SNOOPIE

OUT OF FASHION
Last Straw
Husband (angrily)—No money in the house, the gas bill not paid, the butcher threatening us, no money for decent cigars, and you go and buy a fur coat just because it was cheap!

HAS HIS NUMBER
Helpful
Old Lady—Where can I catch a street car, young man?
Young Man—By the handle of the door is the best place, lady.

Good Cause for Fright
Wife—Let me look at that letter you have just opened. I can see it's a woman's handwriting, and I noticed you turned pale when you read it.
Hubby—You can have it with pleasure; it's from your dressmaker.—Stray Stories Magazine.

On the Funny Side
FROM TOMICA
Three weeks after Jessie reached boarding school she began signing her letters "Jessica." Brother Tom didn't like it. He replied: "Dear Jessica: Dadica and Mornica have gone to visit Aunt Lizica. Uncle Samica is buying a new machine, but doesn't know whether to get a Chevica or a Fordica. The cowica had a calfica, and I was going to call it Nellica, but changed it to Jimica because it was a bullica. Your loving brother, Tomica.—Boy's Life.

HIGHER EDUCATION
Mother (when Tom had returned from his first day at school)—What did you learn at school today?
Tom—I learned to say "Yes ma'am," and "No ma'am."
Mother—You did.
Tom—Yep.

He'd Be Quiet
A young Englishman on a visit to the wild and woolly West decided to go riding. A cowboy asked, "Do you prefer an English saddle or a Western saddle?"
The Englishman looked puzzled. "What's the difference?" he asked. "The Western saddle has a horn," said the cowboy. "I don't think I'll need the horn," said the Englishman. "I don't intend to ride in heavy traffic."

Indeed, No!
Mrs. O'Jawsh—Well, Mrs. Murphy, I'm glad to see you. How did you like your trip abroad this summer?
Mrs. Murphy—Well, I liked Paris, London and Rome, but the best part of the whole thing was the trip over. Don't miss that, whatever you do, if you ever go to Europe.—Pearson's Weekly.

On the Spot
Mrs. Snapp—If I were to die, Schipio, would you marry again?
Schipio—That isn't a fair question, dear.
Mrs. Snapp—Why isn't it a fair question?
Schipio—Well, if I were to say "Yes" you wouldn't like it, and to say "No" wouldn't sound nice either.

Absolutely Safe Matches
Betty—Here, mom, are the matches.
Mrs. Jones—But Betty, they won't light!
Betty—That's strange. I tried them all and they were perfect.

IRONED OUT
He's a professional humorist—writes for the press, y' know.
Yes, I know—that's why most of his jokes are so flat.

In the Dark
Called unexpectedly to perform the last sad rites, a clergyman suddenly became conscious of the fact that he had not even learned the sex of the departed.
He turned to one of the mourners and whispered: "Brother or sister?" "Cousin!" the relative whispered back.

Already Convinced
Meeker—I read in the papers that science has discovered that singing warms the blood.
Socksman—I don't doubt it at all. I've heard singing that has made my blood boil.—Safe Driver.

Generous
Stern Parent (to applicant for daughter's hand)—Young man, can you support a family?
Young Man (meekly)—I only wanted Sarah!—Tit-Bits magazine.

Properly Worded
Lawyer—I think it best that you should just ask him to refund the money. You know, just a polite little note.
Client—That's a good idea. How do you spell "scoundrel"?—Stray Stories magazine.

Stung
Twerp—Jeepers! What a dirty look that old gal gave you!
Twill—What old gal?
Twerp—Mother Nature.—Washington Post.

Accuracy
Captain (to gunner)—See that man on the bridge five miles away?
Gunner—Yes, sir.
Captain—Let him have a 12-inch in the eye.
Gunner—Which eye, sir?

The Whole Boy
Grandmother—If you'll wash your face I'll give you a piece of candy. And if you wash behind your ears I'll give you two pieces.
Junior—Grandmother, maybe I'd better have a bath!

Star Dust
So Back Came Olivier
A Chance for Stardom
Air and Screen Lure
By Virginia Vale

LAURENCE OLIVIER startled Hollywood the other day by telling a bit of unflattering truth about himself. Recently imported to play opposite Merle Oberon in "Wuthering Heights" for Samuel Goldwyn, he announced that he was fired the last time he was in Hollywood, and went home determined never to go there again. After all, he'd made a success on the stage, both in London and New York—why should he bother with pictures? Especially if pictures wouldn't bother with him!

LAURENCE OLIVIER

Resentfully he departed. But he couldn't resist Mr. Goldwyn's persuasions, backed by a handsome pay check. Incidentally, "Wuthering Heights" will give us something comparatively rare on the screen nowadays—a villain who isn't an American, but is Mr. Olivier, who's British as can be.

One number in Fred Astaire's "The Castles" may be a star-maker. It's "The Girl on the Magazine Cover" and for it Hermes Fan, the picture's dance director, is interviewing 1,000 girls, in order to select the eight prettiest girls in Hollywood. With a start like that, at least one of them ought to have her name above theaters in lights before another year passes.

To return for a moment to "Wuthering Heights," when you see the picture you'll also see great masses of what appears to be real Yorkshire heather. Give credit for that to Nick Stadler, who can trick Mother Nature herself. That heather is made from about 10,000 plain American tumble weeds. The bushes farthest from the camera were sprayed with purple sawdust.

Lanny Ross made two guest appearances on the CBS Hit Parade and was promptly signed up for a full year. It's his first regular radio assignment since he broadcast from Hollywood several months ago.

Patricia Crosby, Bing's fourteen-year-old niece from Seattle, was a visitor at one of her uncle's broadcasts recently, but she refused to sit in the audience. She and her father and mother listened from a booth off-stage, because Patricia thought their presence "might make Uncle Bing nervous."

John Griggs, who plays the villain, "Zero Smith," in the "Howie Wing" radio serial, can have a respite from playing villains if he wants to. Sinclair Lewis has offered him a part in the stage play that he and Fay Wray have written. Griggs thinks he'll take the part if Mrs. Griggs can have one too.

Movie folk have something new to worry about these days. Many of them have been appearing on radio broadcasts that originate on the Coast, and liking both the experience and the pay checks. In fact, it's getting so that a movie actor is likely to feel that he can't really be popular unless he's a success on the air as well as on the screen. So—every little while up bob rumors that most of the big radio programs now aired from the Coast have decided to return to New York.

GDDS AND ENDS—Getting a watch isn't so difficult as it used to be, if you live in New York; you just get a place on one of the quiz programs that gives watches to winners, and there you are! Dog owners near by Bob Becker's "Chats About Dogs," aired on NBC every Sunday afternoon; he's an authority. © Western Newspaper Union.

Provide Feed for Unborn Beetles
After burying the dead bodies of birds or small mammals, sexton beetles lay their eggs in the decaying flesh, so that the emerging young may be born amidst an ample food supply.

Trembles at Slightest Touch
The maiden Cephalis called upon the gods to protect her from Pan, who was pursuing her, and was changed into a mimosa just as he seized her in his arms. The plant still trembles at the slightest touch.

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

THIS bag has been a great success. Several others can be made for different purposes. They are good to hang in the closet or the sewing room for patterns or small equipment. When traveling I find a little bigger one perfect for laundry. The size shown here requires 3/4 yard of bright ticking. You will notice in the sketch that French seams are used. This makes the first stitching of the seams on the right side. Trim close to this stitching, turn the bag inside out and stitch the seams again so that the raw edges are covered. Punch a small hole in the center top for the hanger hook. Clip today's lesson and add it to the many gift suggestions contained in the books offered below.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears' Book 2—Gifts, Novelties and Embroidery, has helped thousands of women to use odds and ends of materials and their spare time to make things to sell and to use. Book 1—Sewing, for the Home Decorator, is full of inspiration for every homemaker. These books make the most delightful gifts. Mrs. Spears will autograph them on request. Books are 25 cents each. Crazypatch quilt leaflet is included free with every order for both books. Address: Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplaines St., Chicago, Ill.

Wise and Otherwise
A rumor is often very skippy, but it soon gets round all the same. It's not much of a brag when a man tells another he has forgotten more than he has ever known. Courtship makes a man spoon, but marriage makes him fork out. Work is the secret of success, says the millionaire. Yes, but you've got to get other people to do it for you. Have you heard of the absent-minded gangster who held his machine-gun on his lap and fired his secretary.

Just Jestis
It's a Dress
My wife is very busy. She's going to address the women's club. I suppose she's working on the address.
No, the dress.
Customer (to head waiter)—Just as a matter of curiosity, did the waiter who took my order leave any family?

Qualified
A comet is a star with a tail," said teacher, giving the class a lesson about the stars. "Can anyone name a comet?"
Yes, miss," cried one little lad, "Mickey Mouse!"

Topsy Turvy World
Customer—Isn't the price rather high for such a little pillow?
Shop Assistant—Well, you see, madam, down is now up.

Right Road
The truck driver was unfortunate enough to run his car into a house where a woman stood ironing. Having lost his nerve he did not know what to say and blurted out: "Can you tell me the way to Detroit?"
Yes, straight past the sideboard and then to the left past the piano," replied the woman.

Or What?
Police Sergeant—Give the prisoner a bath and clap him in irons.
Crook—Gosh! First I was collared, now I'm being washed and ironed. Is this a police station or a laundry?

It's No Disgrace to Be Gray!
Still, in these modern youthful times, it's often a handicap, particularly in the business world. How much better to disguise this condition by the application of LEA'S HAIR PREPARATION as thousands have already successfully done. No magic about it, but repeated applications give gray, faded hair a shade approximating the original without that "dyed" appearance so quickly detectable in many hair-coloring products on the market. Even the first bottle gives appreciable results! If your druggist doesn't have it, send a dollar and your name and address—money cheerfully refunded if not satisfied. LEA'S TONIC COMPANY BRENTWOOD, MD.

You needn't grin and bear a cough due to a cold. Get Smith Bros. Cough Drops! Just 5¢! Smith Bros. Cough Drops are the only drops containing VITAMIN A. This is the vitamin that raises the resistance of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat to cold infections.

"FREE PRESS" DOESN'T MEAN—

The term "free press" was coined many years ago. It means the right of the press to print the news; it means that no one has the right to suppress editorial opinion. Yet, many people seem to misinterpret the term. Judging by the way the paper is asked to give away its work, many people must believe that "free press" means that you can get anything for the asking.

Over a period of years, no ten men combined in any town donate as much as the country newspaper.

State organizations, all of which are very much worth while, look to the papers for the needed publicity to keep said organizations going. The State Medical Association, the State Board of Health, the Red Cross Drive, the Tuberculosis Seal Sale, the Safety Council, the State Highway Department, the State Board of Agriculture, the State Board of Education, schools, churches, lodges, clubs, agricultural agents, 4-H Clubs, aid societies, library associations, hospitals, charity drives of all kinds, civic improvement drives—these and many other activities MUST have the aid of the newspapers.

The smallest newspaper in America gives at least $5,000 to its community in the way of free publicity yearly.

And despite the fact that all country newspapers give lavishly of their space and time, occasionally representatives of various organizations, when in need of small printing jobs, ask the publisher to cut under his regular price because the work is for a worthy organization. About all the organizations we know are worthy, doing laudable work, and if we reduce the prices to all of them, one worthy agency, the newspaper, will not exist very long.

Just why the paper should be the special objective we do not know. They never ask the railroad to reduce its freight rates because some freight is to be used by a worthy organization. Seldom are the merchants approached with such a suggestion—and they never ask the banker to reduce his interest rate from six percent to three because the money borrowed is to be used by a worthy organization. They do not hesitate to approach the editor—and some of them consider him selfish if he will not come across. A lot of people believe in a free press, a very, very free press.

KENT FIREMEN NAME OFFICERS

Joseph E. Swain, of Cheswold, was elected president of the Kent County Firemen's Association at their monthly meeting held at the Robbins Hose Company building on Wednesday evening. Mr. Swain will succeed F. Leslie Rentz of Frederica.

Other officers elected were: First vice-president, Fletcher Truax, of Smyrna; second vice-president, Emory Webb Houston; secretary, George Johnson, Frederica; treasurer, Willard Barcus Cheswold; directors, George Swain, Harrington; John M. Roe, Dover; Henry Albers, Camden; George Pollett, Houston, and George Lindale, Milford.

A welcome to the visiting firemen was extended by W. W. Pettyjohn, president of the Robbins Hose Company, and the response was made by C. W. Johnson, of Dagnolia. Mr. Pettyjohn presented a report of the schedul committee arranging meetings for each month and a printed card showing the list of meetings was authorized. The annual report of Mr. Rentz, the retiring president, was presented to the meeting.

During a general discussion of the recent destruction of the firemen's memorial monument on city hall plaza, Thomas E. Baker and Hughlett A. Golt defended the Dover city officials and members of Robbins Hose Company in the matter.

Lewis W. Walker, of Clayton, president of the State Firemen's Association, defended Mr. Pettyjohn's actions as a member of the committee in charge of the memorial. He stated emphatically that he did not blame members of Robbins Hose Company and felt that firemen throughout the State held the same attitude on the matter. Howard F. Sheldon, of Talleyville, condemned the lack of interest of some members of the monument committee.

Mr. Baker presented a suggested benefit dance to be held by the association and it was decided to hold this dance at the Frederica fire house on January 10th. Each fire company in the county will be requested to sell ten dollars worth of tickets for the affair.

SHERIFF APPOINTS DEPUTY

Sheriff-elect Grier H. Minner, of Woodside, has announced that deputy Sheriff Norris Adams, of Harrington, will continue to serve in that capacity during Mr. Minner's tenure of the Sheriff's office.

Mr. Adams has served as deputy sheriff under Levi L. Everett, Jr., the present sheriff. Mr. Adams is a former Mayor of Harrington and for a number of years was engaged in business there. He has always maintained a keen interest in the affairs of Harrington.

Since coming to the sheriff's office two years ago, Mr. Adams has made a number of friends in Court House circles. Early in the past campaign he was an announced candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff but withdrew from the race before the date of the primary election.

The appointment of Mr. Adams is the only one announced thus far publicly by any of the new officials who will take over various county offices on January 3rd.

The new Levy Court composed of Robert H. Hollett, of Clayton, Charles Peck, of Harrington, and Dawson Minner, of Magnolia, will have a number of appointments to make but it is not expected that these will be announced until the new Levy Court holds their first session at Dover.

Other changes in the county offices on January 3rd will see Joe C. Kirby, of Milford, succeeding E. Y. Williams, of Dover, as Recorder of Deeds, Harry B. Clark, of Smyrna, will become Register in Chancery and Clerk of the Orphans' Court, succeeding J. Merritt Hurd, of near Felton. Herman H. Johnson, of Milford, will succeed Harry Camper, of Felton, as Coroner.

146,000 ACCOUNTS ARE CARRIED BY BANKS IN DELAWARE

Forty-four banks of Delaware had a total of 146,000 accounts, of which 143,000 or 97.6 per cent, were of $5,000 or less, for the period of May 16, 1936, to September 21, 1938, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation reported at Washington Wednesday.

They had a total of $154,000,000 in deposits not exceeding $5,000 and of that amount $64,000,000 was insured. The most the corporation will insure is $5,000.

The report of the corporation showed insured deposits of 13,705 commercial banks had increased to $21,700,000,000 compared with $19,560,000,000 on May 13, 1936, the date when similar figures were last compiled for the nation.

The World as Seen by Christmas Candle-Light

What a remarkable contradiction it is that the feeble gleam of a Christmas candle should have greater power to light human paths of the future than all the giant searchlights of science!

In that light that came from Bethlehem, the harshness and roughness of life are mellowed. Hearts are warmed toward other hearts as no sunlight can warm them. Eyes filled with kindness for fellow men cannot see in this magical candle-glow, the distinctions of race or color, rank or station, wealth or poverty.

Mankind does not need more light on its problem today—but only that cleaner friendlier light that comes from its Christmas candles. May YOUR Christmas be a happy one.
