Greater Harrington Historical Society

Black History Month

Community Impact Award

The Greater Harrington Historical Society will present the annual Black History Month Community Impact Award to a maximum of four (4) people at the annual Black History Month program held in February. Nominations may be made by members of the Greater Harrington Historical Society, the Black History Month Planning Committee and the community at large. The decision of the Black History Month Planning Committee members is final. The following are considerations for the award. The nominee must:

- Be an individual. Groups or organizations are not eligible.
- Be a current or former resident of the Lake Forest School District attendance area.
- Have made positive profound changes in addressing real needs and helping large numbers of people within the local community., and
- Exhibit honesty and integrity.

In choosing the recipients, consideration will be given to the nominee's achievements from the past two years in addition to their previous accomplishments and ongoing contributions to our community. The number of nominations received for each nominee will have no bearing on the selection.
