child lacked elsewhere. There is not an hour that passes when a Lake Forest teacher does not dry a tear of a child who fell on the playground, missed a math problem, or perhaps lost a loved family member the night before. I watched a teacher last week sit with a child through the teacher's lunch listening to an upset child describe how his dog was run over by a car that morning.

I've seen these kinds of scenes repeated over and over, day after day, year after year, for the past 24 years. The teachers of Lake Forest do not do what they do for money, prestige, or power. They care. It's that simple. It's that basic. But, last night, in the Lake Forest referendum, they were slapped in the face. They were told by their community that it's OK to be the lowest paid in the state. It's OK to teach your children in run-down, crowded and unsafe buildings. It's OK to not have all the supplies and equipment they need to do what we expect them to do. But, you know what? I know where they all are this morning. They are doing what they have always been doing: caring. They are in the classrooms with our children -- teaching.

I am just one small voice, but I intend to thank them for what they do. They need to know that we appreciate what they do for our children. Our children are better because of them. I know that! That should make them special to us. In the end, I know it won't matter much. But, it might make me feel better. I hope you will do the same. I think they need to hear from you right now.

Thanks to volunteers

Dear Editor:

Reflecting on our May 6 referendum, I am taken by the high level of support our schools received from community members, staff, and students. Dozens of individuals gave of their own time in a demonstration of unselfish dedication to our school system.

My thanks to each volunteer who so tirelessly worked. When you had no time, you made time.

There is a sense of comfort in the hundreds of hours of volunteerism which were demonstrated for our students, for our staff, for our schools. That did make our May 6 effort special.

And, for that, I thank them.

Firemen deserve recognition

Our television screens, radios, and newspapers were deluged recently with a great deal of discussion concerning volunteer work, both at the national and local levels, as a tie-in to the recent Summit on volunteerism in Philadelphia. There are certainly a wide variety of options available for anyone wishing to contribute their time and talents to a worthy cause or project. Volunteers come in all shapes, sizes, cultural, and religious backgrounds and offer their diversity in areas from the Girl Scout Troop leader to the good neighbor who checks in on a senior living alone. They were all rightfully lauded for their good works. I took pause, however, in realizing that those who are among our most valuable and organized volunteers had little or no honorable mention in all of the festivities and photo opportunities. Volunteer fire-fighters and ambulance personnel face the front line of critical need and assistance. They are most deserving of a most honorable mention. They have not only dedicated their time and experience. They have saved lives which is the ultimate gift.

Since before the birth of this nation, volunteer fire militias, now fire companies, have served the citizens of communities from the coast of California to the shores of the Delaware Bay. No other group

Harrington Raceway whips up new spring meet

By Eddie Lambert

Harrington Raceway clocked a quick 1:58.4 mile opening night last weekend despite a deep, loose track surface and few out-of-state race conditions.

Jate's Image, owned by John Veazy of Laurel, was driven to a 2:00.2 victory by Jim Morand in the $3,600 second race. In the $5,000 ninth race, Rick Murphy drove the New Jersey pacer Joe's Lamm to the 1:58.4 time, with $19,80-to-win lighting up the odds board. Track president Jack Walls was pleased with track speeds last Friday, considering the new surface.

"It's a green track now," said Walls as he toured the paddock opening night. "We have three maintenance men assigned solely to the track. They have been working until 11 at night, adding water, screening, and rolling the new surface. It will take a little time to get it settled."

"It just needs time," echoed Harrington's 1996 top driver, Eddie Dennis of Harrington. "The new banking looks great out there, but we're just working on footing right now."

As pacers and trotters scored down and raced Friday night, they looked like they were running through gray snow. Stone dust plumed up from their feet as drivers reported that their sulkies were sliding sideways in the turns.

"But you see this every time there's a new surface," said veteran driver Cliff Green of Westover. "We saw the same thing when the passing lane was new at Ocean Downs."

"You'll see a significant difference in two weeks," said driver

Dawn Trader of Harrington. "You can't believe the hours they're putting in (to settle the new surface)," continued Trader, who trains at the Delaware oval.

Other slots-financed improvements at Harrington Raceway have included new track televisions, new television graphics, and new cameras to show and relay the live racing action to 20 simulcast outlets in the east.

Ailing Spartans 2nd in Henlopen track

By Keith S. Burgess

The "best-laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley" or a reasonably accurate facsimile thereof, were once crafted by famed Scottish poet, Robert "Robbie" Burns.

Jim Blades' Henlopen Conference dual-meet champion Spartan girls' track team logged a perfect 9-0 record and received the team trophy that goes with it, at Polytech High School Saturday afternoon.

Such a team should be in contention for the title in the conference meet. But Blades' well-crafted battle plan included his premier sprinters of course, but relied heavily on freshman Nicole Faries and senior Chasity Cole, two of the loop's best distance runners.

The duo was expected to score heavily in five events, but Cole was slowed by bursitis of the hip, and Faries was ill. But these class ladies ran anyway and did well, although definitely sub-par in the Spartans' 2nd-place effort.

Sherise Spence and Tanitka Smith and their youthful counterparts, accounted for the Spartans four victories. Spence's 200 meter triumph (25.54) just missed the school record of 25.50, set 12 years ago by Carolyn Browne. The state meet next Saturday at Polytech will be her last chance.

The senior speedster also took the 100 in 12.36 with T. Smith fourth. This pair added Teona Benson and Latasha Custis and sped to a 1.47.7 800 meter relay win, almost three seconds ahead of second place. Crystal James ran for Custis and the unit recorded a 51.8 second 400 meter relay triumph.

Sophomore Latoya Smith uncorked a 15-9 3/4 long jump, which just missed first place by a scant 2 1/2 inches. Fourth places were recorded by Latash Custis, a freshman, in the 400 meters (65.6) and the high jump (4-8). Other fourth places were scored by Sequoyah Guinn, discus, 99 feet and shot 31-4 1/2, and Crystal James (31-1) triple jump.

Candi Smith was 5th in the shot with 30 feet, 9 1/2 inches. The opening 4 x 800 relay saw the Spartans finish third behind Kim Hutson, Holly Hrupsa, Cole and Faries, the last two girls have made up some whopping deficits, but not this time.

In the 1600, Nicole Faries had a 5.29 personal best and had earlier beaten Tracy Rasknis, the winner twice and also third-place Jennifer Hicks, but couldn't cope with them while under the weather and still got 4th in 5.44.

Melody Rudd of Milford, a senior, went out with the ailing Faries and took the lead when the former had to fall back. The wily Buc was not challenged until Seaford freshman Kristen Irwin made up 30 yards or so over the last half a lap and led briefly, until Rudd came surging back and nipped the tiny 9th grader, with both clocking 12.07.4. Kim Kucharik of C.R. was 3rd in 12.18.7, with Cape's Hicks in 12.27 and Faries 5th in 12.35.

Earlier in the season, Faries had won the 3200 in duals against Cape and Caesar Rodney. She didn't compete against Irwin or Rudd at that distance. Sick as she was, she still managed to match her personal best (12.35). Fit, she could have been under 12.10 and in contention. Cole had done 2.29.6 and 2.29.5 at 800 meters and was a threat to take it all, prior to her injury.

Hurting, she was still able to grind out a 2.33 and finished in a virtual dead heat for third.

Coach Blades removed the ailing pair from the 4 x 400 meter relay and replaced them with younger runners, who ran well and finished third in 4.32.3.

Senior Tanitka Smith led off with freshman Mahala Duffy and Latasha Custis, handling the duties with Lonye Pitts to tally six points.

Coach Blades and these girls have done very well this season, although faced with many roadblocks, such as illness, injury, academic failure, a school record holder who didn't report. The list goes on.

8-1 Spartans 86, Dover, 60, in track final

By Keith S. Burgess

Jim Blades' LFHS boys track team couldn't beat powerful Caesar Rodney this dual meet season, but beat everybody else, to finish 8-1. That's a nice!

Like the girls, two point-scoring Spartans had bad luck and may be done for the year. Weightman Micah Parker and versatile Dion Gambles were hurt at home, and cost the locals a sure second-place finish, and an opportunity to close the gap somewhat behind Caesar Rodney.

Gambles' loss was especially disappointing. He has done 6-2 in the high jump, which won the event Saturday in the Henlopen Conference meet at Polytech. He has had three or four long jumps past 21 feet, which would have gotten him 2nd place Saturday. He could have been as high as second in the triple jump, and could have been used in a fourth event. Since Lake was only six points from second place, his absence was crucial.

But Jim Blades' well-balanced team is hard to shut out of the win column, and the Spartans won three events. Malcolm Hughes continues to improve. Earlier he had run a winning 2.03.4 in the KSB Invitational. This time he ran away from a talented C.R. trio and clocked a lifetime best of 2.01.8. It's been a few years since L.F. had a half miler like him.

Fellow senior Derick Gerardi was a strong 5th in 2.07.8. Sophomore strongman, Art Noell, was first in the shot with a toss of 45-3.

Spartan girls end season 9-0

By Keith S. Burgess

Lake Forest's strong girls' combine defeated Dover 95-37, to take the Henlopen Conference's dual meet crown with a perfect 9-0 campaign.

Sherise Spence, as usual, had a hand in four victories. The multiple state champion took the 100 meters in 12.21, which rounds out to 12.3, then had a 25.9 200 win. Also Spence anchored winning 400 and 800 relay in pedestrian clockings, since they were not threatened. Crystal James was 3rd in the 100 with Pat White 2nd at 200. Tanitka Smith led off both relays. Latasha Custis ran a strong leg in the 800 relay as she joined Teona Benson, Custis, T. Smith and Spence. James took Custis' place on the 400 relay.

Nicole Faries annexed the 1600 in an unpressed 5.48 and the 800 in 2.38.6, with Danielle Main 39. Faries, T. Smith, Custis and Kim Hutson captured the 1600 relay. Hoffman of Dover, whose father ran here, had a pair of seconds and was first at 3200 meters, followed by Hrupsa and Vincent.

In the high jump, Custis, Sarah Moore and Jennifer Black swept. Latoya Smith won the long jump (15-1 1/2) with Crystal James next (15 feet). Latoya (32-2 1/2), T. Benson (31-5) and James (30-2 1/2) got all the triple jump points.

Sequoyah Guinn (109-7), Candi and Nikki Smith had their way in the discus. C. Smith and Guinn went 2-3 in the shot.

Latoya Smith got second in the 300 hurdles in 52 seconds, with Teresa McTeer 2nd. McTeer and Danielle Main got 2nd and 3rd in the 100 hurdles.

Hutson and Custis were 2nd and 3rd at 400 meters.

Lake Forest officials search for alternatives

By Gregory S. Layton
Staff writer

Two referendum questions did not fail Tuesday for "lack of trying, lack of care," said Lake Forest Buildings and Grounds Supervisor John A. Gateau.

But, now that district voters have shot down a proposed tax increase to fund operations, renovation and construction, administrators must turn their energies and care to other means of school improvement.

"This is an evolutionary process," said Lake Forest Superintendent James H. VanSciver.

In the wake of its failed referendum, the district appears to have no contingency plan in place to address budgetary and building concerns. However, administrators insist, planning is under way to chart the future.

Dr. VanSciver said two committees would meet to discuss options.

Meetings to address the budgetary shortfalls began in April. Mr. Gateau is currently organizing groups to discuss building concerns.

With the district losing $308,000 in state equalization next year, Dr. VanSciver said cuts would even be considered in "the superintendent's pay" and delaying installation of a computer lab at Lake Forest North Elementary.

A second meeting will bring community members, parents, and more students into the mix. Their suggestions will be discussed during the next board meeting.

School board candidate David O. Henderson has voiced concern that the district was not adequately prepared for the failure of the referendum.

"You don't come out the day after the referendum and say 'we have a problem,'" he said.

The defeat hasn't gone unnoticed at Legislative Hall, either.

State Sen. Colin R. J. Bonini, R-Dover, said Delaware legislators need to take a good, hard look at the funding of schools. Many of Sen. Bonini's constituents are in the Lake Forest School District.

"I absolutely believe in the referendum process and the will of the people," he said, "but I think that equalization puts incentives in the wrong places. The General Assembly, the governor, educators and taxpayers groups need to sit down and evaluate the equalization formula."

Short-handed Spartans get 3rd in Henlopen track finals

By Keith S. Burgess

Jim Blades' LFHS track team ended the dual-meet season with an 86-60 decision over Dover. The 8-1 Spartans scored upsets in a couple of events that the Senators were supposed to win. The locals freshman sprint prospect sped to a 11.3 100 meters, with Lionel Cartwright next in 11.4. Dover's Trott was the favorite. Russ also was second at 200 meters in 23.6.

Jabari Franklin's 15.2 110 high hurdles victory turned a few heads, while Richard Alexander's 15.6 got 3rd.

Lake Forest's state champion cross-country team captured all of the points in the distance runs. Sam Forester, Ben and Phil Oyerly and Brad Smith had a walkover in the 3200 meter relay. Forester (11.05), Dan Carter (11.06) and Pat Gleeson dominated the 3200 run.

Malcolm Hughes, Derick Gerardi and J.J. Laskiewicz did the same in the 800, as did Hughes, Carter and Gerardi in the 1600. Yann Haho was 2nd at 400 meters.

Art Noell (45.3) and Micah Parker (42.5 1/2) were 1-2 in the shot. Noell (128), Jason Daniels (117) and Scott McCarthy swept the discus.

Dion Gambles had good runner-up efforts in the long jump (20-7) and high jump (6 feet). Mike Stevenson was next with 5-10. Dehart, Williams and Dan Gleeson swept the pole vault.

of volunteers can parallel the demand for extensive training and certification required of fire, rescue, and ambulance volunteers who give of their time and knowledge freely. These volunteers spend long hours braving all types of conditions at the State Fire School and other locales learning the critical job of saving lives and property.

No other group faces the potential danger volunteer firemen do, sometimes on a daily basis.

How many of us are willing to leave the safety and comfort of our homes to answer the call for help at any hour of the day or night? These volunteers have jobs, families, and other commitments, just like you or me, but at the sound of the local fire whistle, they drop everything and come to your aid.

The men and women of this state and country who do answer the call are some of the most giving volunteers this nation has to offer. In addition to answering the emergency call, the volunteer fire service offers instruction available to all of us on fire safety, precautions, and how to get out if the tragedy occurs. Our school children are visited when volunteer fire-fighters hold special programs in the schools so that our children gain the knowledge of the dangers associated with fire. All these services are performed without pay. Just the generous offering of a caring neighbor who has volunteered.

I am proud to issue an annual study each September which details the cost savings provided by volunteer fire services versus a paid fire service. It would cost Delaware taxpayers an additional $85.4 million annually, via property taxation, if we paid fire service statewide. The City of Wilmington currently has the only paid fire service organization in Delaware.

There is a way to contribute even if you lack the time to volunteer. The next time you pass your local fire company, stop by and say thank you. Maybe make a financial contribution toward equipment and services. You can do your part in many ways. I simply urge you to not forget the selfless sacrifices made very day by those in volunteer fire and ambulance service. They should have had a mention and a standing ovation at the Philadelphia summit.

Rockemann finishes second in DeIDOT ROADEO

By Carol Ann Porter
Editor

The Delaware Department of Transportation's best equipment operators recently participated in the 1997 DeIDOT Truck ROADEO at Killen's Pond parking lot.

In the preliminary competition, Robert Rockemann, 37, of Felton, who works out of Harrington, Area 6, took second place. Out of a possible 2,250 points, Mr. Rockemann scored 1,895. He also scored very high on the obstacle course with a quick driving time.

Three equipment operators from each district and expressway competed in ten driving events, a multiple choice, true/false test on basic knowledge of Commercial Driver's License (CDL) requirements and a timed truck inspection.

The top four equipment operators in order of points were Norman R. Chipman, Turnpike; Robert L. Rockemann, Harrington; Alexander "Bud" Robinson, Turnpike; and Dallas T. Wright, Gravel Hill.

These four winners of the DeIDOT ROADEO finals will represent the department and compete against their peers at the Third Ohio Invitational ROADEO on May 21 and 22.

DRS. DuSHUTTLE & ROWE, P.A.

Glen D. Rowe, D.O.

SPORTS INJURIES

In all sports injuries, an effort is made to safely return the athlete to participation in his or her sport as quickly as possible. A properly prescribed and aggressive physical therapy program, modification of activities, and medication can all be useful in achieving that goal. A team effort and cooperation among the player, parents, physician, therapist, and coaches results in a timely recovery and a healthy outcome.

Dr. Rowe has a special interest in sports medicine. Following his orthopedic surgery residency which included assisting in the care of the Cleveland Browns and Cavaliers, he spent a year at the St. Louis Sports Medicine Clinic. There he helped cover the sports medicine needs of 31 high schools, including the 1989 National Champions of Football (East St. Louis Flyers). He toured as a race physician nationally while covering the SCCA circuit. He treated members of the U.S. Olympic Biathlon team and the St. Louis Ballet Company, and was team physician for the semi-pro St. Louis Gamblers football team.

Since his arrival in Dover in 1990, Dr. Rowe has joined Dr. DuShuttle in covering area high school football games and wrestling matches. In addition, Drs. DuShuttle and Rowe are the official physicians for the conference and state wrestling tournaments.

If you have questions about a sports injury or would like to schedule an appointment in our Dover, Milford, Seaford or Smyrna office, please call 678-8447, 424-0690 or 628-7702. Our doctors are on call twenty-four hours a day for emergencies, and Saturday appointments are also available.
