Harrington Perspective

Rev. Herman Lipsius

What do I like about Harrington?

"I like the graciousness of the people and the pace of life here in Harrington."

Harrington Historical Society has busy month

By Grace Welch

There will be a Veteran's Day Service at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11 at the Harrington Museum located at 108 Fleming St. in Harrington.

The Blue Diamond V.F.W. Post 6921 and the American Legion C.K.R.T. Post No. 7 will combine efforts to pay homage to those who served in their country's armed ser-

There will be a memorial service to dedicate the service honor roll and the flag poles and flags.

G. Robert Bobby Ouillen will be the keynote speaker. The Legion will provide a chaplain and the two organizations will assist in the raising of the flags.

There are other aspects of importance to a program such as this, but we want to entice you to come and participate, so we will not tell all that is planned.

We will tell you, however, that there will be refreshments served after the ceremonies. We will have homemade cookies, coffee and punch provided by the Ladies Auxiliary of the V.F.W.

Please try to attend this very important event. The museum will also be open for viewing.

Ron Messick withdraws council seat petition

By Carol Ann Porter,

Harrington City Manager Leonard Coryell announced recently that Mr. Ronald Messick, candidate for 1st Ward councilman has made the following statement: "Due to the complexity of my business and prior obligations, and feeling that I cannot give full attention if elected to the council seat, I hereby withdraw my name for candida-

The 1st ward seat is now held by Mr. Gary Wyatt, and since no one is running against him, he will remain the incumbent councilman for that

Volunteers beef up for dumpling dinner at Asbury

By Carol Ann Porter,

It's that time of the year again. . . beef and dumplin' dinner time at the Asbury United Methodist Church in Harrington. Last year, volunteers from the church's congregation served up more than 500 platters to diners who ate in and more than 125 diners to those who preferred to take their dinners

According to Mrs. Betty Taylor, coordinator for the annual event, this year's menu will be the same as previous years. "You know what they say. Don't mess with a good thing," she laughed.

The menu consists of beef and dumplings, real mashed potatoes, turnips, string beans, cole slaw, sweet potatoes and homemade cakes for dessert.

This year's dinner will be served from 4 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 8. Several volunteers begin preparing for the festivities the Wednesday before the dinner.

How do these volunteers prepare for such a feast as their annual beef and dumpling dinner? "Well," says Mrs. Taylor, "It takes about 120 lbs. of flour, 250 lbs. of white potatoes, five baskets of sweet potatoes, nine baskets of turnips, 13 heads of cabbage and more than 300 lbs. of beef.

Mr. Guy Winebrenner, the dumpling maker, says that everything is bought locally and that the heads of cabbage are enormous. They're not your ordinary heads," he said. "And we serve more than a half a lb. of beef to everyone," he added.

The dinner is served family style with people sitting at long tables and passing the food up and down the table. "There's a lot of fellowship in the dining room," said Mrs. Taylor. "But there's also a lot of fellowship in the kitchen," she smiled.

Mr. Winebrenner agreed and said that last year the women came in on Friday to peel potatoes and turnips and cook the sweet potatoes. Normally, another shift comes in that evening to relieve the women who have peeled all day. But Mr. Winebrenner said that the ladies were so caught up in their conversation, that they had the peeling done before the second shift arrived. "If you want the latest scoop, just come in and help peel," he laughed.

Mrs. Taylor has been volunteering at the beef and dumpling dinner for more than 10 years while Mr. Winebrenner doesn't remember how long he has made the dumplings, but he knows he's done it since its conception.

"Mrs. Pauline Hopkins taught me the secret to good dumplings," said Mr Winebrenner. "First, it is absolutely necessary for the dough rollers to roll the dumplings extremely thin," he said. "Then I drop them in one at a time after the broth comes to a rolling boil. You really have to get them in there quickly so that they can all cook evenly. Then you must stir them so that they don't stick together," he

Then he added that the most important aspect of making slip-pery dumplings is to know when they are done. "I can just look at them and know," he smiled.

Mr. Winebrenner's wife helps at the dinner as does Pat Garey and Sandra Butler. "If you are willing to volunteer, we will find you a job," laughed Mr. Winebrenner.

Harrington BPW selects "Woman of the Year" and "Employer of the Year"

By Carol Ann Porter,

Harrington Business and Professional Women (BPW) joined BPW Delaware last week in marking the 69th National Business Women's Week (NBWW) October 20-24. As part of the celebration and in special recognition of their contribution to the community, Harrington BPW has named Kimberly Vincent its Woman of the Year and Felton Bank, Employer of the Year.

Harrington BPW is one of 2,500 chapters nationwide. They join the state federation this year with an emphasis on honing women's leadership skills through the BPW/ Delaware Institute for Leadership Development. The institute is a certificate program offering a yearlong series of seminars and work-

Kimberly Vincent, Harrington BPW's nominee, was recently recognized by the city of Harrington and was presented with a proclamation from Mayor William H. Porter recognizing the week of Oct. 20-24 as National Business Women's Week.

Mayor Porter urged all citizens in Harrington, all civic fraternal groups, all educational associations, all news media and other community organizations to join in the salute to working women by encouraging and promoting the celebration of the achievements of all business women as they contribute daily to economic, civic and cultural purposes.

As a successful business woman herself, Kimberly Vincent was recently promoted to Retirement Services Manager in the State of Delaware Office of Pensions. In 1996, she was selected to participate in the Duke University Strategic Leadership for State Executives.

She received her Master of Business Administration Degree in 1994 and was proclaimed a Delaware Governor's Management

Harrington woman wins pie contest at Apple-Scrapple Festival

By Carol Ann Porter. Editor

Barbara Hanson of Vernon was 'pie-eyed" when she learned that she had won the pie baking contest at this year's Apple-Scrapple Festival in Bridgeville held on Saturday, Oct. 11. "I was so surprised," said Mrs. Hanson. Although she wasn't present when her name was announced, she was told by a friend in church that Sunday that her pie won the taste test.

"I called someone affiliated with the pie baking contest, and they confirmed that I had won," said Mrs. Hanson, who has worked as a health assistant for the past 27 years in the Lake Forest School District. "I won there four years ago, but I was still surprised," she

Mrs. Hanson's pie recipe was "Applesauce Pie." She said it is an old recipe that she has had for a long time. "I just added to it," said Mrs. Hanson, who shares her baked goods with associates at W.T. Chipman Middle School. "I like to share my baking," she laughed.

Mrs. Hanson received a $500 savings bond for her winning pie recipe. This was not her first time as a winner in the pie baking contest. "I won there four years ago with a different pie recipe," she added. She also won the pie baking contest at the Fifer's Orchard pie baking contest two years ago with her delicious peach pie recipe.

How did her pie recipe win out over the others? "It's just pure luck," she speculated. "But I must tell you that my mother was a won-derful cook," she smiled.

Fellow for the 1992-93 year.

Kim's long list of credentials does not stop there. She is also very active in the community and in the political arena. She is very supportive of all activities geared toward women helping women and has been involved in other business, professional, service and religious organizations.

She has served in almost every capacity possible in the Harrington BPW including serving on the Scholarship Committee and Finance Committee. She has served as the Women in History reporter, Issues Management chair, Scholarship chair, National Business Women's Week Luncheon Education Series chair, 1st Vice President, Delaware's Young Careerist, Make A Difference Day coordinator, Sexual Harassment Roundtable coordinator, Domestic Violence Coordinating Council liaison, Legislative Platform Representative to National Convention and is now serving as the Harrington BPW President.

She is a project leader in the program TROTS (Therapeutic Riding on the Shore), 4-H group, an executive committee member of the Association of Management Fellows Alumni and is an active supporter of domestic violence

Her greatest effort is probably helping to ensure equality among women and men. Kim believes that her philosophy of trying to ensure this begins with the children.

"In every activity that I have been involved in where children are the focus, equality is expected and never deviated from. In my home, my daughter and son are given free reign to try whatever activity they are interested in regardless of their gender," she said.

"In the daycare where I have been involved, equality is also the norm. In addition, the 4-H clubs encourage equality regardless of gender. I think that this, in addition to supporting the self-esteem of today's young girls, will ensure equality among tomorrow's men and women," she concluded.

-The Felton Bank, Harrington BPW's Employer of the Year -

Local and State BPW's throughout the nation honor employers who display responsiveness to the needs of women employees by initiating policies such as flextime, parental leave, child care programs, and equal access training.

The National Council on the Future of Women in the Workplace developed the criteria for the award in connection with a Council Project. After recognizing benefits of working closely with the corporate sector, BPW/USA included this award with the National Business Women's Week program.

The Felton Bank at 120 W. Main St. in Felton, Delaware was the Harrington BPW's nomination for Employer of the Year. The Felton Bank's CEO is Barbara C. Jarvis. The bank employees 28 employees, of which 24 are women. There are eight managers, and five of them are women.

Other provisions and policies of the Felton Bank are as follows: •Pays for employees to take college and AIB courses; •Employees are cross-trained to learn different jobs; ·Every effort is made to work with an employee when there is a conflict with home and work;

·Management has children of their own so they understand the pressures of being a working parent and they do everything they can to support the employee;

•There are upgraded pension plans for female employees.

According to management at the Felton Bank, their employees are all treated as equals no matter what their gender. The excellent benefits and the opportunity for advancement is extended to everyone.

He added that if the dough rollers fail to roll the dumplings thin enough, they get sent back to be re-rolled. "Don Garey and Ralph Butler are in charge of seeing that the dumplings are rolled thin enough," said Mrs. Taylor. "If they aren't, they send them back."

As for the flavor of the dumplings, Mrs. Taylor has heard comments that they are the best dumplings people have ever eaten. Jeannette Holloway, 85, of Harrington buys 25 or more tickets each year. "They are for my family," she said. "When you get my age, you don't feel like cooking big meals anymore, so this is their Thanksgiving feast," she smiled.

Mr. Holloway said it is a won-derful time of fellowship for her family. Most of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren try to attend each year.

Mr. Winebrenner said it is a great time to get together and discuss what's going on in town. "And the food is wonderful," he said. He added that people don't have to wait outside in the cold or rain. There is room for them to wait in the sanctuary if the line is too long. They can also shop while they wait. The Methodist women have a craft and bake sale on the stage during

Mrs. Taylor has been a member of the Asbury United Methodist Church for more than 17 years while Mr. Winebrenner has been attending a little longer. "I've been a member here for nigh onto 53 years," he smiled. He is a trustee in the church and has taught a Sunday school class for almost 60 years. He also is the district president of the Dover District Methodist Men and is on the Pastor Parish Relations

Mrs. Taylor is the kitchen coordinator, sings in the choir and is on the Administrative Council.

"It's a family style dinner," said Mrs. Taylor. "And it's a family style effort in the kitchen," she smiled. "It's a lot of hard work, and when it's time to clean up, we are all give out," she said. "But we always look back and think about how much fun we had doing it."

Mr. Winebrenner said that the new pastor, Rev. Herman Lipsius, is the official public relations person. "He will greet, meet and seat people," said Mr. Winebrenner.
"That's a good way to get to know the people in Harrington," he said. Mr. Winebrenner added that it takes a lot of volunteers to prepare for a feast such as this. "We've only named a few, but there are many volunteers who donate a lot of their time and talent But it's all for a good cause" he concluded.

Tickets are $7.50 for adults and $3.00 for children under 12. Takeouts are $7.50. Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased by calling Franklin Hendricks at (302) 398-3232 or Mr. Guy Winebrenner at (302) 398-8563.

Harrington Police Report

On Friday, Oct. 24, Harrington Police arrested Brandon Lee Rust, of Greenwood, for charges of possession of marijuana, maintaining a vehicle, possession of drug paraphernalia, possession with the intent to deliver marijuana, three counts of forgery and endangering the welfare of a child. He was processed at Harrington Police Dept. and transported to Court #7 for arraignment. He was released on a secured bond.

On Friday evening Harrington Police arrested Christopher A. Rust, 41, of Milford. He was topped for a traffic violation and subsequently arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol. He was charged with displaying a fictitious registration plate and driving under the influence of alcohol. He was released pending a future arraignment at JP Court 6.

On Sunday evening, Harrington Police arrested three Virginia Beach, VA, residents after their vehicle was stopped for speeding. Police detected an odor of suspected marijuana coming from the vehicle and subsequently located a small amount of the substance inside the vehicle. Arrested were Gina Naimo, 17, Justin Williams, 21, and Kalecia Dant, 18. All three were released pending future arraignment.

Harrington Police arrested Jon E. Smith, 18, of Bridgeville, for possession of cocaine, intent to deliver cocaine, intent to deliver within 1,000 feet of a school, intent to deliver cocaine within 300 feet of a recreational area, possession of paraphernalia, trespassing and an outstanding CCP capias. Police responded to Clarks Corner to a report of a subject armed with a handgun. Smith was interviewed when he exactly matched the description and the cocaine was discovered. Smith is incarcerated at DCC in default of $35,505 secured bond pending a preliminary hearing.

On Thursday, Oct. 23, Harrington Police arrested Manuel S. Guallpa, 28, of Harrington, for unlawful sexual contact after police investigated a report incident. Mr. Guallpa was arraigned at JP7 and released on $500 unsecured bond pending a hearing at Court of Common Pleas.

Notes & News

from the Harrington Business Community

By Linda Chick

Halloween is a holiday meant for fun! It is the Mardi Gras for little people with color, mystery, parties and special treats. Because kids are what Halloween is all about, that spirit is extended to UNICEF and the traditional orange coin boxes. Trick or Treaters in American communities are invited to become fundraisers for needy children around the globe. This money is pooled with donations, grants and assessments from among the 150 member countries.

UNICEF is as old as the United Nations itself and was created following World War II to provide emergency services to childhood victims of war. Over the years, that role has expanded to embrace a more holistic view of the child and the woman in developing or strife-ridden countries.

Here are a few facts that underlie the need for UNICEF as never before: Two million children have been killed in the last 10 years as a result of war; Five million children have been disabled in that time by war; One million have been orphaned; Ten million have been psychologically traumatized by the horrors of war.

And how war has changed! In World War I, 90% of deaths were military personnel. Today, that number is 10% with an overwhelming 90% civilian casualties; and more than 50% of these are women and children.

The rules of war have changed too. Today's conflicts are internal, driven by ethnic, cultural and religious motives. Those in authority are rebels and and all negotiations for humanitarian relief must be with rebel lead-

There are psychological changes as well. Life is so devalued among warring factions that women and children have become the deliberate tar-

Those children who do survive, if they are boys, are conscripted into the army almost as soon as they can carry a gun. The girls are "recruited" as wives for the soldiers or are just plain raped and discarded.

When peace comes, after years, even decades of war, an entire generation will have grown up with no formal education. Without a native force of skilled workers, the newly liberated country is left in great turmoil. There are no builders, no teachers, no nurses, no doctors, except the few brought in to begin the social and economic recovery.

Given the horror of war and the desolation of slow recovery, what can UNICEF do? For more than 50 years this agency has continuously served children -- during war once an area is declared safe and in peacetime, building and re-building.

Today's UNICEF is a coordinator of programs and people -- building coalitions and using the best talents of each. Field workers are hands-on and passionate with mission. They teach by doing, helping and training people to help themselves. They continue to offer protection and emergency assistance when needed and wherever, children are helpless victims of war and circumstance. UNICEF remains a voice for those who have

For our part, we can help by dropping coins into the orange UNICEF boxes wherever they appear.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Although a resident of Georgetown, I have had the privilege to work in the small but friendly community of Harrington for the past three years. While I have worked here, I have noticed that everyone knows everybody else (I am not sure whether that is good or bad SMILE). The fact now is that I know more people here than I do in my hometown.

Before I began to work here, the only thoughts of Harrington that ran through my mind were of the State Fair and that was only once a year. (I went there four times this

Since I have taken another job in my hometown, I shall be forced to see the people that I have met while working here less, but I shall never forget all my wonderful friends, customers and co-workers. This letter is not to say goodbye, but to say that I shall see you all

Halloween was established by the church

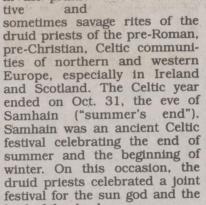

By Tom Johnson

Is Halloween good or bad? Is Halloween really a satanic celebration, as some believe? Is it possible to separate fact from myth? To find the answers to these questions we must go back in time, even before the advent of Christianity. Back in time when there were a variety of cultures, beliefs and customs.

The end of October is a popular time for many cultures to celebrate; especially farming cultures. It's the end of the growing sea-One these celebrations is seen Tom Johnson in the primi-lord of the dead. The Celts believed that on Oct. 31 the lord of the dead assembled the souls of all those who died the previous year. It was claimed the departed souls roaming abroad sometimes played tricks on Oct. 31 and the druids sought to appease them by sacrificing horses and human

Other cultures had similar festivals around the same time. Long before Christian times, the Romans celebrated the festival of Pomona, goddess of gardens. It is believed that offerings of the winter stores of nuts and apples were made to her and that the dieties of fire and water were propitiated to aid in the growth of the crops.

Witches may also have had regional meetings called sabbats on Oct. 31. The term sabbat is Old French and is derived in part from the Hebrew shabbath,

The origins of the sabbat seem to be a blend of seasonal pagan rituals. These sabbats revolve around the changing of seasons and agricultural observances and have nothing to do with devil worship or diabolical

From what is known of the sabbat and from other evidence, most contemporary scholars have come to the conclusion, that witchcraft was the survival of an ancient folk religion, essentially a fertility cult that prevailed throughout Europe before the advent of Christianity.

The term Halloween appears to have been derived from the All Hallows Eve vigil, which began to be celebrated around early 7the century. It was at this time that All Saints' Day, also All Hallows or Hallowmas, festival began to be celebrated on Nov. 1 in the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches in honor of God and all of his saints, known and unknown.

It was over a century later in 835 when Pope Gregory IV gave the custom official authorization and placed it in the church calendar. Nov. 1 was probably chosen because it was the day of one of the great festivals of the pagan nations of the north. It was church policy to supplant pagan with Christian observances. There are several theories about the origins of trick-ortreating. It seems to be related to the Gaelic practice of giving cakes to the poor at Samhain, the seasonal festival that coincides with All Souls' Day. They came to be called "soul-cakes," and in return recipients were obligated to pray for a good har-

However, the custom of trickor-treating also resembles an ancient Irish practice where groups of peasants went from house to house asking for money for which to buy luxuries for a feast and demanding that prepared for the occasion. Some scholars claim that masquerading on Halloween is derived from the medieval practice of celebrating All Hallows' Day with a procession around the church in which the local populace sometimes dressed as angels, patron saints, or even devils.

The familiar jack-o-lantern is also steeped in history. It supposedly came from art Irish tale of a man named Jack who was notorious for his drunkenness and for being stingy. As the story goes, he was barred from heaven or hell and was condemned to walk the earth with his lantern until Judgment Day.

Indeed the familiar customs of our Halloween — the games and pranks of children and grown-ups, together with the ghostly tales by the firelight - fatted calves and black sheep be are relics of our ancient past. However, these customs no longer hold their original meaning. They've been transformed into a joyous celebration for kids and adults alike.

In fact, in a lot of communities you're likely to hear kids saying "Trick or treat for UNICEF" (the United Nations Children's Fund). This worthwhile Halloween project gained a presidential proclamation of Oct. 27, 1967, covering all successive years, making Oct. 31 National UNICEF Day in the United States. It's evident that these cultures, from which our modern customs have been derived, were definitely non-Christian, but to say they were satanic is

'Let the others have their turn'

I have a viewpoint for the sound off about Halloween. We've always handed treats out on Halloween but these year we won't be handing any out. Last year there were a lot of teenagers out. The city says trick or treating is for the children under 12. They spoiled a fun night for the younger children. The teenagers had their turn to trick or treat. Now let the others have their turn. It seems to us the parents should have stopped them from going collecting candy.

Why were our senators surprised?

The news last week was filled with the atrocities and the Gestapo tactics of the IRS. We've been exposed first-hand to the manipulations and scare tactics on television. Many Americans knew we what we were up against in dealing with this out of control bureaucratic agency. One must wonder, then, why did our senators sit listening to these horror stories with surprised looks on their faces? We the American people knew what was going on for years. Surely our Congress didn't shield themselves from the truth, that we the people have tried to tell them, time and time again. Why has it come to this, you ask. Because we stupid Americans have allowed the Democrats, for the last 40 years to, dominate our House of Representatives in Congress, while we stupid Americans were working ourselves to death to make a living. With the attention the Republicans have gotten with the IRS hearings and the outrage of the American people, 76 percent are out-

Who 'to take on next?'

I'm so sick of Republicans. Who else are they going to find to take on next? First it was President Clinton, then Vice President Gore, Janet Reno, now the IRS. Most of the people that are crying foul are the ones that already have money and probably are mad because they got caught trying to cheat.

Looking for civic-minded young people

Remember National Animal

Shelter Appreciation Week

So much of the news about young people these days seems to be focused on kids in trouble. What often gets overlooked is the fact that many young people across the country are doing wonderful, extraordinary things to improve their communities -- helping the less fortunate, protecting the environment, promoting racial understanding, and making a difference in countless other ways.

This has become increasingly evident to us at Prudential over the past two years as a result of The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards -- a nationwide youth recognition program based solely on volunteer service. Through this program, we have seen an incredible number of inspiring, committed young people who really care about their communities and are determined to make them better places to live. Their stories stand in marked contract to the all-toocommon stereotypes of American youth -- and give us ample reason to be optimistic about the future of our nation.

It's our hope that The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards will help call everyone's attention to the fact that young Americans can --

Sponsored in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, the awards are given annually to middle and high school students who have distinguished themselves through outstanding self-initiated community service.

The application period for this year's program is now underway. If you know someone age 11-18 or in grades 5-12 who deserves recognition for exemplary volunteer activity, urge them to contact their school principal for information and an application, or call our office at 734-2571. The deadline for submitting an application is October 30. Awards will be granted first at the school and state levels, and then ten national honorees will be named at a special ceremony in Washington, D.C., next May.

JAMES T. NORRIS

Marine Lance Cpl. James T. Norris, son of James T. Flamer of Magnolia, and Teresa L. Barlow of Harrington, recently returned to his home base of Camp Pendleton, Calif., after a six-month deployment to the Western Pacific and Indian Oceans, serving with the 15th Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU), embarked aboard the ships of the USS Boxer Amphibious Ready Group.

During the voyage, Norris participated in bilateral training exercises with regional allies. While in the Persian Gulf, the 15th MEU's Harrier aircraft flew air interdiction and armed reconnaissance missions. The MEU also participated in Exercise Iron Magic, an ongoing bilateral exercise designed to provide increased interoperability and enhance cooperation and coordination between U.S. Central Command naval amphibious forces and the armed forces of the United Arab Emirates.

Norris also participated in Exercise Infinite Moonlight, a bilateral training exercise enhancing the interoperability between the forces of U.S. Central Command and the Royal Jordanian armed forces. Pilots from the USS Boxer also patrolled the no-fly zone over southern Iraq in support of Operation Southern Watch.

Norris visited several liberty ports, including Australia, Eritrea, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Singapore and thailand, where the crew enjoyed the diverse culture. While in Eritrea, Norris and fellow Marines assisted in reconstructing efforts at the town's public library.

The 1994 graduate of Lake Forest High School joined the marine Corps in December 1995.

To introduce a new approach to dieting, free samples were given to 50 people. The average weight loss was over a pound a day for women and over 2 pounds day for men and these results are not typical. The Omicron Diet is a evolutionary new concept for unbelievably fast weight loss developed by Dr. William Morris of National Dietary Research, Washington, D.C. This significant breakthrough in metabolic weight control was made possible by the utilization of biological information over-looked by other diet programs. Pilgrim Chapel News

Our Sunday School began with in God has a future. Constant testithe opening prayer by Leon Smith. Garold Sherwood taught us the lesson, "A Struggle of Faith". He had five people read five excerpts from the Bible and the verses all contained God's promises. We are to encourage one another so that we may not be hardened by sin's deceitfulness. It is inappropriate for Christians to grumble and complain during difficult times, but to know that God is always faithful and trustworthy. Our beliefs are not always the most popular. However, we being the minority, must not loose faith in crucial times. God does make a difference. God has shown Himself to be more than adequate in all the adverse circumstances. We should focus on the fact that God is with us and not on the obstacles ahead of us. God leads us and gives to us. Our faith mony in the Bible gives us the following examples: Abraham was accounted righteous because of his faith (Genesis 15:6). David was entrusted with a kingdom because of his faith (2 Samuel 2). Daniel was spared in a lions' den because of his faith (Daniel 6:22). A woman was healed by Jesus because of her faith (Mark 5:34). Faith in God brings His blessing.

Rev. Scott welcomed all to Reformation Sunday and opened with a responsive reading from our hymnal. During the service we sang "The Church's One Foundation", "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" and "Rise Up, O Men of God". The choir sang "A Mighty Fortress is Our God".

The sermon was entitled "Protestant Principles" (Rom. 1:16-17). Rev. Scott said that our church is one body together and Christ is our Cornerstone. Rev. Scott called this a special Sunday.

On Oct. 31, 1517, a monk named Martin Luther, in the town of Wittenburg, Germany, produced a document showing the abuses of the medieval church and it sparked a religious "reformation". Luther published new Protestant doctrines asserting that the medieval church had wandered far from true Christianity and the scriptures. The basis for the reformation that Luther sought was "faith alone", "grace alone", and "scripture alone".

Luther took great risk in these publications and was threatened with excommunication and death. Yet his faith in Christ and knowledge of the scripture, that he boldly proclaimed, "I cannot, I will not recant! Here I stand.

Ten years after the start of the Reformation in 1527, Luther penned the words: That Word above all earthly powers. No thanks to them abideth; The Spirit and the gifts are ours Through Him Who with us sideth. Let goods and kindred go, This mortal life also. The body they may kill; God's Truth abideth still, His Kingdom is forever!

Today we are challenged to rise up and take our cross - follow Christ whatever the cost.

Spartan harriers end winning dual meet seasons

By Keith S. Burgess

Lake Forest's boys and girls cross-country teams each lost to Caesar Rodney powerhouses, in the finals of the dual meet season, at Brecknock Park last Thursday.

The Spartan boys lost only twice in duals and maintained their proud boast of no losing seasons ever, dating back to

The Rider boys are ranked second, in Delaware, and took a 16-42 verdict over the oncebeaten Spartans. Spartan No. 1 runner, Kris Thornton, was fifth in 17.48 with J.J. Laskiewicz and Ben Oyerly showing well in 7th and 8th, each in 18.03.

Freshman Mike Gleeson was 10th in 18.20 with senior Sam Forester 11th in 18.30. Brand SMith ran his best race ever getting 18.50, with Johnny September to November campaign. Despite 14 state champiare good efforts, but Division I C.R. has a powerhouse, under Coach Charley Bell, and is ranked No. 2 in Delaware.

The Spartan girls lost 18-40 against the No. 4 ranked Raiders, unbeaten thus far.

Nicole Faries for two seasons has been unbeatable against downstate rivals and has beaten every upstate rival, except Lauren Carr, last year's Division I state champ. At C.R. the splendid sopho-minute. As the race wore on Faries started to feel better and capped her comeback with a strong homestretch move, that carried her past another longtime rival, C.R.'s Miriam Poe. Poe also is a sophomore. The Henlopen Conference's best harriers are sophomores, with a few exceptions such as Milford's Melody Rudd and Sussex Central's Audrey Doughty, who was third, Thursday, in a meet with C.R.

Andrea Wyatt and Tina Knotts, the Spartans talented freshman duo were 7th and 8th, respectively, with fine performances against the top Henlopen team. Jackie Hansen had her best effort of the season. Latoya got off fast and lost Faries in the Smith, Christina Vincent and woods to prevail by almost a Danielle Main also ran well.

W.T. Chipman harriers run well at Caesar Rodney

By Keith S. Burgess

Baxter Smith's Chipman Middle School team ran well at Caesar Rodney, though the under-manned locals lost two meets to one of Delaware's largest schools.

The Riders own 27-29, in the girl's meet, as Chipman had only the bare minimum five girls.

However, the Riders couldn't handle the powerful 1-2 punch of state 7th - 8th grade champ, Holly Wilson and her "shadow" Lena Ewing. Wilson, winner of the Open Lake Forest Invitational up to 8th grade, won the test in 13.21, with Ewing next, in 13.30. The distance was not available. This duo is expected to step right into

"Top Five" spots, on the Lake Forest High School varsity in Ewing's improvement is easily documented. She was fourth, behind Wilson, in the Invitational. In a meet, in sussex County, she polished off the third place Invitational finisher. In this meet, she did the same to C.R.'s second place finisher, from that same Lake Forest Invitational. Also at a recent 5K held on the Dover Air Force Base, Lena took the first place trophy, in the Women's 19-and-under division, while Wilson won the trophy for first female finisher. Pretty good for two eighth graders, it says here. Katie Kindig, whose first race ever was in the Debbie Gerardi

Memorial 5K, made her debut for Chipman and was third on the team in a good effort as were those of Katie Kepfer and Lauren Williams.

Ryan Collins had a great race finishing on the heels of C.R.'s 5th runner. Ryan beat quite a few rivals. He's only a 7th grader, but his mother, Gina held a distance record, on the track team at Lake Forest High School and his then, Lee comes from the athletic Collins family.

Steve O'Beda was next for Chipman, followed closely by Jeremiah Collins. Joe Hrupsa was a few seconds behind Jeremiah. Robbie Horseman and Leon Smith completed the grind,

Just horsin' around

By Marv Bachrad

When doors swing open for Dover Downs 1997-98 season on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 9, not only will fans see Delaware's finest harness racing ever but an impressive number of "Fan Friendly" promotions will be offered. The 120afternoons of racing beings with $1.5 million in Matron Stakes in November alone plus $100,000 in daily purses for the meet. The lead off event is the $100,000 Progress Pace. Among the lineup of promotions are:

· "Family Fun Weekends" are on for the first-two weekends (Nov. 9 and 10 and Nov. 15 and 16). On those days: hot dogs and soft drinks will be sold at "1950's" prices. For youngsters, a Clown will make balloon animals and a Face Painter will be on hand.

• Nov. 30 marks the arrival of legendary pacer Niatross at Dover Downs. Considered by many the standardbred of the 20th century, Niatross will be available for fans to see up close and get a free Polaroid photo. The first 2,000 fans entering the grandstand will also receive a complimentary pack of the popular and colorful "Harness Heroes Cards" developed by Harness Horse Youth Foundation depicting great horses and drivers of the modern ear. There will be 200 packs with Niatross pictures and those patrons will get a free prize when they show their winning pictures at the Dover Downs contest booth.

 On four occasions in November, fans will be eligible for a major grand prize of between $10,000 and $100,000. A Brooks Armored Truck will be stations at the track with the money bags inside. After the last race, fans who write their name on the back of losing tickets are candidates for the giant payoffs. On Nov. 8, one person whose name is drawn will win a chance for a $10,000 grand prize. The following day, the prize mounts to $25,000 on Nov. 9 Losing contestants during the first two days of the drawings will win $25. If not won, the jackpot jumps to $50,000 on Nov. 22 with a losing selector receiving $50, while on Nov. 30, the Grand Prize becomes $100,000. Should there be no winner selected that day, the contestant will receive a $100 consolation

• On Nov. 8, Luc Quellette, the 1995 and 1996 Harness Driver of the Year and Dover Downs' 1996-97 leading driver, will spend a half hour in an autograph and question and answer session in the Simulcast area at Dover Downs from 12 Noon until 12:30 p.m.

• Every Saturday will be "Spin To Win" day. Patrons with a coded program will get a chance to spin the Dover Downs Wheel of future for a number of valuable prizes.

· Each Tuesday during the six-month meet will be "Bumper Sticker Day". Along with an official program, fans receive a Dover Downs Harness Racing bumper sticker. Those with bumper stickers on their vehicles will be eligible for a $100 reward if they respond to their license number being called over the Dover Downs public address system or hear their license number called during radio programming on WDSD-FM and WAFL-FM.

· A "Learn To Bet Class" will be held on Nov.. 8, 9, 22 and 30. The class, hosted by Marv Bachrad, will be held on the simulcast level at 12:15 and 12:40 each day. Those passing the test after each class will win a voucher for a free $2 bet.

There will be excitement galore, both on the track and in the grandstand, for Dover Downs patrons beginning on

HARRY W. BOYER

Harry W. Boyer of Farmington, Maine, died Saturday, Oct. 18, 1997, in Franklin Memorial Hospital, Farmington. Mr. Boyer was born March 22, 1911, in Pottsville, PA, the son of the late Harry A. and May Madera

He received his education in Pennsylvania schools.

Mr. Boyer was employed in the coal fields in Pottsville for several years. He later worked in local apple orchards and at Wheaton Industries in Millville, NJ, as a setup operator for making pharmaceutical bottles. He moved to Wilton, Maine, upon his retire-

He was a charter member of the Wilton Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons and was a former member of the Wilton Fish and Game, as well as the Wilton Senior Citizens. He was a 7th degree member of the Maine State Grange and had been master of Excelsior and Pomona Grange, where he also served as overseer, lecturer and on the executive committee. He was a 19 year member of the Mystic Valley Grange and had served that grange as secretary. Recently he had joined the Fernwood Grange. He was also a member of the Waldo Demiter Club, Seventh Club and was vice president and later president of that

Mr. Boyer also loved to work in his garden growing flowers, and making rugs on his loom. He was known for his love of singing, which he did at local nursing homes, as well as at many Grange events throughout Maine and New England. He also loved to put on skits with his partner at Grange events and enjoyed bass fishing in his free time.

He is survived by two sons, William Boyer of Seaford and Keith "Butch" Boyer of Lincoln; five daughters, Arlene Dorophan of Dover, Betty Shockley of Smyrna, Loretta LaVere of Felton, Frances Benson of Bridgeville, and Maureen Peters of Boothwyn, PA; two brothers, Robert Boyer and his wife Dot of Freeland, PA, and Paul Boyer of Knoxville, Tenn.; a sister Patricia and her husband John Kutch of Pottsville, PA; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and his companion, Loretta Ma. Hall of Wilton.

Service was Tuesday at Wiles Funeral Home, Wilton. The Rev. John Tolman officiated.
